REUNITED IN POLICE COURT.

Student Morse and Actress Uhrich Were Mutually Surprised.

Drank Too Much Last Night, Got Separated and Then Arrested.

Among the prisoners arraigned before Justice Voorhis, at the Yorkville Court, to-day was an ill-assorted couple.

They were James Morse, a small curly-headed, dudishly dressed young fellow of twenty-three, who said he was a student of architecture in the Studio Building, living at 51 West Fifty-ninth street, and a young and pretty demi-blonde of twenty-four, who declared that she was an actress.

She has a voluptuous figure, a peaches-and-cream complexion, and said that she boarded with Mrs. Minnie Chipman, at 212 West Forty-sixth street.

The couple were at Koster & Bial's last night, and from all appearances drank more than was good for them. How or when they parted neither one of them recollected. They were surprised on finding each other in a Police Court. They were arrested by the same policeman, but at different times.

A little after 1 o'clock this morning Mrs. Chipman sent to the West Forty-seventh street police station for a policeman to have the actress removed. She had come to the house in an intoxicated condition, and was so noisy that she aroused the entire household.

Policeman Reichold was sent there, and had he arrested the actress on a charge of disorderly conduct. She was hardly locked in her cell when Morse was driven to the station-house on the box of a hansom cab by the cabman, Robert Young, of 339 West Thirty-eighth street. He demanded the arrest of Morse, who refused to pay for the hack hire and for having broken the shaft of the carriage.

Cabman Young said that he got Morse from Koster & Bial's and drove him about for a long time. He then thought that it was time for him to pay for the carriage hire, but Morse refused to do so and asked to be driven to Burns's restaurant, at Forty-first street and Sixth avenue. There he jumped on the box of the hansom, seized hold of the reins and pulled the horse back on its haunches so that he broke the shaft.

The woman told His Honor that she came home from Koster & Bial's in a carriage and stepped inside to get some money to pay the hackman, when her landlady insulted her. Morse admitted that he had been drinking, but didn't know why he was arrested. He insisted he had had no trouble with any one.

Both were discharged, and left the court-house together.

MORRIS PARK'S SPRING EVENT.

List of Entries for the Metropolitan Handicap.

The entries for the big Spring event at Morris Park have been announced. Chief among these is the Metropolitan Handicap, an event that ranks in importance with the Brooklyn and Suburban Handicaps.

The stake is not so rich, however, but is nevertheless very interesting. Seven three-year-olds are named to go in the event, including Leigh & Rose's Lazzarone.

Mr. F. Dwyer has Banquet, Raceland and Don Alonza entered, and Richard Croker, under the name of the Manhattan Stable, enters Prince George and Armitage.

Lamplighter is also named to go, and Charade, last yar's Metropolitan winner, will be among the number to face the starter.

The added money this year is $5,000 as against $10,000 last year. The entries are as follows:

Metropolitan Handicap; for all ages; $100 each; half forfeit; $5 if declared by Feb. 20, 1894; with $5,000 added; mile and a furlong; 51 entries; weights to be announced Feb. 1, 1894.

ALD. MURPHY'S FUNERAL.

Church of the Epiphany Crowded with City Officials.

The funeral of Alderman William H. Murphy, held this morning at the Church of the Epiphany, Second avenue and Twenty-first street, was very largely attended. Mayor Gilroy, Richard Croker, the Board of Aldermen and several associations and the big political and social following the dead official had, crowded the church to the doors.

The Board of Aldermen assembled at Tammany Hall at 9 o'clock. Only four members were absent. President McClelland headed them, as wearing crape on their arms they proceeded to the Murphy residence, at 322 East Twenty-first street.

The coffin was carried from the house to the church by the undertaker's assistants. Behind walked the honorary pall-bearers, ex-Senator Cunningham, ex-Judge W. H. Kelly, from the Anawanda Club; James T. Regnam, P. F. Cary, from the General Committee of Tammany; Edward Coady and P. H. Travers, from the Epiphany Lyceum.

Mayor Must Vacate or Be Evicted.

(By Associated Press.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Jan. 10.—The Selectmen last night ordered Mayor Sargent to vacate his office in the City Hall before March 1 or he would be evicted.

