FOR EASIER MONEY.

Conferees Devising New Legislation at Washington.

State Bank Issues Would Not Afford Needed Relief.

Mr. Springer's Idea of New Securities for National Banks.

(By Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.—One of the first subjects to engage the attention of Congress when it convenes in regular session at the beginning of December will be a new banking and currency system.

For the past two weeks Congressman Springer, of Illinois, Chairman of the House Committee on Banks and Currency; Senator Voorhees, of Indiana, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Finance, Congressman De Witt Warner, of New York, and others have been engaged in frequent consultations with the President, Secretary of the Treasury, the Comptroller of the Currency and other financial officers of the Administration, with a view to legislation which will provide a larger and more convertible circulating medium without involving any financial or political embarrassments that would grow out of a revival of the flat money days.

When asked for a copy of the measure understood to be under consideration by himself and his colleagues, Mr. Springer stated that it could not be given out in detail until it had met the full approval of the various other members of the Committee over which he presided.

"We have been engaged for several months," said Chairman Springer, "in the preparation of a measure which at the proper time I will introduce in the House and have referred to the Committee on Banking and Currency, of which I am Chairman.

"Our object is to respond, as far as possible, to the reasonable demands of the country for a better system of currency and to provide some plan by which our currency may be placed upon a better basis.

"Any effort, in my judgment, to return to the system of State banks which prevailed before the war would be futile, and even if the 10 per cent. tax on State banks' circulation should be removed it would furnish little or no relief to the country.

"The reason of this is obvious. A great many States in the Union have adopted constitutional provisions prohibiting the charter of banks in those States, with authority to issue circulating notes. Such notes, therefore, could only be of local value, and while some States would provide a safe system, the experience of the past shows that irredeemable issues of paper money would flood the country, that counterfeiting would be universal and the currency system of the country would be thrown into confusion.

"What is required and demanded by the country is a National currency which shall at all times be convertible into coin on demand, which shall be elastic in character, sufficient in volume, and so distributed throughout the country as to respond to the wants of trade and prevent congestion.

"I don't think the present National banking system has proved itself adequate to the demands of the country. There are less than $250,000,000 of National bank notes now in circulation, and there is no prospect of an increased circulation unless more favorable legislation to the banks is assured.

"The near approach to the time when National bonds will be due and payable, the limited volume of such bonds of this kind and their high prices in the market prove conclusively that other security for circulation must be resorted to.

"With proper regulation under Government supervision the bonds of States, of counties and of certain municipalities can be utilized for the purpose of securing a National circulation, and all State banks as well as National depositing such securities ought to be permitted to take out currency to at least 90 per cent. of the par value of such bonds.

"Sufficient provisions should be made for the requiring of additional security in case of the slightest depreciation of these securities. The Government should assume all responsibility for the redemption in coin on demand of such notes, and provisions should be made therefor by a coin reserve equal to at least 20 per cent. of the outstanding circulation.

"The Government having thus assumed all responsibility for redemption and refunding of its currency, there will be no necessity for bank reserves or for withholding any portion of the currency that might be issued from circulation among the people."

NO MORE TARIFF HEARINGS.

A Birmingham Club Wanted to Argue Against Free Iron Ore.

(By Associated Press.)

WSHINGTON, Nov. 15.—The iron and coal men of Alabama, will not be accorded a formal hearing by the Ways and Means Committee. For a week or two past, Congressman Wheeler Senator Pugh and others, have been interviewing members of the Committee with a view of having a hearing accorded to the representatives of the Commercial Club of Birmingham, who desired to protest against the proposition now pending to place iron ore and coal on the free list.

Chairman Wilson, in denying the request of the Birmingham manufacturers, states that the Committee long ago closed its public hearings, and that to now make an exception for the Commercial Club would be to open the way for numerous other delegations which are demanding to be heard.

Congressman Magner, of New York, is protesting vigorously against the placing of cotton bagging on the free list, and has announced to the Democratic members of the Ways and Means Committee that he will vote against their bill if it contains this provision.

Congressman Bland, of Missouri, has also come to the front lately in the role of one of those dissatisfied with the proposed Tariff bill, and is reported as threatening to vote against the bill and fight it on the floor of the House if it places wool on the free list.

