WINNERS AT BENNINGS.

W. C. Daly's Stable the Biggest Winner at the Washington Meeting.

(Special to The Evening World.)

RACE TRACK, BENNINGS, April 13.—Getaway day brought out the largest crowd of the meeting to Bennings this afternoon. There were seven races, the features being the second running of the Bennings Handicap and the third running of the Hunters' Steeplechase. These latter events are great drawing cards in this part of the country and the crowds grow enthusiastic over them.

The weather was cloudy, but pleasant, and the track was in splendid shape. The money has been well split up among owners. Sixty-seven of them won amounts from $40 up to $2,805, the latter sum being credited to W. C. Daly. It is a long time since "Father Bill" has carried off the honors of a meeting.

The Goughacres Stable won $2,195, Mrs. R. Bradley $1,350, G. C. Johnson $1,635, O. L. Richardson $1,305, W. F. Presgrave $1,040, P. S. P. Randolph $1,010.

W. A. Engeman, President of the Brighton Beach Association; Andrew Miller and H. L. Knapp, stewards of the Jockey Club, were visitors at the track this afternoon.

FIRST RACE.

Hurdle Handicap. One mile and a half.

Starters, wt., jocks.	St.	Hlf	Fin.	Str.	Betting. Pl.	Pice.
Gould, 150, Kennedy	5	3²	1½	30		6
Earn, 135, Connolly	2	2¹	2²	10		2
Draughtsman, 154, Brasil	4	1²	3	3		4-5
Charawind, 148, Monahan	3	4	fell	7-10		Out
Conover, 144, Penn	1		fell	8		8-5

Start good. Won cleverly. Time—2:52 3-5.

Draughtsman was the pacemaker, followed by Earn and Gould. They ran this way for half a mile, when Conover fell at the club-house hurdle. Charawind, the favorite, fell at the next jump. Draughtsman ran head and head to the stretch, where Earn looked an easy winner. In the last furlong Gould came along with a rattle, and quickly overhauling Earn, won by half a length from Earn, who was three lengths in front of Draughtsman.

SECOND RACE.

For two-year-olds; four and one-half furlongs.

Starters, wt., jocks.	St.	Hlf	Fin.	Str.	Betting. Pl.	Place.
The Gold Finder, 107, Slack	1	1¹	1²	7-2		6-5
Rightaway, 110, T. Burns	5	3²	2²	5		8-5
Grail, 104, Landry	4	5	3²	16		5
Miracle II., 104, Seaton	3	6	4	12		4
Sister Juliet, 107, R. Burns	6	4	5	1		1-3
Erne, 104, Moore	2	7	6	100		30
Carroll D., 110, Miles	7	2²	7	12		3

Start fair. Won easily. Time—0:57 2-5.

Carroll D. and Rightaway raced in front to the turn. There Gold Finder went to the front and was never afterward headed, winning easily by three lengths from Rightaway, who in a hard drive beat Grail a head for the place. Carroll D. ran out on the turn and was eased up.

THIRD RACE.

Hunters' Steeplechase. About two miles and a half.

Starters, wt., jocks.	St.	Hlf.	Fin.	Betting. Str.	Pl.	Place.
Lost Cord, 140, G. Green	1	2¹	1²	9-5		1-2
Quicksilver, 151, Connolly	4	1¹	2¹⁰	10		2
Self Protection, 140, Mr. Page	3	4	3¹⁰	8		3-5
Binory, 130, N. Taylor	6	5	4	25		6
Euphone, 132, Brasil	5	3¹⁰	fell	Even		2-5
In the Push, 128, Carroll	2	fell		50		6

Start good. Won driving. Time—6:12.

Euphone cut out the running in his usual fashion, opening up a gap of twenty lengths in the first mile. His trick of swerving at each jump brought him to grief at the Liverpool, however. Quicksilver then took the lead, holding it to the far turn, where Lost Cord went to the front and won hard driven by a length. Quicksilver was thirty lengths in front of Self Protection.

August Belmont and his brother, Perry Belmont, arrived at the track during the running of the steeplechase. Afterward Mr. August Belmont had a long consultation with Mr. Howland in the stewards' stand. It is to be presumed that they were talking of the contemplated improvements.

