Young Twirler Is Not Any Too Heavy for a Boxman, but Ranked Among the Best of the Western League.

First Baseman Ganzel.

Pitcher Billy Phyle.

REACHING FOR A LOW ONE.

First Baseman John Ganzel is one of the "young bloods" signed by Manager George Davis for the New York baseball team. Ganzel is a brother of Charley Ganzel, the old Boston backstop. John Ganzel is twenty-six years of age. He is 6 feet 1 inch in height and weighs 190 pounds in condition. He began playing professional ball at New Castle, Pa., in the Interstate League in 1896. In 1897 he went to the Grand Rapids team of the Western League. He showed such good form at first base and such powerful stick work that the Pittsburg National League club secured him in the fall of 1897 for the season of 1898. That year Ganzel was taken sick and was out of the game nearly all the time. He was laid up in bed for fourteen weeks in the Smoky City. Ganzel was transferred to the Kansas City team in 1899. He played there the full season and in his first twenty games in 1900 with Kansas City in the American League he batted .392. The Chicago National League club secured him in a trade in May of last year. He finished the season with Chicago, playing first base and batting .282. He came to New York this winter in the trade that sent Jack Doyle to Chicago for Ganzel, Garvin and Strang, Garvin later jumping to the American League. Manager George Davis predicts that Ganzel will be one of the best first basemen in the National League this season.

THE NEW TWIRLER WARMING UP.

Pitcher William Phyle has been playing ball professionally since 1895. He is twenty-five years of age, stands 5 feet 8 inches in height and scales in condition 165 pounds. He began his career with the Dubuque Club of the Iowa State League. In 1896 and 1897 Phyle was with Charley Comiskey's St. Paul Club of the Western League and he ranked as one of the leading pitchers of that organization. He was drafted by the Chicago National League Club in the fall of 1898. Phyle played with the Chicago Club in 1899, but poor health kept him out of the game a good part of the time. When able to go into the box he showed winning form. In May, 1900, the Chicago Club traded him to Kansas City for First Baseman Ganzel, but Phyle refused to go to Manning's team. He was out of the game all of last season. Manager Davis, on his trip West in March, found Phyle working daily in a Chicago gymnasium, in good health and condition. Davis quickly arranged a deal whereby he secured the young twirler to bolster up his pitching force, which had been weakened by the desertion of Hawley, Carrick and Mercer.

Phyle is a stocktily built, swarthy skinned athlete, and Comiskey, a first-class judge of ball players, has frequently predicted that he will develop into another Clark Griffith if he is given a chance to pitch regularly.

WINNERS AT BENNINGS.

Fine Weather, Excellent Card and Fast Track Make Racing Good.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, BENNINGS, April 12.—Perfect racing weather prevailed at Bennings this afternoon. This has been such a rarity at the present meeting that it is perhaps worthy of special mention. There was an excellent card of races and the track was fast. There was nothing lacking in the conditions to insure every one a pleasant afternoon's outing.

The meeting has been brilliantly successful financially. The racing has been poor, because the programme was arranged to fit the poorest class of horses at the track. When race-goers next visit Washington they will probably enjoy the comforts of a modern grand-stand and a commodious betting ring. There is no reason why these contemplated improvements should not be carried out, as racing here is now on a sound basis and there is a guarantee of substantial support.

There will be seven races to-morrow, the first beginning at 2.30 o'clock in order to give people a chance to catch early trains to New York. The features will be the second running of the Bennings Handicap and the third running of the Hunters Steeplechase.

Some Chicago turfmen, whose identity has not been made known, telegraphed Virginia Bradley this morning asking the price of Robert Waddell. Mr. Bradley replied that $10,000 would take the gelding. An answer was received later containing an offer of $7,000, which Bradley declined.

FIRST RACE.

Handicap, [illegible] and a half furlongs.

Starters.	Jockeys.	St.	Hlf.	Fin.	Str.	Place.	Betting.
*Moor, 110	Landry	1	1½	1½	5-10	1-5	3-5

*Scorpio	Daly	4	3	4	9-10	4	3-5

*Coupled; straight betting; quoted separately for place.

Start good. Won handily. Time—1:09 3-5.

Prosit was the first to show. Scorpio ran with him to the stretch, with Lexington Pirate a length away. Lexington Pirate went to the front as soon as they straightened out and looked a winner to the sixteenth pole, where Moor came along with a rattle and taking the lead won by a length and a half from Lexington Pirate, who was the same distance in front of Prosit.

SECOND RACE.

Seven furlongs.

Starters.	white.	Jocks.	St.	Hlf.	Fin.	Str.	Place.	Betting.
Passaic, 111	Stack	1	1½	1½	1½		1	2
Mon'mth Boy, 106	Landry	7	7	2½			2	1

T. Leslie, 105	Thupson	5	6	7	6		7	10

Start good. Won driving. Time—1:29.

Passaic went away with a flying start and was never caught. By George King's Favorite and Spurs were in a close bunch to the stretch, where they tired. Monmouth Boy then came through, and, finishing strong, forced Passaic to a hard drive to win by three quarters of a length. Monmouth Boy was three lengths in front of Charles Estes.

