Ouachita Telegraph

MONROE, LA., MAY 7, 1870.

TRAVELING AGENT.—Mr. Jas. C. Drew, general traveling agent, is authorized to collect and receipt the payment of all claims due this office.

☞ We invite attention to Fleming & Bros. advertisement of Dr. McLane's celebrated Liver Pills.

☞ John. J. Calcote, charged with murder and recently confined in jail at Vernon, escaped on the 28th of April. He is fully described and can be easily identified. See the Sheriff's advertisement.

THANKS.—To Capt. Geo. Chamberlain, Agent for the Gov. Allen, and Oliver & Byrne, Agents for the May Flower for late papers. To the officers of the steamers Welcome and Wade Hampton for a file of late papers.

☞ We are requested to state that Mr. L. V. Mayre having accepted an agency of the Piedmont and Arlington Life Insurance Company for South Mississippi, the agency for North Louisiana has been transferred to Mr. F. L. Petri, of Monroe.

☞ Arthur's Home Magazine and the Children's Hour for May are beautiful specimens of periodical literature; choice and select in matter; and practical and useful in suggestion, have justly won for them a high place in public estimation, and recommend them for renewed and increasing favor.

☞ We are under renewed obligations to Mr. T. G. Thurston, of the News Depot, for Waverly Magazine, Harpers Bazar, Every Saturday, Sporting Times, The Emerald and Jolly Joker. Mr. T.'s counter is covered with papers of all kinds, and his shelves are crammed with novels and stationery to suit the most fastidious. He will have on hand very soon a large quantity of music of all kinds. Give him a call.

A DELICIOUS PRESENT.—The Editor's little family desire us to tender their sincere acknowledgments through the columns of the TELEGRAPH, to Miss Sallie Mims, the fair and amiable donor, for a dish of large, luscious strawberries. They were the finest we have ever seen, belonging we presume, to a superior kind. Accompanying them was a well arranged and choice selection of flowers, which if they had been presented to some of the young men hereabouts, would have made their hearts rejoice exceedingly and sharpened their appetites not a little. We were kindly remembered with a liberal share, and must admit we were at a loss for language to express our gratitude. May happiness and prosperity attend the fair donor through life, is the wish of the little family and the writer of this notice. S.

NUISANCES!!

HOGS:—The law relative to hogs as it stands on the Statutes Books of the Corporation, if rigidly enforced, would do all we could ask to satisfy that part of our complaint.

That its enforcement should be immediately resumed is demanded on the ground of their multiplying tendencies, the vermin they produce and the mischief they make. We believe they are owned principally in the suburbs of the town, and run at large on those streets daily and not unfrequently show themselves on the main thoroughfares.

DOGS:—As to the law upon that subject we are not advised. The dogs are plentiful—too many for a count but not enough for a conjecture that might hazard a guessing reputation.

In nearly every instance they are useless and worthless, and some action should be taken to rid the town of them or compel their confinement.

COWS:—They are considered a great blessing, and every means compatible with our own comfort should be used to preserve them. Heretofore the limited number kept within the Corporation has not been sufficiently annoying to justify the town council in adopting restrictive measures relative to them. Now it is very different, every body has a cow and the result is that all the streets are thronged with cattle from sun down to sun up—obstructing the side walks to foot passengers and the streets to riders and drivers. It is the duty of the town council to correct the evil by requiring all cattle to be kept up all the time or at least enclosed during the night. It is not an answer to say that individuals should do it for the consideration they have for the public. Individuals as a class care nothing about the public and never adopt customs out of the range of their convenience.

☞ The Little Corporal for May comes in good time. Fresh as the flowers and bright as the spring time—full of good things for the children and for all who love children. Great improvements are promised in the already charming Magazine. One dollar a year. Sewell & Miller, Chicago, Ill.

THE ONEIDA—A Startling Statement.—One of the New York journals volunteers the following startling statement, which, we trust, will prove, on investigation, to be wholly without foundation, although there have been whisperings to the same effect heretofore in other quarters. The Express says:

"One of the officers of the Oneida, who recently arrived in this city, stated in the presence of one of the attaches of this (the Star) office, that at the time of the collision with the Bombay all the officers of the Oneida were drunk; that the vessel having just left port, the officers were having a 'little jollification below,' and that the deck was in charge of a midshipman. He stated further, that the Bombay was not hailed through a speaking trumpet; that immediately after the collision the utmost excitement prevailed, everybody madly rushing for the boats, and thinking of nothing else but self-preservation. The officers staggered to the deck in a condition of drunken stupor, and were totally incapable of giving orders or attempting to preserve their own lives. The fact of the Oneida's officers being drunk, however, would in no wise mitigate the crime of which the wretch Eyre is guilty; it need not even lead to infer that the Oneida was not properly managed at the time, but it certainly involves a question of naval discipline important alike to the Government and the people, which should be investigated.

