A popular and comprehensive treatise on the duties and casualties single and married life—happy and fruitful alliances, mode of securing them—infelicitous and infertile ones—their obviation and removal—nervous debility, its causes and cure; by a process so simple, safe and effectual, that failure is impossible—rules for daily management—precautionary hints on the evil results from empirical practice, to which is added commentaries on the disease of females, from infancy to old age—each graphically illustrated by beautiful plates. It points out the remedies for self-inflicted miseries and disappointed hopes so unfortunately prevalent in the young. It is a truthful adviser to the married and those contemplating marriage. Its perusal is particularly recommended to persons entertaining secret doubts of their physical condition, and who are conscious of having impaired the health, happiness and privileges to which every human being is entitled.

Price 25 cents per copy, or five copies for $1, mailed free of postage to any part of the United States, by addressing Dr. LOCKROW, (post-paid) Albany, New York, enclosing 25 cents.

N. B.—Those who prefer may consult Dr. LOCKROW upon any one of the diseases upon which his book treats, either personally or by mail. His medicines often cure in the short space of six days, and completely and entirely eradicate all traces of those disorders which copaiva and cubebs have so long been thought an antidote, to the ruin of the health of the patient. His "French Secret" is the great continental remedy of that class of disorders which unfortunately, physicians treat with mercury, to the irretrievable destruction of the patient's constitution, and which all the sarsaparilla in the world cannot cure.

Dr. LOCKROW'S medicines are free from all mineral poisons and put up in a neat and compact form, which can be sent by Express or Mail, and may be taken in a public or private house, or while traveling without exposure to the most intimate friend or room mate, or his hindrance from business or study, and no important change in the diet is necessary. Medicine sent to any part of the Union, according to directions safely packed and carefully secured from all observations.

BOERHAVE'S
HOLLAND BITTERS

THE CELEBRATED HOLLAND REMEDY FOR

DYSPEPSIA,
DISEASE OF THE KIDNEYS,
LIVER COMPLAINT,
WEAKNESS OF ANY KIND,
FEVER AND AGUE.

And the various affections consequent upon a disordered

STOMACH OR LIVER,

such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Pains, Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Inwardness, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Rheumatic and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound prepared on scientific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and there over the face of this mighty country—Meeting with great success among them, it now offers it to the American public, knowing that its truly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spirits, or other forms of dissipation. Generally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the seat of life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, raising up the drooping spirit, and in fact, infusing new health and vigor in the system.

CAUTION!

The great popularity of this delightful Aroma has induced many imitations, which the public should guard against purchasing. Be not persuaded to buy anything else until you have given Boerhave's Holland Bitters a fair trial. One bottle will convince you how infinitely superior it is to all these imitations.

THE LIVER
INVIGORATOR
PREPARED BY DR. SANFORD,
Compounded Entirely from Gums,

IS ONE OF THE BEST PURGATIVE and Liver Medicines now before the public, that acts as a cathartic, easier, milder and more effectual than any other medicine known. It is not only a Cathartic, but a Liver remedy, acting first on the Liver to eject the morbid matter, then on the stomach and bowels to carry off that matter, thus accomplishing two purposes effectually, without any of the pain or feelings experienced in the operation of most Cathartics. It strengthens the system at the same time that it purges it, and when taken daily in moderate doses, will strengthen and build it up with unusual rapidity.

The LIVER is one of the principal regulators of the human body and when it performs its functions well the powers of the system are fully developed. The stomach is almost entirely dependent on the healthy action of the Liver for the proper performance of its functions; when the stomach is at fault, the bowels are at fault, and the whole system suffers in consequence. LIVER—having ceased diseases of that organ, has made it his study, for twenty years, to find a remedy wherewith to counteract the many derangements to which it is liable.

To prove that this remedy is at last found, any person troubled with LIVER COMPLAINT, in any of its forms, has but to try a bottle, and conviction is certain.

