GIANTS AND PHILLIES.

Only a Few Fans Present—Pink Hawley in the Box.

(Special to The Evening World.)

POLO GROUNDS, NEW YORK, Sept. 27.—After having suffered three straight defeats at the hands of the Beaneaters, the Giants returned home this morning and a few hours later tackled the slugging Quakers at these grounds in the first game of the present series.

Although the day was an ideal one for the game, there was the slimmest kind of a crowd present when the combat started.

Pink Hawley, who is the Giants' winning pitcher at the present time, was slated by Manager Davis to do the twirling act.

SLOAN BUYS LAND.

"Tod" Sloan is nothing if not a true American. If he earns money in this country, he spends it here. Sloan, who won the Futurity on Ballyhoo Bey, and was paid something like $10,000 for his masterly horsemanship that day by W. C. Whitney, has just invested $5,300 of it in a piece of real estate.

Sloan, through an agent, yesterday bought six lots on Ocean avenue. They are located on the northwest corner of that thoroughfare and Avenue J, Brooklyn. The plot of ground is nicely situated. It is 120 feet wide and 151 feet deep.

B. F. C. Testimonial.

Manager George Deroe, of the Brooklyn Field Club, semi-professional champion of Greater New York, will tender his players a testimonial next Sunday. As an attraction he has secured the Cuban Giants to play his team on the Williamsburg A. A. grounds, Kingsland avenue [illegible] Jackson street.

BOSTON IN BROOKLYN.

Bean Eaters Are Trying Hard to Land in Third Place.

(Special to The Evening World.)

WASHINGTON PARK, BROOKLYN, Sept. 27.—The Boston Beaneaters were the Champions' opponents this afternoon and expected to do things that would land them in third place.

If baseball dope can be relied upon the cultured set ought to have a cinch with the Dodgers. They beat the Giants, who did the Champions with such ease. That's the dope, but what it meant remained a conjecture until after the game.

Third Inning.

Willis was deadheaded. Cross fertled Hamilton's run over. Long died the same way. McGinnity stopped Stahl's slap. No runs.

Fourth Inning.

Tenney's week hoist fell to Kelley and Jennings handed Collins's roller to Kelley. Freeman soon the same day. No runs.

Long did the act with Keeler and his roller. Sheckard slashed it out for half way. He got home on Kelley's two-timer. Kelley was caught trying for third. Cross boosted to Tenney. One run.

Fifth Inning.

Lowe's high one went to Jones and Clarke's foul was Farrell's. Keeler pulled down Willis's. No runs.

Kelley was put out of the game for kicking on the Keeler decision, and Jennings took his place at first and Demont went to second.

McGinnity's bunt was handled badly by Collins. The beaneater did right with Jones's though. Keeler hit his bat Hurst said not. Sheckard fanned. No runs.

Seventh Inning.

Lowe singled. Clarke beat his bunt and Willis's rap to McGinnity finished Lowe at third. Hamilton walked. Farrell took Long's foul. Stahl fanned. No runs.

De Mose fanned. Cross singled. Dahlen's two timer sent him over the plate. Jennings beat his bunt. Farrell's one-timer sent Dahlen home. McGinnity boosted to Freeman and Farrell was caught at second. Jennings scored though, before the out. Three runs.

Eighth Inning.

Demont finished Tenney and Collins and Freeman fouled to Farrell. No runs.

Hamilton got Jones's fly. Keeler beat his rap and Sheckard lifted to Collins. Demont banged out a one-bagger. Tenney finished Cross. No runs.

KID M'COY WON'T FIGHT.

Kid McCoy has made up his mind not to fight for some time to come, owing to the recent notoriety which he has received in connection with his battle with Jim Corbett. McCoy made this statement to an Evening World reporter yesterday and evidently meant what he said, for he had just declined a very good offer from Lou Houseman to fight Jack Root, of Chicago, for six rounds the latter part of next month.

M'GOVERN LONGS FOR FIGHT.

Terry McGovern, the fighting wonder, who is at present making a great hit as an actor in the melodrama "The Bowery After Dark," seems a little lonesome since the sport died out in this State. After yesterday's performance he said to the writer:

"I wish Harris would match me against some one, as I am anxious to fight again.

