EMBEZZLED $20,000.

Secathe and Schaefer Robbed Real Estate Agent Flannigan.

They Confessed and Refunded $15,000 of the Money.

Both Were Clerks in His Office and Falsified Accounts.

Detective Sergeants Heidelberg, Nugent and Doran, of Inspector McLaughlin's staff, arraigned in Essex Market Court this morning Harry Secathe, thirty-eight years old, of 508 East Eighty-fifth street, and William Schaefer, thirty-three years old, of 163 East Eighty-fifth street, and charged them with defrauding their employer, William C. Flannigan, a real estate agent, of 53 Bond street, out of $20,000.

Justice Koch remanded the prisoners to Police Headquarters until to-morrow morning.

They were arrested at the real-estate office by the detectives last evening and taken before Inspector McLaughlin.

There they confessed to their guilt, and $15,000 of the money has been recovered.

A few days ago Mr. Flannigan called on the Inspector and stated that some of the clerks in his employ had been defrauding him for upward of a year.

He stated that he represented about 100 estates in the city and that he kept a separate book in which the accounts of each of the estates were recorded. He also had a set of books in which he kept a record of the transactions of the business in his office.

Mr. Flannigan discovered on investigating the books that sums of money which had been received in rentals from the various estates had been correctly recorded in the books of the estates. In his own books in the office it was discovered that a good many entries had not been copied into them from the estate books.

In the mean time he had been paying out money regularly to the owners of the estates. He noticed, therefore, a falling off of the receipts.

Inspector McLaughlin detailed these three detectives, and shortly Schaefer and Secathe fell under suspicion.

The former, the detectives learned, while employed at a small salary, had $3,200 deposited in the Citizens' Bank, the Bleecker Street Bank, the Greenwich Savings Bank and the Bowery Bank. They were placed under arrest.

In Secathe's possession was found $3,100, and he also had in the office safe $4,000 with which he expected very soon to build a house. All this money Schaefer and Secathe acknowledged to be the property of their employer.

This morning Mrs. Secathe appeared at Mr. Flannigan's office, in Bond street, and turned over to him four $1,000 bills.

The two clerks had been in the employ of Mr. Flannigan for six years. He had the utmost confidence in their integrity. It is believed that other clerks in the employ of Mr. Flannigan will yet be implicated.

SWINDLED BY WOMEN.

Jacksonville Merchants Accuse a Pair Arrested in St. Louis.

(By Associated Press.)

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Feb. 1.—Deputy Sheriff Vinsant left yesterday for St. Louis with a requisition paper for Mrs. Townsend and her daughter, Miss Armstrong, who have been victimizing the people of this city for the last three weeks. They obtained goods from merchants on trial, to be returned if not satisfactory, but invariably kept the articles and never paid for them.

It is thought that the women were decoys for crooks who infested the city at the time of the prize fight. Three men were with the women and disappeared with them. The women are under arrest in St. Louis, but will fight against extradition.

NO PENALTY FOR THE CRIME.

Persons Who Sold a World's Fair Casket Discharged.

Mrs. Annie Keller and Martin Cuney, who were accused of selling a jewel casket which was on exhibition at the World's Fair Prize Winners' Exposition at Forty-first street and Lexington avenue, and which had not been released from bond, were rearraigned before United States Commissioner Shields this morning and discharged.

It was proven that the casket was brought from Germany for exhibition at the World's Fair, and that no customs duty had ever been paid upon it. The decision of the Commissioner was that the section under which the arrest was made did not provide a penalty, and therefore the charge must be dismissed.

Another Complaint Against Her.

Capt. Byrnes to-day sent another complaint to the District-Attorney's office against Mrs. Annie D. Bellak, who was brought from Boston yesterday and held for trial for several forgeries. The complainant in this case is Oliver E. Chessrow, of Catskill, N. Y., who stands to the Superintendent that he has been swindled out of $75 by Mrs. Bellak by means of a worthless check.

Jockey Wilson Had a Slungshot.

Robert D. Wilson, a jockey, nineteen years old, was held for trial in Essex Market Court to-day. Last night he quarrelled with a man in front of 214 Cherry street, and when Policeman Geagan, of the Madison street station, arrested him, he found a slungshot in his pocket.

ARRESTED WHILE IN BED.

Edward Tierney Is Charged with Stealing a Watch.

Edward Tierney, twenty-eight years, living at the Franklin Hotel, 815 Tenth avenue, was arrested in bed this morning by Detective Barrett, of the West Forty-seventh street station, and held in $500 for trial in the Yorkville Police Court, on a charge of theft.

