ONE HUNDRED PLAYERS WILL TRY FOR PENNSY'S FOOTBALL ELEVEN.

Quakers Promise to Have Best Team of Years This Season.

Not since the University of Pennsylvania adopted football has such a number of candidates for the team reported at so early a date as this year. When Head Coach Woodruff assembled the men on Franklin Field for their first practice over forty men were present. It is expected the roll will exceed one hundred before the real hard work begins.

This is gratifying to the managers, and a team of a superior quality to that which has represented the red and blue in past years is expected to develop. One thing is certain and that is the eleven will be heavier than ever.

OLD PLAYERS IN TRIM.

While the entire team of last year has not reported, several members have, and all showed up in excellent trim. Hodge, Oglesby, McCloskey and the two Gardiner boys were among them, and they put in their first day's work in pretty much the same style they finished last year.

But it's to the new material that Coach Woodruff is looking. He has divided the new men into two squads, and will personally watch their development. Capt. Hare and Bert Kennedy are assisting him, and at present everything gives promise of an excellent season.

FIRST DAY'S PRACTICE.

The first day's practice consisted almost entirely in chasing quarter-back kicks, Woodruff believing that this is one of the very best exercises for early training. Johnson, Graves and Woodley were all given trials at the quarter-back position. The latter was out for the first time yesterday and handled the ball with all the dash and spirit shown by him last year. His weak knee, however, is liable to give him trouble at any time, and he seems awfully light for the place. With these handicaps removed he would easily outclass the other aspirants for the place.

T. T. Hare, the hammer-thrower, showed good form in practice, and in all likelihood he will "make the team." He is strong and heavy and will make a formidable candidate wherever he is placed.

A temporary training table has been started, and Coach Woodruff has sent the following men to it: P. F. Snook, R. D. Starlett, C. Wallace, L. Smith, M. S. Bennett, Craig Mitchell, W. E. McMahon, G. S. Keller, S. Ogelby, J. F. McCloskey, W. Gardiner, J. Gardiner, F. Woodley, H. B. Hodge, Oscar Zimmerman, C. P. Sterner, Nelson Graves, r. N. McGee, T. T. Hare, John Teas, H. A. Davidson and W. G. Baird.

Coach Woodruff Has New Material in View—Team Will Be Heavier.

THE 'VARSITY SQUAD.

These men will be considered as the 'Varsity squad for the present and will be increased from day to day. They will observe moderate training rules in the matter of diet and general habits until Sept. 29. This is the date for the opening with Lehigh. After that the strictes rules and regulations will be followed.

PENNSY'S ELEVEN IN PRACTICE.

As shown in the accompanying cut, Sterner has just snapped the ball to Woodley, who is about to execute a quar back kick to the right side of the line. The men chasing the ball are Oglesby, Smith and Hare, in the order nam

NEW PLAYER FOR GIANTS.

He Is Bernard, of Albany ---The Game with Chicago To-Day.

(Special to The Evening World.)

POLO GROUNDS, Sept. 14.—As this was an off day in the League, the Giants and the Windy City team thought it would be a good opportunity to play off one of the postponed games.

The threatening weather kept the rooters away, there not being more than 200 present.

The Giants have secured another new outfielder. He is Bernard, of the Albany Club, who was signed by Manager Davis yesterday. Bernard donned uniform and practised with the Giants previous to the game.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, Sept. 14.—There was no weeping or wailing on the part of the few hundred fans this afternoon when it was announced that this was the Heinies' farewell performance for 1900. The weather was a bit dubious and it looked as though weiness would descend at any moment.

GOOD ONES IN 2.20 TROT.

Brandywine, Electric Wilkes, Leonard Bel and Other Starters.

(Special to The Evening World.)

EMPIRE CITY TRACK, YONKERS, Sept. 14.—Although to-day's card was not up to the standard of the previous four days of the National Trotting Circuit meeting enough interest was felt in the outcome of the 2.20 trot to bring out a very flattering attendance.

This race had such good ones as Brandywine, Electric Wilkes, Leonard Bel and Wilrissa among the starters. And the pools on these horses commanded a good price.

The first races, a 2.14 trot and 2.19 pace, seemed sure things for Bay Star and the Private respectively, but there were sufficient speedy ones in the field to create that uncertainty that makes the racing game so fascinating.

Before the start of the first heat the judges announced that they would institute a rigid investigation into any complaint of crooked driving. Even the fact that many of the drivers were gentlemen of wealth would not deter them from making an example of any one tampering with the form of the horses.

The allegations of unfairness in the first two days riding culminated Wednesday in a formal complaint against James Golden, a prominent breeder of Medford, that his horse, Capt. Jack, was not being driven to win. Andy Welsh could not substantiate his charges to the satisfaction of the judges and the complaint was dismissed, but the officials realize that these continual hints at fixed races are hurting the sport considerably.

As was expected Bay Star had no difficulty in capturing the first heat of the 2.14 trotting class. Iris O. made a game fight toward the end with Alice Barnes and managed to secure the place by a scant margin. Time—2.09.

The favorite in the 2.19 pace could get no better than second position in the first heat of this class. George, cleverly driven by McKenny, of Brooklyn, came to the fore with a rush at the finish and secured the decision. Suzette, an outsider in the betting, came in third. The winner's time, 2.10 1-4, was over eight seconds better than the class mark.