Harris said McGovern's wish would be granted in about ten weeks.

PURSE FOR TERRY AND GARDNER.

If McGovern should be matched to fight Oscar Gardner, the Omaha Kid, again the world have to wait very long for a club to hang up a purse, for the matchmaker of the Monarch Athletic Club, of Lexington, Ky., yesterday wired Frank Harris, Gardner's new manager, that he would offer the boys 60 per cent. of the gross receipts, with a guarantee of a $1,000 purse. Gardner has already accepted this offer.

GARDNER TO FIGHT BROAD.

Oscar Gardner has still another match on his hands in addition to those which he has already booked. His latest opponent is Kid Broad, the Cleveland featherweight, with whom he has been matched to fight a twenty-round bout before one of the fighting clubs in Cleveland on Oct. 11. Gardner is training for the fight at Wheeling, W. Va.

MAHER MAY FIGHT RUHLIN.

Peter Maher and Gus Ruhlin, the Akron Giant, will in all probability come together shortly in a bout of a limited number of rounds. The matchmaker of the Penn Art Athletic Club of Pennsylvania is at present trying to clinch a match between these heavyweights and has already offered them 60 per cent. of the gross receipts. Ruhlin has accepted and the prospects are that Maher will do the same.

IRONSIDES WILL PLAY OLD RIVALS ON SUNDAY.

The Ironsides will cross bats with the South Brothers Island team at South Brothers Island next Sunday in the second game of the series. McGee and Butler, the former Louisville battery, will be in the points for the Ironsides; "Willie" Deegan, the deaf mute twirler, will do the act for the Islanders.

J. R. KEENE BEAT DIAMOND JUBILEE.

His Crack Disguise II. Captured the $50,000 Jockey Club Stakes at Newmarket

LONDON, Sept. 27.—At the third day's racing of the Newmarket First October Meeting to-day the Jockey Club Stakes of 10,000 sovereigns, for three and four year-olds, one mile and 240 yards, was won by J. R. Keene's bay colt Disguise II., ridden by M. Cannon. Lord William Beresford's bay gelding Jolly Tar, with J. Reiff in the saddle, was second. Eight horses ran.

The result of the race for the Jockey Club Stakes was a great upset for the racing public, as the Prince of Wales's three-year-old bay colt Diamond Jubilee (the winner of this year's Derby, the Eclipse and St. Leger stakes and other important events) was confidently expected to capture the last ten-thousand-pound race of the season.

The Prince of Wales's crack, however, was unable to give Disguise II. twelve pounds weight, and, although the Prince's colt led to the bushes, he was then beaten by Disguise II., who drew to the front and won by two lengths.

A neck separated second and third horses. The betting was 100 to 30 against Disguise II., 6 to 1 against Jolly Tar, 100 to 7 against Forfarshire and 7 to 4 against Diamond Jubilee.

A selling plate, of 200 sovereigns, for three-year-olds and upward, two miles, two furlongs and thirty-five yards, was won by Recruit, guided by "Tod" Sloan.

The Double Trial Plate, of 200 sovereigns, for two-year-olds, winner to be sold by auction for 200 sovereigns, five furlongs, was won by Lord Ellesmere's brown colt Encombe, by Fitz-Simon, out of Windlass, with Rigby up.

An all-aged selling plate of 100 sovereigns, for two-year-olds and upward, the winner to be sold at auction for 200 sovereigns, five furlongs, was won by Sir E. Cassel's bay gelding, Chon Kina, by Saraband out of St. Cicely, ridden by C. Jenkins. Second place was captured by Mota II., with Johnnie Reiff in the saddle, and Bolamphion, guided by Lester Reiff, ran third.

A welter handicap, of 5 sovereigns each for starters, with 100 sovereigns added, for three-year-olds and upward, seven furlongs, was won by Blacksand; Rigby having the mount.

Mr. James R. Keene was informed by an Evening World reporter of the great victory of Disguise II. Mr. Keene was in his Broad street office and was extremely busy. He forgot his stocks instantly, however.

"I am delighted to hear the colt won," said the old financier. "What are the particulars?"