Prevent the Grip

Dr. Cyrus Edson, of the New York Board of Health, says that to prevent the Grip you should avoid exposure to inclement weather, and keep your strength up, your blood in good condition and your digestive organs in regular action. The tonic and alterative effects of Hood's Sarsaparilla so happily meet the last three conditions that with the protection given by this medicine you need not fear the Grip.

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is an inexpensive medicine, and a single bottle may save you many dollars in doctors' bills and much suffering. Truly an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure. Be sure to get Hood's.

HOOD'S PILLS act easily, yet promptly and efficiently on the liver and bowels. 25c.

WAS THIS GIRL DRUGGED?

Blanche Dowd Found Lying Unconscious on the Sidewalk.

Claims She Was Robbed While Making a Visit.

Blanche Dowd, a good-looking blonde, aged twenty years, who said she lives with her widowed mother at 145 East Forty-fifth street, was discharged when arraigned in the Yorkville Police court to-day. She said that she was the victim of a false friend. She was found unconscious on the sidewalk at 1 o'clock this morning in Fortieth street, near First avenue, by Policeman Padian, of the East Thirty-fifth street station. He at once called a brother officer, and together they almost had to carry her to the station-house.

After a little time he revived, but seemed to be in a dazed condition, as though laboring under the influence of some drug. She was detained at the station-house and taken to court this morning.

She told Justice Voorhis that she went with a friend to another friend's house, where she alleged that, after drinking some sherry, she became unconscious. In her stupor she said that some one had exchanged wraps with her, giving her a poor one, and that she had also been robbed of a gold necklace and $16 in money.

The girl seemed to be very weak, and told her story in a straightforward manner, but declined to give the name of her friend or that of the person to whose house she had been. Justice Voorhis seemed to be impressed with her story and discharged her, advising her to seek the aid of the police to recover her property.

THEY WERE NOT FOR MELLO.

A Few Small Cartridges Were Smuggled for Sale in Venezuela.

A sensational story printed in a morning paper to the effect that 300,000 smuggled rifle cartridges destined for Admiral Mello had been discovered on board the Red D line steamship Maracaybo, has fizzled out.

The ammunition proves to have been about 2,500 38-calibre pistol cartridges which First Mate Thompson and Chief Engineer Houschell tried to smuggle on board to sell to Venezuelan hardware dealers.

The law now prohibits the importation of even small cartridges for sportsmen's use, and the price of such ammunition has in consequence taken an upward jump.

The fancy prices paid for small pistol cartridges is a big temptation to the officers of South American steamships to do a little quiet smuggling.

The cartridges on board the Maracaybo were discovered by Supt. Dallis yesterday morning, packed in a couple of soap boxes.

First Mate Thompson and Chief Engineer Houschell, both of whom live in Curacoa, Venezuela, were at once discharged, and the Maracaybo sailed this morning from Clerepont stores, Brooklyn with new men in their places.

CHARLES BLAKE'S FUNERAL.

Prominent Politicians Attend Services at St. Mary's Church.

Fun eulogies over the body of ex-Assemblyman Charles Peter Blake, who died on Monday last, were held at 10 o'clock this morning at St. Mary's Church, Grand and Ridge streets. The coffin was borne into the church by eight members of the Charles P. Blake Association. A requiem mass was conducted by Father Hughes.

The church was filled with relatives and friends. Those present included Charles S. Fairchild, William R. Grace, Police Justices Ryan and Martin, Civil Justice Goldfogle, William McAleenan, D. C. Mooney, William McKenna, John and Patrick Keenan, Congressman Tim Campbell, Senator John F. Ahearn, John Simpson, Frank Paul, J. L. Hunt and John Dyer.

Delegations were present from the John Simpson Association, Columbian Club, Oriental Club, Jackson Club and the Ancient Order of United Workmen.

The interment was in Calvary Cemetery.

CAUGHT ONE HUGGER.

Edward Deegan Held for Insulting Two Williamsburg Girls.

Edward Deegan, twenty-two years old, of 63 Broadway, Williamsburg, was held in the Lee Avenue Court by Justice Connolly to-day on a charge of disorderly conduct.

For several weeks back the Williamsburg police have received numerous complaints concerning the actions of young men who hug and kiss the girls they meet on retiring streets.

