NO DEVELOPMENTS IN SHORT SESSION

Movement of Stocks Is Sluggish and Mainly Downward.

BUSINESS VERY IRREGULAR

Brilliant Promise for Wheat Crop Fails to Allay Alarm.

New York, August 9.—The two-hour session of the stock market to-day was devoid of developments. Reports from trade authorities indicated continued irregularity in various lines of business. A few noteworthy railroad returns were submitted, especially that of the Erie for the fiscal year, its net income increasing by over $4,000,000 with a surplus gain of $3,900,000. Wabash reported an increase for the year of $1,850,000.

From the sluggish movement of leading stocks, mainly downwards, it was inferred that consideration of yesterday's crop report, with its brilliant promise for wheat, did not allay alarm for other staples. Harriman shares were under steady pressure, likewise Reading and, Smelting, while specialties like International paper preferred, Virginia-Carolina preferred, Mexican Petroleum and American Express fell 1 to 2 points.

Unfilled tonnage figures for July, as submitted by the United States Steel Corporation after the close of the market showed a decrease of practically 408,000 tons, and marked the seventh successive monthly reduction this year. The volume of business reported to-day —5,399,356 tons—is over 500,000 tons less than that of a year ago.

The bank statement threw little light on the week's monetary operations, actual loans increasing $5,640,000, while the cash gain of $1,157,000 was below most estimates.

Bonds were irregular. Government issues advanced from 1-4 to 1 per cent on call on the week. Total sales, par value, were $532,000.

New York, August 9.—Money on call, nominal; no loans. Time loans, steady; sixty days, 3½@3¾; ninety days, 4; six months, 4¼@4½. Prime mercantile paper, 6@6½ per cent. Sterling exchange easy, with actual business in bankers' bills at 4.8315 for sixty day bills and for $4.85 for demand. Commercial bills, 4.83. Bar silver, 59. Mexican dollars, 47. Government bonds firm; railroad bonds irregular.

FINANCIAL SKY BRIGHT

BY CHARLES W. STORM.

New York, August 9.—A marked brightening of our financial sky occurred during the past week. This is reflected in easier money, an increased demand for high grade investments and higher prices for securities.

Bankers are authority for the statement that the corner has been turned and confidence, the most sensitive element in the world, is gradually coming back.

Many millions of capital that have been in hiding waiting for the financial squall to blow over are beginning to seek investment. The amount of money that has been accumulating is very large and its owners are expected to continue seeking employment for their savings up to the fall, when the crop movement will make demands on capital.

Inquiry for standard stocks is growing. Investors have been coming to Wall Street and picking up shares which are considered to be selling at bargain prices. Commission houses report the opening of many new accounts, but a very large proportion of the buyers are paying for their securities and taking them home.

Helps Restore Confidence.

As the stock market is considered to be the truest barometer of general trade, the advance in securities has done considerable to restore confidence.

Railroads and corporations are making fresh offerings of securities, emphasizing a belief on the part of railroad operators and captains of industry that conditions have improved sufficiently to go ahead with new work.

Bankers have been carrying the offer of Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo to deposit between $50,000,000 and $50,000,000 in Western and Southwestern banks to facilitate the movement of the crops, but this offer has done much to relieve fear of tight money and high rates during the harvest period.

Deposits of so much money by Secretary McAdoo will prevent high rates and as the profits of banks accrue from the rates received on funds loaned, it is only natural that they should raise a hue and cry. Everything is done through the pocket.

Copper, Steel and Crops.

Improvement in the demand for copper metal continues, a further advance in the price of electrolytic being recorded the past week. Some agencies have sold their supplies for August and September. The Copper Producers' Association report of the supply of copper metal on hand July 1 showed an increase of 4[illegible] pounds, which was much less than expected.

Orders for steel are beginning to pick up, and the outlook for new business is growing better, so that the unfilled tonnage statement of the United States Steel Corporation as of July 31 will not mirror present conditions. Railroads, it is estimated, will be in the market for about 500,000 tons of steel rails for their 1914 requirements.

