ALDERMEN HIT BY GRAND JURY

Wafer and Bridges Are Blamed for Stand in Water Matter.

The March Grand Jury of Kings County, in making its presentment to Judge Aspinall to-day, severely arraigns Aldermen Bridges and Wafer for their position regarding the water supply of Brooklyn. The presentment says:

"First, we take this method of denouncing in the most expressive terms the action of Aldermen Bridges and Wafer for refusing to hear the representative of the people of the Borough of Brooklyn, at a recent meeting of the Board of Aldermen, on an occasion when such representative called to present considerations with reference to the water supply.

"We consider that the failure of the Municipal Assembly to take proper action for the relief of the critical condition of the borough of Brooklyn due to the present inadequate water supply has been a grave omission of duty, and an omission of duty that cannot be criticised in too severe terms.

"But we mention Aldermen Bridges and Wafer and Councilman French by name, for the reason that we believe they especially deserve public condemnation, and because we feel that their misconduct and lapses in this behalf should be brought in an explicit manner to the attention of the people of the Borough of Brooklyn in order that, on any proper occasion, how far they have failed in this emergency to do their duty may not be forgotten, but rebuked.

Judge Aspinall, in discharging the Grand Jury, said: "At this point I am going to say something that may shock you, but I feel it my duty to say personally that I do not believe in presentments to any court. This presentment that you have handed in this morning contains suggestions. There is no power in it. When this Court, through its messenger, sends a copy of the presentment to the public officials that it mentioned then the power of this Court is ended.

"But, gentlemen of the jury, there is another way of handling this matter. Instead of issuing a subpoena to these officials for a present inquisitorial conversation, go look at the water supply and its sources. Find out the dereliction of duty, and then, gentlemen of the jury, with an active District-Attorney, find indictment; for there are sections of the Criminal Code that cover every fault of an official.

DEFENSE OF "JIM" BRIDGES.

When Alderman James J. Bridges, of the Second Brooklyn district, was asked what he had to say to the presentment made by the Kings County Grand Jury, he said:

"I don't give a — — for no — — Grand Jury nor no — — presentment.

"I always vote in the Board of Aldermen accordin' to the dictations of my own conscience, and I don't care a — — for them all.

"My record speaks for itself. I have always voted for water except on that $80,000 pump in the Bronx, and I voted agin' that because it didn't call for public lettin'.

"I ain't afraid of no — — Grand Jury. Why, they had me before 'em and there they was, the foreman a setti' up there pompous a-smokin' his cigar, askin' me why I objected to lettin' citizens of Brooklyn have the privilege of the floor. And I told 'em I always was willin' to hear everybody, but it was the way these here people put it up to us. I told 'em it was a Republican trick on us and I wouldn't stand for it."

JOSEPH THORON DEAD.

Noted Worker in Catholic Circles Passes Away at Cannes.

The cable to-day brought the information that Joseph Thoron, a former merchant of this city, died from pneumonia yesterday at Cannes, in the south of France. Mr. Thoron at the time of his death was a resident of Marseilles, and was only on a visit to the French health resort.

A daughter of the deceased, Mrs. W. C. Endicott, jr., and her husband sailed on the Oceanic last Wednesday. In this city Mr. Thoron leaves a brother, Casimir Thoron, who is a member of the Produce Exchange. One son, Ward Thoron, is a lawyer in Washington.

Thoron was prominently identified with Catholic Church work and Catholic charities. Pope Leo XIII. conferred on him the commandery of the Order of St. Gregory, and he was created a commander of the Order of Our Saviour by the King of Greece, in recognition of services to Greek residents in the city of New York.

ENGINEER UNDER WRECK.

Train Derailed and Passengers Shaken Up and Two Men Hurt.

BUFFALO, March 29.—A westbound Lehigh Valley passenger train was wrecked near Caledonia to-day. Six of the seven passenger cars were derailed.

Fred Cullen, engineer, was buried beneath the wreckage of the cars and severely scalded and bruised. Chris Smith, the fireman, was bruised about the legs and back.

None of the passengers was seriously hurt.

The train ran into two oil tanks that fell from a freight on the opposite track.

Disappearance of the Dollar.

Silver money melts from the pocket, paper money is "burned" for this and that, and in either case there is an aching void, disappearing dollars "make the heart sad." But it is different when the dollar disappears from the price of an article of merchandise and it thus becomes that much cheaper than expected and the dollar remains in the pocket. This happy surprise is enjoyed by those who are in the habit of paying $1.50 for copyrighted books when they find they can get a practical reproduction of a standard volume for only twenty-five cents. Such is the rule in the notable collection by the International Association of Newspapers and Authors, now on sale at the Wanamaker Store. See announcement on page five of to-day's issue.

CUT OUT HIS STOMACH AND MAN STILL LIVES.

