CAMMEYER'S SHOE STORE

Shoes for Boys, Misses, Children and the Babies.

Our lines of these styles of footwear are complete in every respect. To begin at the beginning, that is half the battle.

So soon as baby is big enough to leave its mother's lap and toddle about on mother earth our shoes should be put upon its feet—because our shoes are not only the best and cost the least, but because they are formed aright and on proper scientific and proper physical lines for the feet of children.

One Day More.

Merchant Tailoring Offer

Ends Friday, March 23.

A Spring Suit or Overcoat to order—$11.90. A five day sale began Monday. Of course the Merchant Tailoring branch is very busy. There are 35 Spring fabrics from which to choose; among them English Striped Worsteds, Scotch Tweeds, Imported Blue and Black Serges, Foreign Coverts, Black Clays, as well as Oxford and Cambridge Vicunas. Even linings, bindings and thread are here for your inspection. We'll give you satisfaction with the suit—or give your money back. $25 wouldn't pay most tailors for the work. Here until Friday night at 11.90

SCHOOL BOYS CO TO COURT.

Big Row When They Accused Lad of Robbing Them.

Three days ago Capt. Vredenburg, of the Oak Street Station, received a written complaint from E. W. Ettinger, principal of Grammar School No. 1, at Henry and Oliver streets, that a number of his pupils were being held up and robbed of small sums of money on their way home.

Detective Snydecker was given the case and arrested fifteen-year-old John Reidy on a Sterling slip.

In Police Court, where Reidy was arraigned to-day, his mother, Mrs. [illegible] was on hand to plead for her boy. She made present nearly a [illegible] argument that they had [illegible] during the noon hour each day by Reidy.

Reidy denied the charge, and his mother became so boisterous, declaring his innocence and denouncing the detective, that the Magistrate threatened to lock her up for disorderly conduct.

Magistrate Brann said that it was plain the young prisoner was at least a liar, but discharged him after warning him that if arrested again, he would commit him to the Catholic Protectory.

WORTH OF BROOKLYN BOYS.

Court Valuation Higher than in New Jersey, so Trolley Company Objects.

Injured boys are worth more in the Brooklyn courts than in those of New Jersey. A jury gave little nine-year-old Alfred Clark $1,000 damages this morning for injuries caused by the shying of his father's horse at a passing trolley car.

The Brooklyn Heights Company will appeal the case. They say that Clark, the father, left his son in a delivery wagon unprotected, and that the company cannot be held responsible for the animal's skittishness. Alfred suffers from convulsions.

Driver Killed by Train.

Eugene Schauck, driver of a milk wagon, was killed this morning on the Beach street crossing at Red Bank, N. J., by the Atlantic City express. He was thirty years old.

DOG SETTLED THE CASE.

Kept Court in an Uproar Until Turned Over to His Owner.

A big Newfoundland dog kept Essex Market Court in an uproar to-day, while the Magistrate tried to decide whose bow-wow he was.

Fritz Vollmer, of 61 Rutgers street, and Louis Rubin, of 71 Monroe street, each claimed the dog. Vollmer said that the dog had been stolen from him, and Rubin declared that he had bought it from a fancier.

The dog settled the case by selecting Vollmer as his master and making a great fuss over him, while he barked furiously at Rubin. Vollmer was given the dog and Rubin threatened to sue.