Last night Policeman Ward, of the Bedford avenue station, heard some women screaming at South Eighth street and Kent avenue. The policeman hurried to the spot and captured Deegan, who was accused by Lizie Dwyer, of 72 South Eighth street, and Annie Martin, of 74 South Eighth street, with having grossly insulted them.

MRS. D. G. YUENGLING DEAD.

Millionaire Head of the Yuengling Brewing Company.

(By Associated Press.)

POTTSVILLE, Pa., Jan. 10.—Mrs. D. G. Yuengling, the head of the Yuengling Brewery Company, and reputed to be worth several millions, died here this morning, aged seventy years.

She was the mother-in-law of General Supt. Luther, of the Philadelphia and Reading Coal and Iron Company.

ESCAPED CONVICT CAUGHT.

Detective Arrests James Martin at the Point of a Pistol.

He Got Away from Sing Sing Prison Last June.

James Martin was convicted a year ago stealing a gold watch from a passenger on a surface car, and sentenced to Sing Sing for four years.

On June 17 last he walked by several guards, scaled a low wall and was far away before any one realized that he was missing. Since his escape the police of this city have been looking for him.

Detective McManus, of the Central Office, has been watching a gang of alleged counterfeiters, and he came to the conclusion that one of the men he was shadowing was Martin.

He met the escaped prisoner yesterday at Seventy-third street and Third avenue, and told him to consider himself under arrest. Marden at once dealt the detective a blow in the face and started on a run down Seventy-third street. McManus caught him a block away and cornered him where two buildings joined.

Martin drew a revolver and the detective did the same. Matters looked dangerous when McManus called out loudly warning Martin of the consequences, if he fired. Martin thought better of it, dropped his weapon and surrendered.

He was taken to Jefferson Market Court to-day, after passing the night at Police Headquarters.

State Detective Jackson was waiting for Martin, and Justice McMahon turned him over. Martin will be taken back to Sing Sing to-day and will have little chance to escape again.

IT WAS A TRADERS' MARKET.

Grangers Weak on an Expected Falling Off of Earnings.

The dealings at the Stock Exchange this morning constituted nothing more than a trader's market, and the temper of speculation changed frequently, those operating being content with small profits.

After a decline of 1-4 to 3-4 per cent. right at the start buying orders appeared and carried up American Sugar 1-4 to 81; General Electric, 1-4 to 37 1-2; Chicago Gas, 1 to 66; Distillers, 5-8 to 26 1-4; Reading, 1-2 to 18 1-2, and New England, 7-8 to 11 7-8.

Later there was a reaction of 1-4 to 1-4 per cent. The grangers were especially weak, owing to the expectation of a falling off in earnings for the first week of the year, and sales for London account.

American sugar declined 1 1-4 to 80 3-4; Burlington and Quincy, 7-8 to 73 7-8; Northwest, 7-8 to 99 1-8; St. Paul, 5-8 to 56 7-8; Distillers, 1-2 to 25 3-4; General Electric, 3-4 to 36 3-4; Louisville and Nashville, 5-8 to 43 1-8 and New England, 5-8 to 11.

HE WAS A BOGUS BLIND MAN.

Captured a Nickel, but It Cost Him $5 to Do It.

Israel Ederson, of 8 Norfolk street, was fined $5 in the Tombs Police Court to-day for begging. He stood at the corner of Spring street and the elivery late last night. His eyes were tightly shut and his face turned towards the sky. He monotonously shifted his weight from one leg to the other and rattled a few pennies in a tin cup as he kept repeating in a sing-song voice: "Good people, pity and help the blind."

Kind-hearted Policeman Scholes, of the Mulberry street station, was trying hard not to see the beggar when a nickel was thrown in the cup by a passer-by and fell to the sidewalk with a ringing sound. Then the policeman was amazed to see the blind beggar throw his eyes wide open, stoop down and capture the coin before it had stopped rolling.

Before the needicant could fairly get his eyes shut again the big policeman had him by the collar.

SUICIDE AT SEA.

Barber Gotz Jumps Overboard from the Steamer Concho.

The Ward line steamer Concho, which arrived here last night from Havana, was docked this morning. Her captain reports that on the night of Dec. 29, on the outward passage to Havana, and when within a few days' steaming of port, the ship's barber, Charles Gotz, jumped overboard and was drowned.

