DAILY EMPIRE!

The Years

BY R. V. S. LOWELL.

Three years! these years! these naughty years!
Once they were pretty things!
Their fairy footfalls caught our ears,
Our eyes their glancing wings;
They flitted by our school boy way—
We chased the little elves in play.

We knew them, soon, for tricky elves;
They brought the college gown,
With thoughtful books filled up our shelves,
Darkened our lips with down,
Played with our throat, and fled the tone
Of manhood had become our own.

They, smiling, stretched our childish size;
Their soft hand trimmed our hair;
Cast the deep thought within our eyes,
And left it glowing there;
Sang songs of hope in college halls,
Bright fancies drew upon the walls.

They flashed upon us love's bright gem;
They showed us gleams of fame;
Stout-hearted work was learned from them,
And honor more than name.
And so they came and went away;
We said not, go! we said not stay.

But one sweet day, when quiet skies
And still leaves brought me thought,
When hazy hills drew forth my eyes,
And woods with deep shade fraught,
That day I carelessly found out
What work these elves had been about.

Alas! these little rogues, the years,
Had fooled me many a day,
Plucked half the locks above my ears,
And tinged the rest all gray.
They left me wrinkles great and small—
I fear that they have tricked us all.

Well, give the little years their way—
Think, speak, and write, the while;
Lift up the bare front of the day,
And make their wrinkles smile;
They shaped the noble living head;
They carve the best tomb for the dead.

FEARFUL NOTICE TO DOG OWNERS.—The following is an exact copy of an official placard issued by the city authorities of Janesville, Wisconsin:

"TAKE NOTICE—ALL PERSONS residing in the city of Janesville owning, or having in his or her possession, any dog or bitch, and suffering the same to run at large without being securely muzzled, so as to prevent their biting, WILL BE KILLED if found running at large after April 26th, 1859.—By order of the Mayor.

"C. G. GILLETT, Constable.

"Janesville, April 23, 1859."

A SILLY OLD MAN.—Joshua R. Giddings has written a letter, which has found its way into print, that would be inflammatory if it were not silly. His loud call upon Clevelanders to remember that their city is the Boston of 1775, is sheer humbug; his earnestness in which merely demonstrates his own fatuity. The recommendation that slave catchers be murdered wherever they may be found, is calculated to bring the weak-headed who think Giddings an embodiment of wisdom, to grief. If there is a large and active market for such fanaticism as this, we are sorry for it. This must be one of the cases where the supply of an article far exceeds the demand. It is idiotcy to talk of bloodshed and revolution to the people of Ohio. The citizens of sober judgment who make up the weight of public opinion, know that is unworthy attention, and despise disturbers of the public peace who are eternally crying "wolf," when there is nothing above the horizon more formidable than a pismire.—[Commercial.

☞ The Boston Courier in showing up Wilson, the Massachusetts Senator says:

"We branded him as a shuffling political turn-coat, and proved the charge against him. * * * Mr. Wilson resembles King James' ape, of which the royal Solomon said: 'If I hold Jocko I can make him bite you; if you hold him you can make him bite me.' The party that has the largest store of nuts and apples can always have Jocko.—The Know Nothings had him in 1855, and made him bite at their bidding; now somebody holds him that makes him bite the Know Nothings. Jocko was a mischievous animal, but by no means terrible."

CORN PLANTING.—The weather for the last ten days has been very favorable to the farmers, for getting in their spring crops, and they have been busy, preparing the ground and depositing the golden seed. A good many have already finished planting their corn and, in some instances, it has made its appearance above the ground. A great deal is being planted and, if the season proves favorable, as it promises, we may expect an abundant crop. He who has said, "springtime and Harvest shall not fail," will abundantly crown the efforts of honest, manly Toil.

The World Amazed!

