AGUINALDO CAPTURED BY FUNSTON.

subject to a trial by a military commission for violation of the rules of war, and he could not claim immunity under the ordinary conduct of war.

IS AGUINALDO HOAXING US?

WASHINGTON, March 28.—A member of the Administration remarked to-day: "I am half inclined to suspect that the whole thing was a 'put-up job.' Aguinaldo is a shrewd enough fellow to realize that he could do us more harm alive and in our keeping than hiding in the wilds.

"See the advantage he has over us now. Suppose the President offers him his liberty on his personal parole. He need not give his parole, and if he refuses it, where will the President be then?

"It is Aguinaldo who has captured us, not we who have captured him."

AGUINALDO IS NOW IN MANILA.

MANILA, March 28.—Aguinaldo is a prisoner. He and three of his staff officers, also taken, are here in custody.

They were captured by Gen. Frederick Funston near Casiguran, nine miles from Baler, on the northeast coast of Luzon.

An insurgent major was killed in the capture. Twenty rifles and a lot of important papers were seized.

The prisoners were brought here to-day on the gunboat Vicksburg. The famous Filipino chieftain was taken ashore at 3.10 P. M.

He was brought before Gen. MacArthur at the Malacanang Palace. He lunched with the officers of Gen. MacArthur's staff and was then taken to Gen. MacArthur's palace.

Gen. Aguinaldo is in good health. He is cheerful and talks freely. He seems ignorant as to recent happenings.

The capture is the result of the daring scheme of Gen. Funston.

The plan was made when one of Aguinaldo's officers betrayed his hiding-place.

With this officer as a guide, Funston, ten Americans and a company of Maccabebe scouts started for the rendezvous of Aguinaldo in the distant province of Isabella. It was a desperate undertaking, and it was feared that they would never return.

They penetrated the dangerous country to the lair of the Filipino chieftain. The Americans were brought before the Filipino chief as prisoners.

Then suddenly throwing off their disguise they appeared armed to the teeth and seized Aguinaldo and his entire staff. Gen. Funston hurried his prisoners to the coast and put them aboard the gunboat Vicksburg.

The entire party arrived here on the gunboat to-day.

WASHINGTON GETS THE NEWS.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Gen. MacArthur has cabled the War Department confirming the published report of the capture of Aguinaldo. Adjt.-Gen. Corbin is preparing a statement for publication, giving the details.

This despatch from Admiral Remey, at Manila, was received at the Navy Department to-day:

"CAVITE, March 28.

"Bureau Navigation, Washington:

"Vicksburg sailed 8th with Gen. Funston and eighty-three Maccabebes aboard on expedition to capture Aguinaldo. Returned to-day. Aguinaldo and three staff officers captured and delivered to custody of Gen. MacArthur.

"(Signed) REMEY."

Gen. MacArthur's message read:

"Gen. Funston has just returned from expedition to Palanan, Province of Isabella, where he captured Aguinaldo, who is now in my possession at Malacanan. Particulars later."

Malacanan is Gen. MacArthur's headquarters and residence in Manila.

ROOT TALKS OF AGUINALDO.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Secretary Root said to-day that he could make no statement as yet as to the disposition of Aguinaldo. He supposed that he would be treated as other prominent insurgents who had been captured.

When asked if Funston would be rewarded by promotion for his daring work the Secretary said that question had not yet been considered.

GEN. OTIS GLAD OF THE CAPTURE.

CHICAGO, March 28.—Gen. Elwell S. Otis was awakened this morning with the news that Aguinaldo had been captured by Gen. Funston.

"I am glad to hear it," said Gen. Otis. This was all he would say.

DECLARES WAR WILL CONTINUE.

PARIS, March 28.—A representative of the Associated Press to-day communicated to Agoncillo, the Filipino agent, the news of the capture of Aguinaldo. Agoncillo, who occupies a nicely furnished apartment in a house in a central Paris street, apparently surrounded by every comfort, laughed and said:

"I do not believe it. I have received [illegible] by cable, and until I receive confirmatory advices I shall continue to ignore the news."

Asked if the announcement was true, what effect he thought it would have on the insurrection, Agoncillo replied emphatically:

"None, except the loss of a true patriot and a clever General. But the feeling of the Philippine people and their determination to fight out the struggle for independence will remain unshakable.

"I received a cablegram only yesterday which convinced me that the Philippine leaders and military chiefs will prosecute the war.

"I received a cablegram only yesterday which convinced me that the Philippine leaders have not modified their persistent attitude regarding the continuance of the war. Whatever dissatisfactions may have taken place in favor of the Americans, the Philippine people as a whole are resolved to accept nothing short of independence."