FOURTH RACE.

Bennings Handicap. Seven furlongs.

Starters, wt., jocks.	St.	Hlf	Fin.	Str.	Betting. Pl.	Place.
Moor, 103, Landry	1	2½	1½	11½		3
Alsike, 103, Brennan	4	3¹	3²	7-2		Even
S. Lucas, 119½, Van Dusen	3	4	2²	9-5		1-5
Lex. Pirate, 98, Slack	2	1²	4	6		2
First Whip, 111½, Burns	6	6	5	12-5		9-10
Magic Light, 104, Miles	5	5	6	7-2		Even

Start fair. Won cleverly. Time—1:28 1-5.

Ipu a false break First Whip fell and twisted his plate. They were at the post nineteen minutes in consequence. Burns was kicked in the face by the horse as he fell, but was not hurt. In the race Lexington Pirate rushed to the front and opened up a gap of daylight.

This advantage he held to the stretch, with moon second and Alsiki third. When they straightened for home Moon went to the front and staying there won cleverly by a length and a half from Alsiki, who beat Sidney Lucas a head.

Fifth Race—Seven furlongs—Won by Arbitrator; Thoroughbred was second and Napoleon Bonaparte third.

CARTER HANDICAP AT AQUEDUCT MONDAY FEATURE OF LOCAL RACING SEASON'S OPENING.

Excellent Field for Long Island Track's Valuable Stake Promises to Furnish Good Sport and Brisk Speculation—Horses Conditioned Early.

Heliobas Will Probably Go to Post Favorite, but Race Does Not Look Good Thing for Any Horse—Sidney Lucas, St. Finnan and Unmasked Favored.

The metropolitan season of racing begins at Aqueduct on Monday, when the Carter Handicap will be decided. Racing always begins about New York at the Queens County Jockey Club's track, for the reason that none of the larger or more pretentious racing associations cares for these dates. A meeting at Westchester or Gravesend or Sheepshead at this time of year would probably be a failure for the reason that none of the higher class thoroughbreds is ready to race, and the big stakes would fall flat.

Horses Conditioned Early.

By opening at Aqueduct the poorer owners are given a chance to earn money. Nevertheless, the names of such prominent racing men as August Belmont, J. C. Follansbee, J. R. and F. P. Keene, B. Frank Clyde (Goughacres Stable), W. Lakeland, P. H. McCarren, A. H. and D. H. Morris, Green B. Morris, the Oneck Stable, H. K. Vinent, R. T. Wilson, Jr., R. W. Walden, Newton Bennington, F. C. McLewee, C. T. Patterson, Senator Jacob Worth, A. J. Joyner, P. S. P. Randolph and L. O. Appleby appear among the nominators to stakes.

The Carter Handicap.

The Carter Handicap is the most valuable stake of the meeting. It is for three-year-olds and upward at a distance a trifle short of seven furlongs. If there are fifteen starters on Monday the gross value of the stake will be over $2,000, of which $250 goes to the second horse and $150 to the third.

Among the most prominent of the entries are Ed. Graves's Heliobas, one of the fastest sprinters in the country. The handicapper is aware of the value of Heliobas for he has allotted him 124 pounds to carry. Charentus is in at 116 pounds; Sidney Lucas starts at 109 pounds, Unmasked must take up 114 pounds, and John Roden's Magnificent has 111 to carry.

Among others are Kamara, 109; Sir Florian, 102; St. Finnan, 102; The Rhymer, 109; Isla, 109; Alsike, 98, and Moor, 98.

Heliobas Favorite.

If the field is made up of the horses named here there is a promise of an excellent race. All that is necessary is fair weather and a good track, two very valuable adjuncts to good racing.

Heliobas will no doubt be a favorite. Reports from the track say that he has been doing everything asked of him by his trainer and that he still retains his wonderful speed. Pitt and good Heliobas stand a be the ultimate choice.

Charentus and Sidney Lucas have none the best of the weights, but they will have the advantage of being good and fit, having had a complex of hard races in them at Bennings.

Unmasked Has a Chance.

Unmasked, with 114 pounds to carry, is not to be despised, but on last year's form Heliobas owns a decided advantage. A difference of 10 pounds, Magnificent is in weight, but it is probable that he will be pointed for the Metropolitan and so skip the Carter.

