Washing Sheep and Putting up Wool.

EIS. OHIO CULTIVATOR:—I notice in the large quantities of wool annually produced in Ohio and New York, a great deal of the wool poorly put up for market. For the benefit of wool-growers generally, but more especially new beginners, I herewith give my views upon the subject—the result of many years experience in the business.

To have good wool, and have it look well, the sheep should be kept in good condition the whole year. Sheep may go a week or more before shearing, according to the heat and dryness of the weather. To have the wool right, the sheep, after washing, should be kept in a field well set with short grass, and free from black stumps and logs. They should be washed in clear water, until the water leaves the wool clear. This can be done in a creek or river, taking care to have a clean outlet path, naturally, or made so by straw, gravel or boards. If there be no creek or river convenient, the washing can be done in a box placed in a small stream. The box should be 13 feet long by 3½ wide and 3½ deep, having a platform of 4 feet, with lath nailed across it, for the sheep to walk out on; or under a waterfall, if water is plenty, and falls a sufficient distance, say 4 feet.

When shearing, the fleece should be kept as unbroken as possible, and should be done in the following manner: Place the cord on the table double, having each cord about 5 inches apart, with the loop from you. This is the first step towards good rolling. When the fleece is shorn, leave the tops of the wool out, take the neck in the left hand and the butt in the right, hold the left fast and give the butt a slight jerk, and the fleece will fall into a good shape for rolling. Now remove all tags, burrs, &c., spread or shape the fleece to a proper size, repairing all breaks that may be in it, patting with the hand to make it firm. After this is done, double the fleece by putting neck and butt together; put in all the broken pieces of wool in the butt, patting and keeping the fleece compact. Now turn the side of the fleece next to you half over, then turn the bellies to you, so as not to be on the outside; press the sides, and make it the proper breadth and length, according to the size of the fleece. To keep the fleece from breaking, lay your arm along the centre, and double over it, then draw out your arm and place your knee on the free end of the fleece, roll from the tail, pushing tight with one hand as you roll with the other. When nearly rolled, take the knee from it and turn the fleece with your breast pressing against it; turn in a little of the other end, pressing the fleece firmly with your breast. Now take the fleece and lay it on the cord, tie tight, and when tied lay it upon the table. If not a good shape, you can improve it by pressing it into the shape you desire. After this is done, pick it away nicely in a clean room or box, put a weight upon it, and you have it ready for market.

Yours respectfully,
THOS. REED.

Premiums at Fairs—A Good Suggestion

MESS. BATELMAN:—I have noticed in both the Cultivator and Farmer, remarks about premiums to be given at our State and County Fairs. The awarding of dollars has always seemed an unsatisfactory way of rewarding merit, particularly to the ladies; and the idea of silver drinking cups and goblets, in this age of temperance and cut glass, seemed also preposterous. In my travels, I have been invited now and then to the houses of our earnest agriculturists, and have been shown the beautiful awards given to their energy and perseverance. At one place, at the residence of Mr. Wm. D. Pierce, of Clark county, O., I was shown, I think, over a dozen silver cups, goblets, &c., which had been awarded for his fine cattle, mules, sheep and other stock. But I noticed these brilliant articles of exquisite workmanship, had to be brought out of a dark closet, and when examined for a moment, returned to their quiet and silent retreat. Probably not one visitor in ten was shown these treasures. (It was by accident that I was permitted the privilege; for a modest man or woman of course will not parade their own merits to the eye of guests, unasked;) and thus these awards unseen and unused, year after year, an anxiety to the owners, and a temptation to pilfering hands.

I could not help thinking, how grand we'd have been this expenditure of money appropriated to fine pictures, portraits of animals, statuettes, and other adornments for the home. Pictures that would chain the attention, and speak a moral to the heart, or give a thought of beauty, grace, taste and harmony to the mind, that would carry pleasure to the whole being, through that subtle conductor, the eye. Such things placed before children, would have a tenfold operation. They would be continual prompters to effort, and at the same time refine the taste, cultivate the understanding, embellish and beautify the home, and make even a humble domicil a studio of art and refinement. Every guest that entered the house would see without asking questions, and be silent, and carefully admonished to be up and doing in the advancement of society.

