Homer Star: E. J. Smith made a business trip to Lincoln, last Friday. Wellington Smith leaves tonight for Eastern Iowa, where he will visit a week with relative. Phil VanCleave left Sunday night for Wisconsin where he will visit a couple of weeks with relatives. Mrs Zella Green has resigned her position as teachers of the Blyburg school. Miss Beisique of Sioux now has charge of the school. The horse belonging to Ed Pilgrim that was condemned for glanders by the state veterinarian some time ago was shot by Dr Goodell, last Saturday. . . . Wilfred E. Voss, ex-county superintendent, came home last Saturday, from Dakota City, his term of office having expired. We are informed that Mr Voss will take a course in agriculture at the state university at Lincoln, beginning about the first of February. . . . John DeMeyer came back from Alberta, Canada, last week, where they moved to from this place last February. Mr DeMeyer did not like that country on account of the uncertainty of crops. Wheat is about the only successful crop that can be raised in the section where he was and then only winter wheat. Cold weather comes early in the summer frequently freezing the crops stiff. However, he says he has seen one forty-acre piece of wheat that averaged sixty-two bushels to the acre. Mr and Mrs DeMeyer will move into the Lutheran parsonage temporarily.

Sioux City Journal, 15: With the weather conditions permitting, the Consumers Ice company expects to resume work today on the cutting and storing of ice at its three plants on the big Sioux river and at Crystal Lake. The force employed at these plants, comprising about 750 men, were notified on Thursday night that work would be discontinued until the weather moderated. . . . W. E. King, of Omaha, chief promoter of the Nebraska and Sioux City interurban electric railway project, makes announcement that the route of this road will leave South Sioux City and pass through Jackson, Ponca, Martinsburg, Hartington, Bloomfield and Center, with a branch line from Center through Verdigris and Walnut to Mineola. At a meeting of the business men of Nebraska held a few days ago Mr King predicted the road would be in operation within the next eighteen months. . . . The authorities of South Sioux City have commenced a campaign against houses of vice. Blanch Douglas was arrested last week and charged with conducting a house of ill fame. The jury in this case disagreed, and the case was remanded for trial. The next hearing will be held on January 22. Lola McLarty, arrested on the same charge, was found guilty. The fine is not to exceed $100 or three months in the county jail. Other cases to rid South Sioux City of undesirable characters will be heard this week.

Sioux City Journal, 14: Elmer Blessing, of Jackson, Neb., was in Sioux City yesterday. . . . A G. Wells, of South Sioux City, Neb., remains with little change in condition at St. Vincent's hospital. It may be necessary to amputate his leg because of injuries sustained while hoisting ice at Crystal Lake, Nebraska, Thursday afternoon. . . . Died—in South Sioux City, Neb., Saturday, January 13, 1912, Mrs. Penelope T. Schaffer, wife of Rev. A. E. Schaffer, pastor of the Presbyterian church in South Sioux City, of pneumonia. Besides the husband, Mrs. Schaffer is survived by three sons. The funeral will be held Monday at the house at 2 p. m. and at the Presbyterian church at 2:30. Interment at Dakota City. . . . Mrs. Mary Lipe, daughter of a pioneer settler of Jackson, Neb., died of pneumonia at the home of her son, Archie B. Lipe, in Jackson, Mich., January 5. She was buried at Union City. Mrs. Lipe was the mother of the late Mrs. John Saasano, 312 West Seventh street. A sister, Mrs. Dean, and other relatives survive at Primgar, Io. Mrs. Lipe's maiden name was Dougherty. Her father, a New Yorker, settled near Jackson in the early 50s. He came overland in one of the typical prairie schooners. . . . William Keek brought the celebration of his wedding day to a fitting close last night when he was arrested at West Seventh and Market streets by Patrolmen Dana and Tracy on a charge of disturbing the peace. Keek was married yesterday afternoon at Dakota City, Neb. The newlywed and his brother, Mike Keek, are alleged to have become unruly while partaking of refreshments in a West Seventh street saloon. The patrolmen were called. Mrs. Keek, when word of her husband's plight reached her, hurried to the police station in time to secure the release of her "hubby" and brother-in-law on bond.

Waterbury Items in Ponca Journal: Grace Wilkins returned to her school duties after spending her vacation at home.

Walthill Times: Mrs. Bert Means, who has been visiting here since before the holidays, left Saturday for Sioux City where she will make a short visit before returning to her home at Cody.

Lyons Mirror: J. C. McElhinney left yesterday afternoon for Lincoln where he will enter a sanitarium for a stay of several weeks in the hopes of benefiting his health. His many friends hope he will be greatly benefitted and be able to return home in a short time.

Sioux City Journal, 17: Tom W. Green yesterday received a telegram stating that his mother, Mrs. Thomas Green, who is spending the winter in St. Augustine, Fla., fell Monday and fractured her hip. Mrs. Green, the telegram said, was resting easy in a hospital.

