BABY'S NECK ODDLY BROKEN.

Physician Cannot Account for Child's Death. Investigation On.

George Malchik, twenty-eight days old, died on Randall's Island on Thursday, April 5, at 1.30 in the morning.

The mother, Susie Malchik, was attended by Dr. H. P. Lewis, of that institution at 1 A. M., and at that time the child was found to be all right. In half an hour it was dead.

The body was taken to the Morgue and this afternoon Coroner's Physician Williams performed an autopsy.

It was found that the child died from a broken neck. An investigation will be made.

"Of the making of books there is no end." But really great books are pitifully rare. The greatest book of the century (to judge by the sales, which exceeded 2,000,000) was "In His Name," by the Rev. Charles M. Sheldon. The same author has just completed a new and even stronger story, entitled "Will You Be Christ's Man or Not?" This great story will appear serially in the Evening World, beginning to-morrow.

Ehrich Bros.

In the Realm of Flowers.

Walk down the south aisle, ribbon-bedecked and bridged with arches of roses, poppies and violets. It requires no great effort to imagine yourself in the horticultural garden of a world's exposition, except, perhaps, the bright, fluttering ribbons lend a summery effect that nature herself cannot impart.

Cases and fixtures are in full bloom, and more, for here and there a cluster of red ripe cherries peeps from a bower of foliage and a bunch of luscious grapes hangs ready for the picking. White doves swing from the arches, emblems of peace and heralds of Easter time.

The following list hints of what is here for your admiration and choosing:

Roses,	Orchids,	Apple Blossoms,	Morning Glories,
Carnations,	Nasturtiums,	Grapes,	Violets,
Poppies,	Hydrangeas,	Currants,	Chrysanthemums,
Cowslips,	Snow Bulbs,	Cherries,	Holly,
Lilies of the Valley,	Camelias,	Heliotrope,	Jonquils,
Daisies,	Bluetts,	June Roses,	and
Lilacs.	Wheat.	Pansies,	All Foliages.

Large White CHRYSANTHEMUMS, with bud, value 50c., 29c.
Fine French ROSES, 6 in bunch, choice colors, value $1.75, $1.25.
Large clusters of CHERRIES, with Foliage, value 48c., 29c.
Clusters of imported GRAPES, with Foliage, value $1.75, $1.25.
Children's WREATHS, in Wild Flowers, Daisies and Poppies, up from 49c.

Something of Untrimmed Hats.

There are perhaps a dozen different sorts of straws among them—Tuscan, Rough and Ready, Panama, Neopolitan, Cabbage, Splits, Milan, Leghorn and Silk Effects. Second-floor tables are piled high with them. We have never offered a wider choice, nor a lower price-range. Turbans, Walking Hats, Toques, Short-Back Sailors, as well as the popular "Miss Hobbs" and "Anna Held."

We Are Trimming Hats Free of Charge.