Edward May, of 749 Tenth avenue, a collector in the employ of the Equitable Gas Company, says that on Nov. 29 Tierney offered to assist him in putting on his overcoat as he was about to leave the saloon at Tenth avenue and Fiftieth street.

May accepted his assistance, but missed his gold watch, valued at $50, a few minutes later. He at once suspected that Tierney had stolen it, but could not find him when he returned.

Since then Detective Barrett had been looking for Tierney, and last night located him at the Franklin Hotel. At 5 o'clock this morning Barrett awoke Tierney from a sound sleep. He turned upon the detective to resist arrest, but was subdued in short order.

SAYS BURKE CLUBBED HIM.

Samuel Silverman Prefers Charges Against the Policeman.

Samuel Silverman, of 141 Fulton street, called on Inspector Williams at Police Headquarters this morning and accused Policeman Joseph E. Burke, of the Eldridge street station, with severely clubbing him about a week ago.

Silverman's head was bandaged and he looked as if he had been roughly handled. Inspector Williams ordered a complaint made against Policeman Burke, and he will be tried by the Commissioners.

Silverman says that about one week ago he was accused by a man named Alexander Samuels, of 62 Division street, with having stolen his watch and chain. Samuels, while in a saloon at 48 Allen street, pointed out Silverman and said: "Officer, that is the man who stole my watch!"

Policeman Burke attempted to make an arrest, but Silverman refused to go without a warrant.

The policeman then, according to Silverman, began clubbing him, and finally dragged him to Essex Market Court, where, on being arraigned, he was discharged.

ROBBED HIS BROTHERS.

Henry Connaughton Partial to Their Gold Watches.

Henry Connaughton, of 174 Union street, Brooklyn, was held for examination on the charge of grand larceny by Justice Tighe, in the Butler Street Police Court, Brooklyn, this morning.

Jacob Fridmann, of 73 Myrtle avenue, was also held for receiving the goods stolen by Connaughton.

Connaughton's brothers, William and George, appeared against Henry. William said that Henry stole his gold watch and chain Jan. 28, and George said that Henry had carried off his gold watch on the same date. George's watch was recovered from a Fulton street schoolteacher, who gave it up as soon as Detective Rorke, of the Third Precinct, asked for it.

Detective Murphy, of the Third Precinct, tracked William's gold watch and diamond ring to Finnmann. Finnmann first denied having the jewelry or knowing anything about it. He was arrested and finally confessed.

WAS HE A VICTIM OF ROBBERS

Gilbers Dies From Exposure After Being Found Beside a Track.

(By Associated Press.)

FREEPORT, Ill., Feb. 1.—A man found unconscious beside the Chicago and Great Western Railroad track, near the village of Kent, recovered sufficiently to state that his name was Archibald Gilbers, and then died from the effects of exposure. On his body was found $50, a ticket from San Francisco to New York and a steamer ticket for Scotland.

It is believed that thieves attempted to rob and murder him on the platform of an east-bound train, and that he fell or was knocked off.

CASHIER WAS THE BURGLAR.

Man Who Robbed a Georgia Bank Attempts Suicide.

(By Associated Press.)

ELLAVILLE, Ga., Feb. 1.—Detectives from Atlanta have located the burglar who blew open and robbed the safe of the Planters' Bank last Sunday night in the person of J. C. Clark, the cashier. Yesterday he tried to commit suicide with laudanum, but failed.

Thirty-six hundred dollars of the amount taken was found in Clark's locker. Speculation, Clark claims, caused him to make away with the bank's money. He confessed to three bank officials. He was highly esteemed here.

No Shoes, No Father.

(By Associated Press.)

PEORIA, Ill., Feb. 1.—Almost four-teen years old, recently shot his father three times because he refused to buy him a pair of shoes. The injured man is in a critical condition. The boy gave himself up saying that he had killed his father and was glad of it. He is believed to be crazy.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria

A VERY TRANSIENT BOARDER.

Remained Only Long Enough to Rob His Boarding-House.

Said to Have Had Twenty Temporary Residences in a Month.

Walter Crane, alias W. C. Edwards, aged twenty-two years, who refused to give his address, was arraigned in Yorkville Court this morning by Ward Detective Donohue, of the East Thirty-fifth street station, and remanded until to-morrow. He was then taken to Police Headquarters, photographed for the Rogues' Gallery, and "stood up" for identification.

On Crane's person were found a pair of steel knuckles, a loaded revolver, a large jackknife, seventy-five keys of all sizes, a screwdriver and $2.50 in cash. Crane is a short, light-complexioned fellow, with an innocent appearance.

