BRYAN'S RESIGNATION RESULTS IN UNREST

Dealings Give Promise of Rising to Large Total; U. S. Steel Offered

By Associated Press

New York, June 9. — Secretary Bryan's resignation created some unsettlement at the opening of to-day's session on the Stock Exchange. Initial declines ranged from 1 to 5 points, with pronounced weakness in war shares and other specialties coming within that classification. Dealings gave promise of rising to a large total, but bore no indications of liquidation. United States Steel was the only stock to be offered in large amounts, initial sales aggregating 7,500 shares at a loss of 1¾. Much of this was soon retrieved and rallies in other parts of the list followed in short order, some stocks making complete recovery.
