SKIN ITCHES AND BREAKS OUT APPLY SULPHUR

et ounce of bold-sulphur cream and heal Eczema eruptions right up.

For years, common bold-sulphur has cupied a secure position in the treatent of cutaneous affections, by reaon of its parasite-destroying proprty. It is not only parasiticidal, but so antipruritic, antiseptic and rearkably healing in irritable and inammatory conditions of the skin.

The moment you apply it to an itchg or broken out skin the itching ops and the healing begins, says a oted dermatologist. Just common old-sulphur made into a thick cream fects such prompt and remarkable sults, even in aggravated Eczema, at it is a never-ending source of nazement to physicians.

While not always establishing a peranent cure, it never fails to subdue e angry itching and irritation and eal the Eczema right up and it is ften years later before any eruption gain appears on the skin.

Any good pharmacist will supply an nce of bold-sulphur cream, which ould be applied to the irritated or flamed parts, like the ordinary cold reams. It isn't unpleasant and the rompt relief afforded is very welome, particularly when the eruption accompanied with itching.

THE REASON WHY! —By Heath.

Says Husband Hugged Another Woman and Then Laughed at Her

With tears perilously close to her eyes Mrs. Sadie Richards, Steelton, told President Judge Kunkel in April divorce court yesterday afternoon all about her husband Louis' unkind actions—and finished up with a tale of the unkindest cut of all.

Mrs. Richards kept a diary and among the entries were these: "Married in August; 'at home' in Septem- separated in November; seeking e in April."

ter recounting how abruptly Louis changed from a "jolly good fellow" before marriage to a "grouch" afterward, Mrs. Richards told of the unkindest cut. A week after their separation, she said, she met her husband in the street with another woman. And when he saw Mrs. Richards he deliberately took an armful of the girl, drew her to him—and laughed.

Rub MUSTEROLE on That Sore, Tight Chest

Try this clean, white, soothing ointment. See how quickly it brings relief.

MUSTEROLE does all that the old-fashioned mustard plaster used to do in the days of our grandmothers, but it does it without the blister!

Doctors and nurses frankly recommend MUSTEROLE for Sore Throat, Bronchitis, Croup, Stiff Neck, Asthma, Neuralgia, Congestion, Pleurisy, Rheumatism, Lumbago, Pains and Aches of the Back or Joints, Sprains, Sore Muscles, Bruises, Chilblains, Frosted Feet—Colds of the Chest (it prevents Pneumonia).

At your druggist's, in 25c and 50c jars, and a special large hospital size for $2.50.

Accept no substitute. If your druggist cannot supply you, send 25c or 50c to the MUSTEROLE Company, Cleveland, Ohio, and we will mail you a jar, postage prepaid.

WILLIAM NIESS, Sacramento, California, Says:

Gentlemen: Enclosed please find P. O. Money Order for $4.00 for which kindly send by return mail jars of 50c size Musterole. This is my third order of Musterole, which speaks well of its merits. Our friends and ourselves would not willingly be without it, as it has saved doctor's expense many times. (70)

Ailments of Men Happily Overcome

SUCCESSFULLY TRIED BY MANY.

Undoubtedly the following prescription will work wonders for that great class of men who, through dissipation of their natural strength, find themselves in their "second childhood" long before the three score and ten allotted to life's pleasures and enjoyments are reached.

It is presumed to be infallible and highly efficient in quickly restoring in "nervous exhaustion," weak vitality, melancholia and the functions.

First get fifty cents' worth of compound fluid balmwort in a one-ounce package, and three ounces syrup sarsaparilla compound; take home, mix and let stand two hours; then get one ounce compound essence cardiol and one ounce tincture cadomene compound (not cardamom.) Mix all in a six or eight ounce bottle, shake well, and take one teaspoonful after each meal and one when retiring followed by a drink of water.

By mixing it at home no man need be the wiser as to another's shortcomings ,and expensive fees are avoided.

Lack of poise and equilibrium in men is a constant source of embarrassment even when the public least suspects it. For the benefit of those who want a restoration to full bounding health, and all the happiness accompanying it, the above home treatment is given. It contains no opiates or habit-forming drugs whatever. Mix it at home and no one will be the wiser as to your affliction.—Advertisement.

I hereby announce myself as a candidate for the nomination, on the Republican Ticket, for the office of Representative in the General Assembly from the City of Harrisburg.

TONSILINE does its full duty—you can depend upon it. Keep a bottle in the house—where you can get it quick when needed. 25c. and 50c. Hospital Size $1.00. All Druggists.

PASTOR RESIGNS FROM MINISTRY

Former Messiah Pastor to Quit Pulpit For Editorial Newspaper Work

Special to The Telegraph

York, Pa., April 21. —Dr. Thomas Thompson Everett, for sixteen years pastor of Zion Lutheran Church, this city, tendered his resignation yesterday morning to the council of the congregation and will relinquish his duties here just as soon as it is accepted.