When Agoncillo was asked what effect the capture of Aguinaldo would have on the campaign he said: a council of the leading Filipinos would simply meet and elect another military chief to prosecute the war, adding that even if Aguinaldo and his general staff were all captured many able generals remain.

Agoncillo was asked who was likely to be chosen to succeed Aguinaldo, and said he thought Gen. Alejandrino might be selected, as he was a clever military leader and enjoyed the confidence of the people.

In reply to a question as to whether the Filipinos had enough money to continue the war indefinitely, Agoncillo smiled and replied:

"That is our affair."

BOSTON, March 28.—Senor Sixto Lopez, formerly Secretary of Aguinaldo, when informed to-day of the capture of Aguinaldo said that there were other Filipinos besides Aguinaldo who would take the leadership, and that the fighting would continue. The policy of the Filipinos would not be affected. Senor Lopez said he would prepare a statement for the press in a few days. Continuing he said:

"There are other men fully as capable as Aguinaldo to take his place, among the number being Tino, Mescardo, Callies, Malvar and Alejandrino, all clever generals, who fought through the first insurrection against the Spanish Government.

"Alejandrino is a civil engineer, a graduate of the University of Belgium and a man of commanding appearance, in whom the Filipinos have the utmost confidence."

Gen. Alejandrino, who succeeds Aguinaldo as Military Chief of the Filipinos, is now second in command.

He was the designer of the remarkable series of intrenchments which extended for miles around Manila and which called forth the admiration of European officers.

"We want an honorable peace, but we will fight to the death for our institutions," he said recently.

He was educated in Europe and was one of the peace envoys who called on Gen. Otis.

EMILIO AGUINALDO.

AGUINALDO'S LIFE IN BRIEF.

Born inIsmus, a village near Cavite, in 1869.

His name means "Christmas Gift." He is a Filipino.

Received a good education in the College of St. Jean de Lateran and the University of St. Thomas, in Manila.

Eloped with girl who was studying in convent in Cavite, was captured and sentenced to imprisonment for one year for abduction.

Resolved to revenge himself on the Spanish.

Became a leader of the insurgents.

Received $400,000 from Spain in 1897 for making peace with Spain.

Went to Hongkong, where he insisted on using the money to buy arms for another insurrection.

Was accused of stealing the share of money belonging to other insurgent leaders.

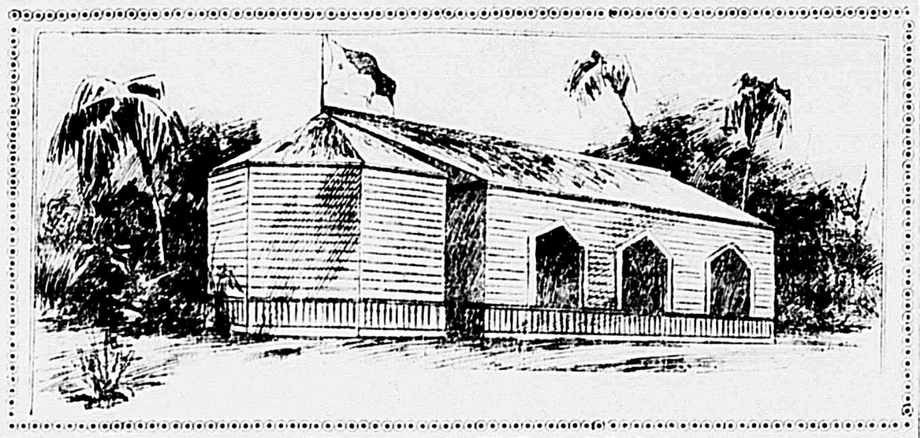
After the battle of Manila had charge of all of the Spanish prisoners taken by the United States.

Began siege of Manila before the arrival of American troops.

After the first conflict between the Filipinos and the American troops in February, 1899, he established his capital in Malolos. Moved to San Fernando after Malolos was captured.

Is 5 feet 4 inches high and looks like a Japanese.

His wife, mother and child were captured by Gen. Lawton's troops in 1899.



AGUINALDO'S LATEST "CAPITOL."

GEN. FUNSTON'S LIFE IN BRIEF.

Born in New Carlisle, O., in 1863.

Raised in Kansas.

Beaten in competitive examination for appointment to West Point by Lieut. Crawford.

Attended the Kansas State University at Lawrence.

Memorized much poetry.

Fell in love at regular and frequent intervals.

Became a newspaper reporter.

Worked as a conductor on the Santa Fe Railroad, but lost his job because he stopped his train to chase a pugnacious cowboy.

Went to Alaska in 1892 and walked and sledded 3,500 miles.

Crossed the Chilkoot Pass alone.

Came to New York City and engaged in newspaper work.

Offered his services to the Cuban Junta and went to Cuba as an artilleryman.

Made Chief of Artillery of the Cuban Army.

One arm torn by a shell, and a Mauser bullet shot through one lung.

Became Colonel of the Twelfth Kansas Volunteers raised for the war with Spain.

While waiting in San Francisco to sail with his regiment to Manila met Miss Edna Boankart, of Oakland, and married her.

Swam the Pampanga River to fight the insurgents.

Was the first man to enter Aguinaldo's capital, Malolos.

Was made Brigadier-General of Volunteers for heroic conduct.

GEN. WHEELER EXPECTS PEACE.

Gen. Joseph Wheeler is a warm admirer of Gen. Funston. At the Waldorf-Astoria to-day he said:

"One of the bravest acts recorded during this war is the capture of Aguinaldo by Gen. Funston. On and off the field he is brave and intrepid.

"The time is not far off when the Philippines will be in a state of peace. Then, I think, the number of United States troops on the islands can be reduced to 10,000 unless conditions in China warrant the retention at Manila of a larger army.

"Our main trouble for some time has arisen from the depredations of disconnected bands of banditti. With the help of natives, the majority of whom are friendly with us, these will be hunted down and broken up in short order."

GREETING TO GEN. FUNSTON.

A message of congratulation will be cabled to Gen. Funston by the Phi Delta Theta fraternity on his capture of Aguinaldo. Gen. Funston is a loyal member of the organization.

The next convention of the fraternity will be held in this city during Thanksgiving week, 1902. It is the purpose of the Committee of Arrangements to have the General here at that time, it being argued that the islands will be completely pacified then.

Minister Conger, a member of Phi Delta Theta, will also be present at the convention if possible.

A fortnight ago the death of ex-President Benjamin Harrison removed from the roll of the fraternity's living members its most illustrious name.

MAY BE SENT AWAY TO GUAM.

WASHINGTON, March 28.—Senator Hawley, Chairman of the Senate Committee on Military Affairs, talked with the President about the capture of Aguinaldo to-day.

Senator Hawley said he did not believe Aguinaldo would be executed, but undoubtedly would be sent to some safe place, probably in the island of Guam, where he could make no further trouble.

MONEY DISPUTE CAUSES SHOOTING

Sub-Contractor Manes Fires at Contractor Von Bietsch and Bullet Breaks His Jaw.

Louis F. Manes, a paper-hanger, fired three shots from a revolver in rapid succession at Henry A. Von Bietsch, a contracting decorator, at One Hundred and Forty-second street and Seventh avenue, this afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Von Bietsch fell to the sidewalk.

Policeman Henry Brueck saw the shooting and pursued Manes three blocks when Manes turned and fired a shot, missing. He then gave up.

One bullet entered Von Bietsch's jaw on the right side, passing entirely through and coming out at the left side. The jaw bone was completely shattered.

Von Bietsch was taken to his home at No. 135 Avenue A. He is fifty-two years old and had the contract for decorating the houses at One Hundred and Forty-second street and Seventh avenue. He had sublet the contract for paper-hanging to Manes and they quarrelled about money matters.

Manes was taken before Magistrate Pool, who held him for examination. Manes is forty-seven years old. He lives at No. 40 West Thirty-seventh street.

GUGGENHEIMS LOSE THEIR SUIT

New Jersey Court Enjoins Purchase of Their Plants.

TRENTON, N. J., March 28.—The Court of Errors and Appeals to-day rendered a decision in the suit brought by certain stockholders of the American Smelting and Refining Company to restrain the company from increasing its capital stock to $100,000,000 and from acquiring the property of M. Guggenheim Sons. The Court decides against the company and enjoins the issue of stock for the purchase of the Guggenheim plant unless it shall appear in the final hearing that the stock to be issued does not exceed the value of the property to be acquired.

The action of the Jersey court in making permanent the injunction against the American Smelting and Refining Company reached Wall street just before the close of business this afternoon and resulted in a sharp break in smelting issues. The common stock, which closed yesterday at 58 1-8 and opened at an advance to-day, broke from 57 1-2 to 55 1-2 between sales and then down to 52, and closed at 52 1-2. The preferred stock opened at 96 1-2 and broke to 90 1-8 and closed at 91, making the net declines for the day 5 5-8 on common and 5 on preferred stock.

Vice-President Sewell was seen at his office, and when asked about the action of the court he said it had rather upset the calculations of the directors of the company, and he assumed that a meeting would be called for to-morrow to consider the situation.

ROUGH SPOTS.

Good Food Smooths Them Over.

"There is probably nothing in the world that produces as much happiness as the peculiar feeling that comes over the mind when well fed with nourishing food that particularly rebuilds the brain, and makes everything on earth have a rosy tint. Ambition is renewed, spirits are of the most sanguine, and confidence has restored that feeling within us which carries us over the rough places."

