

You Are Invited to Join the Mid-West Club

About March 1st—we will organize the Mid-West Club among the friends and customers of our Bank.

ITS OBJECT—To help its members. To be their city agent—at their call day or night, should Doctor, Nurse, anything be desired. Our Bank—their check and rest room, with every convenience for their comfort. To give them the advantage of Co-operative buying (and you all know what this means and saves.) Ask us where best to buy.

There Will Be No Entrance Fee, Dues or Expenses. You may use the Club when and as you please. Just know it is here—ready for you. As its membership increases, its benefits will increase. "Large oaks, from tiny acorns grow."

TO JOIN—Write us, Do It Now. When Club is formed, you will receive Membership card. After awhile it will be "WORTH WHILE."

Our Aim—To be of real service. Ask anyone from across the river what sort of a man and banker Mr. Kearney is. If worthy of Your friendship, confidence, and deposits. They KNOW

Past Banking Record—1886 to 1896—with less than fifty dollars total losses. Through the panics of 1893-1896, too. From 1896 to Sept 11, 1911, without a single suit or foreclosure or a penny's loss; the selling of his bank at Jackson, Neb., Sept. 11, 1911, thinking to retire—With Every Note Paid as it Came Due Since Then, and without suits, Attorneys or foreclosures.

Ripe—Ready—Eager—to serve YOU faithfully and well—with Everything in GOOD Banking—with Safety over all.

Yours for MORE Business,

Mid-West Bank

EDWARD T. KEARNEY, President.

Items of Interest from our Exchanges

Wynot Tribune: Jack McQuirk went to Sioux City Monday, where he submitted to a surgical operation.

Salix Items in Sloan, Io. Star: Mrs Nels Krough, from Nebraska, visited Sunday at the home of Nels Johnson.

Osmond Republican: B S Leedom was called to Dakota City, Thursday, on account of the illness of his aged father, who is suffering with cancer of the throat.

Ponca Journal: John Harney's daughter, Agnes, who has been attending the sisters' school at Jackson, has been very ill, returned home last week upon the advice of the doctor.

Lyon's Mirror: Mrs Canfield Phillips and daughter, of Fremont, Neb, are the guests of Mr and Mrs Dave Everett this week. Mrs Florence V Nixon and children, William and Miss Florence, of Homer, were Lyons visitors Saturday and Sunday. Mrs Nixon and Mrs M M Warner are sisters.

Wayne Democrat: W C Jastrom, who was a resident of Wayne for a number of years, but moved away four or five years ago, was here last week from Franklin, where he now resides, visiting his brother-in-law, Alex Holtz, and family. He met many former friends and also numerous strangers. He could point out all of the old landmarks that are left, and commented upon the new buildings of the last fourteen years.

Allen News: Albert Waddell spent Friday and Saturday with relatives in South Sioux City, returning home Saturday evening. James Jeffery, son of Mr and Mrs Enoch Jeffery residing three miles northwest of Allen, and Miss Nellie Underhill were married at the home of the bride's parents near Merrill, Ia, January 15th. The bride's parents formerly lived near Allen and the young people are well known to most of our readers.

Homer Star: Ed Wilkins attended to business matters at Long Pine, Neb, the first of the week. H E Priest and family left Saturday for Stanton, Neb, where he intends to harbor and make it his home. Bird Bliven, brother of Mrs John Baugons, returned on Tuesday to his home at Cody, Wyo, after a two weeks visit. Mrs Bird Bliven and daughter, Mrs Stump, returned Friday to their home at Cody, Wyo, after several weeks visit with relatives and friends.

Dixon Journal: R E Hughes, who for the past three years has had charge of the lumber yard here for the Edwards & Bradford company, is to be transferred the first of the month to Homer. Dr F B Evans, of this place, and D A Paul, of Concord, have bought out the interests of M O Ayres and W L Ross in the Dixon State bank. The new organization took possession Saturday, with D A Paul as vice president; Dr F B Evans, cashier, and R J Flaherty, assistant cashier.

Sioux City Journal, 2nd: Work on the government reclamation on the Dakota county shore of the Missouri river will be finished Tuesday, according to John S Campbell, overseer in charge of the project. The grading, paving and ballasting along 5,000 feet of the shore has been finished with the exception of several small places. Because of the recent cold snap it is probable that the ice will be dynamited to let the ballast mat to the river bottom.

Emerson Enterprise: F F Haase, of the Emerson Mite Co, was in Omaha on business, Friday. Mrs Catherine Hunt James, of South Sioux City, spent Sunday in Emerson, the guest of Mrs M H Evans. Nils Anderson, of Naocra, has purchased the German Lutheran parsonage and will take possession next May. Nelson Feanik returned home from Omaha last Monday, where he had been to attend the funeral of his sister, Mrs Nessing, who formerly was a resident of Emerson.

