NEXT WEEK AT THE THEATRES.

Smith and Cook Re-engaged for the Terrace Garden.

Frank Blair to Appear in "The Passing Show" at the Casino.

Smith and Cook have given such satisfaction at the Terrace Garden that they have been re-engaged for the coming week at that house. Other features of the interesting programme will be Frank B. Sheridan, "the original McGinty." Ella Caldwell, the popular balladist; Harry Welton and his famous cat circus, Ruth Ward and her four-legged dance, Martinetti, Ducrow and Lorello, the Rixford brothers, acrobats, and Harris and Walters, the refined German comedians. Nahan Franko and his admirable orchestra give concerts every night in the garden.

Frank Blair, a very clever comedian, will appear in "The Passing Show" at the Casino Monday night, taking the place of John E. Henshaw, who goes upon his vacation. Mr. Blair will play the part of Laf Quickstep in a broadly farcical way. The roof-garden artists will be the three St. Felix sisters, Christine Blessing, Katherine B. Howe, Harrison and Muir, McBride and Goodrich, the Electric Quartet of vocalists, Mlle. Theo, Evaline Paddock, Ray Semon, Frank Cushman, Blanche Siegrist, Nina Bertolini, the French dancer, and Hodge and Larchmere.

The De Foresets, grotesque character dancers, will reappear at Koster & Bial's Concert Hall next week, and so will Anna Caldwell, the comedienne. The balance of the programme will include Hammerstein's living pictures, Raffanella, the "midair illusion," Troja, Hacker and Lester, the three Elbardo sisters in their act called "Bric-a-Brac," Mlle. Naomi, the equilibrist; Marlo and Dunham, the horizontal bar performers; Calcedo, and Bunth and Rudd, the eccentrics. Louise Royce, Marie Gina, Josephine Sabel, and Theodore Roch will appear on the roof garden.

Miss Bessie Bonehill's engagement at the Madison Square roof garden has been extended. She will sing Monday night, for the first time in two years, "Playmates," the song in which she made her first success in this country. Adrienne Larive, the French chanteuse eccentrique, has been engaged and will give imitations of the Parisian can-can, while Tortajoda and her troupe will appear in a new Spanish sketch. Others will be Caron and Herbert, the Deltorelli brothers, Fielding, the juggler; Seeley and West, Cushman and Holcombe, Ryan and Richfield, Fannie Leslie and Annie Lawrence.

Austen's mammoth scenograph of the World's Fair remains at the Madison Square Garden Amphitheatre. The scenograph extends along the entire width of the auditorium, and it is well worth seeing. The spectator is apparently standing on a raised platform, from which he gets a bird's-eye view of the White City. He sees the lake excursion steamers, the electric launches sailing over the lagoons, trains leaving the stations and the illuminated fountains. Then he sees the Fair lighted up at night. In the Amphitheatre the Russian Imperial Orchestra gives concerts.

The Hagenbeck trained animals at Manhattan Beach are doing very well indeed. To-morrow night Mr. Barri, the trainer of the Siberian bears, will introduce, for the first time in America, a monster Siberian bear. This bear will box three rounds with his trainer. The milk-white donkey introduced during the past week M. Bethlow has made a great hit with the children, and so has Mehrmann's dude bear Pete. The daily excursions from Long Island towns during the past week have brought thousands of people to Hagenbeck's.

The Zamora family of Mexicans will make their first appearance at Eldorado Monday night. They do an act called "El Tripple Trapezo," that made something of a sensation in Europe. The four Goldsmith sisters will do a French quadrille dance and an Egyptian serpentine dance. Other specialists will be Maesig and Abacco, the Arabian acrobats, and Severus Schaffer, the juggler. The two charming ballets, "Cosmopolitan" and "Fairy Clouds Beyond the Stars," will be given in all their glory. The elaborate monster living pictures are a great success.

The living pictures will remain at Proctor's Theatre for a long time, and there will be a new series Monday week. The Wilbur Opera Company will end its engagement at this house with the coming week. "The Merry War" will be given for the first three nights and "The Mascotte" for the rest of the week. Among the vaudevillers will be Charles Robinson, Dave Genard, Charles Davis, Otto Maurice, Tom Young, the banjoist, and Ed. O'Connell. Hereafter, Mr. Proctor will present straight vaudeville and living pictures.

Manager Weyl, of the American Roof Garden, announces for the coming week the Salambos, Lolo Yberri, the Spanish dancer; De Bersell, the lightning modeler, some "real" pickaninnies who come directly from the South and not from Thompson street, and who will appear with Mme. Chadwick in a pantomime sketch, Victoria Waters, the Weston sisters, Dashway and Moulton, triple horizontal bar performers, and Sherman and Morrissey, the burlesque acrobats. Joan W. Ransome has been re-engaged, and so has the regular Koster & Bial's Hall Cheriff and Zara, the Honolulu dancers, remain at the Imperial Music Hall during the coming week. The balance of the programme will consist of Sherman and Morrissey, the clever burlesque performers, John R. Hardy, the juggler, Turner and Russell, Fleurette, the little high kicker, who first became known at the Imperial; Charles R. Ward, the character singer; Nizarras and Thora, and the two American Macs. The new series of living pictures still continues to please the patrons of this house. The attendance during the week was large.

"The Mikado" is still to be seen, heard and enjoyed at the Fifth Avenue Theatre, and there is no talk at all of withdrawing it. "The Chimes of Normandy," which was put in rehearsal some time ago, because it was not thought that "The Mikado" would run so long. "The Chimes," however, will not tinkle just yet, for Ko Ko, and Yum Yum, and Pitti Sing, and Pooh Bah continue to give general satisfaction. The keen observer declares that the general use of fans on the stage appears to have a cooling effect on the audience, as well as upon those using them.

Sig. Francioli, who has charge of the "Lalla Rookh" ballet in Pain's Amphitheatre at Manhattan Beach, has been busily engaged for some time arranging a new ballet for the spectacle. It will be seen to-night. The ballet has been rehearsed at the Metropolitan Opera-House, and will be, it is thought, a very imposing affair. The big spectacle is doing very well, and during the past torrid week Manhattan Beach has been crowded with people. Sousa's Band concerts must not be forgotten. They are delightful entertainments.

"Lalla Rookh's" Great Success.

Crowds of delighted auditors fill Pain's Amphitheatre at Manhattan Beach every night during the week, with the exception of Sunday and Monday, to see the Oriental spectacle of "Lalla Rookh and the Fire-Worshippers." It is one of the most artistic productions the Pains have ever staged. The new ballet, under the direction of Sig. Francioli, is proving more attractive than its predecessor. The display of fireworks this evening will be entirely different from any heretofore given.
