The Lancaster Gazette.

CITY OF LANCASTER:

Wednesday Morning, May 24, 1854.

VOL. LVI. WHOLE NO. [illegible]

One by one the days are passing,
One by one the moments fall;
Some are coming, some are going,
Do not strive to grasp them all.

One by one thy duties wait thee,
Let thy whole strength go to each,
Let no future dream elate thee,
Learn thou first what these can teach.

One by one (bright gifts from Heaven)
Joys are sent thee here below;
Take them readily when given,
Ready too to let them go.

One by one the griefs shall meet thee,
Do not fear an armed band;
One will take as others greet thee,
Shadowed passing through the land.

Do not look at life's long sorrow;
See how small each moment's pain;
God will help thee for to-morrow,
Every day begins again.

Every hour that flows so slowly,
Has its task to do or bear;
Luminous the crown, and holy,
If thou rest each gem with care.

Do not linger with regretting,
Or for passing hours despond;
Nor, the only toil forgetting,
Look too eagerly beyond.

Hours are golden links, God's token,
Reaching Heaven; but one by one,
Take them, lest the chain be broken,
Ere the pilgrimage be done.

Hoss'ld Words.

RELIGION.

FROM HOUSEHOLD WORDS.

Like snow that falls where waters glide,
Earth's pleasures melt away;
They cool an hour's fevered pulse,
And colder are whilst they stay;
But love that from religion flow,
Like stars that gild the night,
Amid the darkest scenes of woe,
Shine forth with sweetest light.

Religion's ray no clouds obscure;
Bid o'er the Christian's soul,
It sends a radiance calm and pure,
Through tempests round him roll.
His heart may break with sorrow's stroke,
But in its deepest night,
Like diamonds shining when they broke,
That ray will light it still.

A NAME.—The New York Times calls certain snobs in that city 'Fifth-avenue dies.'

Integrity, however rough, is better than smooth dissimulation.

The man who does most, has the least time to talk about what he does.

He who murmurs at his lot, is like one bareing his feet to tread upon thorns.

Why repent a second time of an action of which we have already repented?

It is not the crown jewels alone that make the people servile. Every where the wise, lord it over the fool.

How few of us realize that as we rise each morning, and commence our various avocations, that we are one day nearer our final home.

Those who excelin strength are not most likely to show contempt of weakness. A man does not despise the weakness of a child.

Prime ministers and Presidents resemble laborers tempted by high wages to undertake difficult, dangerous, and deleterious employment.

A writer of high reputation is often praised for his faults, because, in criticising acknowledged genius, men think it safer to praise than to chastise.

Certainly at the day of judgment we shall not be asked what we have read, but what we have done—not whether we have talked well, whether we have lived well.

Boasting seldom or never accompanies a sense of real power. When men feel that they can express themselves by deeds, they do not often care to do so by words.

St. Paul had three wishes, and they were all about Christ—that he might be found in Christ; that he might be with Christ; and that he might magnify Christ. —Luther.

Every theory which urges men to labor and research, which excites activeness and sustains perseverance, is a gain to science; for it is labor and research which lead to discoveries.

Show me the wife that is blind to her husband's faults, and I will show you a happy woman; and a man who has no less to answer for, than were even the truth believed.

Solitary thought corrodes the mind, if it be not blended with social activity; and social activity produces a restless craving for excitement, if it be not blended with solitary thought.

A troubled mind is often relieved by maintaining a cheerful demeanor. The effort withdraws its attention from the cause of pain, and the cheerfulness which it promotes in others extends by sympathy to itself.

There are many who waste and lose affection by careless neglect. "It is not a plant to grow manurtured; the rude touch may destroy its delicate texture forever"—the subtle cords of love are chilled and snapped asunder by neglect.

The greatest esteem which an author can express for the public is, never to bring forth that which it expects, but what he him self, with that degree of culture, native and foreign, to which he has attained, discerns to be right and useful.

The words of a language are like the pieces of a child's dissected picture: and eloquence and poetry and phylosophy are the pictures made by putting them together; but, somehow, it is hard to fit the words in to their proper places.

If you love others, they will love you. If you speak kindly to them, they will speak kindly. Love is repaid with love, and hatred with hatred. Would you hear a sweet and pleasing echo, speak sweetly and pleasantly yourself.

A young person thinks it enough to do right. As he grows older, he finds it necessary to satisfy others that he has done so. Much of the time that might be spent in doing well must be used in securing evidence that we have not done ill.

It is a sound maxim, that every man is wretched in proportion to his vices; and that the noblest ornament of a young generous mind, and the surest source of pleasure, profit and reputation in life, is unreserved acceptance of virtue.

His arrangements with the Departments, and familiarity with the management of such cases, will enable him to procure warrants with the least possible delay.

Those who have already received their 40 or 80 acre warrants are now entitled to an additional quantity (equal to 160 acres.)

Regular correspondents who prepare cases and forward them to my address, for management here will be liberally dealt with.

DR. JOHN BULL.

SOMETHING

NEW AND VALUABLE.

THE most powerful King on the face of the globe now reigns supreme in the American Republic. The power of the crowned heads of Europe sink into insignificance when compared to that of our American King.