ALL NATIONS THANKFUL

The shallow proverb, "Familiarity breeds contempt," has a very limited application.—Familiarity with that which is admirable, useful and beneficient, breeds respect, gratitude and enthusiasm. It has been thus with Holloway's inestimable Pills. The more thoroughly we become acquainted with their wonderful properties, the more we see of their operation in the most desperate cases, the more deeply sensible do we become of the value of humanity of a medical discoverer like Professor Holloway. In this country, where we are quick to perceive and prompt to admit the claims of greatness in every department of art or science, his popularity is boundless, and the demand for his remedies might be called a furore, if it were not founded on the solid basis of experience. In the seasons when dysentery and diarrhœa prevail, the population of whole districts in the South and West refuse to take any other preparation than the Pills.—The resident physicians remonstrate with them in vain. It is useless to tell the sick, who are daily recovering strength, appetite health and cheerfulness, by the use of this omnipotent medicine, that it is an empirical invention. Their every organ, muscle, nerve and fibre, unite in giving the lie to the assertion. It is the same with dyspepsia, liver complaint, and in fact all internal maladies without exception.

Under such circumstances, can it be surprising that the name of Holloway is endeared to the American people? Many maladies, deemed incurable before the introduction of the Pills, now create neither fear nor anxiety. It is generally understood that the subjugation of these complaints by a course of the medicine is an easy task; that the sufferer who relies on any other preparation, patent or prescribed, is literally scrambling for life in the dark; and that he or she who perishes under the false treatment of the faculty, "dies as the fool dieth."

We do not stand alone in our appreciation of the vitalizing and restorative qualities of the Pills. Almost every exchange paper we open contains some anecdote of their triumphs over disease, or of the uplifting of some debilitated and hopeless invalid from the lowest depths of physical weakness and mental despondency, by their aid. No other advertised medicines have commanded such encomiums from the medical, religious, political and independent press, as Holloway's remedies. Papers and periodicals too frigidly aristocratic to publish the advertisements of the ordinary nostrums of the day, have earnestly commended the Pills to the confidence of the afflicted.—Nothing but great facts, too widely known to be disputed, could have forced the accredited organs of the faculty to bow to this mighty innovator, the Cæsar of the world of medicine, and his peerless curatives. But even these have succumbed. Truth can no more be arrested in its course than the lightnings of heaven.—[N. Y. Sunday "Mercury."

☞ A letter from Camp Floyd states that quite a number of United States soldiers joined the Mormon Church—for the sake of Mormon crinoline, we presume.

FORSMAN'S Portable grinding & bolting FLOUR MILLS.

HAVING MADE AN ARRANGEMENT with the Patentee, we are now prepared to furnish to order the above Mills, of any size, burrs and bolts. The Mill is simple in its construction, having very little machinery occupying but little space, and warranted to do more work with the same amount of power, and make as good a quality of flour, as any Mill now manufactured. Proprietors of Saw Mills, especially those that use steam, would find it to their advantage to purchase one of these Mills, for the purpose of doing custom grinding—either wheat, corn or other grain. The Mill will be sold with or without the bolt. The principle of the Mill is equally applicable to the construction of large Merchant Mills, and persons about to build, would do well to call and examine.

We will also furnish with the Mills, Bolting Reels of any size and length, Smut Machines, Wheat Cleaners, Flour Packers, etc.

Orders respectfully solicited.

☞ Composition and Cement sold by the barrel.

READ THE FOLLOWING:

CINCINNATI, O., February 18, 1857.

This is to certify that I have examined the samples of J. Beckley and Co.'s Cement and Composition Roof, and can say that I think it the equal, if not superior to any Cement or Composition Roof now in use. I have one on my house, adjoining to where I was lately burned out, and must say that it stood the test admirably.

D. A. POWELL.

CINCINNATI, June 29, 1858.

This is to certify that we have employed Messrs. J. Beckley and Co. to put their Cement Roof on our foundry at the west end of Eighth street, and that for it has given entire satisfaction, having been fully tested by severe rains, etc. The burning of a large frame ware-house adjoining, consuming our wood work and destroying our glass, produced no effect on our roof.