Efforts to save him were of no avail. No cause can be given for his suicide. During the past Summer he had been employed as barber on the steamboat Monmouth of the Sandy Hook route of the Central Railroad of New Jersey.

"GREATER NEW YORK" BILL.

Burtis, of Kings, Introduces It in the Assembly.

(By Associated Press.)

ALBANY, Jan. 10.—Mr. Burtis, of Kings, has introduced the "Greater New York" bill in the Assembly.

A HANDY VAPOR BATH.

Set a red-hot brick on end in a cane-seat chair, or other suitable vessel; place the latter under a chair, on the seat of which a piece of flannel is spread. The patient, undressed, sits on this flannel, and the seat and the chair are well wrapped in blankets to exclude the air, his head is to be uncovered, says Hall's Journal of Health.

Open the blankets a little at the bottom, and carefully pour about a pint of boiling water over the brick, and keep up the steam by occasionally repeating this. The patient remains in the bath until relieved by perspiration.

To make a vapor bath in bed with hot-water bottles, fill about six oval-shaped half-gallon stone bottles with boiling water; cork well and fold each in hot, wet flannel. Lay over the bed a water-proof sheet and blanket; place the patient on these, cover him with a blanket and distribute the hot bottles about him, one to each side, to the calf of each leg and to the sole of each foot. Wrap up well with extra blankets and tuck in to retain the heat.

For the spirit-lamp bath, place a damp towel over the seat and before the front of a cane-bottom chair, under which a spirit-lamp is lighted, and over the lamp a tin vessel with boiling water in it. The patient, enveloped (except the head) in four or more blankets, sits on the chair until free perspiration occurs.

HERE ARE THE COMMITTEES.

Democrats in a Hopeless Minority on Each—Anti-Machine Men Fared Best—Ham Fish's Place.

(Special to The World.)

ALBANY, Jan. 9.—The Legislature of 1894 got fairly into the swim of business to-night by clearing out of the way all the small appointments and making public the list of committees.

The Senate Committees are highly unsatisfactory to the Democrats, though some unprejudiced ones, who got what they wanted, declared that the Democrats treated the Republicans in a similarly miserly manner last year. The presence of Senator Parker on the Finance and Judiciary Committees indicates that the majority is more inclined to trust the anti-machine Democrats in the State than those who come from counties that are in the grasp of bosses.

As predicted in The World two weeks ago, Senator Mullin is named as the Chairman of the Finance Committee, O'Connor of the Judiciary and Coggeshall of the Railroads. The list complete is as follows:

Finance—Mullin, Higgins, Lexow, Kilburn, Sheltzer, Cantor, Parker.

Judiciary—O'Connor, Coggeshall, Mullin, Lexow, Pound, Saxton, Parker, McMahon, Cantor.

Taxation and Retrenchment—Higgins, Parsons, Coggeshall, Bradley, Collins.

General Laws—Stapleton, Pound, Kilburn, Reynolds, O'Sullivan, Wolff, Guy.

Railroads—Coggeshall, Childs, Stapleton, Reynolds, Mullin, McMahon, Bradley.

Affairs of Cities—Parsons, Reynolds, Lamey, Stapleton, Robertson, Ahearn, O'Donnell.

Commerce and Navigation—Donaldson, Owens, Lamey, Robertson, Sheltzer, Sullivan, Bradley.

Canals—Persons, Stapleton, Sheltzer, Owens, McCarty, Rice, O'Sullivan.

Insurance—Saxton, Pound, Donaldson, Childs, Higgins, Ahern, Cantor.

Miscellaneous Corporations—Kilburn, Donaldson, O'Connor, Rice, O'Donnell.

Banks—Childs, Parsons, Coffey.

State Prisons—Reynolds, Robertson, Lamey, Collins, Sullivan.

Engrossed Bills—Lamey, Owens, Parsons, McCarty, Guy.

Internal Affairs of Towns and Counties—Lexow, Pound, Collins.

Literature—Lexow, Parsons, Collins.

Manufactures—Owens, Lexow, Wolff.

Roads and Bridges—Sheltzer, Donaldson, Rice.

