INDUSTRIALS LEAD STOCKS.

Sugar and Tobacco Also Good Issues in Irregular Market.

DECREASE IN THE TRADING.

Tractions Show Very Little Strength and the Railways Dull.

There was a big decrease in the volume of business in the stock market today, and prices, too, lacked the strong tone which has characterized them of late. The initial figures were a shade above and below the final figures of yesterday, and the movement, like the opening, was extremely irregular and confused.

Sugar and American Tobacco spurted soon after the opening, the former advancing 1 1-2 and the latter 2 1-4 on a small volume of business.

Outside of the Pacific issues, railroads were comparatively dull and irregular, lacking the firm tone noticed in that group of late. On the other hand, industrials, though not exceptionally active, were strong in tone and were steady at an advance. In the traction quarter there was a pronounced reaction, all of the important issues in this group being off at least 1 per cent.

After the first half-hour the market, though still fluctuating under considerable profit-taking, developed aggressive strength. The new Governments were up 1-8. Railroad bonds were strong and active.

Southern Pacific reached 45, and this with an advance in St. Paul to 185 had a bracing effect on the market. Relief over the continued ease of money, with loans carrying over to next Wednesday, prompted renewed speculation and the market burst into great animation.

The Grangers and Pacifics were most affected. Profit-taking carried prices off, St. Paul and Brooklyn Transit reacting a point. Renewed support in Brooklyn Transit stiffened the market and the closing was firm and active.

LONDON STOCKS DULL.

American Securities the Only Issues Favored by Traders.

American stocks were the only securities in the London stock market that showed any life to-day. Trading as a rule was dull.

In the American Department a firm tone was prevalent, and a hardening of prices noted.

Dealings, however, were on a holiday scale, and later in the day prices were slightly irregular on sales for both accounts.

The Eries were down an average of 1 per cent. below New York's closing figures. Illinois Central and Northern Pacific were strong exceptions, and there was a fair inquiry for St. Paul.

South African mining shares were heavy on account of the outbreak at the Cape.

Cotton Prices Advance.

Cotton opened quiet and unchanged to 4 points higher, and after call improved a few points on light general buying and scarcity of sellers. Cables and domestic news favored the bulls, while local and foreign shorts appeared unwilling to take risks by remaining overnold during the holidays.

The opening prices were: December, 9.87 to 9.88; January, 9.65 to 9.66; February, 9.46 to 9.48; March, 9.45 to 9.46; April, 9.38 to 9.42; May, 9.37 to 9.38; June, 9.39; July, 9.32 to 9.34; August, 9.05 to 9.06; September, 8.46 to 8.50.

The closing prices were: Dec., 10.05 to 10.01; Jan., 9.62; Feb., 9.44; March, 9.42 to 9.43; April, 9.37 to 9.39; May, 9.35 to 9.36; June, 9.32 to 9.34; July, 9.28 to 9.29; Aug., 9.04 to 9.05; Sept., 8.42 to 8.45; Oct., 8.03 to 8.05. Market barely steady.

ALBANY, Dec. 21.—Gov. Roosevelt announced to-day that he was likely to appoint a successor to the late Justice Gerard Beekman to-morrow.

$300,000 WAITS FOR LOST MAN.

Wibeletz Is Missing and Big Fortune Is Tied Up.

CHARLES WIBELETZ.

Mrs. Kate Wibeletz, of 1621 Lexington avenue, is anxiously searching for her husband, Charles, who has been missing for over three years. A fortune of $300,000 is tied up in Germany in consequence of his absence or proof of his death, while Mrs. Wibeletz is barely able to provide a living for herself and children.

She hopes the publicity given her husband's disappearance, through the columns of The Evening World, may lead to his discovery if living or proof of his death.

The Wibeletzes were married in Pennsylvania in 1881 and have two children—Olga, sixteen years, and Charles, jr., eleven years old. Both children are attending public school.

Several weeks ago Mrs. Wibeletz received a communication from the German Consul in this city informing her of the fortune awaiting her and her husband in Germany.

Carl Wibeletz, the father of Charles, is a Chief Justice in Mollenbeck, Mecklenberg-Strelitz, and a very wealthy man. He is eighty-nine years old, and is about to distribute his estate among his children. Forty thousand dollars in cash and the interest on $110,000 is given to Charles; $150,000 is set aside in trust for Mrs. Wibeletz. In the event of Charles's death, his share goes to his widow and on her death the entire fortune goes to her children.

According to the German law all the children of Carl have to acknowledge their agreement to the distribution, and the German courts have now refused to distribute the money without the acknowledgment of Charles, or proof of his death.

Mrs. Wibeletz had her husband arrested three years ago, and for a time he was in Raymond Street Jail. He was discharged, and since that time his family have not heard of him.

Some time ago Mrs. Wibeletz heard that her husband had been killed during a quarrel in a saloon in Springfield, Mass., but she has been unable to verify this. Wibeletz is fifty-one years old, 5 feet 9 inches tall and very slim. His shoulders are stooped and his black hair and mustache are tinged with gray.

The German Consulate is making every effort to locate Wibeletz.

SUSTAINS STOCK EXCHANGE.

Court Decides Against Charles Neukirch, Expelled Broker.

The Appellate Division of the Supreme Court to-day handed down a decision affirming a judgment of the court below in the suit brought by Charles Neukirch to secure reinstatement in the New York Stock Exchange. The case went again Neukirch.

He had been expelled from the New York Exchange, his right of membership had been sold, and the proceeds had been paid over to him.