The government crop report, issued Friday, is considered worse than the ten-year average. It made a very bad showing, inasmuch as the indicated yields of wheat, corn, oats, barley, rye, flaxseed and potatoes show an aggregate shrinkage of 275,230,000 bushels, compared with the final yields of last year. The indicated hay crop also shows a substantial reduction. Bad as the figures were, they had been discounted by the stock market, which rose after their publication.

The condition of corn was the centre of attention owing to the recent reports of severe deterioration, which seemed to be confirmed in a large measure by the government's figures. Damage to the plant, however, was greatest in those States where bumper crops were raised last year and where there is a large carry-over.

Calamity howlers who have been insisting that the country is "going to the dogs" received a rude shock when the government announced that the United States established a new high record for trade of $4,275,000,000 during the fiscal year. This is a growth of $421,000,000 over the previous year. The balance of trade in favor of Uncle Sam was $653,000,000.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, August 9.—Prospects for better weather in the Southwest caused a sharp decline in the cotton market to-day with prices selling into new low ground for the movement. Covering caused slight rallies in the late trading, and the closing tone was steady, but last prices were 13@20 points net lower. Local map readers noted the presence of a broadening low barometer over the southwest, and private predictions of showers, based on this development, were confirmed by the official forecasts, which called for unsettled and showery weather in West Texas, Oklahoma and Arkansas, with increasing cloudiness for East Texas. Moreover, heavy rains were reported in Western Louisiana, which seemed to be pretty near the droughty section, the map confirmed yesterday's private reports of rain at Galveston, and showers were shown at a couple of points in the Texas Pan Handle. On the whole, consequently, a more favorable opinion prevailed as to southwestern prospects, and recent buyers on drought and deterioration reports were credited with selling actively this morning.

The Liverpool market showed no special features, but prices were a shade lower than due if anything, and the local opening was steady at an advance of 5 points on August, but generally 6@8 points lower.

There was some buying attributed to trade interests, at the start, as well as scattered covering of the short noted yesterday afternoon, but the market quickly weakened, and during the middle of the morning sold 12 points net lower on August and from 19@22 points below the closing figures of yesterday on new crop positions. December contracts touched 10.92 or a couple of points under the low price of last Tuesday, while January broke to 10.91, or even with the low level of last April, and the lowest price reached since that position sold at 11.67 during the middle of June. Realizing by recent sellers was very heavy at the decline, but the market was nervous and unsettled during the entire morning.

Cotton futures closed barely steady.

New Orleans, August 9.—The week-end session in the cotton market saw prices go perilously near to the lowest levels of this season on short selling, encouraged by the hope of rains in the western belt over Sunday. Bulls made no effort to support the market, and values fell away under moderate offerings from the bear side. At the opening the tone was steady and prices were 5@8 points down on poor cables and cloudy weather over the belt, with rains indicated in the central portion.

The forecast for cloudy and unsettled weather for the western belt and a storm warning for the Texas coast as the result of a disturbance to the northwest of the cotton region, increased offerings, and the market gradually fell off until late in the morning the trading months were 16@17 points under the last quotations of yesterday. The market closed barely steady at a net loss of 10@13 points.

Official weather reports noted generally dry and hot weather over Texas and Oklahoma, and crop accounts from those two States were discouraging, but neither of these features stimulated buying. Bulls allowed the market to take care of itself. Spot cotton to-day was quiet, unchanged. Middling, 11⅞c. Sales on the spot 12 bales. Cotton futures closed: August, 11.35; September, 11.05; October, 11.05; December, 11.03; January, 11.04; March, 11.13; May, 11.23.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET.

Chicago, Ill., August 9.—Profit-taking on an immense scale by owners of corn brought about a backset in prices to-day after an opening bulge, due largely to the government report. The market closed nervous at a range of ½c lower to ¼c up compared with last night. Wheat finished ¼c. to ¼@¾c. down; oats, ⅛@¼c., and provisions showing a decline of 5@30c.

Cash grain closed: Wheat—No. 2 red, 86@86½c.; No. 3 red, new, 83½@85c.; No. 2 hard, new, 86@87c.; No. 1 northern, 91@91½c. No. 2 northern, 90@91c. No. 2 spring, 90@91c.