Hesper, at 110 pounds, has all his weight. Kamara, at 109, is also carrying all that she should. Sir Florian seems outclassed even with only 102 to carry.

Mike Clancy believes he will win with St. Finnan, and he was cute enough to go all the way to San Francisco last winter to engage the services of Tommy Burns to ride the son of Tammany.

The Rhymer and Isla in Well.

The Rhymer with 109 pounds has shown such rare form at Bennings that he is not to be overlooked. Nor is Isla at 109 pounds. This colt has a lot of speed for a mile and six furlongs. The Rhymer certainly holds Robert Waddell safe, and as likewise holds Moor safe. Alsike at 98 pounds has an outside chance.

The race does not look a good thing for any horse. The jockeys will undoubtedly cut an important figure. O'Connor, Turner, Henry and others are still in the West. Burns, Dale, Landry, Odom, Mitchell and Shaw are probably the pick of those now in the East. This handicap will make the winner hard to pick.

On last year's form Heliobas should win, and if all reports are true concerning St. Finnan he should be second.

NEW YORK GAME.

will fill a long-felt hole at third. Sure on grounders, a good thrower, and strong and stocky enough to stand the hard usage at that corner.

Umpire—Mr. Warner.

First Inning.

For Rochester Francis flied to Van. Phyle took care of Walker's little one and gave Ganzel the put out. Murphy and Ganzel settled Barclay the same way. No runs.

Van took four bad ones. He was doubled up with Selbach on a pretty play by Francis to Smith to O'Hagan. Strang was out, Smith to O'Hagan. No runs.

Second Inning.

Smith got first on a slow one to Buelow, but was caught napping a second later. O'Hagan flied to Van. Greninger got a strike by knocking fouls, then took revenge by popping up a lot of other fouls that couldn't be called strikes. Then he struck out. No runs.

Hickman was called out at first on his slow one to third, though he had the ball. Buelow singled a hot one to centre. Walker made a good catch of Ganzel's long fly to right. Murphy singled to right, Buelow taking third. Bowerman doubled to centre, scoring Buelow and Murphy. Phyle showed quality as a hitter by a pretty double to left, Bowerman scoring. Van's little pat to Morse let him out at first. Three runs.

Third Inning.

Buelow wrenched his leg in running and Bernard went in at short, Strang going to third. Phelps flied to Strang. Dixon ditto to Van. Morse struck out. Phyle's work in the box was excellent. No runs.

Selbach flied out to left. Pitcher Morse's could not field Bernard's little dribble in time. Hickman out, third to first. Strang out, second to first. No runs.

Fourth Inning.

Matthewson went into the box for New York. Francis couldn't touch him and sat down. Walker followed suit. Barclay dubbed a little one in front of the plate, and Matthewson and Ganzel did the rest. No runs.

Ganzel out, Morse to O'Hagan. Murphy doubled to centre. Bowerman out, third to first. Murphy on third. Matthewson out, pitcher to first. No runs.

Fifth Inning.

Ganzel made a star running stop of Smith's grounder and gave Matthewson the put-out at first. O'Hagan fanned. Murphy covered himself with glory on Greninger's swift grounder and doubled to ... Ganzel got the put-out. No runs.

Van flied to centre. Selbach popped to O'Hagan. Bernard got a base on balls. Bernard stole second and went on to third on Phelps's low throw into centre. Hickman flied to centre. No runs.

Sixth Inning.

Phelps fanned. Strang fielded Dixon's twister neatly to Ganzel. Morse struck out and many exclamations were heard of Matthewson's work in the box. No runs.

Bernard singled to centre. He and Strang had changed places on the batting list. Ganzel singled over short. Bernard on second. Murphy singled to short and the bases were full. Bowerman was equal to the task and knocked a double to left, scoring Bernard and Ganzel. Murphy was caught trying to make third. Matthewson singled, scoring Bowerman. Van forced Matthewson at second but got to first, he stole second, also third a minute later. Selbach struck out. Three runs.

Seventh Inning.

Mule Taylor went in the box to finish the game. Francis singled to right. Van took care of Walker's fly. Barclay singled to short right. Francis in second. Barclay forced at second, Francis on third. Smith on first. O'Hagan fanned. No runs.

