REALLY A DEMOCRATIC VICTORY.

district, the banner Second, had voted 1,500 more men than were registered.

A comparison of the vote and registration proves the report untrue, but it shows that Judge Diver didn't let many of his followers neglect their duty.

The registration was 15,03 and the vote almost up to those figures.

Mr. Croker had predicted a plurality of about 70,000 in this city for Maynard, and from advices received from Kings County he was led to expect that the plurality for that gentleman in the two counties would be very close to 100,000.

But Kings County also scratched the election-returns juggler, and instead of giving him a plurality piled up one of almost 20,000 for his opponent—more than half that given to Maynard in New York County.

The following tables show the vote by Assembly Districts cast in this city for Secretary of State and for Judge of the Court of Appeals:

CONTROL OF THE CONVENTION.

Republicans Have It and Will Profit Thereby.

The election of a majority of the delegates to the Constitutional Convention by the Republicans will take from the Democrats the political advantage they hoped to have gained if in control of the Convention, and which they have fought years to obtain.

The Democrats expected to increase by constitutional enactment the number of Assembly and Senate Districts, of which there are now 128 of the former and 32 of the latter.

By the reapportionment that was to follow the Democratic cities were to have been given the largest number of representatives to offset the Republican majorities in the country districts.

The Republicans for years persistently refused to pass the Constitutional Convention law for this very reason. Now they are the masters of the situation and will reap the benefit.

AFTER SLEVIN'S MEN.

Parkhurst's Charges Lead to Indictments.

The recent charges brought by the Rev. Dr. Charles H. Parkhurst against Hugh Slevin, in which he alleged that Mr. Slevin was openly violating the Excise law and was unfit to serve as a member of the October Grand Jury, have resulted in the arrest of four men.

Dr. Parkhurst claimed that Hugh Slevin was the proprietor of saloons at 211 Bleecker street, 840 Broadway, 64 Seventh avenue and 74 Sixth avenue. The Grand Jury refused to indict their fellow member. They did, however, find indictments for violation of the Excise law against the following:

Timothy F. Paddell, of 211 Bleecker street; James Freeman, of 840 Broadway, James Thompson, of 64 Seventh avenue, and Owen McAleer, of 74 Sixth avenue.

Bench warrants were issued Nov. 3, and to-day the men were placed under arrest. They were taken to the District-Attorney's office this afternoon, where they furnished bail to the amount of $500 each.

Catarrh is Caused by Impure Blood

HOOD'S SARSAPARILLA MAKES PURE BLOOD

And Permanently Cures Catarrh.

Mr. J. M. Carnahan

I feel it my duty to tell people what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for me. I was troubled with catarrh quite bad for several years. I have taken several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, I am free from all symptoms of catarrh and clear in the head. I was also troubled with a rather weak stomach, which was very annoying, but Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me of all these troubles. I recommend Hood's Sarsaparilla to all as the best medicine I know of. I shall always speak a good word for Hood's Sarsaparilla. J. M. CARNAHAN, Patton, Ill. GET HOOD'S.

CROKER WILL NOT TALK.

The Election Is Over, He Says, and That Settles It.

Mr. Richard Croker is in anything but a pleasant humor today.

An "Evening World" reporter sent his card to Mr. Croker early this morning at the Windsor Hotel, and word came back that "Mr. Croker would see no one until 12 o'clock."

At 12 o'clock there were about a dozen people awaiting Mr. Croker's arrival in the big east room of Tammany Hall. At 12:20 o'clock he entered.

Mr. Croker seemed to have taken more than usual care in his personal appearance. He wore a Prince Albert coat, silk hat and patent leather shoes, and had evidently just come from the hands of his barber.

When he entered the room he was greeted by a pleasant "good-day" by those awaiting his arrival, but he was by no means pleasant or cordial in returning the salutations.

After a few minutes he took a seat in front of one of the Fourteenth street windows and looked out silently at the people passing by.

When "The Evening World" reporter approached him he looked around with a frown on his face and asked: "Well, what is it?"

