STOCKS HAD LIVELY TONE.

Sharp Advance and Big Trading in Leading Issues.

The stock market opened to-day with a general improvement in prices, which were from 1-4 to 1 1-2 better.

Trading displayed animation and large blocks of stocks changed hands, and sharp advances were scored in Pacific Mail, C., C., C. & St. L. and Tobacco. The first named rose 3 per cent. under the influence of the report that Vanderbilt had secured control.

Iron and Steel stocks were somewhat irregular. There was a slight reaction after the first half hour, but no important recessions were noticed.

With the decrease in the buying demand and the growing difficulty of marketing stocks, the traders who had taken profits on the rise in the afternoon, turned to the short side and offered prices down sharply all around.

Weakness developed in People's Gas, and this stoc, Sugar, Tobacco, Pennsylvania, New York Central, Baltimore and Ohio, Northern Pacific, Manhattan and Brooklyn Transit suffered to the extent of ½ a 1 1-2. Pacific Mail fell 4 1-4 points below last night. The closing was active, with the earlier gains very much cut down.

The total sales of stocks to-day were 825,849 shares, and of bonds $2,025,000.

I'M A MARTYR, SAYS CROKER.

"Abused Because I Go Out and Do My Duty."

Richard Croker said to-day, in reply to an Evening World reporter's question whether Bryan's return to New York meant, as the Republican newspapers said, that the Democrats wanted to create the impression that they had hopes of carrying the State for the purpose of deceiving the West:

"The Republicans are doing all the bluffing. Bryan will carry the State of New York. The reason why he is returning for a second trip up the State is that he was unable to cover the whole State on last week's visit.

"What do you think will be the effect of Gov. Roosevelt's speeches up State?" the reporter asked.

"Roosevelt is going around in the country districts blackening the good name of New York City. New York is a good place to live in, and those who come here to live never want to live anywhere else.

"Those who move away come back again. That is answer enough to Roosevelt.

"New York City is governed better than any other American city. We have the best lighted city; best paved; best policed; best protected from fire. It is the cleanest city in the world. Roosevelt knows it.

"Roosevelt fooled the countrymen two years ago, but he can't fool 'em again.

"I see that I am brought to the front again by the Republicans as the paramount issue. I suppose if I stayed at home and did not attend to my duties as a Democrat and a citizen they'd think I was a good fellow. But I'm not going to please them. I am going to attend strictly to my Democratic duty—and keep right on being a bad man."

Notice has been sent by Mr. Croker to all the district leaders to cancel arrangements for all meetings planned for Saturday night, in order that everybody may gather at Madison Square Garden to see Bryan.

TO CLOSE TRAINING SCHOOL.

Brooklyn Institution Found as Bad as First Reported.

At the meeting of the Board of Estimate and Apportionment this morning Deputy Comptroller Levey made a report on the condition of the Brooklyn Disciplinary Training School. He said that the Comptroller had investigated the school yesterday and found it fully as bad as reported. The managers were instructed to transfer the children to other reformatories pending future action in regard to the school. Mr. Levey said that a new school with equipments would cost upward of $200,000.

It was decided to issue revenue bonds to the amount of $75,000 to pay for water mains in the borough of Queens, and $36,000 for the improvement of Manhattan Square, the site of the Museum of Natural History.

Corporation Counsel Whalen was instructed to begin condemnation proceedings to acquire land for a park at High Bridge, adjoining the Speedway, to be known as High Bridge Park.

FEAR OF PRISON MAY KILL.

Woman Held for Larceny Was Stricken in Court.

Nellie Collins, twenty-three years old, was taken from the Butler Street Court, Brooklyn, early to-day to the Long Island College Hospital suffering from hysteria. At noon she was seized with convulsions, and the doctors reported that her recovery was doubtful.

The woman was arraigned on a charge of stealing a silver watch and chain from John Peterson, sixty-four years old, of 224 1-2 Twenty-second street. She was held in $500 bail, and was taken with hysteria after being placed in the prisoners' pen. She gave her address as 699 1-2 Fifth avenue.

OUR GOVERNOR FOR TO-DAY.

Col. Treadwell Again in the Chair of State.

Gov. Roosevelt has now been absent from Albany 146 days.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Oct. 24.—Col. George Curtis Treadwell took up the performance of his duties as Governor again to-day. Important documents which required the consideration of the real Executive were carefully sorted and placed in repositories for safe keeping, there to remain until after election day.

A delegation from a county in the western part of the State which reached the capital yesterday with a petition for the commutation of the sentence of a man in one of the State prisons had not heard that pardon power had been suspended until after Nov. 6, and that trips to this city on missions of that character were practically a sacrifice of time and railroad fare.

When the members realized the situation they concluded that it would be cheaper to take a train home again than to pay hotel expenses until to-day, when the inability for immediate action on their application would be explained to them most diplomatically by the Governor, whosoever he might be.

"How is the Executive Chamber getting on without me?" was the question which came over the telephone lines from a distant city to-day. The voice was that of Commodore William J. Youngs.

"Very well, I thank you," was the response of Col. Treadwell. There was no further conversation.

BRYAN TO NEGROES.

Urges Maryland Voters to Aid Filipino Brown Men.

EASTON, Md., Oct. 24.—Mr. Bryan spoke to-day at St. Michael's, particularly addressing himself to the colored people in the crowd.

"It is one of the strange things we see in this campaign," he said, "that the Republican party goes to a black man and urges that man to say by his vote that the brown man in the Philippine Islands has not a right to a voice in this Government.