THIRD RACE.

Six furlongs.

Starters.	white.	jocks.	St.	Hlf.	Fin.	Str.	Place.	Betting.
The Rhymer, 106	Burns	1	3½	1½			1	—

Palatial, 113	J. Doyle	2	1½	4			4	20

Start good. Won cleverly. Time—1:15 1-5.

Palatial jumped away in front and flattered his backers to the stretch, where Robert Waddell and The Rhymer nailed him. The pair drew away and after a sharp drive The Rhymer won cleverly by a length from Robert Waddell, who was three lengths in front of Imperialist. Seaton claimed that Burns crowded him, through the stretch, but the claim was not allowed.

FOURTH RACE.

For maiden two-year-olds, one-half mile.

Start fair. Won cleverly. Time—0:51.

Astery, jumped away in front, made all the running and won cleverly by a length and a half from The Stewardess, a 40 to 1 chance, who was the runner up throughout. Mars was third, a length away.

Ballfights at the Exposition.

BUFFALO, April 12.—Mexican Ballfights will be a feature of the Pan-American Exposition. Mexico will have a typical arena, and in it there will be contests every day. The horses will not be blindfolded, and will be saved by the cleverness of their riders from any possible injury from the bulls' horns. The bull will neither be tortured with bandilleros nor killed.

"ETHELBERT SOUND AS HE EVER WAS."

Trainer Joyner Sets at Rest All Doubt Concerning the Great Horse—Ethelbert Will Run in the Suburban and Retires Next Year.

There are still conflicting reports flying about concerning the condition of Perry Belmont's great horse Ethelbert. Ethelbert is in the hands of Mr. John Joyner, one of the cleverest and most honorable trainers in this country. The following statement from him will set at rest all doubt as to Ethelbert's condition.

BY JOHN JOYNER.

(Dictated to an Evening World reporter at Morris Park Race Track this morning.)

Ethelbert is just as sound now as he ever was in his life. The report circulated to the effect that he has broken down and will never be able to race again is all rot. Ethelbert has not missed a morning gallop for the last two months. If the horse was not sound he would not be asked to do what he is doing right along.

Yesterday morning he breezed half a mile in 58 seconds. He has not been asked to extend himself yet. I am waiting until the weather is more suitable for fast, hard work. He could go a mile to-day in 1.47 without pushing himself.

Ethelbert may start in the Brooklyn Handicap this year, but it is very doubtful. He will surely start in the Suburban, and will be fit.

I am anxious to have him win two big races this year, because Mr. Belmont intends to retire Ethelbert to the stud in Kentucky next year.

BROOKLYN VS. NORFOLK TEAM.

Champions Expect to Play Horse with the Southerners.

(Special to The Evening World.)

NORFOLK, Va., April 12.—This afternoon at 4 o'clock the Norfolk team of the Virginia-North Carolina League will line up against the champion Brooklyn team. The Brooklynites administered a crushing defeat to the Portsmouth (Va.) team yesterday afternoon, and expected to repeat the performance to-day. Manager Smith and Capt. Gilligan and the others of the Norfolk team will try to prevent this, however, and a good game is expected.

The weather is ideal and the grounds are in an excellent condition, no rain having fallen here for some days. The Brooklyn players were out at the park at 10 o'clock this morning for the purpose of familiarizing themselves with the grounds and having a good practice. They practised for some time, and every man seemed to be in fine trim, except Gattins, the new third baseman, who has a sore arm. Kelley exchanged places with Gattins in the game. The latter went to first base for a rest for his arm. During the first five innings of the game Manager Hanlon selected Kitson to pitch and McGuire to catch for the Brooklyns, and during the remainder of the game Kennedy to pitch and Steelman to catch.

YALE ATHLETES BEGIN WORK.

Eleven Men Taken to Training Table This Morning

(Special to The Evening World.)

NEW HAVEN, April 12.—These Yale athletes were taken to the training table to-day: J. H. Hord, '01; C. Dupee, '01; D. Boardman, '02; J. B. Thomas, jr., '03; W. S. Weston, '03; J. S. Spraker, L. S. R. Sheldon, '02 S.; N. H. Hargrave, '02 S.; F. G. Beck, '03 M. S.; E. J. Clapp, '04; W. M. Fincke, '01. To-morrow afternoon the second in the series of handicap runs will take place at Yale Field and includes a mile and a half mile handicap run. These are important events in Yale athletics, in that the ability of men trying for distance places on the team are judged in great part from the showing made in these events. Cups will be given winners of first, second and third places.

BOLAND WILL RIDE DERBY FAVORITE.

Jockey Announces His Engagement to Pilot Garry Hermann at Churchill Downs.

LOUISVILLE, April 12.—Jimmy Boland will have the mount on Garry Hermann in the Kentucky Derby at Churchill Downs this month. The jockey has announced his engagement to ride the favorite in the race, and says he will be in good condition to get all that is necessary out of the horse.

Boland rode Garry Hermann in most of his races as a two-year-old and knows the animal well. He also had the mount on Lieut. Gibson in the Derby last year and in all of the important races in which Charles Head Smith had an entry.