For a month past Capt. Martens, of the Twenty-first Precinct, has had his detectives and several policemen on special duty keeping a sharp lookout for a man answering the prisoner's description. Crane, it is alleged, has robbed at least twenty boarding-houses in that precinct alone during that time.

His last two victims were Charles Lewrentz, of 208 East Thirty-second street, and G. T. Bonn, of 141 East Twenty-ninth street. In the first house he broke open Mr. Lewrentz's trunk, Jan. 27, before he was in the house two hours, and stole an outfit of clothing, and also robbed an actress named Mrs. K. Erskine, a boarder in the house, of her silk waist, a stage dress and a fur cape.

When arrested he had on the trousers belonging to Mr. Lewrentz.

Last Monday Mr. Bonn came to Capt. Martens and said that he had received a visit from a sneakthief in the morning, who engaged a room under the name of W. C. Edwards, and professed to be a school teacher. Within two hours, he said, the "school teacher" had decamped with some clothing and jewelry. The description he gave tallied exactly with that given by the other victims.

Yesterday afternoon, as Detective Donohue was walking along Third avenue, he saw the prisoner walking along leisurely. As he fully answered the description of the boarding-house theif, Donohue placed him under arrest. Crane at first was quite indignant at the detective and demanded to know on what charge he was apprehended.

Donohue gave him but little satisfaction. He placed the miners on him and hurried him to the station-house, where he was subsequently identified by Lowrentz and Bonn as the sneak thief.

WHAT CAUSED HER DEATH?

Conley Was Last Seen with the Woman Found Lifeless in Bed.

James Conley, twenty-nine years old, was held for examination in the Essex Market Police Court to-day. Conley lived with a woman who went under the names of Mary Ann Burns and Mary Price in a furnished room at 112 Forsyth street.

Monday morning Mrs. Johanna Hempl, the landlady of the house, found the woman dead in bed. Conley had disappeared.

Mrs. Hempl notified Capt. Cortright, of the Eldridge street police station, and an investigation was begun.

Mrs. Hempl said that Conley and the woman had frequent fights and were always more or less under the influence of liquor. She could not say positively if they fought Sunday night.

A Coroner's physician examined the body and decided that there were suspicious circumstances attending her death. A post-mortem examination will be held.

Capt. Cortright and the detectives, after a long search, found Conley living with his aunt at 134 Second avenue. He said he was frequently away from the woman for three or four days at a time and that he did not know that she was dead.

He admitted that he was with her Sunday night and said that he left early on the following day to go to work.

AN ORANGE COUNTY CAIN.

Jesse House, Aged Sixty, Kills His Brother at Johnsons.

JOHNSONS, Orange County, N. Y., Feb. 1.—At Gardnerville, two miles east of here, this morning, Jesse House, aged sixty, pulled his brother Alfred, aged fifty, from off the milk stool in the stable and cut his throat with a razor, killing him.

He then tried to kill himself in the same manner.

About two months ago Jesse tried to poison himself with laudanum. He has been considered of unsound mind for some time.

Killed Babe and Slashed Herself.

(By Associated Press.)

ELMIRA, N. Y., Feb. 1.—Mrs. Jacob Hartley, whose husband died recently, became demented yesterday and killed her ten-months-old child by cutting its throat with a razor. She then attempted to end her existence in a lake nearby. Her recovery is doubtful.

AS TO GLADSTONE'S POSITION.

Pall Mall Gazette Insists that He Means to Resign.

Czar Out of Danger—General News by Cable.

(By Associated Press.)

LONDON, Feb. 1.—The Pall Mall Gazette to-day persists that it was right in its statement made yesterday, to the effect that the resignation of Mr. Gladstone as Prime Minister was shortly to be expected.

The Gazette says: "The announcement was made with a full sense of the responsibility. We were prepared for an official denial, but we were not prepared for a virtual confirmation of the accuracy of the statement from Mr. Gladstone himself.

"Sir Algernon West's words are: 'The statement that Mr. Gladstone has definitely decided, or decided at all, to resign, is untrue.' Obviously all turns upon the exact meaning which attaches to the word 'decision.' The whole denial is an elaborate endeavor to prepare his supporters for the step he has decided to take. It is now manifest that his tenure of office is limited to months, if not to weeks."

CORRIGAN AND ROME.

Vatican Report Insists that the Archbishop Will Be Called.

(By Associated Press.)

ROME, Feb. 1.—The report that Archbishop Corrigan is to be called to Rome is still persistently circulated at the Vatican. It is said that a summons will possibly be sent from the Vatican direct.

