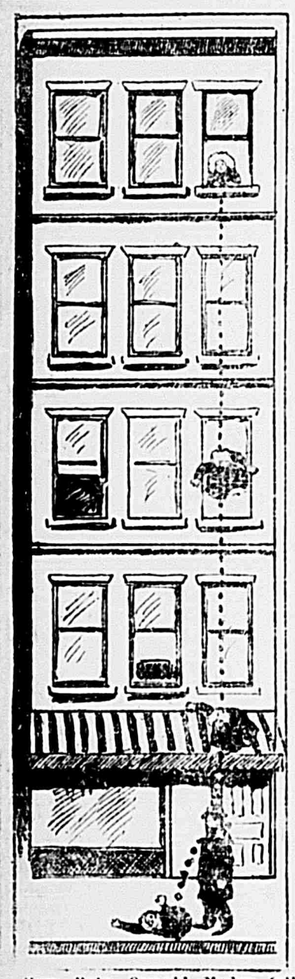
HIT BY BABY'S FALLING BODY.

Bounded from Awning in Fatal Drop of Five Stories.



How Baby Oswald Moder fell five stories and was saved from instant death by striking passerby. The child died later.

Baby Oswald Moder was romping with his four-year-old sister Mamie in a tenement flat at No. 1629 First avenue early to-day. A hand organ was playing in the street. With his chubby hands he pushed a chair to the open window and climbed upon it. He leaned far out and laughed as he saw the children below.

His sister heard him scream. Headlong he pitched toward the pavement. He turned over two or three times. Then he struck the awning over the store below, and bounded out from it. A workman was passing by. The falling child struck the man squarely on one shoulder and fell to the sidewalk.

The children who had been listening to the hand-organ gathered about him. Policeman Madden came from across the street and carried the unconscious boy into a drug store. Thence he was taken to the Presbyterian Hospital. His skull had been crushed. He died there.

Little Oswald's father is employed at night, and was asleep at the time of the accident. The mother had gone out and left the two children playing.

LABORER TRIES SUICIDE.

Said to Have Been Driven to It by Railroad Difficulties.

Henry Becker took a room at the Pennsylvania House in Jersey City last night. This morning Becker was found lying unconscious on his bed. He was partly dressed. The gas was turned on full. He was restored to consciousness. He was a yard master on the Central Railroad of New Jersey. There is a report that Becker attempted suicide because of his disappointment over the strike situation and the prospect of a friendly settlement of the trouble.

NOVELS PROMPT SUICIDE.

Boston Woman, After Poring Over Love Stories, Shot Herself.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BOSTON, April 11.—Mrs. Julia J. Keep, thirty-five years old, tried to kill herself to-day at No. 101 State street. She shot herself in the left breast, using a revolver of a pattern long ago obsolete. Recently she had been reading novels constantly, and doctors at the Emergency Hospital say the woman evidently became demented over love stories. She is in a critical condition.

THIEF FLED BY DUMBWAITER.

Varied Long Chase by Many Agile Feats.

An acrobatic burglar gave three Brooklyn detectives from the Fourth avenue police station the chase of their lives to-day. Detective DeLarren and two companions saw one man running up the street in hot pursuit of another. The pursuer told them that the man he was after was a thief.

The policemen renewed the chase and followed their man through back alleys and over fences. He was very fleet of foot, but the pursuers were also sprinters and pushed him so hard that he jumped over the fence at No. 103 Third avenue.

He ran into the house, the policemen close at his heels. The man sprang up the stairs two steps at a time. Then he jumped into a dumbwaiter and shut down again. Several times the detectives thought they had him, but he would step between floors and evade them. To vary the performance he went to the roof and proceeded to do several agile stunts in the next house. He was at last captured in a coal bin.

Then it was learned that he and another man had robbed the home of Mrs. Catherine Dolton, of No. 1321 Fourth avenue, Brooklyn. He gave the name of George Schaffer, and said he lived at No. 32 Third street, Manhattan. A man who was with him escaped on a street car. On information from Schaffer this man was arrested in Manhattan. His name is Charles Rhines.

ACCIDENT TO MAJESTIC.

Forced to Steam Twelve Hours Under the Port Engine Alone.

The White Star line steamer Majestic arrived last night from Liverpool and Queenstown. Her time of passage was 6 days, 15 hours and 7 minutes.

Some delay was caused by an accident to the starboard engine. On April 8 at 9.42 o'clock P. M. a bolt in the low-pressure eccentric strap broke, which obliged the engineers to stop the starboard engine for repairs.

