THE LOST ROAD.

Oh, the Lost Road Away
I have lost the way
I started on the Road
Quite early in the day

Some was lost the road I know

Was it when I stopped to consider
With [illegible] or
Or perhaps was in forgetting
When [illegible]

I fear I have lost the road
Where I set out to go
But now I [illegible] the strange [illegible]

BURLESON ENTERS DENIAL OF CHARGE

Postmaster General Sends Letter to Speaker Gillett on Civil Service Commission Claims.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Denial that any effort had been made in the postoffice department to influence the civil service commission in its rating of eligible applicants for postmaster of first, second and third class offices is made by Postmaster General Burleson in a letter to Speaker Gillett.

On the contrary, the department has strictly observed an attitude of neutrality in regard to the presidential order for the certification of the candidates with the highest rating.

To substantiate the statement, Mr. Burleson included in his letter a tabulation showing, conclusively, that the charges so frequently made to the postmaster general to violate the executive order in detail in 1918 and without foundation in fact.

The letter was prompted by house adoption of a resolution calling for detailed information about the postmaster service's appointments after the dispute between M. Burleson and former members of the commission.

ASHURST IS FOR THE TREATY

Arizona Senator, Classed as Doubtful, States Position.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—Senator Ashurst, democrat, Arizona, in a telegram today to President Wilson declared he believed it could render the country and the world "a great service by voting for the peace treaty without amendment or reservation."

Some senators have declared Senator Ashurst's position on the treaty was doubtful and administration leaders claimed a distinct advantage in the fight by reason of this announcement today.

RAIL MEN WILL NOT GO OUT ON STRIKE NOW

No Sympathetic Walkouts Says Warren Stone in Reply to Question of Helping Steel Men.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 25.—"We never go out on sympathetic strikes." This was the answer today of Warren S. Stone, grand chief of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers, to an announcement in Pittsburgh yesterday by Secretary William Z. Foster, that a sub-committee of the steel strikers had been appointed to travel with the presidents of the big four railroad brotherhoods to discuss matters pertaining to the strike, with the implication that sympathetic strike action would be asked of the brotherhoods.

"I am a member who regarded as the spokesman of the 'big four' brotherhoods.

"If a sub-committee of the strikers is coming to confer with representatives of the four brotherhoods, I have not heard of it, and I haven't the least notion what it intends to discuss with us," said Stone. "I know that the members of the brotherhoods will be glad to help the strikers in every way they can, but one thing we didn't do is to go out on sympathetic strikes."

MORE MONEY RECOVERED IN ROBBERY OF PAYROLL

CHICAGO, Sept. 25.—With the recovery of $12,000 buried beneath the farm of John Wedja, father of John S. Wedja, clerk in the Chicago postoffice, who is said to have planned the robbery, the amount recovered from the $234,000 stolen from a registered shipment from the Chicago Federal Reserve bank to the Standard Oil company of Indiana at Whiting, Ind., Thursday last night was brought to $181,000. The money was found wrapped in old rags and buried in a milk can. It was the younger Wedja's share of the loot, according to officers.

The missing money is believed, the police say, to be in the possession of a man who disappeared with the arrest Tuesday night of the young Wedja and Leo and Walter Filipowski. The Filipowski brothers, with the missing man, are said to have done the actual robbing. Much of the money recovered was placed in safety deposit boxes by them or members of their family.

Navy Has Gone Over to d'Annunzio at Fiume, According to General Garibaldi, Special Agent.

PARIS, Sept. 25.—General Giuseppe ("Peppino") Garibaldi, who has just arrived here from Rome, declared today that the whole of Italy is in rebellion as a result of the Fiume situation.

The Italian navy has virtually gone over to Captain Gabriele d'Annunzio at Fiume, according to General Garibaldi, and the army is refusing to obey orders from the central government.

A report from Vienna that American and French warships have been ordered to leave the Adriatic is not believed by the American peace delegates in Paris.

(General Garibaldi was sent to Paris by Premier Nitti on a secret mission. He is under orders to go to Fiume from Paris and confer with d'Annunzio, leader of the Italian insurgents in Dalmatia.)