Champion Rodenbach Out of It.

The refusal of the Metropolitan Association to reinstate William Rodenbach, amateur middle and heavy weight champion boxer of the United States, leaves these classes open in the coming A. A. U. boxing and wrestling tournament in Hoboken.

PROAL WINS GOLF TITLE.

Blake Boy to Capture the Interscholastic Championship.

(Special to The Evening World.)

BAY SIDE, L. I., April 12.—More ideal weather for golf than the school boys are favored with to-day for the winding up of the interscholastic championship could not be desired. The final round for the individual championship between Pierre A. Proal, Blake, and Enos Wilder, St. Paul's, Concord, was played this morning. It was the event of the day and many of the boys who should have played in the open handicap put off their work until the afternoon, and followed the match, which resulted in a victory for Proal by 3 up and 2 to play. The handicap and team match will be played this afternoon. The score of the final follows:

YALE MEN MAY SUE BOSTON BASEBALL CLUB.

Collegians Wrought Up Over Hubbites' Refusal to Play Them, After the Baltimore Game.

NEW HAVEN, April 12.—It is not unlikely that the Yale Baseball Club will bring a suit against the Boston Baseball Club of the National League for refusing to play its team last week because the Elis played a game with the Baltimore Americans.

The undergraduates are wrought up by the action of the National Leaguers in repudiating the agreement to play their team at Newport News, and a suit for damages is threatened.

PHILLIES BEAT TORONTO'S MEN

National Leaguers Take a Brace in To-Day's Game.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA BALL PARK, April 12.—In balmy spring weather the Philadelphia team to-day continued its exhibition games, meeting the Toronto Club, of the Eastern League. Additional interest was centred in the game owing to the fact that Catcher McFarland was again out in uniform. He said he was sick when he suddenly left Philadelphia about a week ago and did not know what he was doing. He says he is now thoroughly recovered and will fulfill the terms of his contract with the local National League Club.

TRIP A-WHEEL TO BUFFALO.

Monster Cycle Run to the Exposition Is Planned.

Wheeling clubs of the city will have a great deal more than their own proposed runs to interest them during the coming season, for a tour such as has never before been attempted is suggested by the Associated Cycling Clubs.

It is a trip a-wheel to Buffalo during the Pan-American Exposition, and judging by the enthusiasm the plan is received with it ought to prove a most interesting event in the cycling world.

So far there are about twenty-five who have signified and at least 250 riders will make the start when the show begins, which will take eight days to make the trip, leaves. Another, the "scorcher brigade," will make the trip in less time. On the arrival of the wheelmen at the Buffalo City a camp will be established, to Toronto, where the members of the clubs can remain as long as they choose. The clubs will be assigned regular streets similar to the company streets in the military encampments.

NEW YORK A. C.'S BID FOR AQUATIC HONORS.

Mercury Foot Organization Will Be Represented by Three Crews This Season.

The New York Athletic Club will make a bold bid for aquatic honors this season, and if present plans carry the Mercury foot organization will be as strongly represented on the water as it has been on track and field.

With three rowing crews the club hopes for as much fame as it acquired in the days of the old "Chippie" crew. Trainer Giannini has the candidates for the junior eight and the senior four-oared boats at work now at Travers Island, and every man is fast getting into condition.

In a few days members of a centipede crew will also be at the club's summer home to begin its spring training for the Harlem regatta, which is to be held on Memorial Day.

Athletics are not to be forgotten, for the athletic committee is making arrangements to send an extraordinary strong team to represent the club at the Pan-American Exposition games at Buffalo during the summer.

BOXING BILL WAS HELD UP.

Second Reading of Brooks Measure Put Over Until Monday.

ALBANY, N. Y., April 12.—The Brooks bill to permit boxing exhibitions throughout the State under the direction of the Amateur Athletic Union, on second reading in the Assembly this morning, was objected to by Mr. M. E. Lewis, of Monroe. Mr. Kelsey moved to recommit the bill, but owing to the absence of Mr. Brooks, withdrew his motion, and the bill went over until Monday night.

TIGERS WON'T PLAY COLUMBIA TO-MORROW.

Dr. Duffield's Funeral Causes Postponement of Game—Baseball Team's Great Reception.

PRINCETON, April 12.—Princeton's baseball players have returned from their Southern trip. Never before has a university team succeeded so decisively on a trip as did this team, and the demonstration accorded the players as they stepped off the train would have done justice to the return of a national hero. The team did not lose a game on the trip, and won even from Col. Rogers's Philadelphia National League team.

The Tigers will not meet Columbia University's players to-morrow. The game has been cancelled by Manager Hall on account of the funeral of Dr. John T. Duffield.

DR. DOUGLAS WON EASILY.

He Easily Defeated Farlin in A. A. U. Billiard Tourney.

By good, steady cue work Dr. Walter G. Douglas scored another victory last night in the billiard tournament at the Metropolitan Academy, under A. A. U. auspices. The champion of the New York A. C. defeated W. W. Farlin by 200 points to 173.