Remarkable Operation Performed Upon Jacob Wichmann Is a Success.

One of the rarest operations in surgical science, known as gastrectomy—the entire excision of the human stomach—was performed to-day at the German Hospital, in Brooklyn, by Dr. George R. Fowler, assisted by Dr. Russell Fowler, jr., Dr. George Reichers and a corps of assistants.

The patient was Jacob Wichmann, a German, sixty-eight years old, who sought relief in Germany and other cities of Europe, but who until now has found no one who was willing to perform the operation for him.

The man was on the operating table from 8 o'clock till 11 o'clock, and the operation was viewed by some of the most eminent physicians of Manhattan and Brooklyn. Wichmann was under the influence of anesthetics. When the surgeons had finished their work he rallied, and the operation is pronounced a success.

The abdominal cavity was opened and after a thorough examination the entire stomach was removed. This involved the separation from the two main channels—the œsophagus, through which the food enters the stomach, and the pylorus, or outlet of the stomach into the intestines. The pylorus was then attached to the œsophagus. The patient will be fed liquid food which has been predigested.

Wichmann had cancer of the stomach and his case was incurable. Dr. Fowler had announced that unless the man were operated on he would starve to death. Arrangements had been made to perform the operation two weeks ago, but Wichmann's son objected and served a written notice on Dr. Fowler not to attempt it. A few days ago he withdrew his objection.

JACOB WICHMANN.

Two successful cases of the same kind have been reported. One from San Francisco and one from Boston. Dr. Carl Schlatter, of the University of Zurich, was the first to perform the operation, and astounded all by removing the stomach of a woman fifty-eight years old in 1897, and keeping her alive for several months.

FUNSTON'S REWARD; AGUINALDO'S CHANCE.

LONG CONGRATULATES FUNSTON FOR BRAVE DEED

"Inform MacArthur highly appreciate his and Funston's generous praise Navy and congratulate them heartily," was the despatch sent to-day to Admiral Remey in reply to the following from the Admiral:

"MacArthur telegraphs thanks to splendid co-operation of Vicksburg. I have Aguinaldo securely in my possession at Malacanan. Gen. Funston loud in praise of everything Navy did. Entire Army joins in thanks to yourself, officers and men."

surgent forces in Southern Luzon, who recently surrendered, visited Aguinaldo and told the latter why he surrendered. Trias said that a continuance of armed opposition to the United States was unjustifiable and ruinous. The independence of the Philippines was impossible and the Filipinos had better accept liberty, prosperity and progress under American rule.

The capture of Aguinaldo, following the surrender of Gen. Trias, will probably occasion the surrender of the insurgent leaders Malvar, in Batangas Province, Luzon; Bellarmino, in Albay Province, Luzon, and Lucban, in the island of Samar, within a month.

REBELLION OVER IN MINDANAO.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Another important despatch was received at the War Department to-day from Gen. MacArthur, at Manila, dated to-day. It did not refer to Aguinaldo or Funston, but it went far to support the prediction made by Gen. MacArthur to the effect that the end of the rebellion is near.

This despatch chronicles the surrender of a considerable number of rebels and military arms. The important feature of it is that the surrender marks the complete stamping out of the insurrection in the island of Mindanao, which is, next to Luzon, the largest island in the Philippines. The despatch follows:

"Brig.-Gen. William A. Kobbe reports surrender Sumulao, Mindanao, nine officers, 160 men, 187 rifles, 40 shotguns, Capistrano's command. This ends trouble in Mindanao as far as Filipinos are concerned.

"Brig.-Gen. Robert P. Hughes reports Alikpali and Ralz, 34 guns, surrendered to Capt. David G. Shanks, Eighteenth U. S. Infantry, at Mamburao. 28 guns, Fulton's command, surrendered to Lieut.-Col. William S. Scott, Forty-fourth U. S. Volunteers.

SHE GRAPPLED WITH BURGLAR.

Mrs. H. T. Wood, of Brooklyn, Has Thrilling Experience.

Mrs. H. T. Wood, wife of Dr. Wood, of No. 43 Fifty-fifth street, Brooklyn, found a burglar in her house at 1 o'clock this morning and bravely grappled with him. The man threw her off and escaped.

Dr. Wood was called from bed at midnight to attend a dying patient. He left his wife, baby and nurse sleeping on the second floor. In his haste he left the front door open, and two burglars, who had seen his departure, entered the house. After ransacking the lower floor and finding nothing of value one of the burglars went upstairs, while his pal waited below to signal the return of the doctor.

Mrs. Wood was awakened by a noise in the adjoining room. She thought the nurse had arisen to attend to the baby. In her anxiety for the little one she, too, got out of bed. As she stepped into the room she saw a man trying to pry open a bureau drawer.