When the details of the race were read to him he repeated, "I am delighted."

Mr. Keene's pleasure is increased by the fact that Disguise II. is by his great dead sire Domino, the horse loved by Mr. Keene as much as if he were a member of his family. When Domino died Mr. Keene gave him a regular funeral and erected over his grave a tombstone with an appropriate inscription.

RESULTS AT GRAVESEND.

Oceanview Handicap the Only Stake—A Poor Card.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, GRAVESEND, Sept. 27.—The track was a bit slow here this afternoon from the effects of the shower of late last night. The going dried out fairly well on top, but underneath it was wet enough to make fast time out of the question. The weather was cool and bracing.

The programme was one of the poorest of the meeting, there being nothing attractive about any of the events. The stake was the Oceanview Handicap, a very poor fixture. On the jockey board was posted pleasing news to racegoers.

It was a cablegram announcing that Disguise II. had won the rich Jockey Club Stakes in England, valued at $50,000.

Disguise II. is a son of Domino, and slated to take that famous stallion's place on Mr. Keene's farm.

FIRST RACE.

Handicap, for all ages, about six furlongs.

Starters, wts., jocks.	St.	Hf.	Fin.	Str.	Betting. Place.

Muscite was the first to show, but she was outrun at once. Modrine took the lead, with Meehanus and Unmasked racing in close order behind him to the stretch. There Unmasked drew up on even terms with Modrine, but the latter soon drew away again and won easily by a length and a half from Meehanus, who also came on and beat Unmasked a head for the place.

SECOND RACE.

Selling; for three-year-olds and up; mile and a sixteenth.

Starters, wts., jocks.	St.	Hf.	Fin.	Str.	Betting. Place.
Killashandra, 120, Turner	1	1¹	1½	9-10	—

Today, 112, Spencer	4	5	5	12	4
Lady Elite, 105, Knight	5	6	6	20	8

Start good. Won driving. Time—1.48.

Killashandra went to the front at flag fall and was never headed. Gonfalon laid second and Greenock third and they ran this way to the end. Gonfalon got up to Killashandra at the furlong pole, but it was only on sufferance, for the mare easily held her own and won by a half length. Greenock was third, eight lengths back.

FIFTH RACE.

Handicap, for two-year-olds about six furlongs.

Starters, wts., jocks.	St.	Hf.	Fin.	Str.	Betting. Place.

Peter Pepper, 103, McCue	6	6	7	10	4

Start good. Won driving. Time—1.12 4-5.

The Rhymer jumped away in front and with Pake and Kimberly dropped out of it, apparently beaten. On the turn Silverdale joined the leaders and Telamon rushed up on the inside. When they straightened out in the stretch Telamon and The Rhymer went away together and in a finish that was full of bumping and rough riding Telamon won by a head. The Rhymer was a length and a half in front of Dr. Barlow.

Sixth Race—Mile and seventy yards.—Won by Belgrade; Radford was second and Westbaden third.

SAILOR TOM CUTS LOOSE

Denounces O'Rourke and Draws Color Line on Walcott.

If there is one fighter in the profession who detests Tom O'Rourke, the ancient manager of pugilists, and who is not afraid to state his reasons for saying so, it is Tom Sharkey, the ex-heavyweight slugger.

Sharkey gave O'Rourke a terrible roasting last night, while at dinner, in the presence of a group of sporting men and an Evening World reporter.

Judging from the sailor's talk it wouldn't be a surprise if he and O'Rourke should exchange jabs and uppercuts minus the padded mitts the first time they meet.

The reason for Sharkey's verbal attack on O'Rourke was the latter's making public the statement that he would match Joe Walcott, his colored fighter, against Sharkey, and, furthermore, the statement that the manager felt confident Walcott could defeat Tom.

When the reporter asked Sharkey if there was any chance of his fighting Walcott he boiled over with rage. Almost choking himself with a mouthful of roast beef he said:

"No, there is not a chance on earth of my ever meeting that quitter Walcott. Tom O'Rourke knows very well that I never fought a colored man and never shall. I have drawn the color line forever.

