ALLIES ARE WIPING OUT AUSTRAIN ARMY

Enemy Is Fleeing Helter Skelter In Pell-Mell Effort to Save Himself On Italian Battle Front.

THOUSANDS OF GUNS TAKEN

Estimates Put Number at 3,000 in Addition to Vast Quantities of War Materials Seized.

WITH THE ITALIAN FORCES IN NORTHERN ITALY, Saturday, Nov. 2, (3 p. m.)—The battle continues with the Italians and their allies completing the destruction of Austria's mighty army. It is estimated that 3,000 Austrian cannon will be the total taken by the Italians in addition to vast quantities of other war material.

The allied forces are ever pressing on toward the frontier in the mountains. They already have reached the Val Sugano, where the Italian line was a year ago.

The word "strategy" can not be used in Austria's retreat, which is a pell-mell effort on the part of the various bodies to save themselves. The Austrians are fleeing helter-skelter fighting in the mountains when obliged to do so. On the plains they are merely putting up rear guard local fights with machine guns, blowing up bridges as they go along. The long lines of enemy troops on the roads are being pelted with the machine guns of allied aeroplanes.

The morale of the Austrians is being laudized to the condition of the roads. For the same reason the Italian advance in some regions is slow.

The Austrians are leaving their wounded by the roadside or in houses. Two thousand Austrian wounded were deserted in Feltre without attendance or medicine.

Udine has been evacuated.

The civilian population everywhere complains that they were stripped of everything of value by the enemy in the invaded provinces.

Thousands of cannon are being captured by the Italians in addition to great quantities of war material. At Vittorio a big petroleum deposit was found, the Austrians not taking the trouble to burn it. Great quantities of telegraph wire also were left undestroyed.

At Belluno a large depot of food and material was found by the Italians. The allies frequently captured long trains of artillery, one train being taken at Razi, near Feltre, it having been abandoned by the retreating Austrians in their haste.