So writes a man who was built up from a wretched invalid to a fine condition of health by changing his diet and using Grape-Nuts Food.

"There is no sense of enjoyment equal to that of being well physically and mentally. I can hardly realize that such a transposition has been made. From being ill-tempered and disagreeable I have changed to something like enjoyment of the society that I had grown to avoid. From feeling that life was not worth living, I now feel that I would like to live always.

"I inclose a sample of my handwriting showing my nervous condition before using Grape-Nuts Food, and you can compare it with my signature to this letter."

The writing done while he was in a nervous, ill-fed condition is shown on an old-time check and reports a series of dates when he was absent on account of sickness. His signature was made in lines that consist of minute waves or wiggles, showing the desperately weak condition, while the signature to the letter is remarkable for its clear penmanship.

It is the old story over and over again that when a man is broken down because he exhausts the gray matter in the nerve cells and brain from overwork and improper food, he can rebuild that gray matter by using Grape-Nuts, for this food contains Phosphate of Potash direct from the natural grains of the field, and this, united with the albumen of the grains makes the only combination that will rebuild this peculiar soft gray substance.

GIRL SLEUTH'S TERRIBLE FALL

Alma Krump Plunges Four Stories to Employer's Yard.

A door on the third floor of the house of Dr. Louis Lichtenstein, at No. 149 East Eighty-ninth street, became jammed, but Alma Krump, a servant, thought it was locked, and, as the key was on the inside, she was mystified. She determined to look in the apartment by lowering herself from her room, just above.

She secured a rope to her bed, roped the other end over her waist and started to let herself down.

She had gone only a few feet when the rope gave way and she fell to the yard, fracturing her hip and left arm.

JOHNSON GETS A HARD REBUFF.

Rapid Transit Board Says His Offer Is Too Vague.

At a meeting of the Rapid Transit Board this afternoon a letter was received from Mr. A. L. Johnson setting forth his plans for the East River Tunnel.

Johnson wrote that he was willing to put up a million dollars cash deposit and give the required additional bond security to build and equip the tunnel and railroad at bottom cost to the city and to carry passengers for three cent fares. He also said he would agree to pay union wages.

A reply was directed to Mr. Johnson saying that his letter was disappointing. "Not only does it vary in most essential particulars," wrote the Commissioners, "from your proposal to the Municipal Assembly, but it contains no definite proposition."

SCHULTZ LEFT HIS SON $5.

Court Attendant Said John Had Received All Due Him.

John Schultz, who was the personal attendant of Justice Bischoff, of the Supreme Court, and who was a court officer for more than thirty years, was buried to-day in Calvary Cemetery. Justice Bischoff adjourned his court to attend the funeral.

Immediately after the funeral Schultz's will was filed in the Surrogate's office.

One clause says: "My son, John Schultz, jr., shall have nothing to say about my family plot or estate. He got out of me more than he is entitled to." John is left a $5 bill in another clause.

The widow is made executrix and gets $50 a month with the right to live in the family residence at No. 235 East Fourth street as long as she remains a widow.

No Quarters.

It might appear at first glance that the radical departure in book selling inaugurated by the International Association of Newspapers and Authors meant war to the knife with the regular book trade. This is not the case, for the wide publicity given author and publisher by the oft-repeated announcements of the Association really benefits everybody, especially the book-buying public. The Association price for a practical reproduction of a dollar-and-a-quarter copyrighted book is only twenty-five cents. The first two books of the first section of ten can now be had at the Wanamaker Store. "No quarters" means no five quarters for the book, but just one quarter, as may be gleaned from the announcement on page 7 of to-day's issue.

EASTER HAT SALE.

These sales of ours have made a new day in trading. The "Grand Duke" hats sell elsewhere from $2.80 to $5.00. Here $1.30. How's that? Here's the story:

Manufacturers didn't foresee their popularity, so made comparatively few. They are almost as scarce as they are popular—consequently high-priced. We had already bought a large lot of fine felt hat bodies at a very low figure—intending to make them up later. The "Duke" became popular. We immediately made these hat bodies on exactly the same "Duke" block as originated by Knox. So to-day we can sell

Popular "Grand Duke" Hats 1.30
Everybody knows the shape—hosts of good dressers are wearing it. It will be worn still more. Every detail of this stock of ours is exactly the style of the Knox hats—even to the buckle, the hatband, the binding. Is a mine worth the difference between $5.00 and.....

The $3.00 Bradford Hat for 2.00
Made on the $5.00 style makers' blocks. 45 styles of Soft Hats and Derbys. Colors, Smoke Pearl, Tan, Black and Brown. A $3.00 quality. Because we bought the hat bodies and finished them ourselves—thereby saving a jobber's profit. We can sell them at.....