"O'Rourke merely shows his meanness when he issues this challenge to match Walcott against me, for in doing so he is trying to make the public believe that I am afraid of his black faker. By my refusal to fight Walcott O'Rourke hopes to affect my popularity. As I have already said, I am not in the business to fight colored men, and never will."

"What was the reason you didn't retain O'Rourke as your manager?" asked the reporter.

"I will tell you. I didn't care about the way in which O'Rourke managed me and my affairs. All he thought of was himself. He wanted everything. If he didn't get it he tried to make things as disagreeable for his fighters as he could.

"In the two years during which he managed me I made $90,000 for him. I can prove now that none of his colored scrappers ever made that much for him. Furthermore, they are not liable to. I would not allow him to manage me another year and on that account, I suppose, he is trying to get even with me by issuing the Walcott challenge.

"There is only one man I want to fight and that is Jeffries. I will fight him any time and you can take my word for it, if Jeffries fights me I will beat him. I will be the champion of the world in a year and a half from this time."

BIG STREET GEYSER.

The Water Spouted Ten Feet from Brooklyn Main and Neighborhood Was Flooded.

A geyser gushing from the roadway on Fulton street, near Utica avenue, this morning, stopped traffic and created excitement in the neighborhood.

The water came from a main that had burst, and, forcing its way to the street surface, spouted ten feet in the air. For over an hour crowds stood and watched the display, the streets in the vicinity being in the meantime flooded.

Children going to a school in the neighborhood had to walk a quarter of a mile out of their way. The water flowed for two hours before it was finally turned off.

The residents of the block bounded by Fulton and Marion streets and Utica and Reid avenues had no water for several hours.

DEPEW UNDER FIRE IN TRADERS' INQUIRY

District-Attorney Gathering Facts Concerning Directors for the Grand Jury.

Assistant District-Attorney Unger, speaking of the affairs of the Traders' Fire Insurance Company, said:

"When Mr. Vanderpool in his formal report to the Superintendent of State Insurance said that the sworn report as filed was grossly false in every essential particular, he put it very mildly. I have had occasion to go through the reports of insolvent corporations, and I never saw a more fearful hodge-podge and palpably criminal return than was made to the Insurance Department in connection with the Traders' Fire Insurance Company.

"With respect to criminal liability attaching to individuals for this state of affairs, I do not feel that I can with propriety make any statement just now, but will report the result of my inquiry to Col. Gardiner, who undoubtedly will have it submitted to the October Grand Jury.

"The use of gilt-edge names of directors reminds one of Hooley's scheme in London, and I feel free to say that I would take more care in recommending a sweeper for employment in the Street-Cleaning Department than the directors, who ought to be responsible for the business of this corporation, took in the management of its concern.

"Leaving out the question of their criminality, they ought to be, in the words of the song, 'More to be pitied than censured.' Mr. Depew reminds one of Richelieu's expression, 'An old offender, and an excellent example.' Mr. Depew seems to be addicted to the 'Director habit,' being a director in forty-eight corporations."

BULLS HOLD THE MARKET.

Coalers Take New Life on Reports of Strike Settlement.

A rally followed a depressed opening of the Stock Exchange to-day. Brooklyn Rapid Transit, the feature, was quoted in the first hour at 50 3-8, a margin of 2 points to the good.

An outbreak of buoyancy in the coalers on rumors that the labor difficulty would be speedily adjusted resulted in rises in Delaware & Hudson, Reading 1st pf. and New Jersey Central of 2 1-2 and 3 1-2 from the lowest. The bears showed considerable uneasiness as the bulls bid up prices steadily, large lines being covered on a rapidly rising market. Most of the noteworthy rises were confined to the specialties, but many of the railroads ruled a point above yesterday's close.

The market became distinctly buoyant, with the bulls competing with the distressed shorts to take the market away from them. The recoveries in the coalers were: New Jersey Central 3 3-4, leading 1st pf. 3, Delaware & Hudson 3 1-4 and Lackawanna 1 1-4. The leading specialties and local tractions advanced from 2 to 3 1-2 and the majority of railroad stocks were one to two points above yesterday's closing level. Profit taking made but slight impression on prices and the closing was active and strong.

The total sales of stocks to-day were 422,062 shares and of bonds $810,000.