Erection and Division of Counties and Towns—Lamey, Sheltzer, Sullivan.

Indian Affairs—St. Pierre, Parsons, Parker.

Poor Laws—Kilburn, Parsons, Ahearn.

Manufacture of Salt—Pound, Stapleton, Coffey.

Game Laws—Donaldson, Childs, Guy.

Grievances—Kilburn, Higgins, McMahon.

Public Buildings—Reynolds, Robertson, McCarty.

Public Expenditure—Owens, Parsons, Guy.

Agriculture—Parsons, Kilburn, Collins.

Joint Library—Higgins, Lexow, O'Sullivan.

Military Affairs—Robertson, O'Connor, McMahon.

Public Printing—Parsons, Owens, Coffey.

The distribution of the members of the House among the committees was held to be unjust because the number of Democrats on them is so small that the minority can never hope to have any important voice on any bills under consideration, neither can they hope to gather in much of the spoil, which, it is confidently hoped, will be plentiful.

Ex-Speaker Sulzer, of New York, is on the Ways and Means Committee, a place which his position as the leader of the minority entitles him to. Mr. Hennessey, of Kings, who was unjustly thrust off the Committee on Privileges and Elections, was placated by a seat in the same committee-room. The work of smoothing the ruffled feathers of Ham Fish, of Putnam, goes merrily on. He appears now in the exceedingly comfortable place of Chairman of the Cities Committee. With Fish in this place and Boss Platt fixing up a deal in New York with Richard Croker, the officials of New York need not fear any vexatious investigation. Fish has friends in Tammany, and Platt needs Tammany's help.

Fred Nixon, of Chautauqua, is on the General Laws Committee. This is the most important place assigned him, and this is not good enough to make him feel grateful. Nixon is a good fighter, and as he does not love Platt, he may try to make things lively. The Assembly committees in full are as follows:

Ways and Means—Ainsworth of Oswego, Fish of Putnam, Fuller of Jefferson, Brownell, of Broome, O'Grady of Monroe, Schoepflin of Erie, Stewart of Tompkins, Fairbrother of Queens, Sulzer of New York, Bush of Chemung, Hennessy of Kings.

Judiciary—Thornton of Orange, Ainsworth of Oswego, Kern of Madison, Terry, J. F., of Saratoga, Horton of Wayne, Porter of Oneida, Sheffield of New York, Terry, C. W., of Cattaraugus, Sulzer of New York, Butts of New York, Herrman of New York.

General Laws—Keck of Fulton and Hamilton, Wray of Kings, Glenn of Seneca, Robbins of Allegany, Stone of Monroe, Porter of Oneida, Nixon of Chautauqua, Cutler of Rockland, Ryder of Westchester, Southworth of New York, Finnigan of Kings.

Revision—Terry, J. F., of Saratoga; Clark, F. E., of Kings; Lounsbury of Ulster; Prescott of Herkimer; Smith, M. F., of Steuben; Clark, J. H., of Niagara; Glenn of Seneca, Robertson of New York, Stein of New York, McKeon of New York, Berry of Westchester.

Codes—Prescott of Herkimer, Kelsey of Livingston, Thornton of Orange, Taylor of Kings, Gould of Delaware, Keck of Fulton and Hamilton, Kern of Madison, Vacheron of Queens, Martin of New York, Dowling of New York, McDermott of New York.

Taxation and Retrenchment—Matthews of Franklin, Nixon of Chautauqua, Tuttle of Genesee, Lawson of New York, Parkhurst of Ontario, Houghton of Kings; Lee of Cortland, Babcock of Steuben, Foley of New York, Kerr of Greene, Carroll of Albany.

Canals—Gerst of Erie, Stone of Monroe, Van Amber of Lewis, Hotaling of Onondaga, Glenn of Seneca, Lawson of New York, Nixon of Chautauqua, Hobble of Washington, Kelcher of New York, Graham of Kings, Hoysradt of Columbia.

Affairs of Cities—Fish of Putnam, Thornton of Orange, Wells of Onondaga, Whittel of Erie, Burtis of Kings, Sheffield of New York, O'Grady of Monroe, Taylor of Kings, Keenan of Rensselaer, Davidson of New York, Coughlin of Erie.