There is no estimating the effect of a good engraving, (and very splendid ones can now be obtained for a few dollars,) on those that, day by day, look upon them. I never go into a room where there are pictures, without a feeling of pleasure as I look, and they lead my mind away into channels of thought, very often, which but for them would have been left unexplored.

The amount now given in premiums in this country is a very considerable sum, and a new impetus would by their aid be given to artistic merit. I once received five dollars at a county fair by way of premiums. It was money, and as money passed away, and left no trace behind. Had it been a good book, or pleasant picture, it would still have been a pleasure. What say the Cultivator girls; would they not rather have pictures and books than dollars and silver cups?

FOUNDER IN HORSES.—One of our subscribers and a good horseman—Mr. H. Harris, of this county—seeing the article of Mr. Cowee in the Cultivator for March 1st, says he has a better way to cure recent founder, which is to lead the horse in the water and let him stand four hours to take inflammation from his limbs, then bleed (in the mouth) and give him ½ lb. glauber salts. Mr. H. says this never fails.

ANOTHER WAY.—A California correspondent of the Country Gentleman prescribes a table spoonful of alum to be thrown into the horse's throat. His tongue being held out of his mouth and his head high; then let go his tongue so he can swallow the alum and saliva. He has seen it tested often and always with success.—O. Cultivator.

DESTRUCTION OF ANTS.—We give you a sure remedy—procure a large sponge, wash it well, press it very dry; by so doing it will leave the small cells open—lay it on the shelf where they are most troublesome, sprinkle fine white sugar on the sponge (lightly over it) two or three times a day, take a bucket of hot water to where the sponge is carefully drop the sponge in the scalding water, and you will slay them by the thousand, and soon rid the house of there troublesome insects. When you squeeze the sponge, you will be astonished at the number that had gone in the cells.—Phil. Ledger.

CAMPHOR VS PEA-BUGS.—Having observed in the Horticulturist an inquiry relative to seed-peas damaged by bugs, I will offer a remedy, perhaps not new, but new to me—Four years ago, last spring, my seed-peas were more than half destroyed by bugs, the largest and best varieties being most injured. The summer following, I had boxes made, one for each variety, with a cover; and when the peas were gathered, I put into each box, with a quart of peas, from six to eight bits of gum-camphor, the size of a large pea, and mixed them together, and closed the box.—The next spring there was not a pea injured. I have pursued the same course every year since, and have not had one pea affected by bugs.—Plough, Loom and Anvil.

Grinding Corn and Cob for Stock.

MESSRS. EDITORS:—I take great pleasure in communicating to you the result of my experience in feeding stock. Until last fall, I had always fed corn in the usual way—in the shock and out of it, with the stalks, &c.—But being at our State Fair, last fall, I witnessed the operation of the "Little Giant Corn and Cob Mill," made by Scott & Hedges of Cincinnati, and at once determined to have one. I got it home about Christmas, and have since fed all my stock with corn and cob meal.—horses, horned cattle, sheep and hogs; and am well satisfied that it has saved me at least one third of the corn usually fed, and at the same time my stock have all done much better. I fed in stall, one yoke of 5 year old oxen, from 1st of January, when they weighed 2,991 lbs., until 22d March, when they weighed 3,540. I fed them just one bushel of the meal per day, with but a very small handful of hay. Another yoke of 5 years old, very thin. I commenced feeding 10th of January, weighing 2,209 lbs., fed them 1½ bushels per day, and on the 22d March, weighed them, found their weight to be 3,079. I feed the meal dry in each case. This meal feed has not caused any of my stock to scour.

