PROCLAMATION.

EXECUTIVE OFFICE,
Nashville, Tenn., May 9, 1862.

WHEREAS, Certain persons, unfriendly and hostile to the Government of the United States, have banded themselves together, and are now going at large through many of the counties in this State, arresting, maltreating and plundering Union citizens wherever found;

Now, therefore, I, ANDREW JOHNSON, Governor of the State of Tennessee, by virtue of the power and authority in me vested, do hereby proclaim that in every instance in which a Union man is arrested and maltreated by the marauding bands aforesaid, five or more rebels from the most prominent in the immediate neighborhood shall be arrested, imprisoned, and otherwise dealt with as the nature of the case may require; And further, in all cases in which the property of citizens loyal to the Government of the United States is taken or destroyed, full and ample remuneration shall be made to them out of the property of such rebels in the vicinity as have sympathized with, and given aid, comfort, information or encouragement to the parties committing such depredations.

This order will be executed in letter and spirit. All citizens are hereby warned under heavy penalties from entertaining, receiving or encouraging such persons so handed together or in any wise connected therewith.

By the Governor:
ANDREW JOHNSON.
EDWARD H. EAST,
Secretary of State.

What a Confederate Captain Says.

As showing what the Southern people are told and believe about the battle of Shiloh, we give an extract from the Columbus (Ga.) Sun of 10th April:

Captain Wright, chief of the ordnance department in the regular army C. S. A., has just returned from Corinth, where he went, after hearing of the battle, to take charge of the captured ordnance stores. What he says on these matters is official, and hence reliable. He left Corinth on Thursday evening, and related many interesting incidents of the battle. He says the skirmishing up to his leaving was very heavy, we always getting the advantage. Captain John Morgan was in his element. He would go out and bring in every few hours 50 to 100 prisoners. He, with Col. Forrest's and Scott's cavalry, would charge the Yankees, regardless of numbers, wherever they found them, never failing to rout and capture large numbers. He thinks up to the time of his leaving we had very nearly 6,000 prisoners; thinks we destroyed 40,000 stand of arms, and exchanged 5,000 to 10,000 old muskets, shot guns, &c., for very superior arms of the enemy picked up on the field; says Buell is positively dead; that we have Senator Doolittle a prisoner, and that he conversed with him.

Important Facts.

The Philadelphia Press furnishes some highly important facts gathered from official sources:

The proportion of free colored in the Northern States was about 1½ per cent. in 1790, and in 1850 the same to the whole population. The population of free colored in the Southern States was about 2½ per cent. in 1790, and 3½ per cent. in 1850 to the whole population. By counting the slaves with free colored, in 1790, in the Northern States (and the slaves in those States were all in a condition of partial freedom), the proportion to the whole population was about 4 per cent., so that the colored population is gradually disappearing in the Northern States, while, notwithstanding slavery, the free colored are increasing their percentage of the whole population of the Southern States. Take all of the New England States and the State of New York together, and from 1840 to 1850 the aggregate of the free colored population was reduced 571 during the ten years. The negro is really incapable of sustaining himself effectively in the struggle of races in the more northerly of the States, because, wherever he is obliged to protect himself against inclement seasons, he gives way to the Caucasian, and gravitates to the warm latitudes as naturally as water seeks its level. Thus, the folly of the contraband agitators, when they urge that free negro labor will drive out white labor, is as transparent as their treason, and becomes nonsensical. What has the white race to fear in a contest with the negro race? Absolutely nothing at all while the negro is in a condition of freedom, as we have shown.

On the 13th inst., Governor Johnson received from Col. Parkhust commanding 9th Regiment Michchigan Volsunteers, at Murfreesboro, a telegram, stating that he "had just made a thorough search of that town for arms, and had found over two hundred pieces heavily loaded, undoubtedly intended to be used whenever Morgan should summon courage enough to make his appearance, if that should ever be.

On receipt of this advice Governor Johnson directed the arrest of certian persons residing in and near Murfreesboro, and to be held as hostages for the good behavior of the citizens of that vicinity. The persons arrested are

We have not a shadow of doubt that there are hundreds of heavily loaded guns and pistols concealed in the houses of rebels in this city which are to be used if ever an occasion should present itself. Would it not be well to ferret out these private armories before some precious life is lost, of more value to the country than those of all the rebels in Nashville? Who ever heard of a Government suffering the secret arming of its enemies in a place where it had control, in time of an internal war?

A Heroic Boy.

From the Philadelphia Press.

When the armies of the United States, fighting, as they are, for freedom and the Union, enclose within them such heroism as that of the little boy mentioned in the extract which follows, can it be surprising that they overrun those of the Pro Slavery miscreants who are assailing the life of the Nation?

Let the name of this gallant little fellow pass along down!

Let Charley Biles be the equivalent of noble deeds, of the more exalted heroism of women! Let a grateful people place in the arms of his mother. I take the following from a letter just received, written by a gentleman of Dumas, to a relative of his city.