Justice Patterson stated that the expulsion was the result of an investigation by the Governing Committee of the Exchange, of certain transactions which were claimed to be fraudulent. The charges related to fictitious sales cooked up in connection with the operations of the E. S. Dean Company. Justice Patterson says that a careful examination of the whole record satisfies the Court that the cause was properly decided.

Wheat Declined on Cables.

Wheat opened steady on basis of 79 for May, but soon after eased back to 78 3-4 bid. A further decline of 5 to 15 points in Paris cables had its effect on trading. Corn was steady and unchanged.

New York's opening prices were: May wheat, 79; March wheat, 79 3-8. Chicago's opening prices were: January wheat, 70 1-4 to 70 3-8; May wheat, 73 to 73 1-8; May corn, 72.

New York's closing prices were: Dec. wheat, 77; March, 79 1-2; May, 79. Dec. corn, 46 bid; Jan., 42 1-2 bid; May, 41 7-8.

Chicago's closing prices were: Jan. wheat, 70 1-4 to 70 3-8; May, 73 to 73 1-8. December wheat, 69 7-8; January, 70 1-4; May, 73 1-8; December corn, 38 3-4; January, 36 1-4; May, 35 7-8.

TRACTION STOCK INCREASED

Metropolitan Road Files a New Certificate of $52,000,000.

(Special to The Evening World.)

ALBANY, Dec. 21.—The Metropolitan Street Railway Company to-day filed with the Secretary of State a certificate of increase of capital stock from $15,000,000 to $52,000,000. The debts and liabilities of the company amount to $32,750,000, and the amount of capital actually paid in is $44,950,000.

ENDS MONDAY NIGHT.

Only Two Days More of Big Clothing Sale at S. N. Wood & Co.'s.

For two weeks the community has been astounded at the prices quoted for high-grade union-made clothing by the firm of S. N. Wood & Co., 740 Broadway. The explanation is simple, but it shows the grit and determination of the S. N. Wood & Co. management. They made up tremendous stocks expecting a season of extraordinary prosperity. The weather remained mild, and while they did a much greater business than in any former year it was not in proportion to their colossal stock. They resolved to do thoroughly the one thing that would move the stock quickly, viz., cut the body right out of the prices. Thousands of thrifty people have been saving big money. The sales have been so much bigger than expected that the great piles upon piles of suits and overcoats have melted away, and the reduced prices will be continued for only two days more. Their store, at 740-742 Broadway, will be kept open Saturday and Monday evenings for the accommodation of belated buyers. adv.

ACCUSED NURSES GET A RESPITE.

Hearing of Bellevue Scandal Adjourned Till Dec. 27.

The inquest into the death of Louis Hilliard, said to have died from injuries received at the hands of nurses while he was a patient in the insane pavilion at Bellevue, began before Coroner Fitzpatrick shortly before 11 o'clock this morning.

Mrs. Hilliard, wife of the man whose death will lead to a wholesale reform in Bellevue, was in court with her fifteen-year-old son George. She had a kindly face, deeply marked by the sorrow that has come to her, and she listened to the testimony with the closest attention.

The three young men accused of causing her husband's death sat three rows behind her, and their appearance would lead no one to believe that they so cruelly treated the patient under their care that he died as a direct result of their brutality.

The jury was sworn in at 11:15 o'clock and Mrs. Hilliard was called before the Coroner and asked if her husband's name was Hilliard or Hyet.

"It is Hilliard," said she.

"Was he born in France?" asked the Coroner.

"Yes," answered the widow, and went back to her seat.

The case was adjourned until Thursday next on the motion of lawyer Anderson.

KNEW HIS BUSINESS.

Knew Something Besides What He Read in Book

The wise, up-to-date, modern doctor is no longer tied down to the hard and fast rules of what his medical books say he shall use and what he may withhold in treating his patient.

The successful doctor nowadays is the one who is quick to avail himself of any remedy, new or old which holds out a chance of cure no matter whether it is Allopathic, Homeopathic or neither one.

Dr. Jennison, in an interesting article on indigestion and dyspepsia says: "Nine tenths of all people who apply to me for advice and treatment think they have this ailment or that ailment, but I find on close examination that their whole trouble arises from poor digestion.

"They have little appetite and if they do have an appetite the food they eat does them no good. Why? Because it is but half digested, causing thin blood, weak nerves, sleeplessness, aching bones, pains in chest, formation of gases, belching, etc. They tell me they believe they have consumption, or heart disease, rheumatism, nervous prostration, in fact most every disease but the right one.

"In reality the whole trouble is in the stomach and nowhere else. Now what I do with such people? I don't feed them on pre-digested foods like babies, nor 'stomach bitters' nor patent nostrums which I know nothing about. No honorable physician will prescribe a remedy unless he knows what it contains and its probable effects.

"For all such patients I have but one prescription: I advise them to go to the nearest drug store and get a 50 cent box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I use them with remarkable success in all cases of indigestion and stomach trouble, because I know what Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets consist of and what they will do. They contain the vegetable essences, diastase and government test pepsin which are the things every weak stomach lacks to restore natural digestive vigor and if I had dyspepsia myself it is the one remedy I should take.

"When a patient comes to me complaining of dull headaches, sour stomach, bad taste, nervousness, belching of gas, or heart trouble which is generally caused from indigestion, I tell him to take one or two of Stuart's Tablets after each meal and as often during the day as he has any trouble and I feel confident I have given that patient the best advice I could give."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are large, pleasant tasting lozenges, containing diastase and pepsin combined with fruit and vegetable essences. They are not cathartic and do not act on any particular organ like ordinary drugs, but simply act entirely on the food eaten. They are a natural digestive, pure and simple.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents per package throughout the United States, Canada and Great Britain.