Omaha World-Herald, 30th: H C Baird, bailiff in the federal district court, died suddenly of apoplexy at his home, 5013 Cass street, yesterday afternoon. Mr Baird had been apparently in good health up to within a short time before his death. The circumstances of his death are particularly tragic. He had accompanied Mrs Baird from their home a few blocks away where she was a guest at a party. Returning home Mr Baird had gone to a room which he had been fitting up as a den and had evidently been looking over some Indian relics and things with a view to arranging them to suit his taste. Mrs Baird returned home to find him lying dead on the floor where he had fallen. Coroner Crosby was summoned and found death to have been due to apoplexy. Mr Baird had been in good health. Tuesday he had been at the federal building in the regular performance of his duties and was about yesterday forenoon. Mr Baird was 58 years old and well known in Omaha. He came here about ten years ago from his home in Dakota county. He was at one time Indian agent at the Santee reservation. He was a close friend of United States Marshal Warner, also of Dakota county, and when Warner was appointed to his present office he named Baird as court bailiff. That was seven years ago. The funeral will not be held until the latter part of the week, so as to enable a brother of Mrs Baird to reach here from Philadelphia. Besides his wife, Mr Baird is survived by a married daughter living in Douglas, Wyo.

Winneshago Chief: L Ross went to Homer Saturday evening on business. Jesse Mansfield went to Homer Saturday to visit with friends. Miss Daisy Thacker, of Homer, was an over Sunday visitor at the home of her aunt, Mrs Emma Wilcox. M S Mansfield was returning from Sioux City Saturday Saturday night, he having been up there to see how his wife was getting along at the hospital, and when between Sioux City and Omaha, he and Ruel Mercere proceeded to partake of a lunch they had secured for the trip. A Mart had done many times before, he was steering the car with his knee, going along at about ten miles an hour, while the lunch was being served. Without realizing it, he had allowed his knee to become free from the wheel, and auto-like, the machine kicked on being neglected even for a moment, and to the ditch it went, hitting upon an electric wire post with such force as to break it clean off and smashing the radiator almost past recognition. Mr Mercere ran down the track to signal a street car that was approaching, to head off any further accident. They were towed to Homer, and arrived home before daylight Sunday morning. And Mart, well, he says he don't take any more stock in a ten mile gait, with intermittent knee pressure steering. Give him the high speed and eye right on the job all the time—get home quick—no break—auto no hurt. No wait two, three hour, till some whole auto come 'long—then hav' walk back to South Sioux for Ed Pilgrim.

expects to leave shortly for Murdock, Neb, to stay with his parents, who are getting old and need a son's loving care in their declining years. George Tallar is looking after his property holdings at Woonsocket, S D, this week. Mary Barry attended the Mardi Gras ball in Sioux City last Friday evening. Mary Twobig, of Sioux City, was an over Sunday guest in the J J McBride home. Mrs Williams, of Hornick, Ia, is visiting in the Dugan and Collins homes this week. The Lenten instructions were read in the Catholic church here Sunday. Devotions will be held Wednesday and Friday evenings during Lent. M Quinn, E T Kennelly, Frank Mulley and Geo Gasius, are among the witnesses in Sioux City this week on the case of the heirs of the two Greek laborers who were drowned in Elk creek last March, at the Burlington railroad bridge. Matt Zulauf, agent, has installed a new lighting plant for the Jackson Drug Co, and intends to put one in for John Ryan. Mr and Mrs Will Steadman, of Centralia, S D, are guests in the John Cam bell home. Among those from here who attended the Farmers Institute and Home-makers Club, were J A Hall, M R Boler, Mrs J A Hall, Mae Boler, Mrs Jas Flynn and Mrs M Boler.

HOMER. Mrs C H Maxwell, of Dakota City, was in Homer visiting her sick mother part of the week. J P Rockwell, ex-sheriff, was seen on our streets Wednesday and Thursday, going to and from his farm. Mrs Mary Endersby received word Saturday that her mother was dead, and left for South Sioux City on the evening train. The remains were brought to Homer and buried here on Monday. Peter Peterson, Homer's hustling shabby man and Thorwald Hiesting, the famous painter, left for Chicago Thursday morning. John Davis was a Sunday visitor in Sioux City. Hugh Altman and family moved their household goods to Correctionville, Ia, and expects to farm the coming summer. Miss Christine Blessing returned home Friday from a short visit in Dakota City at the Mrs McBeath home. Quite a number from here attended the sessions of the farmers institute at Dakota City Tuesday and Wednesday.