THE HUGGER SENT UP.

Miss Hawes Did Not Appear, but There Was a Witness.

Thomas McDonald, of 147 West Fifty-first street, who was charged by Agnes Hawes, of 300 West Thirty-first street, with insulting her at Thirty-second street and Seventh avenue at 11 o'clock last night, was sent to the island for a month by Justice Koch at Jefferson Market Court to-day.

Policeman Prendergast, of the West Thirty-seventh street squad, saw McDonald trying to hug and kiss Miss Hawes against her will last night. The young woman failed to appear to-day, and the complaint of disorderly conduct was pressed by the policeman.

Sam Rajah Gopel from the Plaisance

Sam Rajah Gopel, turban in hand, salaamed to Justice Koch at Jefferson Market Court this morning. Sam hails from the Midway Plaisance, Chicago. But just now he is in a badly battered condition, and wears an overhang on his right cheek. Sam Rajah Gopel was found by Policeman Brannigan of the Tenderloin squad, drunk and having an imaginary tiger-hunt at Twenty-eighth street and Sixth avenue shortly after midnight. Sam was discharged on his statement that he is to sail to-morrow.

MORE WARSHIPS FOR HAWAII.

It Is Said the Ranger and Mohican Are to Go.

Minister Willis's Rumored Orders for Admiral Irwin.

(By Associated Press.)

VALLEJO, Cal., Nov. 15.—It is said on good naval authority that as soon as the United States ships Ranger and Mohican, now at the Mare Island Navy-Yard, can be made ready for sea, the Secretary of the Navy will order them to Honolulu, where the Mohican will be made flagship of the Pacific squadron, relieving the Philadelphia, which will immediately proceed to Mare Island Navy-Yard.

The ordering of the Ranger and Mohican to Hawaii is said to be due to President Cleveland's desire to concentrate all available ships of the Pacific squadron in Hawaiian waters, as the combined crews of the Ranger and Mohican would enable the landing of a larger force than that of the Philadelphia.

Naval officers here are extremely cautious in commenting on the present attitude of Hawaiian affairs, but predict the concentration of a large force at Honolulu.

Several officers who were serving on board the Boston at the time of the dethronement of Queen Liliuokalani deny the story that the marines from the Boston were landed through any mistake in interpreting the signals from the United States Consulate.

They state that as a howling mob thronged the streets of Honolulu, and the situation was threatening to Americans, Minister Stevens, after deliberating with the senior naval officers, decided that marines were necessary to protect the Consulate, which had been broken into and ransacked on the night previous.

While it is plain to see that every naval officer regrets the policy of President Cleveland and Special Envoy Blount, they show a decided disposition to follow the directions of their superiors.

Work on the Ranger and Mohican will be pushed vigorously in order to get the ships ready for sea with as little delay as possible.

A rumor was current here last night that Minister Willis in going to Honolulu was the bearer of orders to Admiral Irwin from the Secretary of the Navy, directing that in the event of the rejection of President Cleveland's ultimatum to the Provisional Government, or any uprising, Admiral Irwin would despatch the United States ship Adams to the United States with any special communication Minister Willis might desire to send to Washington.

Admiral Skerrett, who was seen on the matter, said that while such a course was probable, he had no knowledge of it.

GRIPMAN M'DERMOTT'S CASE.

The Hearing on Mr. Conley's Death Goes Over.

William McDermott, gripman of the Broadway cable car which ran over and killed P. J. Conley at Broadway and Thirtieth street last night, was arraigned in Jefferson Market Court this morning. Owing to the absence of two material witnesses, the hearing went over until to-morrow. Bonds in $2,000 were furnished for the appearance of the prisoner.

The accident was witnessed by a number of people. Mr. Conley was a resident of Woonsocket, R. I., and had arrived in the city in the afternoon. He was registered at the Plaza Hotel. He left there to attend Palmer's Theatre, and alighted at Thirtieth street. As he stepped on the uptown track a car came rushing upon him. He seemed paralyzed for a moment, and then sprang back, but not quick enough. The platform of the car struck him on the shoulder, and threw him under the wheels. He died within twenty minutes.

Mr. Conley was forty years of age. He was President of the Woonsocket Rubber Company, which has a New York office at 84 Reade street.