Without thought of her own safety she sprang at the man and grappled him at the throat. He was taken by surprise, but recovered himself and succeeded in freeing himself from the woman. She clung to him, and in desperation he threw her heavily from him. Mrs. Wood fell, striking her elbow on the hardwood floor. Meanwhile the awakened nurse was screaming lustily, and the burglar ran from the room and joined his companion below.

Mrs. Wood went to the telephone and called up the police, but when they arrived no trace of the burglars could be found.

Mrs. Wood said to-day that she was surprised at her own temerity in grappling with the man. She said she had acted on impulse, and until he ran from the room she did not feel the slightest symptom of fear. Her elbow was painfully bruised.

The burglar was a white man and unmasked. Though the room was in darkness when Mrs. Wood attacked him, she says she can identify him if the police arrest him.

ARRESTS IN RICE CASE.

great regard for him (Patrick) and that he would be that Rice's relatives got only what Mr. Rice wanted them to get out of his fortune. He said that he would get the will probated.

Dr. Curry said that Rice seeing him attending Valet Jones employed him. He said Jones told him not to mention Patrick's name to Rice, as he had never seen Patrick at Rice's house.

Mr. Rice was in fairly good health and had no organic trouble. The doctor refused to give up his memoranda of Rice's case to the prosecution.

He said Patrick came to him in the evening of the day Rice died and told him Jones had telephoned him to get the doctor. They went to the house and found Rice dead. He had been dead twenty minutes.

When Patrick left the room to get an undertaker the doctor examined Rice's body and found nothing wrong.

The lawyer for the defense objecting to some questions, Mr. Osborne said he desired to establish a conspiracy.

The last witness, Mr. Curry, was not liked by the prosecution. He struck in his statement that he believed Millionaire Rice died a natural death. Nothing could shake his opinion on that point.

PHILLIPS CAUGHT IN CORN.

Napoleon of Grain Market Had to Buy at Loss.

CHICAGO, March 29.—Forty-four cents was the price paid for May corn to-day on the Board of Trade, being the highest price since the memorable bull campaign of 1897, when corn was forced to 50 cents.

George H. Phillips, who manipulated a squeeze in November corn last fall, has been credited with being the leader in May. To-day's market showed, however, that a leader was necessary.

This developed when May was selling between 43 and 43 1-4. Phillips suddenly entered the pit and sold about 2,000,000 bushels. The market wavered a moment, fell off to 42 3-4 and then began to climb steadily until it touched 44.

Phillips did his best to replace the line just sold, but was compelled to raise his bid.

Gold Going Abroad.

The National City Bank has engaged $250,000 in gold bars at the Assay Office for shipment to Europe to-morrow.

Two Days for Coffee Brokers.

The Coffee Exchange voted to close Good Friday and the Saturday following at a meeting to-day. All exchanges in the financial district will close these two days except the Produce Exchange.

Comptroller Indisposed.

Comptroller Coler telephoned to his office to-day saying that he was "feeling indisposed" and would not be over to his office, but would "rest up." The Comptroller has been suffering with a cold for several days.

JAPAN AND BRITAIN ADD TO FORCES.

Manchurian Treaty Is Likely to Be Signed Next Week and the Mikado Prepares for War With Russia.

TOKIO, March 29.—The newspapers here say it is proposed to relieve the Japanese troops in the Chinese Province of Pechili by a force 50 per cent. stronger.

Although May is the usual month in which the relief of the force at Seoul takes place, the relief of the troops there will take place immediately. Three officers of the Headquarters Staff will also proceed to Corea.

These movements, with the unusual activity at the arsenals, is taken to point to the adoption of a strong policy by Japan.

SHANGHAI, March 29.—A regiment of Sikhs, with eight machine guns and some field guns, has been ordered to Tientsin to strengthen the guards along the Shanghai-Kuan-Peking Railroad.

The Chinese officials of the province of Che-Kiang, without pressure from foreigners, have indemnified the native converts within their jurisdiction for losses sustained as a result of anti-Christian riots.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—It is probable that the Russo-Chinese Manchurian treaty will not be signed before Monday or Tuesday, if the earliest. The delay is due to the dilatoriness of the Chinese Government, or to the natural difficulties of communication between the Chinese Court, Peking and St. Petersburg.

It is not believed that the indisposition of Yang Yu, the Chinese Minister at St. Petersburg, will prevent him from going to the Foreign Office when invited to do so.

LONDON, March 29.—A despatch from St. Petersburg says the Czar has administered a severe reprimand to Prince Ukhtomski, a member of the Council of the Empire, for having interfered with the orders of the police on the occasion of the recent riots.

COREA DEPORTS COURT PLOTTERS.

Minister of Justice and Army General Conspired Against the Government.

ST. PETERSBURG, March 29.—A despatch from Vladivostock says that a conspiracy on the part of the Corean Minister of Justice and Gen. Tehu-Sei-Men to bring foreign troops to Seoul was betrayed to the Corean Cabinet.