"And it seems to me that before a black man votes to disfranchise a brown man he had better find out upon what basis his own right stands, for if we deny to the Filipino the right to govern himself, what right have we to govern ourselves?

"It cost hundreds of thousands of lives and millions of money to give the black man the Declaration of Independence, and now we are spending millions of dollars and wasting lives to take the Declaration of Independence away from the brown man.

"We believe in the Declaration of Independence, and if we have race problems to solve we think it is better to solve them here than to go 7,000 miles away from home to get another race problem and enter upon its solution."

PRAY FOR PRESIDENT.

In Church of England Service His Name Follows Victoria's.

Rev. T. De Witt Talmage, who went abroad to arrange with British officials for the distribution of a $500,000 fund collected for the India famine sufferers, returned on the steamer Oceanic this morning. He was accompanied by his family.

Dr. Talmage said he had preached by invitation in every city he visited in England and Scotland, and was pleased to note that the President of the United States was now prayed for at all services in the Church of England, being mentioned directly after Queen Victoria.

Dr. Talmage said his greatest pleasure was an interview with the Czar of Russia, who spoke to him in excellent English and surprised him by his familiarity with the battles and leaders in our recent war with Spain.

"The Czar is for peace and is anxious for no more territory," said Dr. Talmage.

Cissy Loftus, who returns under contract with Daniel Frohman to play at Daly's Theatre, and D. P. Eggleston, a wealthy mine owner, who was met by J. Pierpont Morgan, were fellow-passengers of Dr. Talmage.

CARLISLE FOR NEITHER PARTY.

In Letter Printed To-Day He Says He'll Not Vote.

The Evening Post prints this afternoon the following letter from ex-Secretary of the Treasury John G. Carlisle:

"To the Editor of The Evening Post:

"Sir: I notice that one of the morning papers includes my name in a list of Democrats who, it states, have come out strongly for the re-election of Mr. McKinley, and as my position has been frequently misrepresented in the public press during the last few weeks, I desire to say that, for reasons entirely satisfactory to myself, I determined long ago not to vote for either of the Presidential candidates. This determination has been well known to my personal friends and acquaintances ever since the nominations were made, and, although it is a matter of no importance to any one except myself, I prefer that there should be no misunderstanding upon the subject by the public at large. J. G. CARLISLE.

"New York, October 24."

The Post also prints a despatch from Grover Cleveland denying that he ever advised A. B. Farquar, of Pennsylvania, to vote for McKinley or that he has given any voting advice.

CHARGED WITH HYPNOTISM.

But Judge Wouldn't Hold Woman on Complaint.

James Troy, forty-five years of age, of 365 Herkimer street, Brooklyn, made a strange complaint to Magistrate Lemon in the Gates Avenue Police Court.

He charged Mrs. Julia Liffort, thirty-eight years of age, of 241 Rockaway avenue, with hypnotizing his sixteen-year-old son James.

"My boy," he said, "is constantly in the company of this woman. He neglects his work and all other duties to visit her."

Mrs. Liffort, a handsome, well-dressed woman, was in court with her sixteen-year-old daughter, Bella. She declined to discuss the matter.

After a brief examination Magistrate Lemon said he was compelled to dismiss the case.

HORSE TOOK A PLUNGE.

Ran Away and Jumped Into a Basement—Hauled Out Unhurt.

After running two blocks at a wild gallop along Eighth avenue, from One Hundred and Thirtieth to One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street, a horse plunged into a basement this afternoon and was hauled out unharmed.

Albert Stein, a sixteen-year-old driver for John Windolph, a grocer at One Hundred and Twenty-ninth street and Old Broadway, guided the animal in a zigzag course during the run, dodged trolleys and managed to keep his seat in the wagon through it all.

The horse broke away from the wagon as it neared the house at 251 West One Hundred and Twenty-eighth street and jumped into the basement.

MINISTER MAY BE DROWNED.

Clothes Found on a Rock in Hell Gate.

Rev. Daniel Van Pelt mysteriously disappeared from his home, 80 Remsen street, Long Island City, last night. When last seen he changed his clothing for an old suit of clothes and left his house about midnight.

He had been acting strangely. He said he was going down to the river.

His clothes were found this morning on Scaley Rock, Hell Gate. It is feared that he has been drowned. It is not clear yet whether he committed suicide. He was fond of bathing, and might have gone to the river for a bath.

Mr. Van Pelt, who was forty-seven years old, up to a few months ago was pastor of the Reformed Church, in Remsen street, Astoria.

For some time he had no regular charge, and, it is understood, held a public position. He has a wife and three children.

TO-DAY'S ELECTION BETS.

First Five-to-One Wager on McKinley on Exchange.

John M. Shaw, a Stock Exchange broker, bet $1,800 against $2,000 this afternoon with L. H. Le Veen that McKinley would get 125,000 majority above the Bronx. The stakeholder is Pearl & Co., a Stock Exchange house. It was announced yesterday that Shaw would wager $2,000 against $1,800 that McKinley would have 125,000 below the Bronx, but when asked to make the wager this morning he said it was wrongly stated.

F. H. Brooks wagered with Cooper, Cramp & Beadleston $1,000 to $200 that McKinley would win in the general result. This is the first bet of five to one wagered on the Stock Exchange. Brooks has $20,000 to $5,000 that McKinley will win and $5,000 to $22,500 that Bryan will win.
