 One of the biggest family reunions ever held in Dakota county was that of the Rockwell family held at the George W. Rockwell home west of Homer last Saturday. Eighty-three members of the different Rockwell families assembled for the big reunion which had been planned for some weeks past, and spent the day in visiting, playing baseball, dancing, etc. Only two of the assemblage were from out of the county, and they were Mrs. Alice Walters, of Des Moines, Iowa, and Mrs. Minnie Bruce of Takamah. As had been planned when the reunion was first mentioned a permanent organization was effected and officers elected as follows: George W. Rockwell, president; J. H. Rockwell, vice president; George B. Rockwell, secretary; G. L. Rockwell, treasurer; Howard J. Rockwell, corresponding secretary. Speeches were made by different members of the association, and a committee on membership was chosen to open a registration book and obtain the names of all the members of the family. Taken in all it was a day to be remembered in the annals of the family.