Strang got base on balls, but he was caught napping immediately. Hickman awaited one over Turkeyville fence, which was a strike under the new rule as to fouls. Then he singled to left for vengeance. Sam Bernard put one in the same place. Ganzel flied to second. Murphy ditto to left. No runs.

Eighth Inning.

Greninger flied to Hickman. Phelps singled to short; Dixon couldn't hit 'em. Bernard made a pretty stop of Morse's swift one and forced Phelps at second. No runs.

Bowerman flied to left. Taylor got a base on balls. Clancy pitching for Rochester. Van out, third to first. Taylor on third. Selbach got four balls; he stole second. Strang out, second to first. No runs.

Ninth Inning.

Francis struck out. Walker got a base on balls. Barclay singled to left, Walker on second. Murphy juggled Smith's liner and the bases were full. Smith was forced at second on O'Hagan's grounder to short. Walker scoring. Greninger out, short to first. One run.

THE ABBOT

CRESCEUS

The greatest trotting match in the history of the turf will be decided at the Brighton Beach track during the week of Aug. 16.

The world's greatest trotter, The Abbot (2:03 1-4), and the champion stallion Cresceus (2:06) will be the contestants.

The match was arranged today. The Abbot is owned by John J. Scannell, of this city. Cresceus is the property of George H. Ketcham, of Toledo, O. Mr. Ketcham has been negotiating for a match with the king of the trotters for several weeks, and Mr. Scannell has finally contented to trot his speedy gelding against the champion stallion.

Race at Brighton Beach.

The Brighton Beach Association will hang up a purse of $12,000 for the race and there will be a side bet of $10,000. The money was posted to-day and all details of the race have been decided upon. The horses will trot the best three heats in five.

The Brighton Beach Association has made arrangements to furnish a grand week of sport for lovers of speed horses. During the week beginning Aug. 16 the Champion Trotting Stakes, free-for-all, will be contested. A purse of $10,000 is hung up for this event. Charley Herr, Peter the Great, The Monk and other kings and queens of the trotting turf will face the starter for this event. The Abbot and Cresceus will not start. That is one of the conditions of their match imposed by the association.

DID A CENTURY ON HIS 52D BIRTHDAY.

"Happy Day" Pitman Rode Wheels Before the Civil War and Is Still Riding Them.

Will Pitman at the Start of His Century.

Uncle Will "Happy Days" Pitman, who used to ride a velocipede down Broadway when the town on the lower end of the island of Manhattan was known as New Amsterdam, had a birthday yesterday.

Col. Pitman says he is fifty-two years old. His friends have his word for it, but it is whispered about in cycling circles that "Happy Days" is as bashful about tipping off the year of his birth as the average old maid of forty-odd summers.

The old gentleman celebrated his birthday by riding a century on a motor cycle over in Staten Island. Col. Pitman claims to be the oldest cyclist in the land. Up to date no one has undertaken to call him on this proposition.

"Happy Days" carried a blunderbuss in the civil war. He came out with none of his limbs missing, and in 1869 he won the cycling championship of the state of Maine on a velocipede. He mounted his first cycle in 1871, and found no one capable of giving him a race for several years. In 1881 he won the Boston 10-mile tricycle race—time limit, 1114 hours; actual racing time, 10½ hours. Pitman rode a machine that weighed 105 pounds.

Uncle Pitman claims to be the champion fifty-two-year-old cyclist and swimmer of the world. He is open for challenges.

PHILLIES BEAT TORONTO AGAIN.

(Special to The Evening World.)

PHILADELPHIA BALL PARK, April 13.—A fair gathering of fans turned out this afternoon to witness the game between the Philadelphia National League team and the Toronto Eastern League nine. Yesterday the Canucks were handicapped by not having played together before this season, but toward the end of the game they showed improvement. The Phillies have a lot of ground to cover to be in anything like championship form by Thursday next. The pitchers are in fairly good form, but the absence of Lajoie and others necessitated a rearrangement of the positions. Dolan particularly needs more practice to cover the second bag, while several of the other players need a deal of tuning up.

HAS FAITH IN KINLEY MACK.

