A STRANGE COLLISION.

Woman Nearly Suffocated by Horse Blanket in Third Avenue.

There was a bad collision on the Third avenue surface road at Third street this morning. One man was badly hurt and a woman passenger was nearly suffocated.

Car No. 189, north bound, crashed into a truck filled with packing boxes and the wagon was shoved violently against a south-bound car.

The driver of the truck was hurled to the street and badly injured.

A horse blanket was sent sailing into the south-bound car, completely enveloping a well-dressed woman. She struggled to free herself, and when finally successful the woman was nearly unconscious.

She was revived, and before the police arrived both cars had proceeded on their trips.

KILLED BY NEGROES?

Two Take a Third Colored Man and Throw Him Into a Creek.

SOUTH PITTSBURG, Tenn., Sept. 26.—Two negroes passed through here last night with another colored man, whom they said they were going to hang for an attack on a woman.

Officers heard of the affair and followed. To-day they found portions of the negro's clothing in the woods on the bank o fa creek.

It is supposed the negro was thrown into the creek.

UNCONSCIOUS ON 'L.'

Young Woman Seized with Fit on Station Platform Died in Hospital.

Miss Frances Graney, a stenographer, twenty years old, died in the J. Hood Wright Hospital from epilepsy this morning.

The young woman, who lives in Riverdale, was found unconscious on the elevated railroad station platform at One Hundred and Thirty-fifth street and Eighth avenue at 10 o'clock last night.

She had suffered from a fit, and during the night had a recurrence of the convulsions in the hospital.

SWEPT BY STORM.

Hurricane Causes Much Havoc in Iceland—Wind Blew at 120 Miles an Hour.

EDINBURGH, Sept. 26.—News has been received at Drummore, Luce bay, of a hurricane at Offord, Iceland, Sept. 20. The wind, it is said, blew 120 miles an hour.

Nearly all the fishing smacks were driven ashore, houses were razed and several persons were killed.

There was great destruction to property.

The Public's Most Enthusiastic Response

Is at Our Exposition of Fall Garments.

Have you visited this Fall Showing? Have you seen the enthusiastic welcome accorded to this, the most worthy exposition of them all? We worked hard to deserve this rousing reception. We searched the market from continent to continent for the best that the world could produce. Have we succeeded? Come here and judge for yourself. Linger for an hour in the cloak store and listen to the comments of the hundreds of visitors—if you care for the opinion of others. Or wander at leisure among the most beautiful creations that the greatest fashion minds have produced. We intend to follow a policy that will make this