A NEW CLIPPER FOR THE NEW ORLEANS AND OUACHITA RIVER TRADE.—We to-day chronicle the event of a recent contract and a due closure of the same by our fellow citizens Capts. C. A. Breard and J. W. Blanks, both of whom are skillful, prudent and courteous officers. She is to be built expressly for the above trade—in short, a permanent fixture, and for the accomodation of the people between this city and the various towns and landings hence to Camden. This foreseen palace of the Almighty's waters is to be a staunch, magnificent and swift packet. Her hull is by the renowned D. S. Barmore, of Jeffersonville, and will be in length 220 feet, breadth of beam 38 feet, with 32 feet floor, having a hold 8 feet in depth. Her engines will be made by Ainslee, Cochran & Co., of Louisville. Her cylinders will be 28 inches diameter, with 8 feet stroke.—She will have 6 boilers, 36 feet long and 38 inches in diameter.

Her cabin will be one of the finest on the river, and her outfit will correspond with the boat. Capt. Breard is the contractor for this fine and magnificent steamer, and is to be commanded by Capt. J. W. Blanks with Mr. Breard in the office. This new and magnificent steamer will be ready and completed for the commencement of the next season's business.—N. O. Picayune.

SINGULAR EFFECT OF TERROR.—In the East Indian rebellion, Col. Franks, after an engagement near the village of Chamba, took many prisoners, one of whom, a Bengalee, aged fifty-four, was conducted before the authorities to undergo certain interrogations.—The changes which this man's appearances underwent are recorded by Surgeon Major Famy. The prisoner, for the first time, seemed to realize the danger of his situation when he found himself stripped and surrounded with soldiers. He trembled violently, terror and despair being depicted on his countenance; and when replying to questions addressed to him, he appeared absolutely stupified, with fear.—"Then, under our eyes," continues the narrator, Mr. Famy, "and in the space of some half an hour, his hair, which we had seen to be of a brilliant black, became gray on every part of his head. The sergeant who had charge of the prisoner cried out 'he is turning gray,' and called our attention to this singular phenomenon, of which I thus, with many other persons, was enabled to observe the completion through all its phases."

A new application of the aspiring tendency of the times is manifested in the building of high structures in New York, and the introduction of elevators by means of which the labor of "getting up stairs" is avoided. The Equitable Life Insurance Company have recently built upon a large plot of ground at the corner of Cedar street and Broadway, a fire proof building, the domes of which pierce the sky, the upper stories having one hundred rooms for offices, heated with steam, and ventilated after the most scientific modern system, and which are rendered accessible by means of elevators, moving rapidly and with absolute safety, so that a person wishing to visit his lawyer can walk directly from the street into one of the steam cars always in readiness, (one ascending and the other descending,) and taking a seat on the comfortable chairs will be instantly lifted up to the desired haven, where he can consult his adviser in seclusion and repose.

To assume the garb of folly is, in certain situations, the most consumate wisdom.

A Radical paper has been established in Bienville parish. It prints the State laws, at about $3000 a year, and does the parochial printing, and judicial advertising for the people, although there are but two radicals, black or white, in the parish, and those are the editors. Of course it received all this patronage before it had attained the circulation of a single copy. This is a fair sample of Radical disregard of popular rights.—Natchitoches Times.

From Ohio, Indiana and Kentucky there has been shipped through Nashville to points South the aggregate of 30,000 mules alone, within the past two years. It will take from 10,000 to 15,000 mules per year to supply the demand South for many years to come. The Southern States have now reached a state of progression. The rapid progress which will attend them within the next few years will be astonishing.

DR. M'LANE'S CELEBRATED LIVER PILLS,

Hepatitis or Liver Complaint,

DYSPEPSIA AND SICK HEADACHE.

Symptoms of a Diseased Liver.

PAIN in the right side, under the edge of the ribs, increase on pressure; sometimes the pain is in the left side; the patient is rarely able to lie on the left side; sometimes the pain is felt under the shoulder-blade, and it frequently extends to the top of the shoulder, and is sometimes mistaken for a rheumatism in the arm. The stomach is affected with loss of appetite and sickness; the bowels in general are costive, sometimes alternative with lax; the head is troubled with pain, accompanied with a dull, heavy sensation in the back part. There is generally a considerable loss of memory, accompanied with a painful sensation of having left undone something which ought to have been done. A slight, dry cough is sometimes an attendant. The patient complains of weariness and debility; he is easily startled, his feet are cold or burning, and he complains of a prickly sensation of the skin; his spirits are low; and although he is satisfied that exercise would be beneficial to him, yet he can scarcely summon up fortitude enough to try it. In fact, he distrusts every remedy. Several of the above symptoms attend the disease, but cases have occurred where few of them existed, yet examination of the body, after death, has shown the LIVER to have been extensively deranged.

AGUE AND FEVER.

DR. M'LANE'S LIVER PILLS, IN CASES OF AGUE AND FEVER, when taken with Quinine, are productive of the most happy results. No better cathartic can be used, preparatory to, or after taking Quinine. We would advise all who are afflicted with this disease to give them A FAIR TRIAL.