Mr. Conley's body was still at Roth's undertaking rooms, 524 Sixth avenue, this morning. It was said that as soon as the Coroner's permit was received the body would be shipped to Woonsocket, R. I.

BRUTALLY BEAT HIS FATHER.

John Donlin Went Home Drunk and Abused the Whole Family.

John Donlin, twenty-eight years old, of 352 First avenue, was held in the Yorkville Police Court to-day on the complaint of assault preferred by his father, William, out of the past nine years the prisoner is said to have spent seven behind the prison bars.

His parents and younger brothers and sisters have frequently been compelled to furnish him money to buy drinks with. At 11:30 last night he staggered into the house half crazed with liquor, and on being refused money he dragged his father, mother, two brothers and a sister out of bed and gave them a terrible pounding.

He wound up by throwing his gray-haired and scantily attired father out into the street. The old man was not allowed to reenter his home and was compelled to dress himself on the street. He summoned Policeman O'Neill, of the East Thirty-fifth street precinct, who arrested John.

REAPPOINTED BY GILROY.

All the School Commissioners Named for Another Term.

Inspectors Also Allotted to the Eight School Districts.

Major Gilroy to-day reappointed all of the School Commissioners whose terms expire on Jan. 1.

The appointments were made under Section 1,022 of the Consolidation act, which requires the Mayor to make the appointment on the third Wednesday in November. The appointees are:

Charles Strauss, 137 West Ninety-fifth street; George Livingston, 528 West Twenty-third street; Charles L. Bull, 117 West One Hundred and Thirtieth street; William J. Van Arsdale, 216 Bank street; James W. Mellrath, 772 West End avenue; Emile Beneville, 404 East One Hundred and Eighteenth street; Edward Bell, 221 Lexington avenue.

Four of the appointees, Messrs. Benevelle, Bell, Van Arsdale and Livingston, are filling unexpired terms, and Messrs. Strauss, Bull and McMarton will enter upon their second terms.

The term of a School Commissioner is three years. The place pays no salary, and the emoluments are ineligible to any office of emolument under either the city, State or National Government, except the offices of notary public and Commissioner of Deeds.

The Mayor also appointed eight school inspectors, one for each school district in the city, in the order named:

Columbus Smith, 2 Lexington avenue, to succeed himself; Edward Jenkins, 27 Vandam street, to succeed Samuel S. Joyce; Truman Nichols, M. D., 267 East Broadway, to succeed John J. Burke; John V. Campbell, builder, 352 West Twenty-seventh street, to succeed George W. Collins, M. D.; Joseph Broll, 95 Avenue A, to succeed himself; Nathan Pernbacher, 231 East Twenty-second street, to succeed himself; W. W. Lavenbge, 32 West Thirty-sixth street, to succeed himself; George H. Tuck, 124 East Ninety-first street, to succeed himself; T. Mason Oliver, 836 East One Hundred and Sixty-fifth street, to succeed himself.

School Inspectors serve three years each, from Jan. 1 next. They receive no salary.

ROBBED A NEWSPAPER MAN.

Burglars Got Mr. Ris's Overcoat and a Ten-Dollar Bill.

Jacob Riis, a newspaper reporter, informed Inspector McLaughlin at Police Headquarters this morning that a burglar entered his house in Richmond Hill, L. I., some time last night and carried off his overcoat and a $10 bill which was in a buffet drawer in the dining-room. The burglar evidently got into the wrong house, but was bound to get something.

Mr. Riis had in the pocket of his overcoat notes gathered in Europe, from which he expected to write an extensive article for a magazine.

Richmond Hill has been the scene of numerous petty burglaries of late. Almost every inhabitant there has a watch dog. Riis has one. It has kept him awake every night since he got it until last night, when both the dog and Riis indulged in a regular Rip Van Winkle sleep.

Two negroes blacked a stove for the Riis family a few days ago. Both had enormously big feet. The chief who climbed in the window last night left footprints of mud on the carpet which would do credit to a Hottentot.

FAITHLESS LOVER CAUGHT.

Dwyer Took Miss Schultz's Money and Disappeared.

Fled to Ireland, but Returned and Was Arrested.