There was an excited crowd around the judges' stand at the end of the second heat of the 2.14 trot. Bay Star, the favorite, hit the fence at the half and broke. She lost considerable distance before she regained her stride and coming up the homestretch it was a question whether she could get inside the distance flag before the leader crossed the tape. Mr. Kinney, to protect the money wagered on Bay Star, started the mare running in the last furlong and just managed to escape being distanced. After considerable deliberation the judges allowed her to remain in.

Joe Watts was the first one home, with Lamp Girl and Iris O. the runners up. Time—2.10 3-4.

The Private was forced to his best speed in the second heat of the 2.19 pace and his time, 2.07 1-2, shows his class. George was second all the way and challenged the Private in the last sixteenth, but when only a half a length behind he broke, destroying his chances. Dick See was third.

That the public confidence in Bay Star was not misplaced was shown in the third heat of the 2.14 trot. She led the field from the quarter pole, and at the end two open lengths separated her from Joe Watts, second. Alice Barnes was third. Time—2.11 1-2.

The Jug in an effort to better his mark of 2.33 chopped off four and one-half seconds for the mile. He was paced by a running horse.

The third heat of the 2.19 pace was won by The Private after a game battle with George, who broke in the last twenty yards and was beaten out half a length. Dick See was third. Time—2.11.

The speedy Bay Star captured first place in the concluding heat of the 2.14 trot. Well driven out by Kinney, nearly two lengths separated her from Genevieve, who was second, and Dot Miller, who came from the rear in time to cross the wire third. Time—2.11 1-2.

The fourth heat of the 2.19 pace was a battle between The Private and Dick See. George broke in the first quarter and just escaped being distanced. Time—2.12 1-4.

KEENE READY TO RACE.

Would Match Tommy Atkins Against Ballyhoo Bey for New Purse.

The proposition of William C. Whitney to race Ballyhoo Bey against Tommy Atkins has brought out the correspondence which follows:

NEW YORK, Sept. 14.—I have received the following letter from the stewards of the Jockey Club, which fully explains their decision in regard to the Flatbush Stakes.

I cannot accept Mr. Whitney's remarkably generous offer to race again for a stake already won by him, but I should be glad to run Tommy Atkins against Ballyhoo Bey for a purse, each owner to add $5,000, seven furlongs, 122 pounds each, if Mr. Whitney's horse can be ready by the first week of the Morris Park meeting.

I regret to be obliged to impose these conditions as regards date, but Tommy Atkins has important engagements abroad and must be sent to England as soon as possible.

(Signed) FOXHALL KEENE.

Following is the letter referred to by Mr. Keene:

New York, Sept. 13, 1900.

Foxhall P. Keene, Esq., Bayside, L. I.

Dear Sir: I have been directed by the stefards of the Jockey Club to acknowledge the receipt of your communication of Sept. 1 lodging a protest respecting the payment of the Flatbush takess to the owner of Ballyhoo Bey. Your attention is called to Rule 134, of the Racing Rules, as follows:

"134—Every objection should be decided by the stewards, but their decisions shall be subject to appeal to the stewards of the Jockey Club, so far as relates to points involving the interpretation of these rules or to any question other than a question of fact, on which there shall be no appeal, unless by leave of the stewards of the Jockey Club. Notice of appeal must be given in writing to the clerk of the course within forty-eight hours of the decision being made known."

Your protest is made under this rule. It appears to the stewards to involve a question of fact over which the stewards of the Jockey Club have no jurisdiction without the consent of the stewards of the meeting.

If your protest can be so framed to rule 134, it will be considered, otherwise the stewards of the Jockey Club have no power to go further into the subject. Yours truly,

F. O. HANLON,
Assistant Secretary.

BEARS IN STOCK RAID.

Sugar and Brooklyn Rapid Transit Go Down in Attack.

Continued listlessness marked stock market dealings to-day and prices that were firm at the opening soon began to waver.

A demand for Sugar sent the stock up 3-4 of a point in the first hour. People's Gas advanced 7-8 over last night's closing, but the other industrials were inactive.

Of the tractions Brooklyn Rapid Transit was the feature, it being the only issue sought by buyers to any extent. The price gradually rose and in the second hour was marked up to 55 1-4, the opening figure, having been 54 3-4.

The railroad stocks were firm, but rather dull.

Burlington gained a half a point, being quoted at 125 1-4.

No important movements were developed up to noon and the list fluctuated narrowly. New Jersey Central opened a point off, while American Car stocks improved, the common gaining 1 3-8. Bonds were sluggish and irregular.

Shortly after 1 o'clock a bear raid was made on Sugar and other industrials and Brooklyn Rapid Transit was hammered down. Sugar lost 2 points and Brooklyn Rapid Transit 1, while Reading first preferred declined as much. Delaware & Lackawana losing a fraction.

Business increased considerably during the drive. Losses in the coalers, tractions and industrials ranged from one to two points. The steel stocks and principal railroads lost large fractions. The market lapsed into dulness again before 2 o'clock, but there was no cessation of the pressure.

The market steadied slightly during the course of the last hour, but the rails were feeble and the selling was resumed with renewed vigor, making the lowest prices of the day. Weakness was general and quite evenly distributed, losses ranging from a large fraction to over 2 points in special cases. The closing was active and easy at about the lowest.

The total sales of stocks to-day were 174,753 shares and of bonds $845,000.
