ONCE RICH WOMAN INSANE OVER HUSBAND'S SWINDLES

Mrs. D'Essauer Is in Bellevue Pavilion Now that Her Husband Has Squandered Her Fortune and Is in Jail.

The insane woman who was taken to Bellevue Hospital from West Fifty-second a few days ago is still in a state of mania in the insane pavilion, and little improvement is noted in her condition. She is sane enough to know that she is in the Tombs prison. Her mother and her sister-in-law, who live in Kingston, a suburb of Chicago, have been notified, and are expected to arrive soon.

When taken to Bellevue the woman, who was well-dressed and apparently in good health, gave her name as Harvey. She is really the wife of Mr. George D'Essauer, who is now in jail for default in a legal bond winding. Her maiden name was Elizabeth Harvey, and her grandfather, John Vice Norwick, of Syracuse, N. Y., was once worth several millions.

The affairs of Mrs. D'Essauer have for many years been a subject of gossip and her mother's inheritance. The trouble arose when she secured her D'Essauer and squandered. These money troubles preyed on the young woman's mind, and the insane infatuation for Helen Bertram, the prima donna, added to her sufferings.

She continually talks about the money she used to have, and tells of the methods by which her husband swindled her and her mother out of their inheritance.

When D'Essauer visited Aurora, Ill., in 1896, and became acquainted with Miss Harvey he claimed to be a scion of a wealthy Eastern family that handled his wealth in millions. He had money, and he spent it liberally. He won the Elizabeth and the mother's confidence and secured loans from Mrs. Harvey, giving worthless forged bonds as security.

Several bankers in Illinois were swindled by these forged bonds, and others were approached but declined to buy them. Finally D'Essauer began neglecting his wife, and when his infatuation for Helen Bertram, the prima donna, became known, his wife left him.

He followed the singer across the continent, and with entertainments in her honor and spent money as though he were a millionaire. He gave Miss Bertram bonds of a face value of $20,000 to be held in trust for her child, the result of a liaison with E. J. Henley, the well-known actor, who had died a few years before.

During this time D'Essauer posed as the president of a brewerage concern in Chicago. He has since stated that he married Grace in Miss Bertram, and at one time they were believed to be engaged. Miss Bertram is said to have shown a ticket in which she carried a wedding ring. Mrs. Harvey says it was in San Francisco at the suggestion of her latter admirer.

The bond securities of D'Essauer were issued in Chicago in April, 1901. Drafts, either dishonored, and when Miss Bertram, in talking with him became aware that she was an accomplice, she refused to have anything more to do with the fellow. After the scandal had broken out he disappeared from Chicago. Authorities in Aurora, Ill., where he had lived, and in Chicago, where he was well known, were notified to look out for the fellow. After the scandal had broken out he disappeared from Chicago. Authorities in Aurora, Ill., where he had lived, and in Chicago, where he was well known, were notified to look out for the fellow.

D'Essauer fled to Europe, where he was arrested and sentenced to three months' imprisonment for swindling the Hotel Gerard, in Paris. After his release he was arrested in Paris on a charge of swindling the Hotel Bristol, in Berlin, and was sent to the Tombs in default of $5,000 bail. After the Tombs authorities had exhausted the charges against him he was turned over to the Illinois authorities to be tried on charges of forgery and embezzlement.

Mrs. Harvey, the mother, is a woman of about 60 years of age, and is well known in Aurora, Ill., where she has been a prominent member of the Baptist church for many years. She is a sister of Mrs. Ellen Norwick, of Syracuse, N. Y., who was once worth several millions.

UPWARD MOVEMENT IN STOCK MARKET.

PRICES A SHADE BETTER THROUGHOUT THE LIST.

Metropolitan Advances, but Pacifics Are the Strongest Among the Traders.

The Stock Exchange opening today was dull. The trading at the start was entirely professional.

Prices throughout the general list were a shade better than the close of yesterday, but there was no well defined movement either way.

The only feature of the market at the opening was in Metropolitan, which opened at last night's price, of 116½ and on fairly large sales went up to about 118.

The Pacifics were strong on the start.

The general tone of the market was strong.

Shortly after the opening there was a tendency to rise.

The bull movement continued during the afternoon, and prices generally reached the best point of the day.

Sugar was strong and rose to nearly 125. Third Avenue and New York Central also gained materially on good support.

The Pacifics were also fairly in demand and displayed strength.

The closing was dull and irregular. Manhattan closed at the lowest point of the day, 135 5-8.

Missouri Pacific, Pennsylvania and Lackawanna and Adirondack were the strong features, each reaching the highest point.

The total sales of stocks yesterday were 297,500 shares, and it sold $2,000,000.

The Closing Quotations.