"What do you think of the result of the election?" asked the reporter.

"You know the result, don't you?"

"Yes."

"Well, that is all that is necessary. I have nothing to say."

"To what do you attribute the defeat of the State ticket?"

"I have nothing to say."

"Do you think it was the feeling against Maynard that carried the whole ticket down?"

"The election is over and I have no opinion to express."

"But, Mr. Croker, your opinion would be of interest to the public."

"It isn't because my opinion is of interest that you want it. "The Evening World" only wants my opinion to make fun of it, and I won't say anything."

Here Mr. Croker turned around in his seat again, and indicated by a wave of his hand that the interview was ended.

GILROY BLAMES MAYNARD.

Says His Nomination Caused the Political Landslide.

Mayor Gilroy was up early this morning. At 10:30 o'clock he left his residence for the City Hall, where he was to preside at a meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment.

An "Evening World" reporter saw the Mayor just as His Honor was leaving his house. When asked his opinion in regard to the enormous defection in the Democratic ranks yesterday, he said:

"I have no opinion to express. The people have expressed the only opinion that is worth considering. There is no appeal from this expression of the voters."

In the walk from the Mayor's residence, 7 West One Hundred and Twenty-first street, to the car on One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, Mr. Gilroy did, however, make some comments on the result of yesterday's election.

When asked if he thought the defeat of the Democratic State ticket was due to the nomination of Maynard for the Court of Appeals, the Mayor said:

"I think the result yesterday was entirely due to the running of Maynard at Democratic convention."

"Was not the defeat in Kings County, where the defeat was most crushing, affected greatly by the renomination of Mayor Boody?"

"I do not care to state my opinion on that subject. Mayor Boody is a pleasant gentleman, and I know nothing against him. I think, however, that the conduct of the campaign in Kings County, and the outrageous methods of John A. McKinney, of Gravesend, contributed much to the result of affairs in Brooklyn."

"Indeed! I think that McKinney had much to do with the defeat throughout the State."

"Can the defeat of Maynard and the rest of the State ticket be regarded as a rebuke to Tammany?"

"Certainly not. On the contrary, I think the Democratic voters of the city have displayed a remarkable independence, have shown that they are not cowed, with impunity, nominate a man distasteful to them and expect him to be elected.

"The fact that those voters selected one man on the ticket for defeat, and voted for the rest of the ticket, in spite of material marking in blue off war, shows that the body of the voters are satisfied with the city government.

"The voters simply made an excellent independent demonstration. There is no doubt that many Democrats voted the Republican ticket. They were satisfied with the Democratic nominations, and at the next election they will, I think, return to the ranks of the party.

"In view of the recent reapportionment in the State, which was admitted by all to be fair, do you not think that a Republican victory is very significant?" he was asked.

"I certainly think it a veritable landslide," was the reply.

"Will legislation by the Republicans, in your opinion, affect the Democratic party?"

"There can be no legislation detrimental to the interests of the people as long as Governor Flower occupies the head of the Administration."

By this time the Mayor had reached the car at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Lenox avenue. He boarded it and left for down town. He said he was not feeling very well yet, but he felt it his duty to attend the meeting.

"WHAT GOV. FLOWER SAYS."

Ticket Dragged Down by a Sentiment, No' by a Candidate.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, Nov. 8.—It was 2:30 o'clock this morning when the Executive Chamber lights went out, and Gov. Flower and Senator Hill retired to rest. At that time the Governor conceded the defeat of the State ticket, but still hoped that the Senate could be saved out of the wreck. He said to the Associated Press reporter:

"The ticket was not dragged down by any of its candidates, but by a sentiment. The thousands of men who are out of work in the various cities attributed it to the Democracy and voted against the ticket without rhyme or reason. It has been a case of sacrifice of the State to pay the nation's debts.

"I think the party will profit by the defeat, which, I believe, is not a rebuke, but an unforeseen fatality that could not have been foreseen or averted."