It is stated that Mgr. Satolli possesses letters proving the connivance of Archbishop Corrigan in the newspaper attacks made upon the Papal Delegate in the United States.

The report so persistently circulated at the Vatican is as persistently denied in New York.

WHEAT DUTY IN FRANCE.

Customs Committee Adopts M. Meline's Proposal to Raise It.

(By Associated Press.)

PARIS, Feb. 1.—The Customs Committee has adopted the proposal of M. Meline to raise the duty on wheat to eight francs, with the proviso that when the price reaches twenty-five francs the duty is to be reduced by progressive diminutions of fifty centimes.

The duty is to be removed altogether when the price reaches thirty-three francs.

ONE COMMITS SUICIDE.

Fate of Partners in the Solomon Mass Banking-House.

(By Associated Press.)

BERLIN, Feb. 1.—A special despatch received here from Frankfort says that Solomon Maas, head of the firm of Solomon Maas & Co., bankers, which failed on Monday last for a very large amount of money, has been arrested.

The despatch adds that the brother of the head of the firm of Solomon Maas & Co. has committed suicide.

BOSTON JUSTICE FINED.

Higgins Came to See the Sights, Got Drunk and Was Robbed.

F. A. Higgins, who says he was a Justice of the Peace in Boston, was fined $3 in Harlem Court this morning for intoxication. Higgins was found by Policeman Day, of the West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street station, lying in front of Dean's livery stable, on One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street, between Seventh and Eighth avenues.

As soon as he recovered from his stupor, Higgins told the officer that he came from Boston a few days ago to visit the metropolis. He said he started out with a friend yesterday afternoon to do some calling. He found himself in Harlem late in the afternoon, where he intended to go to the theatre.

In the evening he started for the Harlem Opera House, and that is the last he remembers, he says, until he awoke in the station-house this morning.

He said he had a gold watch and a $20 bill yesterday. These were missing this morning. A milkman said that early this morning he saw a negro run away from the place where Higgins was lying, carrying the latter's hat with him. Higgins wore a policeman's hat crushed in at the top when he came to court this morning.

He was well dressed, but his clothes were covered with mud and his necktie and collar stained with blood from a cut over the eye, which it is thought he received in falling.

Tried His Antidote on Dogs.

(By Associated Press.)

INDIANAPOLIS, Feb. 1.—Dr. Emil Beyer, demonstrator at the Indiana Medical College, tried the new permanganate of potassium antidote for morphine poisoning on two dogs at the City Dispensary, giving three grains of morphine in each case. On one dog they were administered hypodermically. Both dogs will recover, although the dog would have been fatal without the antidote.

Round About Town.

The contest over the will of Frederick A. Lovecraft has again been postponed on account of the illness of Surrogate Arnold.

David Bell, of 248 Columbus avenue, was held for trial in the Harlem Police Court this morning on the charge of stealing a can of milk from John Dunn, of 37 Hanover avenue.

Literary and musical entertainment by the Loretto Lyceum, of the Church of Our Lady of Good Counsel, for the benefit of the poor, Monday evening at the hall on Putnam avenue, Brooklyn.

Michael Olinsky, seventeen years old, of 74 Forsyth street, was held for trial in the Essex Market Police Court to-day on the charge of assaulting Jacob Smith, of 6 Essex street, with a stone.

Emile Leclare, twenty-two years old, of 2359 Eighth avenue, was held for examination in Harlem Court this morning on a charge of stealing $5 from the money drawer of Isidore Bauman's saloon at 209 West One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street.

The advertised Sheriff's sale of the contents of the Hotel Rochelle, on West Thirty-second street, did not take place to-day. Mrs. Clark, who kept the place, furnished bonds for the amount of the judgments obtained against her. The place was once known as the "House of All Nations."

GRATEFUL—COMFORTING.

EPPS'S COCOA

BREAKFAST—SUPPER.

"By a thorough knowledge of the natural laws which govern the operation of digestion and nutrition, and by a careful application of the fine properties of well-selected Cocoa, Mr. Epps has provided for our breakfast and supper a delicately flavored beverage which may save us many heavy doctor's bills. It is by the judicious use of such articles of diet that a constitution may be gradually built up until strong enough to resist every tendency to disease. Hundreds of subtle maladies are floating around us, ready to attack wherever there is a weak point. We may escape many a fatal shaft by keeping ourselves well fortified with pure blood and a properly nourished frame." Civil Service Gazette.

Made simply with boiling water or milk. Sold only in half-pound tins, by Grocers, labelled thus:
