Only a few years ago Thurston county asked the state to make an appropriation with which to pay off the county's indebtedness, and now the expense of a county seat removal is asked for. Wonder who will be asked to pay for that.

Organized agriculture holds meetings at Lincoln, January 16th to 20th, 1911. Agricultural, horticultural and live stock subjects will be discussed each day. In the animal discussion, Tuesday will be assigned to horses, Wednesday to swine and Thursday to cattle and a general soil discussion is set for Friday morning. This is the great farmer meeting of the year and every progressive farmer in this community should be present.

J Adam Bede, ex-congressman from Minnesota, commenting on the present high cost of living, says:

"The present high prices, that have caused the present political situation, are the very natural result of high living. There are more automobile chauffeurs in this country now than there were soldiers in Sherman's army. The men who are acting as unnecessary servants might just as well be off fighting somewhere as to be engaged in that. During a war we do a little destruction, but what does the damage is that we withdraw so many men from active work. Well, luxurious living does the same thing and has the same effect. It causes high prices. Naturally the fact that the production of gold is doubling every ten years or so, also affects prices, but luxuries are the most important cause. The high prices came at the time of the tariff revision, so every one decided that the tariff revision was the cause of it, and the party in power had to suffer. Some men thought they would merely hurt the leaders, but they succeeded in defeating the party."

Should the women of a town refuse to notice the girl who has gone astray, and as they do, why is it? Men draw no such lines of ostracism and a man may be anything from a shiftless dead-beat to a seducer and murderer of character, the lowest rung in human depravity, and still float along hale fellow well met with the men. And even the women are able to find this yellow whelp "so charming" and more particularly if he has the "coin." So long as such an one keeps off the toes of men with red blood he may sail gaily along with a wholeskin. But with the girl, how different! Mothers gather their own daughters to their skirts and hurry by; matrons become suddenly and intensely interested in the distance; and young ladies who may little realize how thin the ice under their own feet, are wont to sniff openly. Even young men shield their cowardice by speaking only in the dark. Imagine, if you can, the feelings of a human being, who, living among joy and kindness and love, is denied every token of fellowship except as may come through the sordid channel of masculine passion. A jail sentence would be merciful by comparison. Why is it then that women, the sympathetic side of the human family, are most relentless with their sisters? Where is the good accomplished? Is it to point a horrible example? If so, the plan has never had the desired effect.—Coloridge Blade.

Items of Interest from our Exchanges

Pender Times: Mrs Bert Miller was down from South Sioux City Wednesday.

Ponca Journal: Mrs F D Fales was at Sioux City yesterday... Will Rooney of Hubbard visited in Ponca Sunday.

Sargeant Bluff Items in Sloan, Ia, Star: Mr and Mrs Martin Hawk, of Goodwin, Neb, attended the funeral of their little granddaughter last Saturday returning home Monday.

Lyon's Mirror: E J Smith an attorney of Homer was here Friday. His father, Joseph Smith was one of the earliest pioneer settlers of Nebraska, coming with his father in Dakota county, May 10, 1869, where they operated a saw mill.

Waterbury Items in Ponca Journal: Annie and Snyder Christopherson visited with friends and relatives in Crofton last week... Grace Wilkins returned to her school duties in district No 29, after spending a month's vacation with home folks at Homer.

Wayne Democrat: Mr and Mrs J M Bess visited their daughter, Mrs Persinger, at Emerson last week... The Eastern Star meets next Monday night for initiation and other business. Tuesday evening the lodge will also have an interesting session, Mrs Evans of Dakota City, grand worthy matron, being here to inspect the work of the order.

Ponca Leader: Misses Edith and Marian O'Connor, and May McCarthy were at Jackson Saturday afternoon to attend a party given by Miss Helen Kearney for one of her friends... Aubrey Bary went to Jackson last Friday and brought back 160 head of cattle for A H Hillis, which he had bought at Long Pine and will put them in the feed yard.