Mr. John Haning, of Chauncey, in this county, uses the milk of 29 cows for clearing his salt, at the Chauncey salt works, and was feeding in the common way, dry corn in the ear, but got me to grind corn for him, which meal he scalded, and fed his cows not over half the quantity he gave in the ear, and in about one week he obtained double the quantity of milk. The roads became very bad, and prevented his coming for about one week, when his cows immediately fell back again as before, but by renewing again were immediately brought back.

I would not be without one of these mills even were I only feeding 300 bushels annually. I have done a good business in grinding hominy for myself and neighbors. I wet my corn with cold water for only about five minutes, and set the mill quite open, and then grind it through at the rate of 20 bushels per hour; then let it dry a short time, when by the use of a coarse sieve and fanning mill, I can get as good hominy as I ever used.

DR. HOOFLAND'S CELEBRATED GERMAN BITTERS.

PREPARED BY
DR. C. M. JACKSON,
GERMAN MEDICINE STORE,
No. 120, Arch St., A Door below Sixth, Philada.

Their power over the above diseases is not excelled, if equalled, by any other preparation in the U. S. or Europe, as the cures attest, in many cases after skilful physicians had failed.

These Bitters are worthy the attention of invalids. Possession great virtues in the rectification of diseases of the Liver and digestive glands, exercising the most searching powers in the wind, nerve and sections of the digestive organs, they are, without fail, certain and pleasant.

TESTIMONY FROM OHIO.

JOHN HOFFMAN, Jeffersonville, Ohio, May 30th, 1853 said: "I write to state for your satisfaction, and also for that of others, that your German Bitters is what you recommend it to be, a highly valuable medicine, which I know from having used it in my own family to my entire satisfaction. All who have used it give the same recommendation."

STEPHEN A. MEALY, Canton, Ohio, May 11, 1853, says: "Having heard your German Bitters highly recommended from sources in which I placed much confidence, I ordered four bottles from Cleveland. One of them I gave to my daughter who has derived great benefit from it; two of the others I sold immediately, and I would like you to send me a supply of it to sell."

JOHN CLARK, Brunswick, Ohio, May 26, 1854, says:—"Your German Bitters have proved successful in every case that has come to my knowledge, and has opened for itself a great demand."

THOMAS LEYCROFT, Covington, Ohio, December 27th, 1853, says: "My wife has been affected with the Liver complaint and Dyspepsia for a number of years, during which time I have spent a great deal for doctoring, but she received very little benefit therefrom, and had given the doctors said she could not be cured. Last spring she concluded to try your Bitters, she took two bottles and ever since taking them she has been able to attend to her business, until very lately she had a new attack, but has again commenced the Bitters. I have sold quite a number of bottles through her recommendation, and as far as I can learn, it has given satisfaction to all."

DAVID ABBOTT, Austinburg, Ohio, December 5, 1853, says: Permit me to bear testimony to the remarkable efficacy of your German Bitters in the cure of Liver complaint. For years previous to taking it, I was severely afflicted with disease of the Liver, so much so that I did not expect to live, but by a free use of the Bitters, thanks to a kind Providence, I find myself entirely restored to health and able to resume my usual employment."

These Bitters are entirely vegetable and free from Alcoholic stimulant and all injurious ingredients, mild in their operation, they strengthen, the system, never prostrate it.

They are entirely vegetable and free from all injurious ingredients.

BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS,

—FOR THE CURE OF—

CONSUMPTION, DECLINE, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, WASTING OF THE FLESH, NIGHT SWEATS, SPITTING BLOOD, WHOOPING COUGH, DIFFICULTY OF BREATHING, COLDS, AND COLDS, INFLUENZA,—PLEURISIC PAIN IN THE SIDE, AND ALL