The Majestic steamed for twelve hours under the port engine until the repairs were made, when the steamer again proceeded at her usual speed. The weather was fine at the time of the accident and there was no commotion on board. Few of the passengers knew of the occurrence.

On the Majestic arrived Count Hermann Von Hatzfeldt, the son of the German Ambassador at London. This is the first trip of the Count to this country. He will go at once to Washington.

Another passenger on the Majestic was the Hon. E. P. Morris, the Newfoundland delegate on the French shore question.

WOMEN OF THE UNITED STATES

Regard Peruna as Their Shield Against Catarrh, Coughs, Colds, Grip and Catarrhal Diseases.

Mrs. Belva A. Lockwood, Late Candidate for the Presidency.

Mrs. Belva Lockwood, the eminent barrister of Washington, D. C., is the only woman who has ever been a candidate for the Presidency of the United States. She is the best known woman in America. As the pioneer of her sex in the legal profession she has gathered fame and fortune. In a letter to The Peruna Medicine Co. she says:

"I have used your Peruna both for myself and my mother, Mrs. Hannah J. Bennett, now in her 88th year, and I find it an invaluable remedy for cold, catarrh, hay fever and kindred diseases; also a good tonic for feeble and old people, or those run down, and with nerves unstrung."

Yours truly,
Belva A. Lockwood.

Peruna cures catarrh by removing the cause, inflamed mucous membranes.

Dr. Hartman, the compounder of Peruna, once said in a lecture to women: "A great number of women consult me every year. I often have occasion to say to these patients: 'I fear you have catarrh, madam.' They will generally reply, 'Oh, no. I never had catarrh. My nose is perfectly clear, and my breath is not bad. I am not troubled with coughing or spitting, or any other disagreeable symptoms of catarrh.' But, my dear madam, you may have catarrh all the same. Catarrh is not always located in the head. You may have catarrh of the lungs, of stomach, or liver or kidneys, and especially you may have catarrh of the pelvic organs."

Mrs. T. J. Ballard, Eureka Springs, Ark., cured of a severe case of catarrh by Peruna.

The Doctor went on to say: "I have been preaching this doctrine for the last forty years, but there are a vast multitude of women who have never heard it yet. Catarrh may attack any organ of the body. Women are especially liable to catarrh of the pelvic organs. There are one hundred cases of catarrh of the pelvic organs to one of catarrh of the head. Most people think, because they have not catarrh of the head, they have not catarrh at all. This is a great mistake, and is the cause of many cases of sickness and death."

Mrs. T. Pelton.

Mrs. T. Pelton, 562 St. Anthony avenue, St. Paul, Minn., writes: "Peruna has done wonders for me. It has cured my headache and palpitation of the heart, has built up my whole system. I cheerfully recommend Peruna to all sufferers afflicted with catarrh. My mother is never without Peruna. When one is tired and generally out of sorts, if Peruna is taken it immediately removes that tired feeling."

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, O.

Poison Oak, Poison Ivy

are among the best known of the many dangerous wild plants and shrubs. To touch or handle them quickly produces swelling and inflammation with intense itching and burning of the skin. The eruption soon disappears, the sufferer hopes forever; but almost as soon as the little blisters and pustules appeared the poison had reached the blood, and will break out at regular intervals and each time in a more aggravated form. This poison will loiter in the system for years, and every atom of it must be forced out of the blood before you can expect a perfect, permanent cure.

SSS Nature's Antidote FOR Nature's Poisons, is the only cure for Poison Oak, Poison Ivy, and all noxious plants. It is composed exclusively of roots and herbs. Now is the time to get the poison out of your system, as delay makes your condition worse. Don't experiment longer with salves, washes and soaps—they never cure.

Mr. S. M. Marshall, bookkeeper of the Atlanta Gas Light Co., was poisoned with Poison Oak. He took Sulphur, Arsenic and various other drugs, and applied externally numerous lotions and salves with no benefit. At times the swelling and inflammation were so severe he was almost blind. For eight years the poison would break out every season. His condition was much improved after taking one bottle of S. S. S., and a few bottles cleared his blood of the poison, and all evidence of the disease disappeared.

People are often poisoned without knowing when or how. Explain your case fully to our physicians, and they will cheerfully give such information and advice as you require, without charge, and we will send at the same time an interesting book on Blood and Skin Diseases.