These Gums remove all morbid or bad matter from the system, supplying in their place a healthy flow of bile, invigorating the stomach, causing food to digest well, FORTIFYING THE BLOOD, giving tone and vigor to the whole machinery, removing the cause of the disease—effecting a radical cure.

BILIOUS ATTACKS are cured, and what is better, PREVENTED, by the occasional use of the LIVER INVIGORATOR.

One dose after eating the stomach and prevent the food from rising and sourring.

Only one dose taken at night; loosens the bowels gently, and cures CONSTIPENESS.

One dose taken after each meal will cure DYSPEPSIA.

One dose of two teaspoonfuls will always relieve SICK HEADACHE.

One bottle taken for female obstruction removes the cause of the diseases, and makes a perfect cure.

Only one dose immediately relieves CHOLIC, while

One dose often repeated is a sure cure for CHOLERA MORBUS, and a preventative of CHOLERA.

Only one bottle is needed to throw out of the system the effects of medicine after a long sickness.

One bottle taken for JAUNDICE removes all sallowness or unnatural color from the skin.

One dose taken a short time before eating gives vigor to the appetite, and makes food digest well.

One dose often repeated cures CHRONIC DYSPEPSIA in its worst forms, while SUMMER and BOWEL complaints yield almost to the first dose.

One or two doses cures attacks caused by Worms in Children; there is no surer, safer, or speedier remedy in the world, as it "never fails."

A few bottles cures DROPSY, by exciting the absorbents.

We take pleasure in recommending this medicine as a preventive for FEVER AND AGUE, CHILLS AND FEVERS of a BILIOUS TYPE,—it operates with certainty, and thousands are willing to testify to its wonderful virtues.

All who use it are giving their unanimous testimony in its favor.

☞ Mix water in the mouth with the Invigorator, and swallow both together.

THE LIVER INVIGORATOR IS A SCIENTIFIC MEDICAL DISCOVERY, and is daily working cures, almost too great to believe. It cures as if by magic, even the first dose giving benefit, and seldom more than one bottle is required to cure any kind of LIVER Complaint, from the worst Jaundice or Dyspepsia to a common Headache, all of which are the result of a DISEASED LIVER.

NEW TREATMENT.
PRIVATE
CONFIDENTIAL MEDICAL ADVICE!!

AT the Buffalo Private Hospital—Established for the cure of Syphilis, Seminal Weakness and the Secret Infirmities of Youth and Maturity by Dr. AMOS & SON, Buffalo, N. Y. Office, corner of Main and Quay streets, (up stairs.)

A MOST SCIENTIFIC INVENTION.

An instrument for the cure of genital Debility, or Nocturnal Emissions, more properly known as Seminal Weakness, etc. Can be permanently cured in from fifteen days to two months, by the use of this instrument, when used conjointly with medicines.

YOUNG MEN TAKE PARTICULAR NOTICE.

Dr. AMOS and SON take pleasure in announcing that they have invented a most important instrument for the cure of the above diseases. It has been subjected to a test by the most eminent physicians in London, Paris, Philadelphia and New York; it has been declared the only useful instrument which has ever yet been invented, for the cure of Seminal Weakness, or any disease of the genital organs, caused by the secret habits of youth. Price Ten Dollars, by Mail or Express.

A CURE WARRANTED.

Dr. AMOS and SON have devoted their attention exclusively to this peculiar class of maladies, and the relief they have consequently been able to render their fellow-creatures, is fully testified and gratefully acknowledged by convalescent patients and others daily arriving in town, from all parts of the country, for the express purpose only of consultations, while their exertions have been crowned with the most signal advantages; yet from what they have experienced in enquiring into the causes of these infectious complaints, (from their most simple condition to that of the most dangerous and inveterate,) they have always entertained the possibility of their prevention and removal, and likewise invariably found that the most horrible and malignant forms of disease could almost invariably be traced to one of the following causes:—Ignorance, neglect, or the ill effects of unskillful or improper treatment; therefore Dr. AMOS and SON have succeeded in discovering, in the selection of their remedies, a safe, effectual and cautious course; omitting all combination of remedies which bear an equivocal character, as well as those whose premature or injudicious application might be productive of bad consequences in the hands of private individuals. In short, the laudable end of their remedies is the lessening of a great mass of human misery by the alleviation, relief and prevention of those grievous afflictions that are in reality the secret foe of life, and which, while they so extensively surround us, call aloud for our skill and interference for their extermination.