Railroads—Parkhurst of Ontario, Matthews of Franklin, Seibert of Erie, Clark, J. H., of Niagara, Thompson of Dutchess, Howe of Tioga, Eldridge of Warren, Hoefler of Oneida, Gleason of New York, Cassidan of Rensselaer, Douglas of Albany.

Commerce and Navigation—Higbie of Suffolk, Wieman of Kings, Braun of Erie, Schulz, H., of Kings, Cutler of Rockland, Robertson of New York, Dean of Orange, Smith, S. W., of Orleans, Mittnacht of New York, Cain of Kings, Chapman of Schoharie.

Insurance—Hobble of Washington, Wray of Kings, Whittel of Erie, Howe of Tioga, Cutler of Rockland, Clark, E. E., of Kings, Ryder of Otsego, Wells of Onondaga, Loonan of Kings, Harrigan of Westchester, McNamee of Ulster.

Banks—Thompson of Dutchess, Tilton of Wyoming, Fuller of Jefferson, Gardiner of Montgomery, Gerst of Erie, Denniston of Monroe, Robson of Yates, Mesmiter of Sullivan, Roche of New York, Trainor of New York, Reilly of New York.

Electricity, Gas and Water Supply—Lounsbury of Ulster, Scanlon of Kings, Braun of Erie, Hotaling of Onondaga, Mesmiter of Sullivan, Dean of Orange, Wray of Kings, Hobble of Washington, Robinson of Queens, Cahill of Kings, Bush of Chemung.

Internal Affairs—Mesmiter, of Sullivan Howe, of Tioga, Wyckoff of Onondaga, Snyder of Schuyler, Ryder of Otsego, Sherwood of Chenango, Clark, J. H. of Niagara, Stevens of Essex, Dinkelspiel of New York, Plant of Kings, La Fetra of New York.

Labor and Industries—Hotaling of Onondaga, Roberts of New York, Scanlon of Kings, Hoefler of Oneida, Fairbrother of Queens, Gray of Dutchess, Babcock of Steuben, Corrigan of New York, Lasch of Albany, Cahill of Kings, Tobin of New York.

SOME EVENTS OF BANK DAY.

Dumont Clarke Succeeds Geo. S. Coe as Head of the American Exchange National—Other Changes.

Yesterday was bank day and a majority of the banks of this city held their annual meeting and elected officers. In the American Exchange National Bank President George S. Coe retires. He is succeeded by Dumont Clarke, for many years Vice-President of the bank and its active head. The election of Mr. Clarke by the directors, for the Presidency, was a most natural one, and meets the approval of the entire banking fraternity.

Mr. Clarke has been identified with the American Exchange Bank for over thirty years, beginning as head of the check department and working his way up, as confidential clerk, Cashier and Vice-President, to the position to which he was elected yesterday. He has always been regarded as an active, hard-working and conservative banker. Owing to the ill-health of Mr. Coe, which necessitated his relinquishing active work, the real charge of the bank has devolved upon Mr Clarke as Vice-President for many months. Mr. Coe continues as a director and Chairman of the Executive Committee. He has been connected with the bank for over forty years, and has been President since 1869.

The United States National Bank was expected to make some change, but at the bank it was said that the old Board of Directors had been re-elected, and that J. H. Parker, the President, of whom it has been rumored recently that he wished to retire, was also re-elected. The United States, it is understood, is considering a proposition from the Southern National Bank to consolidate its interests with those of the latter.

The Merchants' National Bank elected Henry W. Banks, of H. W. Banks & Co., and Joseph W. Ogden, of Kessell & Co., to fill vacancies in the directory.

The Shoe and Leather National Bank elected Mortimer C. Ogden and John N. Beach directors, to succeed William Sulzbacher and Moriz Josephtal.

At the meeting of the stockholders of the Manhattan Trust Company the following were elected directors: August Belmont, H. W. Cannon, R. J. Cross, Rudolph Ellis, of Philadelphia; John R. Ford, Amos T. French, John N. A. Griswold, R. L. Higginson, of Boston; John Kean, Jr., of New Jersey; J. Howard Latham, John G. Moore, E. D. Randolph, A. S. Rosenbaum, James O. Sheldon, Edward Tuck, J. Kennedy Tod, John I. Waterbury and R. T. Wilson.