Senator Hill declined to be interviewed, but conceded the defeat of his ticket.

It was late in the morning when the Governor returned to the Executive Chamber, and then he was willing to admit that it looked as if the Legislature was Republican also.

Gen. John Palmer, the newly-elected Secretary of State, said this morning: "The victory is a glorious one for the Republican party."

PECKHAM IS JUBILANT.

His Committeemen May, as Individuals, Prosecute Illegal Voters.

Wheeler H. Peckham, Chairman of the Committee of Fifty, appointed at the Cooper Union anti-Maynard meeting, was in a happy frame of mind this morning. Regarding the prosecution of illegal voters, he said he did not see how the Committee could do anything. He did not know what evidence it had. The Committee had achieved the objects for which it was appointed, and was now practically out of existence.

He was pleased that some individual members might see fit to make some arrests, but he did not think the Committee itself would do so.

Mr. Peckham felt jubilant over the defeat of Maynard, but he declined to express himself further than that it was "Most satisfactory."

He had many callers, who extended their congratulations on the work the Committee had performed.

STOKES TURNS UP IN TORONTO.

A Former New York Lawyer of Doubtful Sanity.

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 8.—A. E. Phelfer, alias G. H. Stokes, a New York barrister, was remanded at Police Court to-day to enable inquiries into his sanity and give the Crown authorities an opportunity to correspond with his friends in New York.

G. H. Stokes was arrested in this city in September, 1892, on the charge of improper conduct towards two women, of whose fortunes he came into the vicinity of engaging rooms. He was put under $500 bonds to keep the peace. It was then said that he had been in two insane asylums, but at Bellevue Hospital he was declared sane.

Before taking his leave he was arrested for a time in his apartments, house at 214 East Fourteenth street by three officers. He is of powerful physique.

He was made correspondent in the suit brought about recent divorce suit by Duncan Sullivan, an advertising agent, who sued Stokes for $5,000 damages after he got his decree. Stokes fled to China, and when he returned to this country, shot a man in San Francisco. He was then confined for a time in the Stockton (Cal.) Insane Asylum.

FLINT TO BUY MORE VESSELS.

Negotiations Opened to Increase Peixoto's Fleet.

That portion of Brazil's new navy which is lying idle out here will soon be ready to proceed against Admiral Mello.

The torpedo-boat Felseen was launched this morning from Wood & Sons's yard at City Island. The alterations to her hull and upperworks have been completed, and all that remains to be done is the mounting of her torpedo tube and the setting in place of her conning tower.

The Felseen arrived at the Morgan Iron Works dock at the foot of East Ninth street at 2:30 this afternoon. She left City Island in tow of the tug C. Offerman at 9:45. The boat was in charge of A. D. Wood, jr.

Mr. Wood says that the lengthening of her keel has made her much easier to steer. Formerly there was difficulty in making her minister rudder.

She has been painted a dark sea-green color, and her deck is almost hidden from view on the surface of the water.

Early in the morning a gang of men were at work on her to set up her smokestack and to build a covering tower over her wheels, which is just forward of the smokestack. This tower and the smokestack will be the only objects which can be seen above the deck line.

The track upon which the torpedo tube is to rest has been already built, and the tube itself will be put aboard to-morrow.

There was considerable talk among workmen on the dock this afternoon concerning the practicability of launching the Felseen from El Cid's deck. The general opinion was that she is too long and not stiff enough to stand the strain of being swung from El Cid's davits.

It has been found that the davits now on El Cid are not really heavy enough to stand the strain. Therefore new davits are being built for the Morgan Iron Works, capable of sustaining a weight of thirty tons. This may cause a delay.

Peixoto's sister boat, Nada, which will also be taken to Brazil on El Cid's deck, was launched at the Morgan Iron Works this morning. It has not been decided whether the Nada will be put on board of the Morgan Works or at City Island.

The Britannia was docked at the foot of East Ninth street this afternoon. Almost before her lines were made fast a gang of workmen swarmed up on her deck and began tearing down the wood work of her forward cabin. By 4:30 the forward deck was all clear, and work was then begun making ready for her torpedo-tube.