COUNTRY INVALIDS.

Persons in any part of the world may be successfully treated by forwarding a correct detail of their case, with the remittance for medicines, etc.

DAILY EMPIRE.

☞ The Ohio Cultivator of May contains the following pretty conceits from the pen of Miss Carrie Myer, entitled "Pictures of the Past:"

The faces and forms that I knew long ago,
Are thronging around me now—
Some with the eyes of heavenly glow,
And some with the shadowy brow.

A cherub, with forehead and cheek so fair,
Which my own child-lips had pressed—
I see him, pale in the coffin there,
Where they laid him down to rest

The gathering crowd, and the pastor tall,
With a solemn voice and mien,
And the mother's look—oh, see it all!
That sad and desolate scene!

How vivid yet is the wonder and fear
That struck, with a painful thrill,
My childish heart, as they led me near,
To look at the form so still!

That tiny existence, cut off in its glow,
Was a problem of deepest ken,
For Death was an awful mystery,
I never had met till then!

Then the mother whose life gave color to mine,
Was lying as cold and still
As the babe, with eyes of glassy shine,
And cheek so white and chill.

They bore her away from that darkened room,
When the hills were bare and brown,
And the few leaves left to the forest a gloom,
On the winds of winter came down.

These scenes repainted from year to year,
Still fresh "on Memory's wall,"
Shall gleam 'mid evening's shadows drear,
Or when morning's radiance falls.

Joe Juggs at the Candy Stew.

BY TOKY DEE.

Boys, did I ever tell you about Joe's adventure at Molly Dobb's candy stew down on Huggins Creek?

Well, if I never did, here goes. Jo, you know, was a round chunk of a fellow, wore tight pants and a bobtail coat, and was monstrous afraid of the gals.

The gals, though, want afraid of Jo, if he did own land and niggers—for sich like have no terrors for them. Well, not being afraid of Jo, of course they didn't fear the other fellows, who were minus all these. Well, then Jo was axed, along with a number of them, to come down to Molly Dobb's mammy's to a candy stew, and down Jo went with all his fat and bashfulness, and when he got there the house was full of gals and fellows, and the candy had been poured out to cool, and was sitting all about the room on chairs and tables. So soon as he entered all eyes were on him—I mean the gals, for Jo was considered a great catch, and, Jo blushed; but old Mrs. Dobbs and Molly rushed to see him, seized him by the hands, and literally overpowered him with kind greetings he became confused, his legs got weak, and he looked about for a place to sit down.—Molly and her mammy kept crowding him. They were right after Jo's tracks, and he was straight after a chair, and as he cast his eye back he thought he saw a soft cushioned one, and he took a squat at it, and as he touched it, you never heard such a yell in your life, he lifted himself out of it clear into the very middle of the floor, clapped his hands on his breeches and wiggled like a worm in hot embers, while the smoking candy trickled down his legs. The gals all screamed. Molly fainted. I seized a bucket of water, Mrs. Dobbs the dish tub, and right at Jo we both dashed as he rushed out of the room. But luckily he stumbled and fell, and Mrs. Dobbs come right on top of him, tub and all. To make things sure, I chugged him with the bucket of water about the seat of agony. He roared, I tell you, and when we lifted him up, his hands were stuck fast behind him. The cold water had done the work, and there was no loosening them without fire and hot water. He begged us not to take him back among the gals, but it was no use—there was no where else to take him—and we pulled him right among them, and stood him with his back to the fire, and poured hot water about where his hands were stuck, while all the gals blushed, covered up their faces, and wondered if he was much burnt. "Powerfully damaged" says I. At this Molly screamed and swooned again, and Jo gave his hands a sudden wrench, bolted out of the house, and took down the road like forty devils were after him, and about one minute after another fellow followed him, and a woman close on to him with a broom stick. This boys, was me and old Mrs. Dobbs, but she got no nearer me than did I to Jo. I tell you, the running was powerful, and I can't to this day decide which is most stimulating—a dish of hot candy, as Jo took it, or the sight of a broomstick in the hands of an angry woman. But, boys, if you want to have fun, just say "fasses candy" to Jo: it will do you good to see him clasp his hands and grin.