European Kings employ the power vested in them to increase the riches of the rich and lordly, and to reduce to greater misery and degradation the poor and dependent. Our American King goes forth with equal willingness to the lordly mansion and humble cabin, ready alike to administer relief and to offer health and happiness to the lofty and lowly, the rich and the poor.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

GREAT AMERICAN KING OF PAIN!!

Is the TENTH WONDER OF THE WORLD, and the greatest blessing ever offered to afflicted humanity; to the suffering millions, the Doctor can say, relief is at your command. You have only to use this magical remedy. All those who still suffer, and will not accept the proffered balm, deserve not the pity of their families.

This wonderful medicine, during the brief period since its introduction, has carried happiness to the hearts of thousands, and made life a charm to many who heretofore regarded it only as a painful and miserable existence.

To the winds with all Liniments, Embrocations, Pain Killers, and Pain Extractors, and let millions of glad tongues proclaim the merits of the great "American King of Pain," a preparation composed solely of vegetables and roots, produced by America's own rich and bounteous soil.

We would ask the Ladies, who are always competent judges of what is and what is not a valuable family medicine, to do us a special favor by giving the King of Pain a single trial, and if satisfactory, exert their influence in its behalf, recommend it, speak well and often of it, and see that it is used by their afflicted neighbors. The Ladies are always charitable, and when they induce their suffering friends to use this really valuable medicine, they will be doing an act of benevolence that they will be proud of. This is a powerful and truly magical remedy for all external diseases, sores, swellings, burns, &c., and for many internal afflictions, it is a certain cure, yet it is perfectly harmless, and incapable of producing the least injurious effects in the most delicate cases or the weakest constitution.

It is entirely useless to follow the old and worn-out system of publishing to the public thousands of certificates of wonders performed by this medicine. It costs but twenty-five cents to try it; and Dr. Bull stakes his well-earned reputation on the King of Pain doing all and more than he claims for it.

We would ask, have you the Rheumatism or Gout, these are not pleasant companions, and we know that you would like to drive them away as soon as possible, then use

"BULL'S KING OF PAIN."

Would you be cured almost immediately, of Bowel Complaint, Dysentery, Summer Complaint, Cholera Morbus, Cramp Colic, Head Ache, Tooth, or any other ache or pain, the remedy is simple and the cure certain.

USE THE GREAT KING OF PAIN.

Would you have your Sores, Swellings, Cuts, Burns, Scalds, Bruises, or any other wounds healed, we repeat it, use the

MAGICAL KING OF PAIN.

Would you be cured of Scald Head, Stiff Joints, Sore Throat, Neuralgia, Sore Breast, Lumbago, Tetter or Ring Worm, Salt Rheum, Bites of Poisonous Insects, Chapped Hands, and all other Sores, either dry or running, we say again and again, YOUR REMEDY is Dr. John Bull's

"KING OF PAIN."

Would you be cured of King's Evil, Cancer, Tumors, Eruptions, or any disease of the Skin caused by impure blood, then use Dr John Bull's Sarsaparilla internally, and the King of Pain externally, nothing can be more certain than a speedy and effectual cure.

DR. JOHN BULL'S

SARSAPARILLA.

This medicine, when used according to directions, will sure, without fail:—

Scrofula,
" or King's Evil,
Cancers, Eruptions
of the Skin, Erysipelas,
Tumors, Chronic Sore Eyes,
Ringworm or Tetters, Scald Head,
Rheumatism, Pains in the Bones or Joints, Old Sores and Ulcers, Swelling of the Glands, Syphilis, Dyspepsia, Salt Rheum, Diseases of the Kidneys, Diseases arising from the use of Mercury, Loss of Appetite, Pain in the Side and Shoulders, General Debility, Lumbago, Coughs, Colds,
Dropsy, Jaundice, Costiveness, Bronchitis, Weakness of the Chest, Sore Throat, Pulmonary Affections, and all other Diseases tending to produce Consumption, Liver Complaints, Female Irregularities and Complaints, Low
Spirits, Sick and Nervous Headache, Night
Sweats, Exposures, or Imprudences in Life,
Chronic Constitutional Diseases, and as a
Spring and Summer Drink, and General
Tonic for the System, and a gentle and pleasant purgative, it is superior to Blue Lick
and Congress Water,
Salts, or Seidlitz
Powders.

It is a remarkable fact, that among the hundreds of eminent physicians who have examined the recipe by which Bull's Sarsaparilla is prepared, not one has condemned it, but all approved it, and commend it in the highest terms. Many physicians express themselves strongly in the belief that it is decidedly the best preparation of Sarsaparilla that has ever been placed before the public. Although there are many physicians who feel a reluctance to having their names appended to the recommendation of any particular remedy, notwithstanding they may approve of it in the highest degree, there are others who frankly yield their support in favor of a remedy which they know is capable of doing so much good in an afflicted community. As an evidence, read the following from old and respectable physicians, of high standing in the community in which they live:

TESTIMONY.

Testimony like the following renders superfluous all comments on the efficacy of Bull's Sarsaparilla. From Dr. L. P. Yandell, Professor of Chemistry
