WILLARD NEW HEAVY-WEIGHT CHAMPION

Jack Johnson Knocked Out in 26th Round at Havana.

Havana, April 5.—Jess Willard, the Kansas cowboy, is the new heavyweight champion pugilist of the world. He knocked out Jack Johnson, the black champion, in the twenty-sixth round of their championship bout here today.

The knockout was a terrific right swing to Johnson's jaw in the twenty-sixth round of their championship bout here today. It was Johnson's fight all the way until the twenty-second round, when his vitality left him because of the hard pace which he carried throughout the early rounds.

Then the giant plainsman opened his heaviest attack and in the next few rounds carried the fight away from the black man and topped him over with right and lefts to the body and blows to the face.

Seventeen thousand persons saw the combat and when Johnson crumpled up on the floor from a right swing to the jaw, the crowd burst into the ring, Soldiers cleared the ring.

Johnson took the referee's count while lying on the ropes, but the moment after Referee Welsh had given the decision the former champion got to his feet in time to escape the wild rush of excited spectators.

The knockout came so suddenly that the big crowd seemed as much dazed as Johnson himself. Up to the time of the final blow, Johnson showed but few marks of battle, but had slowed up and was perceptibly tiring. Willard said as he was being escorted from the ring, that he was not hurt or injured. Johnson said he had no excuse to offer and that a better and younger man had taken the championship.

The promoters went during the morning to Johnson's headquarters to pay him the $30,000 which he was to receive as his share of the gate receipts, win or lose. Under the agreement Johnson w as to receive also one-third of the moving picture privileges. Willard's share was 25 per cent of the total receipts and one-third interest in the moving pictures.