The object of the conspirators, the despatch adds, was to cause the downfall of the Ministry. The principal plotters have been deported.

A despatch from Yokohama, March 21, said advices received there from Seoul announced that the Corean Cabinet crisis, which arose out of the arrest of the acting Minister of Finance, on the charge of having plotted to murder a number of women of the Imperial household, had been settled and that one official had been beheaded.

TREATY VIEWED AS MODUS VIVENDI.

Russia Wants Powers to Construe Manchurian Agreement as Such.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—The Russian authorities at Washington have all along construed the Manchuria convention as a modus vivendi, although Count Cassini, the Russian Minister here, has now made this rather plaisant to Secretary Hay. It is explained that the term modus vivendi, as applying to the present convention, means that abnormal conditions have arisen in Manchuria, and that normal conditions can best be restored by means of a modus.

The chief purpose of the modus it is explained, would be to provide for the evacuation of Manchuria by the Russian troops, as their presence there is part of the abnormal condition brought about by the disturbances.

But with those forces withdrawn Russia expects that assurances will be given that quiet will be maintained and that the former normal condition will be in fact restored. When the old state of things is thus restored, it is the Russian view that the modus vivendi will cease to operate.

TRY TO DESTROY ERTEL DEFENSE

Deges's Brother-in-Law Says Woman Tried to Shoot Him.

The trial of Mrs. Mary Ertel for the murder of her Greek lover, George Deges, was continued this morning in Judge Aspinall's court, Brooklyn. Assistant District-Attorney McCaffrey putting in evidence in rebuttal.

The first witness called was Mrs. Sarah Friedlander, who said Mrs. Ertel had come to her a short time after Deges had been shot on Dec. 31, 1900, and asked for a furnished room, where she said she would like to remain a few days. Witness said she thought Mrs. Ertel a very fine lady, and in a conversation which took place a few hours after Deges was shot Mrs. Friedlander said she was about to set out on a trip to Rockaway to see about getting some employment as a domestic.

Mrs. Friedlander, a witness testified, said she would like to work too, and Mrs. Friedlander suggested that she also go to Rockaway and see what the chances might be for her. The two women went together in a train, and Mrs. Friedlander noticed that Mrs. Ertel was uncertain and gloomy. Mrs. Friedlander was very sympathetic, and said she thought Mrs. Ertel was too much of a lady to be a domestic, and she wondered at her reasons for going down there.

Another witness in rebuttal was Sotiras Saglanipes, brother-in-law of Deges. He swore that Mrs. Ertel had attempted to shoot him while he was opening oysters in the restaurant at No. 161 Washington street.

Witness admitted that he was bitter against Mrs. Ertel both for this and for the reason that she killed his brother-in-law.

The case will go to the jury this afternoon.

ARSON CHARGE AGAINST FOUR.

Well Known Washington Men Accused of Burning a House.

WASHINGTON, Mrch 29.—On a bench warrant issued by Chief Justice Bingham, of the District Supreme Court, at the request of Gov. Smith, of Maryland, John H. Walter, real estate agent, and Aaron Bradshaw, clerk in the District Government building, well-known in Washington, were arrested to-day on the charge of arson made by the Montgomery County, Md., authorities.

Granville C. Shaw, a decorator, was arrested on the same charge late last night.

A warrant also is out for the arrest of Thomas H. Pickford, a well-known real estate agent and grocer. An indictment presented by the Montgomery Grand Jury and accompanying the Governor's requisition alleges that the defendants caused the destruction by fire on Sept. 13, 1897, of an unoccupied residence at Four Corners, that county, the property of Pickford and Walter.

It was previously the property of George N. Beale, who sold it to Mr. Bryan, formerly of New York, and was known in that section both as the Beale Mansion and the Bryan Mansion.

Counterfeit Bill Out Again.

WASHINGTON, March 29.—Chief Wilkie, of the Secret Service, has announced that a new and improved issue of the counterfeit $5 silver certificate, series of 1899, portrait of the Indian Chief Onepapa, discovered on Oct. 29, 1900, has appeared in circulation. The check letter and plate number have been changed from B 29 to A 32.

A Lasting Memorial—Our Spring Opening 1901.

This is an event so distinguished that it will be a lasting memorial of colossal efforts—prodigious patronage—unqualified and delighted appreciation. Wednesday and Thursday's reception was magnificent—our millinery showrooms and costume department—our entire emporium—was a scene of wonder, a garden of beauty—a carnival of splendor, and the whole was graced by the presence of a vast throng of enthusiastic admirers. Our "reception" will be continued to-day and Saturday, and we opine there will be no abatement of fervor and approval—on our part there will be no diminution of general attractiveness, cordiality and gratitude.