Emerson Enterprise: Harry and Lena Spranger of Waterbury are visiting at the home of H C Linafelter... Fred J Stewart, J A Ireland and Herman O Stark left with the land excursion crowd for Texas Tuesday evening where they will visit for about fifteen days... Mrs W Y McLaughlin visited Tuesday with her daughter, Mrs Burt Krozen at South Sioux City. She brought her little granddaughter back—at grandpa W Y's command.

Lyon's Special in Sioux City Journal, 12th: F B Alderman, of this place, died last night, aged 52 years. He was a state representative from the Sixteenth district, comprising Dakota, Cumisng and Thurston counties, several years ago. He was proprietor of the Lyons Marble and Granite works here, and had recently ordered his own monument, costing over $400. The funeral will be held Wednesday, and the remains will be interred in the Lyons cemetery. A wife and one son survive.

Winneshago Chieftain: John Alan was a Homer caller last Friday... Mrs Geo Thacker of Homer was a visitor here on Wednesday... Mr and Mrs Jay McEntaffer were the guests of Mr and Mrs T T Harris last Friday... M S Mansfield returned Saturday from Omaha, where he had been for a few days on business... Mr and Mrs Mell Niebuhr of the city were guests at the home of the formers father and sisters last Sunday... Louis Armell and Clarence Fisher and their families went to Homer Tuesday to remind Clark Owen that it was his 70th birthday.

Sioux City Journal, 12th: C T Case, former baggage master at the Northwestern station, is now proprietor of an express line between Sioux City and South Sioux City... The new Omaha depot at South Sioux City has been opened for business with Station Agent Cooper in charge. A concrete and brick platform has been placed, and the new building is equipped with suitable waiting rooms... A gang of carpenters is being employed about the Consumers Ice company houses at Crystal lake preparing the buildings to receive the winter stores. A new chute is going up, and the work of harvesting the ice will start soon... Although raining free under the combination bridge, the Missouri river has been locked in an ice prison below that point and in places is frozen entirely across. Looking more like a creek than a mighty stream, for the water is unusually low, with huge sandbars cutting its course, the Missouri has put on its winter garments. The records at the weather bureau show that the date of the freezing over of the stream this year is much earlier than usual. Although the thermometer has not dropped below zero so far this winter, there have been nights of persistent cold, and days in which the sun shows but little. The river seldom freezes completely over under the combination bridge, due to the fact that the current is rather strong there. Sometimes, however, the ice gorges slightly farther down the channel and then gradually forms upstream until the water is completely frozen over. The weather bureau records show that the Missouri usually freezes over late in December or early in January. The latest date during the last ten years is January 25, 1908. In 1904 the river froze over on December 31.

Homer Star: George Harris went to Fremont Sunday for the purpose of purchasing a thoroughbred hog... Mrs Marvin Armour attended the wedding of Miss Lena Rockwell in Sioux City Wednesday... H A Monroe and George Rockwell, jr, were in the southern part of the state the past week involving a yard and hardware for the Edwards & Bradford people... Mrs J H Spaulding went to Sioux City Thursday to see her twin sister, Mrs Jack Rockwell. A baby girl was born to Mr and Mrs Rockwell Thursday morning... The Sioux City Grain & Lumber company opened up the north elevator here last week and Tuesday they disposed of same to T J O'Connor who took possession of it at once. Mr O'Connor is recognized as the backbone of the grain and stock market in Homer and was accorded largely with boosting the high prices paid here last year. While this move cuts the grain firms down to two, yet the three elevators will be in operation... James Alloway, jr, quietly left Homer Thanksgiving, presumably for a few days vacation from his duties as manager of the Edwards & Bradford Lumber company of this place, but later developments disclosed the fact that he had at last tumbled to the Biblical teaching "that it is not good for man to live alone," and that he had gone to Primrose, Nebraska, to be married. He was quietly married November 29 to Miss Mary Adams of Primrose an estimable and accomplished young lady whom he had become acquainted with while managing a yard for his present employers in that section of the state several years ago. Miss Adams secured a young man of the most sterling qualities when she took James Alloway, jr, for a life partner. He is a product of this place, the son of Mr and Mrs James Alloway, honored citizens and pioneers here. Well, everybody here knows James, jr, and further comment is unnecessary.