John Dwyer, a good-looking young man, who has spent most of his life in caring for horses, was a prisoner in the Tombs Police Court this morning, charged with swindling. The complainant was Emma Schultz, who alleges that Dwyer, after agreeing to marry her, received $1,500 from her to be used in purchasing a business, and then, instead of investing the money as agreed, vanished.

Miss Schultz has been for many years employed as cook in the family of Mr. Bernheimer, the millionaire brewer, at 36 West One Hundred and Fifteenth street. She is of an economical nature, and had succeeded in acquiring quite a fat bank account. Dwyer was also in the employ of Mr. Bernheimer last Winter. The coachman and the cook fell in love. There was a mutual friend, a Mrs. Ryan, of 247 West One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street. She added fuel to the flame of love by praising each lover alternately to the other.

Last January the wedding day was fixed, and Miss Schultz, by way of a wedding present, said she would give her promised husband $1,500, with which he was to buy a saloon. On Jan. 17 she and her John went to The bank and the $1,500 was drawn and handed over to John, who pocketed it, and at the first opportunity disappeared.

Miss Schultz spent many a sleepless night and shed many a bitter tear for her lost love.

On Jan. 27 she received a letter which opened her eyes. It was dated in Ireland and read:

"My Dear Friend: I am in Ireland, where I am going to stay. I am married and have three children. We will not meet again except in heaven. Your friend, JOHN."

March 12 Mrs. Schultze notified the police and all the police captains were notified to look out for Dwyer if he came back.

Yesterday Capt. Reilly, of the East Fifty-first street station, spotted him. He had been working two months for Dr. Buck, of 8 West Fifty-eighth street.

He was arrested by Detective Heidelberg, of the Central Office. On his person were found letters from Mrs. Ryan, the supposed mutual friend.

Justice Meade held Dwyer for examination.

BROKE A PLATE-GLASS WINDOW.

Hutton Believed to Be an Old Offender in This Line.

Robert Hutton, of 99 Morton street, this city, was arrested by Policeman Conroy at 12:45 o'clock this morning while in the act of breaking a plate-glass window in the drug store of Eugene Hartnet at the corner of Warren and Montgomery streets, Jersey City.

Hutton is believed to be the man who has been breaking large plate-glass windows in Jersey City for some time past. It is claimed he has already done $1,500 damages. This morning Judge O'Donnell held him for further examination.

SMALL-POX IN CITY PRISON.

Michael Driscoll Held for Assault Develops Disease.

Hastily Removed to North Brother Island by Health Authorities.

The startling announcement was made in the District-Attorney's office this morning that a prisoner in the City Prison had been found suffering from small-pox. The man was sent to North Brother Island without the knowledge of Mr. Nicoll, and he will offer no objection to the prisoner's removal.

The information came in the following letter:

Hon. De Lancey Nicoll, District-Attorney:

Sir: I am directed to notify you that a person named Michael Driscoll, held at the Tombs to stand trial in Court of General Sessions on the charge of felonious assault, has been removed to North Brother Island by authority of the Board of Health, it having been decided that he was suffering from small-pox. The physician in charge at North Brother Island has been notified to take every precaution to prevent the escape of the prisoner. By order, E. F. BRITTON, Sec'y.

The Bureau of Contagious Diseases bulletined several cases of small-pox this morning. The patients were Rachel Canfield, five, of 175 Willis avenue; Andrew Patterson, eighteen years old, of 754 Eighth avenue; Mrs. McCullagh, aged forty-five, of East One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street, and Henry Cook, thirty-five, of 962 East One Hundred and Thirty-eighth street.

All were removed to Riverside Hospital, North Brother Island. Dr. Doty claimed to know nothing of their surroundings, save in the case of Patterson. The latter is a hanger-on about the Gittenburg race track. He boarded at the address given. Health officers have vaccinated the others residing in the tenement and fumigated the premises.

A WOMAN STABBED.

Her Husband Held for Trial for the Assault.

John Buttner, of 49 Avenue C, was arraigned before Justice Ryan in the Essex Market Court this morning to answer a charge of felonious assault preferred by his wife, Catherine.