Sioux City Journal, 16: The Consumers Ice company resumed operations at its two plants on the Big Sioux river and at the plant at Crystal Lake yesterday morning with practically a large force as was laid off because of cold weather Thursday night. At the Iowa and South Dakota plants, on the river, about 400 men started work cutting and storing ice. At the lake the force of men amounted to about 200 men. It is probable that more men will be employed at the Nebraska plant when some of the machinery, which has been awaiting repairs, is put into commission. As a result of the cold weather of the past four days, the ice is about eight inches thicker than when cutting started, making it nearly a foot and a half in thickness. . . . The explosion at 7:30 a. m. yesterday of a gasoline stove in the kitchen of the home of F. W. Green, a lineman in the service of the Sioux City Telephone company, at South Sioux City, resulted in the house and all the contents except the piano and a few bedclothes being consumed. The cottage, which was located one block west of the Nebraska approach to the combination bridge, was one story and a half in height and new, having been built only last fall. The loss of the cottage and contents amounts to about $2,000, without insurance. The explosion resulted from a leak in the gasoline tank which fed the burners. Mrs. Green and her daughter, Miss Edna O'Brien, were preparing to cook breakfast when the explosion took place. Inside of five minutes the house was a mass of flames. Mr. Green in his efforts to carry a few things out of the house, was slightly burned in the face, and his hair was singed. No help from the inadequate fire department of South Sioux City was given. There was not even a bucket brigade, and hardly anyone to lend a helping hand until the house was in ashes, which was in about thirty minutes after the explosion.

Sioux City Journal, 13: John Collins, of Homer, had in a load of hogs over the Burlington. . . . While engaged in the hoisting of ice at the Crystal Lake, Nebraska, plant of the Consumers Ice company, A. G. Wells, of South Sioux City, became caught in the machinery and his left leg was crushed. Amputation may be necessary. Wells is now at St. Vincent's hospital. He was brought to Sioux City in the police ambulance. . . . John Shay, charged as usual with intoxication, gave tone to the prisoners' bench yesterday which customarily is lacking. Also he sprang something novel on Judge Sims in the effort to talk his honor out of imposing a fine of $7 or two days. "Just look at me," he glowed already had one so, but at this point he made a hasty inventory of the surprising things he saw. "Now suit, now tan shoes, a new shirt, new hat, new tie, clean face, hair parted, and I live, new stocks, hum!" John interpreted the judge's reflective mood favorably, and launched out upon a story of reformation with the new year. He has been working steadily, he averred. But when the smoke cleared away John still was under sentence of "seven or two," while the judge in a tantrum, threatened to make it ten days straight unless the prisoner "dried up." . . . Over 750 men employed by the Consumers Ice company were thrown out of work as the result of the extreme drop in the temperature yesterday, according to the statement yesterday morning at the offices of the concern. Of this number 400 were employed at the Iowa and Dakota plants of the company on the Sioux river. Nearly 350 men had been at work cutting and storing ice at the houses of the company at Crystal Lake. Thursday over thirty of the men in the gang at the lake suffered frozen hands and noses, and last evening at the three plants they were notified that work would be discontinued until the weather moderated. In addition to the suffering which was caused by the cold, the water channels through which the ice was floated to the elevators were kept open with difficulty, and the machinery was clogged by the freezing of the water.

"Feed Dr. Hess Stock Tonic on 3 Months Test at Our Expense.—Dr. Hess & Clark"

This is what Dr. Hess & Clark write us, and we stand ready to make good that guarantee to the letter. If it doesn't pay, return to us the empty packages and we will refund your money.

Feeding Dr. Hess Stock Tonic is just like applying fertilizer to the soil. Fertilizer makes the soil yield; Dr. Hess Stock tonic makes the digestive organs convert more feed into growth.

Sometimes 50% of the food a healthy animal eats is found undigested in the manure. If this wasn't true how could we fatten our hogs on the corn that passes through the other stock undigested? Feeding medicinal ingredients will reduce this waste. Every medical writer in the universe says so.

Saving a part of the wasted nutrition by increasing digestion is known as the Dr. Hess Idea of Stock feeding. Get this idea firmly in your mind. Do not allow the system to waste half of your feed—save a part of this waste. Every particle you save means profit to yourself.

Hundreds of Herds made Immune from the So-called Hog Cholera Epidemic by Feeding Dr. Hess Stock Tonic

Dr. Hess & Clark are having hundreds of letters from stockmen all over the corn belt that are saving their herds from the ravages of the Hog Cholera Epidemic by feeding Dr. Hess Stock Tonic and disinfecting the pens and sleeping quarters with Dr. Hess Dip & Disinfectant.

Poultry Pan-a-aea is guaranteed to cure poultry ills and make hens lay. It has the same growth and egg producing function as Dr. Hess Stock Tonic. One extra egg will pay for all the Pan-a-aea a hen eats for three months.

A BIG Double OFFER.
Cut Price and Big Prizes at Same Time.
A big bargain period has been announced by the Sioux City Daily News for January 21 to 31, during which time the price of The News will be cut 25 per cent and yearly subscriptions will be sold for only $1.50. The bargain period covers such a brief time that it would be difficult to handle all the subscriptions expected if they had to be entered during the 10 days mentioned and so The News has announced that all Bargain Period subscriptions will be placed on the list at ONCE and will receive The News at 25c per copy for the Bargain Period price. The sooner you subscribe the more papers you will get for your money.
The News has also announced its intention of distributing several thousand dollars' worth of prizes, consisting of pianos, building lots, furniture, jewelry and other prizes for the correct solution of puzzle pictures representing the titles of books. The plan is called the Booklovers' contest, and does not involve the solicitation of subscriptions; all you have to do to win is to correctly solve the puzzle pictures. Leave your subscription to The News or other periodicals at The Herald office and they will be given prompt attention.