EDWARD COOPER WON'T TELL.

The Story Is that He Was Offered the Italian Mission and Declined It.

It was told yesterday that after Mr. Van Alen resigned the Italian mission President Cleveland proffered the place to ex-Gov. Russell, of Massachusetts, who declined it, whereupon ex-Mayor Edward Cooper was given a chance to go to Rome. He would not accept the place, however, and the plum fell to Mr. MacVeagh.

Mr. Cooper was seen last evening at his residence in North Washington Square. After he had been told of the story he was asked:

"Is it true that President Cleveland offered you the Italian mission?"

"I must decline to answer," said Mr. Cooper. "It is not a subject I care to speak of."

FATHER VASSALO OF ST. TERESA

His Views Upon the Value of the $3 Rate to the Public---No Equivocation or Deception About the Methods of Drs. Copeland and Gardner.

It affords Drs. Copeland and Gardner great pleasure to present such testimonials as that given below by Father Vassalo, of St. Teresa's Church, Summit, N. J., because such testimonials represent the good wishes of intelligent, cultivated and philanthropic men, who have themselves in their own experience found the value of their treatment, and who testify to it from the simple motive of benefiting others. No other motive could be ascribed to Father Vassalo in giving his testimony, or to Father Kernan, Father McLaw, Brother Paul, Rev. Mr. Morse, of Rochester; Rev. H. B. Smith, Rev. S. R. Maxwell, Mrs. Livermore and others, who have testified in a similar way to the skill of Drs. Copeland and Gardner.

When it shall be clearly understood by every man, woman and child that through their efforts the highest and best medical skill is brought within the reach of all at a merely nominal fee, when it shall be understood by every man, woman and child in the community that their work is a benefaction to all classes, Drs. Copeland and Gardner will feel that they have received a just and adequate reward for their labor.

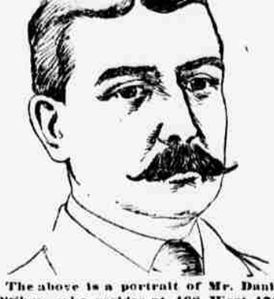
No better evidence towards the accomplishment of this could be given than such testimony as that given below by Father Vassalo. He writes:

"Having been a sufferer from asthma for many years, last fall, while under the influence of a severe attack, I consulted Drs. Copeland and Gardner. I am happy indeed to state the benefit I received from their treatment. I would not hesitate to recommend them to my friends or to the public in general. I would not hesitate to recommend them to all who are subject to any of the diseases which are included in their specialties, and to advise all such to visit them. I am sure that they would not regret being treated by them.

"I am also glad that the popular rate of $3 a month, which includes all medicines, places the treatment of these physicians within the reach of every one. I do not care whether the motive of these physicians in making this rate was a benevolent or a business one. I do not know; it makes little difference; the results are the same. I believe Drs. Copeland and Gardner are doing a vast amount of good to the community.

"(Signed) Rev. JOHN G. VASSALO."

The worthy clergyman who writes the above has been for a long time in charge of St. Teresa's Church at Summit, N. J. When he came to Drs. Copeland and Gardner he had a severe case of asthma, which had resulted from continued catarrhal trouble.



The above is a portrait of Mr. Daniel O'Shay, who resides at 408 West 47th St. He had suffered for eighteen years with Catarrh of the Stomach and Catarrhal Deafness. He says Drs. Copeland and Gardner cured his Catarrh of the Stomach, and so far restored his hearing that he is now able to hear words spoken in ordinary conversation.

THEY RESERVE THE RIGHT.

To Withdraw the $3 Rate Without Further Notice When They Find It Necessary to Do So.

Drs. Copeland and Gardner reserve the right to discontinue the $3 rate without further notice, by simply announcing the discontinuance in these columns.

Let it be clearly understood that by extending it for a short time, according to the announcement made during the last week of December, they place themselves under no obligation to maintain it for any specified length of time, or to any fixed day or limit.

The crowd of patients during the last week in December forced them to announce that the rate would be continued after Jan. 1, as the only method by which the time of the physicians and the rights of patients already under treatment could be protected. Their practice is strictly limited to such a number of pat