No better expression of the form Kinley Mack is in at present could be had than that which comes from Peter Wimmer, his trainer, who asserts, with apparent confidence, that his charge will come pretty nearly winning both the Brooklyn and Suburban handicaps again this year. Wimmer is not in the least boastful, for, in referring to Ethelbert, McMeekin and Banaster, he speaks guardedly, saying that in them he expects Kinley Mack will have his chief rivals.

"I guess they are as good as they are said to be," he says. "But Kinley Mack will be in real good form, and if he is he will be hard to beat, whether he is the winner or not."

The old black mare, imp. loved by all horsegoers, will not face a starter until the season is well under way. When she does it will be when Wimmer feels that she can win. She is not likely to start before the Saratoga meeting, though she may be sent to the post during the Brooklyn or Brighton meeting.

It is known that Mr. Harness, the owner of the famous mare, is anxious to put her through her last season of racing with as near an unbroken string of victories as her admirers could wish for.

The new Orioles will line up as follows: McGraw, third base; Williams, second base; Donlin, left field; Keister, shortstop; Brodie, centre field; Sandgrass, right field; Foutz, first base. They will meet the strongest team the West New Yorks have ever put on the field.

YANKEE BOYS ARE LOSING.

American Jockeys Are Beaten in Majority of English Races.

LONDON, April 13.—The friends of the American jockeys now in England are so far badly disappointed at the season's work. Not a single American appeared at Leicester yesterday. Reiff has lost fifteen out of twenty races, J. Reiff thirty-one out of thirty-six and Maher sixteen out of twenty. These failures are variously attributed to the fact that most of the English jockeys have adopted the American style of riding or to the immature condition of the American mounts.

One of the interesting results of the American invasion is the appearance on the turf of a new racing saddle, with sliding stirrups, which is warranted to give a jockey an American seat without effort on his part. The stirrup strap works on much the same principal as the V-shaped American suspender fasteners, and the inventor of the new saddle claims that it automatically changes the riders' weight from front to rear and vice versa, giving all the advantage of the American style of riding.

NOTED BROOD MARES DIE IN KENTUCKY.

Messrs. Keene and Capt. Brown Lose Valuable Animals on Their Farms.

(Special to The Evening World.)

LEXINGTON, Ky., April 13.—Capt. S. S. Brown, Pittsburg, lost by death here the thoroughbred brood mare Matinee by imp. Buckden, dam Kate Mattingly by John Morgan. She was the dam of Mate, Drop Curtain, Two o'Clock, Afternoon and Performance, and during her racing career won the Zee Zee Kimball and Maiden Stakes among others. Death was due to foaling a colt by Handspring.

Messrs. James R. and Foxhall Keene have lost by death from foaling a colt by Ben Brush out of the noted mare imp. Dart Maiden, by St. Gatien, dam Maid of the Isles. The colt is living.

CALLAHAN TO FIGHT TERRY.

Will Meet the Champion at 'Frisco, May 15, for 20 Rounds.

Tim Callahan, the clever featherweight boxer of Philadelphia, has been secured to fight Terry McGovern in the second battle which the little fistic wonder will have while he is on the Coast. The match was arranged this afternoon by wire.

They will meet in a twenty-round bout at 124 pounds before the National Athletic Club, of San Francisco, on May 15.

As soon as Manager Billy Roche received Jim Kenneally's offer he wired Callahan, in Philadelphia, to come to this city at once. Callahan arrived shortly after 1 o'clock and agreed to fight McGovern. Roche then wired Kenneally clinching the match.

Callahan will start for the coast in six days.

SMITH IS FELTZ'S RIVAL.

If Jim Smith is as good a fighter as he says he is, Tommy Feltz's self-claimed title of bantam-weight champion of the world hinges on a ring dispute. Smith, according to his manager, is a veritable wonder at any weight up to 115 pounds, and is ready to prove his assertion at any time a disputant puts in appearance.

Smith is after Feltz, and if the Brooklynite wants to make good his claim to the title of champion he will encounter no difficulty in making arrangements for a bout. Ben Steinmaier, of No. 24 West Forty-third street, is looking after Smith's interests, and all communications regarding fight propositions will reach him at the above address. If Feltz won't fight, then any other bantam will receive consideration.
