BEARS WERE IN CONTROL.

Stocks Went Steadily Downward After the Opening.

With the exception of Burlington and Sugar, the local stock market was inactive at the opening to-day and trading was dull.

Prices opened from 5-8 per cent. lower in U. S. Leather preferred to 3-4 per cent. higher in Con. Tobacco.

The bears soon prevailed and a steady but slight downward movement was in progress.

Especial pressure was put on People's Gas and its price was hammered down to 81 7-8, a loss of 5-8 per cent.

Manhattan and Reading 1st preferred dropped 1-2 as much, while Sugar and Burlington moved up about 1-2 per cent.

Tractions were listless, while railway shares were in demand.

Government bonds were unchanged. Railroad and other bonds were dull.

Not much stock was offered in the general market and speculation became semi-stagnant. A substantial fractional rise in Manhattan and People's Gas brought some slight response elsewhere. Sugar preferred advanced 2 points. Trading in bonds was small and prices mixed.

Only a few stocks covered a range worthy of notice in the afternoon. Speculation was so circumscribed that any effort to buy or sell a moderate amount of stock produced wide changes.

For instance, People's Gas on light transactions moved up to 83, which was the best price of the day and 1 3-8 above the worst.

Tin Plate preferred also rose a point. On the other hand, International Paper and Baltimore & Ohio lost as much.

People's Gas was the only point of interest in the market. It continued its advance to nearly 86, but the effect on the general list was inappreciable.

International Paper preferred rose about a point. The closing was very dull and rather easy and net changes were insignificant.

The total sales of stocks to-day were 178,416 shares, and of bonds $805,000.

LONDON STOCKS DULL.

The London stock market was dull to-day and prices were inclined to sag. American railways displayed weakness at the opening and declines of 1-8 to 1-4 per cent. were registered, but later in the day there was a rally. Consols for money are 1-16 per cent. lower, and for the account 1-8 per cent. lower.

WHEAT WAS HIGHER.

The wheat market opened quiet to-day and higher. There was pressure on the market from local sources, but foreigners did little. Corn was 1-4 per cent. cash higher.

New York's opening prices were: Dec. wheat, 81 1-4 to 81 3-8; May wheat, 84 1-2 to 84 5-8; March wheat, 84 3-4; May corn, 41 1-8 bid; Dec. corn, 42 bid.

Chicago's opening prices were: Nov. wheat, 75 5-8 to 76.

New York's closing prices were: March wheat, 84; May wheat, 83 5-8 bid; October wheat, 78 3-8; December wheat, 80 5-8; May corn, 71 1-4; October corn, 46; December corn, 42.

Chicago's closing prices were: November wheat, 75 3-8.

October wheat, 74 5-8; November wheat, 76 7-8; December wheat, 76. October corn, 40 5-8; November corn, 37 3-8; December corn, 34 7-8.

THE COTTON PRICES.

The cotton market opened steady to-day and from 5 to 15 points lower. The opening prices were: October, 9.98 bid; November, 9.71 to 9.73; December, 9.65 to 9.64; January, 9.65 to 9.66; February, 9.63 bid; March, 9.64 to 9.65; April, 9.65 to 9.66; May, 9.65 to 9.66; June, 9.65 bid; July, 9.69 to 9.64; August, 9.42 to 9.45.

The closing prices were: October, 10.18 to 10.20; November, 9.89 to 9.90; December, 9.81 to 9.82; January, 9.79 to 9.80; February, 9.79 to 9.80; March, 9.80 bid; April and May, 9.79 to 9.80; June, 9.78 to 9.79; July, 9.78 to 9.78; May, 9.56 to 9.60. Market very steady.

AGED WOMAN KILLED.

While coming downstairs from the flat in which she lived at 819 Second avenue, early this morning, Mrs. Catherine Ryan, sixty-five years old, tripped and fell to the bottom. She was instantly killed.

SWELL STRIKERS, THESE PICKETS IN SILK HATS.

Tiffany's $100-a-Week Engravers on a Strike, Demanding that Their Union Be Recognized—Their Social Position High.

They Live in Style at Forest Hill, N. J., and Have a Fund to Keep Them During a Long Strike—Firm Will Not Give In.

FASHION PLATES ON STRIKE.

We'd have you understand
That we're not vulgar strikers;
Our pay and cause are grand,
For we're not common pikers.

Chorus.

We're the copper-plate engravers,
Gilt inside and out alike;
Diamond studs and patent-leathers—
We're the fashion plates on strike.