W. J. W.

"A little boy only twelve years old, whose mother resides in Woodburn, returned last week from Shiloh Landing. He was a drummer in a company of which his father was Captain. His name is Charley Biles. I saw well acquainted with the family, having been their Physician. This boy went through the whole of the Donelson fight, and was captured during the 1st day's fight at Pittsburg. His father was wounded in three places, while he had his clothes pierced with bullets and blood shot slightly disabled him for duty. His drum was shot entirely to pieces. The little fellow's gear looked very rusty, and his girlish face was tanned as dark as chocolate. His Colonel sent him home, with four wounded men by whom he had remained, and to whom he carried water on the field, when the battle raged the hottest. They say he never flinched. At Donelson he got hold of a gun, dropped by a rebel, and fired twenty rounds himself, by borrowing cartridges from the soldiers about him. I tried to get him to stay with us over night, promising to take him home in my carriage early in the morning. But no, he said he preferred to walk three or four miles in the mud and rain, after dark, for he wanted to see his mother that night. His father was left behind in a hospital."

ARREST.—M. A. Stemmons, of Paris, Ky., was arrested by the military authorities on Tuesday last, and brought to Lexington. Mr. S. announced himself on Monday last in a circular (which he distributed on the streets) a candidate for County Judge of Bourbon, in which he expressed disloyal sentiments.—Louisville Journal.

That is exactly right. What! suffer a rebel and a traitor to run as a candidate for any office in that Government which he seeks to destroy, and particularly one whose duties are the exposition, interpretation and enforcement of laws? Have we any such candidates in Tennessee?

NOT A COWARD.—It may be recollected that last year a young Vermont soldier was convicted for sleeping on his post as sentinel, near Chain Bridge on the Upper Potomac, and was sentenced to be shot. He was pardoned by the President. When, recently, the 3d Vermont charged upon the rifle pits before Yorktown, the first man who fell, with six bullets in his body, was Wm. Scott, of company K—the pardoned soldier. His comrades caught him up, and as his life blood ebbed away, he raised to heaven, amid the din of war, the cries of the dying and the shouts of the enemy, a prayer for the President, and as he died he remarked to his comrades that he had shown he was no coward and not afraid to die.—Exchange.

| Negroes, free and slaves | 10,000 |
| French, Italian and Spanish, Union | 5,000 |
| Total | 170,000 |

There are in the city of New Orleans societies of loafers, who, under the names of Thugs and Plug Uglies, have for several years made attempts to control the elections of the city. It is feared by the inhabitants of New Orleans, now in New York, that these men will again make their appearance, and kill in cold blood any person who shall manifest symptoms of love for the Union.

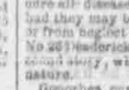
DR. COLEMAN'S
PRIVATE DISPENSARY.
THE attention of citizens, strangers, and others visiting Nashville, requiring medical aid, is respectfully called to this office, No. 21 Deaderick street, second floor, between Cherry and the Square.
Dr. COLEMAN is an old practitioner of medicine; his almost unlimited experience and flattering success for many years past, in the treatment of PRIVATE DISEASES, has induced him to devote his undivided attention to all diseases of this nature. Many cases of the most inveterate character have promptly yielded to his improved method of treatment.
Primary, Secondary, Tertiary and Hereditary Syphilis, Gonorrhea, Gleet and all diseases of the genital and urinary organs, meet with no resistance to his remedies.
A 3 female irregularities and functional interruptions of the Womb, and the diseases arising from Gestation and ill managed parturition.
Every case of Reducible Rupture, and of Piles and Prolapsus of the Rectum, and most cases of Fistula can be cured by a process nearly painless. If either of the latter cases is undertaken by Dr. Coleman, a cure is invariably warranted, as a careful examination always presents the necessary indications of success or failure by his improved method of operating.
Persons of either sex applying in person or by letter (describing case) on the first symptoms of any venereal disease, can be cured, in most cases, by the abortive method, in forty-eight hours.
Strict confidence, prompt attention, and moderate charges, will govern him with his patrons.
☞ No mercury used in the treatment of venereal diseases, as he believes (in most cases) it produces a worse disease than that it is given to cure.
Office hours from eight in the morning till nine in the evening. Jan 16, '62-tf

DR KING'S DISPENSARY
FOR PRIVATE DISEASES.


DR. KING, formerly of New York, for the last four years of Louisville, Ky., and who has devoted his attention to the treatment of private diseases for 10 years, latterly himself, having attended to a practice for so many years, and cured so many thousands, he is enabled to cure all diseases of a private nature, no matter how bad they may be from injudicious medical treatment, or from neglect of their own. Dr. King's Dispensary is No. 21 Deaderick street, between Cherry and the Square, second story, where he cures all diseases of a private nature.
Gonorrhea cured without nauseous medicines or interference with business.
Strictures of old or recent date, effectually cured in a few days, by an operation which causes no pain. Where a Stricture exists health cannot be enjoyed. Perhaps no disease causes more mischief and undermines the constitution so much.
Syphilis, with all the diseases of the skin, growing out of neglect or bad treatment, can be effectually cured in a few days.
Seminal Weakness.—Particular attention having been given to this disease, and all the consequences growing out of it, brought on in many cases by the destructive habits of inconsiderate youths, and excessive indulgence of the passions, a neglect of which will undermine the constitution, rendering the subject unfit for business or society, and ending in premature old age.
Females who may be laboring with any difficulty of the Womb may rest assured immediate relief.
Persons residing abroad, by writing and stating their case, with a fee enclosed, direct to Dr. A. King, No. 21 Deaderick street, Nashville, Tenn., will have the necessary medicines sent to their address. Office hours from 9 o'clock in the morning until 9 in the evening.