DISEASES OF THE CHEST AND LUNGS

Dr. Hall's Balsam contains no OPIUM, CALOMEL, or any mineral poison, but is composed wholly of those Roots, Herbs and Vegetable substances which have a specific influence upon the lungs and their connected organs. Its immediate effect is to allay all irritations and gently remove the phlegm and other morbid secretions from the Throat and Air-Passages, thus relieving the Cough, by subduing the inflammation and other causes which gave rise to it. Balsam stimulates and imparts a healthy tone to the Lungs themselves, they consequently then more thoroughly to remove from the blood those impurities and diseased particles which, if retained, do so much mischief to the system, and are the foundation for incurable CONSUMPTION. It also exerts a decided action upon the skin, and assists nature in expelling through the Excretories, much of that morbid matter which would otherwise be thrown back upon the Lungs, thus relieving them of a part of their work, and rendering the system pure and healthy. When the Lungs are inflamed, it checks their development and further progress; or if inflammation has taken place, it assists the lungs in throwing off the corrupted matter, soothes the irritation, heals the ulcerated cavities, and restores them again to healthy action. This medicine, therefore, is not a palliative merely, which only relieves for the time being, but is a thoroughly curative, as it strikes at the very root of the disease, and by removing it, removes at once all its remote and attendant consequences. This is the DISTINGUISHED CHARACTERISTIC of a properly possessed, to equal power, by no other medicine of like nature, now before the public.

SEIDWITZ & ASKEW having purchased the establishment of Mr. Isaac Askew, would respectfully inform the citizens of St. Clairsville and the surrounding country that they will constantly keep on hand a good assortment of and every other article usually kept in our line of business. Our work will be made with neatness and durability, and in any style desired. We have also an extra quantity of Leather Wagon Whips. All of which we intend to sell low. Please give us a call and see for yourselves.

NOTICE.

I would just say to my friends and old customers that, owing to the state of my health, I have discontinued my shop in Mr. Wm. Seidwitz and my son Wilson, and the business will be conducted by them at my old stand. Feeling thankful to the public for the liberal patronage bestowed upon me during my continuance in business, I would say to all Mr. Seidwitz has been in my employ for several years past, and feel no hesitancy in recommending him to the public as a good workman who will do justice to them.

Yours,
ISAAC ASKEW.

DR. J. B. MARCHISI'S CELEBRATED CATHOLICON.

For the relief and Cure of suffering Females.

It stand pre-eminent for its curative powers in all the diseases for which it is recommended, usually called Female Complaints.

Of these are PROLAPSUS UTERI, or Falling of the Womb; FLOUR ALBUS, or Whites; CHRONIC INFLAMMATION AND ULCERATION OF THE WOMB; INCIDENTAL HEMORRHAGE, or Flooding; PAINFUL, SUPPRESSED, AND IRREGULAR MENSTRUATIONS, &c., with all their accompanying evils, (Cancer excepted,) no matter how severe or how long standing.

The Catholicon far surpasses other remedies, in being more certain, less expensive, and leaving the system in a better condition. Let all interested call and obtain a pamphlet (free) containing ample proof, from the most respectable sources, of the truthful results of its use; together with testimony from highly experienced Physicians who have used it in their practice, and speak from their own observations.

☞Letter addressed to care of Mr. Curtis Hatch, agent at Ravenna, Ohio.

To the Sick.—Suffering!—I have been ten years troubled with Female Complaints—prolapsus uteri, and all the attending difficulties; at times rendering my life most miserable. I have had the attendance of some of the first physicians, with but little success; the most they could do was to relieve—a cure was out of the question. For five months before commencing with your medicine, I had not been able to perform any labor, could walk but a few steps at a time, and scarcely went out of doors—in short, I was completely prostrated, both in body and mind, and expected to drag out the rest of my days in suffering and misery. But, reading your advertisement, I was induced to try your invaluable medicine called Uterine Catholicon, as the last resort. I had not used it a week before I felt like another woman. By the use of the second bottle I was enabled to perform all the labor for six in the family with ease, and could walk any where in the neighborhood without injury. Nothing but a sense of my duty to you and to the afflicted, has induced me to state my case to the public. I can safely recommend the preparation to all those suffering like myself.