We ask no meed of pelf,
Our hearts spurn sordid money;
But the dignity of "self"
To our hungry souls is honey.

Chorus.

Oh, we wear the Tiffany label,
And we can't afford to "pike;"
We're silver-plated, copper-plating
Fashion plates on strike.

J. W. L.

Fashionably gowned women who stepped from their carriages to enter Tiffany's this morning doubtless wondered at the unusual number of well-groomed men standing about on Broadway in front of the big jewelry store in attitudes of bored indifference.

But they little thought the men were strikers. They were, though. They were the pickets from the Union of Copper-Plate Engravers, who with the printers are on strike to coerce the firm of jewellers to recognize their brotherhood.

The strikers when they work are the highest paid mechanics in the world. None earns less than $50 a week and the majority from $75 to $100. They engrave all the copper plates from which are printed the visiting cards and invitations of the 400.

SILK-HAT PICKETS.

Three of the pickets stood in front of the store to intercept non-union applicants for their jobs. All wore high hats and frock coats of the latest cut. Diamonds glistened in their cravats and on their fingers. Immaculately creased trousers, gloves and patent-leather boots completed their attire. Each carried a light cane.

An Evening World reporter asked one of them if he was a striker.

He stared and reached for his monocle. Doubtless he had forgotten it, for he looked disappointed. It was the only attribute of wealth lacking in his outfit.

"Yes," he yawned, "but it's a bore." He took out a Reina Victoria from a silver cigar case, lighted it and strolled over to a park bench, where he puffed away in disgusted seclusion.

A group of five lounged against a railing opposite the store. They were just as well dressed and a little more sociably inclined.

SURE THEY WILL WIN.

"We'll win," said the spokesman. "It's only a question of time. They can't get along without us.

"Not a man is at work. No non-union men have been employed in our places. They can't find any men to do our work."

The others nodded solemnly in chorus. Then they paired off and strolled down to the Hotel Martin to lunch.

There are only sixty of the engravers. Their boast that it would be hard to match them for skill is well-founded. They are the aristocrats of the trade.

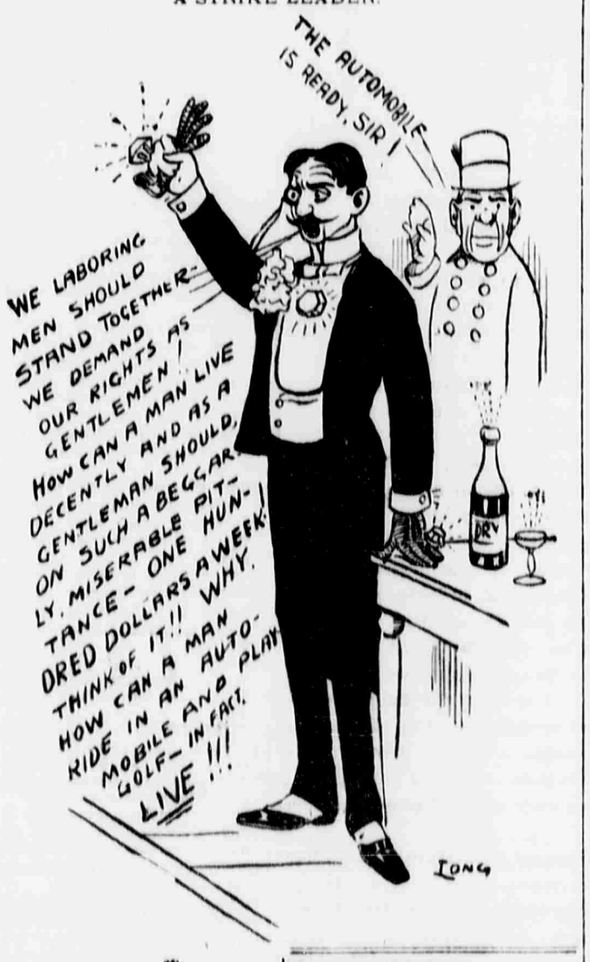
MOVE IN BEST SOCIETY.

Their workshop is in the Tiffany factory at Forest Hill, N. J. The workmen are the wealthiest residents of the place and monopolize its best society.

The headquarters of the executive committee of the strikers is there, also, in Columbia Hall. The committee meets every day from 9 to 3—bankers' hours, it will be perceived—and receives reports from pickets. The only reason for the strike is to compel recognition of the union. The men are well able to stay out a long time.