The Valley of Sharon.

The senior editor of the New York Express writing from Palestine, says:

I am on the border of the real, the rich valley of Sharon, where once was "the rose of Sharon"—but the rose is not now to be seen, or if seen, is not known. The wondering Arab now has here his flocks and his herds—the true successors of "the herds which fed in Sharon" in David's reign.—Not a tenth part of the vale is now cultivated, yet, where it is tilled, the crops promise to be luxuriant. The fields are now decked with myriads of flowers—the beautiful red tulip, the scarlet anemone, the blue iris, the white cistus, asphodels, lilies, &c, all ravishing to eyes like ours, that had been sixteen days on the sea, and just now from the cold north of Constantinople and the Black Sea. The plain of Sharon is about fifteen miles broad and nearly twice as many long, with the Mediterranean on one side and the rugged hill country of Judea on the other.—Voltaire did not see Sharon as I now see it in all the flush and glory of spring, or he'd not said, that he would not receive as a present from the Sultan, impoverished Palestine. Large wheat fields are now about me in the distance—and meadows alive with flocks and herds, and dotted with Arab black tents.

The same writer says of the

ROAD TO JERUSALEM.

Such roads! Such tracks rather! I looked at them and my eyes pronounced them impassable for four footed beasts, if passable for man. And this on the high road to Jerusalem! If I had not seen others lead off with their horses, and the sure-footed animals go safely up and down these passes, I never should have deemed them passable. I never should have ventured on horseback over them. But this was the track where Solomon hauled up the cedars of Lebanon for the temple; this was the track of Saladin and Richard Cœur de Lion—and this is the track over which camel, horse and donkey now take up all the necessary produce, utilities and ornaments of the modern Jerusalem. The people of this country rattle over the rocks on a gallop often, and the camel taking enormous burdens without flinching. For centuries and centuries now, it is the track of the whole world's pilgrimage. Thinking thus, I go on and bear it, and shut my eyes to it, and go on.

ANOTHER BALLOON ASCENSION.—It seems that Mr. Bannister, the companion of the unfortunate Thurston, is not yet satisfied with his aeronautic experience. Having been the owner of two balloons, each of which has taken a human being to that "bourne from which no traveler returns," and suffered not a little in his own person from ballooning, it might be supposed that he would be willing to give over aeronauting to other hands; but it appears to be otherwise. It is stated that Mr. B is now preparing a mammoth airship for another excursion, which he proposes to make from Detroit or Kalamazoo, some time in May.—He expects to make a trip to the Atlantic coast from some western city.—Toledo Blade.

FORSMAN'S
Portable grinding & bolting
FLOUR MILLS.

HAVING MADE AN ARRANGEMENT with the Patentee, we are now prepared to furnish to order the above Mills, of any size, burrs and bolts. The Mill is simple in its construction, having very little machinery occupying but little space, and warranted to do more work with the same amount of power, and make as good a quality of flour, as any Mill now manufactured. Proprietors of Saw Mills, especially those that use steam, would find it to their advantage to purchase one of these Mills, for the purpose of doing custom grinding—either wheat, corn or other grain. The Mill will be sold with or without the bolt. The principle of the Mill is equally applicable to the construction of large Merchant Mills, and persons about to build, would do well to call and examine.

We will also furnish with the Mills, Bolting Reels of any size and length, Smut Machines, Wheat Cleaners, Flour Packers, etc.

Orders respectfully solicited.
