A good sentiment is expressed in the Milwaukee Journal as follows: "We ourself never like to hurt people's feelings, no matter how much they disagree with us."

DEFENSE OF U. S. SADLY NEGLECTED

So Declares President Lynch in Opening Bankers' Meeting.

Kansas City, Mo., Sept. 28.—The American Bankers association, whose membership has during the past year reached a total of 16,016 banks, opened its general convention here today with its president, James K. Lynch of San Francisco, delivering an address in which he discussed the federal reserve act and national defense.

"The primary purpose of a government," he said, "is to provide adequate defense for the country governed, and how shamefully this purpose has been neglected under one administration after another is a familiar tale.

"We are given to boasting of our size, but when we are no longer capable of feeling pin pricks in our feet, are we not too large. For years our citizens in Mexico have been subjected to murder and the most unt
