BOY FORETELLS HIS DEATH

His Premonition Fully and Speedily Borne Out.

YORK, PA., August 29.—A remarkable case, in which Lawrence Rohrbaugh, a sixteen-year-old boy, is believed to have had a premonition of death, which was speedily verified, is reported from Glen Rock, this county.

Recently, it is said, the boy, who had always been bright and cheerful, became subject to fits of melancholia, in which he would cry and say that he would have to die soon. A week ago he was stricken with spinal meningitis, and yesterday his prophecy was borne out by his death.
