"Unquestionably the best sustained work of the kind in the World."

Harper's Magazine.

ILLUSTRATED.

Notices of the Press.

The ever-increasing circulation of this excellent monthly proves its continued adaptation to popular desires and needs. Indeed, when we think into how many homes it penetrates every month, we must consider it one of the educators as well as entertainers of the public mind, for its vast popularity has been won by no appeal to stupid prejudices or depraved tastes.—Boston Globe.

The character which this Magazine possesses for variety, enterprise, artistic wealth, and literary culture that has kept pace with, if it has not led the times, should cause its conductors to regard it with justifiable complacency. It also entitles them to a great claim upon the public gratitude. The Magazine has done good and not evil all the days of its life.—Brooklyn Eagle.

Notices of the Press.

The Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight. Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best designers. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read by at least half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Its articles are models of high toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corporative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.

Its papers on existent questions and its inimitable cartoons help to mould the sentiments of the country.—Pittsburgh Commercial.

Notices of the Press.

The Bazar is edited with a contribution of tact and talent that we seldom find in any journal; and the journal itself is the organ of the great world of fashion.—Boston Traveller.

The Bazar commends itself to every member of the household—to the children by droll and pretty pictures, to the young ladies by its fashion-plates in endless variety, to the provident matron by its patterns for the children's clothes, to paterfamilias by its tasteful designs for embroidered slippers and luxurious dressing gowns. But the reading-matter of the Bazar is uniformly of great excellence. The paper has acquired a wide popularity for the fireside enjoyment it affords.—N. Y. Evening Post.

The Sunday Edition, per annum	2.0

THE SEMI-WEEKLY TIMES.

The Semi-Weekly Times contains a very careful epitome of our foreign and home correspondence; an interesting selection of current literature from the best foreign and domestic magizines; a choice variety of agricultural matter, and the very latest news up to the hour of going to press. TERMS—$3 per annum. Club rates—Two copies, one year, $5; Ten copies, one year, $25 and one extra copy free. New names may be added to clubs at any times during the year, at club rates.

THE WEEKLY TIMES.

The Weekly Times is undoubtedly the best paper for the farmer, for the mechanic and for all who live in localities which are served only by weekly mails. It contains in addition to editorial comments on current topics an excellent condensation of the news of the week; the most important events, both home and foriegn, are reviewed at length, and a large quantity of matter is given especially interesting to the farmer and mechanic. Its market reports are the fullest and most accurate in the country. TERMS—$2 per annum.

Club rates of the Weekly—all to one Post Office address—Five copies, per annum, $7.50; Ten copies, per annum, $12.50; Twenty copies, per annum, $22; Thirty copies, per annum, $30, and one extra copy to each club. For every club of fifty, one copy of the Semi-Weekly to the getter-up of the club.

☞ When the names of subscribers are required to be written upon each paper of the club at one Post Office address, ten cents for each copy additional to the above rates

The Semi-Weekly and Weekly mailed one year to clergymen at the lowest rates.

These prices are invariable. Remit in drafts on New York or Post Office Money Orders, if possible, and where neither of these can be procured send the money in a registered letter.

Terms, cash in advance.