The Tiffany firm say the strikers' patent leathers will be cracked and their coats shiny if they wait till the union is recognized before going back to work.

A STRIKE LEADER.



THE PICKET.

TWO WOMEN WITH FITS.

Disorder in Adams Street Police Court—Mother-in-Law an Accuser.

One fainting woman and another one having fits threw the Adams Street Police Court, Brooklyn, into a wild state of disorder this morning, and for half an hour business had to be suspended.

Joseph Delaney was being examined on a charge of assault preferred by his mother-in-law. Attentive listeners in a front seat were Delaney's wife, Josephine, and his sister-in-law, Miss Martin.

After hearing the evidence Magistrate Brenner held Delaney for the Grand Jury.

When Miss Martin heard the Court's decision she threw up her hands and let out a piercing scream. Then she promptly fell to the floor in a faint.

Her sister, Mrs. Delaney, followed in a few minutes with a fit. Miss Martin recovered under treatment, but when she saw Mrs. Delaney kicking on the floor she went off into another faint.

For half an hour the two sisters alternated in fainting and falling into fits until the services of an ambulance surgeon was finally secured.

Miss Martin was sent home. Mrs. Delaney went to the Brooklyn Hospital and Delaney, the prisoner, to Raymond Street Jail.

STUDENT ARRESTED.

Rochester University Senior Arrested on the Charge of Not Supporting His Wife.

ROCHESTER, Oct. 11.—George Edward Murray, a senior in Rochester University, was arrested at the chapter house of Alpha Delta Phi Tuesday night on a warrant charging him with non-support of his wife.

Murray is from Syracuse. He is prominent in college affairs and is "pipe orator" of his class. He married a Rochester girl a year ago and they have one child.

BRIDE 27, GROOM 70.

Rich Daniel K. Baker and Miss Campbell Were Married To-Day.

Daniel Kellogg Baker, a rich bachelor seventy years of age, and Miss Katharine Farr Campbell, who is only in her twenty-seventh year and is the daughter of wealthy parents, were married at noon to-day in the Fifth Avenue Collegiate Church.

The ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. Dr. Donald Sage Mackay, was simple, and although both the bride and bridegroom are well known in society and have many friends, but few had been bidden to the church to witness the wedding.

Mr. Baker is a clubman and is an official in the National Wall-Paper Company. He is reputed to have an independent fortune.

Though seventy years of age, he is well preserved and does not look his years. He has kept bachelor quarters in the Alpine apartment-house, at Broadway and Thirty-third street.

Miss Campbell is the daughter of William Campbell, of 34 West Ninety-first street. She moves in exclusive society circles and has been known as one of the Horse Show coterie. She is a handsome woman.

A wedding breakfast was served at the bride's house immediately after the wedding. A wedding journey is planned and at its conclusion the newly wedded couple will live at 24 West Eighty-fifth street, which has been built for them.

THE RIGHT THING.

A New Catarrh Cure Which Is Rapidly Coming to the Front.

For several years Eucalyptol, Guaiacol and Hydrastin have been recognized as standard remedies for catarrhal troubles, but they have always been given separately, and only very recently an ingenious chemist succeeded in combining them, together with other antiseptics, into a pleasant, effective tablet.

Druggists sell the remedy under the name of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and it has met with remarkable success in the cure of nasal catarrh, bronchial and throat catarrh and in catarrh of the stomach.

Mr. F. N. Benton, whose address is care of Clark House, Troy, N. Y., says: When I run up against anything that is good I like to tell people of it. I have been troubled with catarrh more or less for some time. Last winter more than ever. Tried several so-called cures, but did not get any benefit from them. About six weeks ago I bought a 50-cent box of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets wonders for me, and I do not hesitate to let all my friends know that Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are the right thing.

Mr. George J. Casanova, of Hotel Griffon, West 9th street, New York City, writes: I have commenced using Stuart's Catarrh Tablets and already they are giving me better results than any catarrh cure I have ever tried.

A leading physician of Pittsburg advises the use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in preference to any other treatment for catarrh of the head, throat or stomach.

He claims they are far superior to inhalers, salves, lotions or powder, and are much more convenient and pleasant to take and are so harmless that little children take them with benefit, as they contain no opiate, cocaine or any poisonous drug.

All druggists sell Stuart's Catarrh Tablets at 50 cents for full sized package and they are probably the safest and most reliable cure for any form of catarrh.