Mrs. Buttner said her husband was a worthless fellow and did no work. She went to Brooklyn yesterday, and on her return her husband charged her with having been out with a man. She denied it, and he stabbed her in the breast with a penknife, inflicting slight wounds.

When Buttner was arrested he was found in the company of an intoxicated woman. She was also taken into custody, and gave her name as Jennie Thompson. Justice Ryan sent her to the island for two months, and held the husband for trial in default of $1,000 bail.

AT AN END—the "female complaints" and weaknesses that make woman's life a misery. They're cured, by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. For all the derangements, disorders, and diseases peculiar to the sex, this is the only remedy so certain that it can be guaranteed. If it ever fails, to benefit or cure, you have your money back.

It's a legitimate medicine for woman, carefully adapted to her delicate organization, and never conflicting with any of her conditions. It regulates and promotes all the proper functions, builds up and invigorates the entire system, and restores health and strength.

Are you weak, nervous and ailing, or "run-down" and overworked? Then it will bring you special help. It's the mother's friend. It lessens pain and insures life of both mother and child.

Don't decide that your Catarrh is hopeless, simply because you haven't yet found a cure. Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy cures such cases—completely. Its makers offer $500 for an incurable case of Catarrh.

WILL POND GET A LICENSE?

Excise Commissioners Consider the Sixth Avenue Hotel Case.

The closing arguments in the case of the granting of a license to Addison A. Pond, proprietor of the Sixth Avenue Hotel, at Forty-fourth street, were heard by the Excise Commissioners this noon. Mr. Clark Bell, who says he represents the West Forty-fourth Street Association, which has contested the application, and W. J. Hardy, counsel for Mr. Pond, were present. Mr. Bell, after arguing the question, submitted briefs, which the Commissioners will read before a decision is reached.

Counsellor Hardy was not pleased with the outlook.

"The Commissioners made a queer ruling," he said. "It was in effect that in the case where a license has once been revoked in a boarding-house, on account of its being a disorderly place, the applicant must prove that his place is no longer of that character before he can obtain a license. Mr. Pond purchased the Sixth Avenue Hotel on the condition that he would be able to obtain a license."

MARSHALS TOO DILIGENT.

More United States Prisoners Than Charleston Jail Can Hold.

(By Associated Press.)

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Nov. 15.—Over 500 United States prisoners are at present confined in the city. These, with witnesses and the prisoners' families, will make a total of over 1,000. The jail is inadequate to hold all, and they are scattered over the city.

The Deputy United States Marshals are severely criticised for such wholesale arrests, and charges of brutality are preferred and will be investigated by the Grand Jury. Hundreds of families are destitute and suffering, their main supports being under arrest.

MARINO'S STORY IS WEAK.

The Bankers Who He Says Robbed Him Are Discharged.

Ermenegildo Paladini, Adolphus Cohen, Willie Malfenaro and Felice Malefrari, the private bankers, of 211 Canal street, and their clerks, who were accused of having robbed Raimando C. Marino, an Italian banker, of Newark, N. J., were arraigned before Justice Meade, in the Tombs Police Court, this morning, and discharged.

Their arraignment was a mere formality, as Judge Andrews of the Supreme Court, issued a writ of habeas corpus last night. The four men had a brief hearing at the home of Judge Andrews, after which he decided there was no legal authority for holding the men and ordered their discharge.

Banker Marino told the police that four men entered his place at 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon and robbed him of $3,000. They told him they had called to transact some business and wanted money. He tried to pass them, but they pushed him back, and finally, by threatening to kill him, compelled him to open the safe. They took what money the safe contained and escaped before he could raise an outcry.

The police are of the opinion that Marino is in straitened circumstances and circulated the robbery story as a way to get out of his difficulties.

WITH MAGEE COMES RUMORS.

Said to Be in Philadelphia in the Vanderbilts' Interests.

A despatch from Philadelphia received to-day says:

The presence of Gen. Magee here, the confidential man of the Vanderbilts, who handled their proxies in the Reading election of 1892, has given rise to a number of rumors. He consulted with the Reading officials, and it was said would transfer a block of stock to the Vanderbilts.

Gen. Magee also conferred with President Wilbur, of the Lehigh Valley, and it was reported that he was negotiating to secure the Lehigh Valley for the Vanderbilts by lease or otherwise.