An immense floating derrick was hauled alongside at noontime, and the work of transferring some of the new machinery was begun.

The Javelin was hauled up on the dry-dock at the foot of East Seventh street to-day, where she will have a thorough overhauling and receive the Howell torpedo tube, which will make her an engine of war. The torpedo tube arrived at the dock to-day.

El Cid's torpedo tubes will be placed in position on board to-day or to-morrow.

Work on the Nada, which, with the Felseen, Javelin and the Yarrow boat, will be carried on El Cid's deck, will be begun to-day.

Britannia is at the foot of Pike street, where she rests on a sectional dry dock. A large force of men is at work scraping and repainting her. The work of making her over into a war vessel will be pushed forward with all possible speed.

Meanwhile the business of securing the crews is going on briskly, despite the fact that the question as to whether Flint & Co.'s action in enlisting men is not a violation of the United States laws is still an open one.

There has been no decision yet as to whether the opinion given by Dudley F. Phelps concerning Flint & Co.'s culpability in hiring men to fight for Peixoto was a sound one. It is understood, however, that there is precedent for the course pursued by Flint & Co., and that a technicality will save the firm from incurring any penalty for their seeming transgression of the law.

Charles R. Flint has received advices from Peixoto which will probably be followed by the purchase of more vessels. Today Mr. Flint made offers for two more. Their names could not be learned, but it is probable that they are two of the quartet composed of the Fi-

SOME HAPPY MOMENTS.

When in poker you draw and fill a royal flush.

When an aching tooth elopes with the dentist's forceps.

When you deposit the last hundred dollars which makes your bank account a million.

When the nurse says it's a boy and a perfect picture of yourself.

When in a lawsuit you are in the wrong and the jury finds in your favor.

When after a two hours' political speech a good friend gives you a schooner of beer.

When you learn that your sole creditor has defaulted and absconded.

When you awake from a nightmare in which you are on the point of being murdered.

When you pocket the eighth ball in pyramid pool.

When a bartender hands you back 10 cents too much.

When the conductor overlooks you and neglects to collect your fare.

When your wife goes shopping and has her pocket picked of 50 cents.

When your best girl orders canvas-back duck and the waiter informs you that there are none left.

When you've forgotten your latch key at 3 A. M. and somebody is coming out of the front door of your lodging-house.

When you've two girls in tow and find Delmonico's closed and only a beer and sandwich place open.

When your tailor doesn't ask a deposit in advance.

When your iceman is in the clutches of the sheriff.

When a man behind you loses the train you catch.—Hallo.

METFORD ELECTION DISASTERS.

One Man Kills Himself and Another's Neck Is Broken.

MOUNT HOLLY, Nov. 8.—Ridgeway Hubs, of Metford, got into a political row last night, during the excitement over the sweeping Republican victory. It so preyed upon his mind that he committed suicide this morning by shooting himself in the head.

Charles Pickett, another resident of Metford, while returning from the polls early this morning in a wagon, fell out and broke his neck.

WONDERFUL DICE SHAKING.

He Beat Five Aces in One Throw and Quit Ever.

At the club-house at Saratoga B—— was shaking dice with a wealthy man from the Pacific coast, says the Cincinnati Commercial Gazette. He lost constantly, and finally found that he was $1,000 loser. The time agreed upon to quit had come. The wealthy man was about to leave the table when B—— said:

"I'll shake you double or nothing, one dash and quit sure."

"Agreed," said the other.

"Sure," said B——.

He shook and five aces appeared upon the board. B—— scratched his head and said:

"How can I beat that? The very best I can do is to tie you. Give me a show."

"What show do you want?" the 'Frisco man asked.

"Let me put six dice into the box and see if I can beat you."

"Agreed," said the Western man.

"Boys, B—— adds, "you may believe it or not, but I put six dice into the box, shook and out came six deuces, and I was even!"