Dr. Everett has been in impaired health for more than a year and was notified several months ago by his physician, Dr. G. E. Holtzapple, that he must give up the active ministry and retire to some less exacting work.

If his vacation results in the restoration of health, Dr. Everett plans to resume newspaper work, at which he was engaged prior to his entering the ministry. He has several editorial offers under consideration and may take up this work in Philadelphia, New York city or Pittsburgh.

[Dr. Thomas T. Everett previous to going to York was pastor of the Messiah Lutheran Church, Harrisburg. He was at one time private secretary to the late Robert E. Pattison, Governor of Pennsylvania.]

Class Organizes.—Members of Elder J. A. Reinhard's Sunday school class of Pine Street Presbyterian Church has organized and elected officers to serve for six months as follows: President, Robert L. Arnold; vice-president, Gilbert R. Spangenberg; secretary, Earl Malsead; treasurer, William Lewis. Lloyd C. Pike was elected manager of a baseball team to be organized. The class will meet tomorrow evening at the home of James Culp, 115 Calder street.

Compiles Song Book. — The Lutheran Publication House, of Philadelphia, has in press a new hymnal "Hymns and Songs for the Sunday School," of which Harold Lewars, of Seventeenth and Boas streets, this city, is the compiler and editor.

To Attend Biddle Class Service. — Bishop James Henry Darlington, of this city, will attend the third annual service of the Drexel Biddle Bible classes, at Philadelphia next Thursday. More than 200 clergymen, representing the Presbyterian, Episcopal, Methodist, Baptist, Reformed Episcopal, Lutheran, Reformed Presbyterian, Covenanters, Reformed, Swedenborgian, Congregational and Norwegian churches, of Philadelphia, will occupy seats in the Protestant Episcopal Church of the Holy Trinty, Nneteenth and Walnut streets. Among the many speakers that are scheduled on the program will be Bishop James Henry Darlington.

WATER DRINKING SHOULD BE RULED

Dr. Dixon Gives Some Excellent Advice in Regard to the Use of Susquehanna

State Commissioner of Health Samuel G. Dixon gives some very wholesome advice in regard to drinking of water in one of his weekly talks on practical health and hygiene. The commissioner talks about it from the standpoint of a student of man and his organs and what he says is backed up by medical men. In his remarks Dr. Dixon says:

"Civilized man throughout the world has learned the necessity of eating at fixed times of the day, and with some variety of frequency and interval has arranged his daily life accordingly. He does not, however, seem to appreciate that to maintain health it is equally essential to drink freely of pure water. The medical profession fully realizes, and every physician in active practice has it impressed upon him almost daily that there is an insufficiency of water drunk by the majority of men and women. Water is needed to aid the working of organs of digestion and for the requirements of circulation. It is needed to replace the water that the body constantly loses through the skin and lungs as well as through the kidneys.

"It is needed no less to help in the solution and removal of various substances which form in the body and are harmful if allowed to remain long or in a concentrated form. To satisfy these demands a healthy man or woman should drink a pint of pure water, at a temperature of about 60 degrees, upon awakening in the morning, another pint an hour before the midday meal, a pint before the last meal of the day and still another before retiring for the night, providing it is at least three hours after eating.

"Flooding the stomach with water at meals is most injurious. Much ice water is highly irritating to the mucous membrane of the stomach. Taken with meals it often arrests the working of the digestive glands and causes an acute indigestion that frequently proves very serious with the delicate and aged. The habit of drinking water should be as regular as that of eating. Liquid foods and various beverages will not take the place of pure water or only to a very limited extent. Babies need it and are apt to suffer for the want of water given at regular intervals. Finally, it is worth remembering that the free drinking of water is one of the greatest deterrents to the abuse of alcohol."

Mother's Friend Before Baby Arrives

During several weeks of expectancy there is a splendid external embrocation in our "Mother's Friend" in which thousands of women have the most unbounded confidence. They have used it and know. They tell of its wonderful influence to ease the abdominal muscles and how they avoided those dreaded stretching pains that are so much talked about. This safe external application is gently used over the skin to render it amenable to the natural stretching which it undergoes. The myriad of nerve threads just beneath the skin is thus relieved of unnecessary pain-producing causes and great physical relief is the result as expressed by a host of happy mothers who write from personal experience.

It is a subject that all women should be familiar with as "Mother's Friend" has been in use many years, has been given the most severe tests under most all trying conditions and is recommended by women who to-day are grandmothers and who in their earlier years learned to rely upon this splendid aid to women.

"Mother's Friend" is declared by a multitude of women to be just what expectant motherhood requires.

You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. Get a bottle to-day and then write for our little book.
