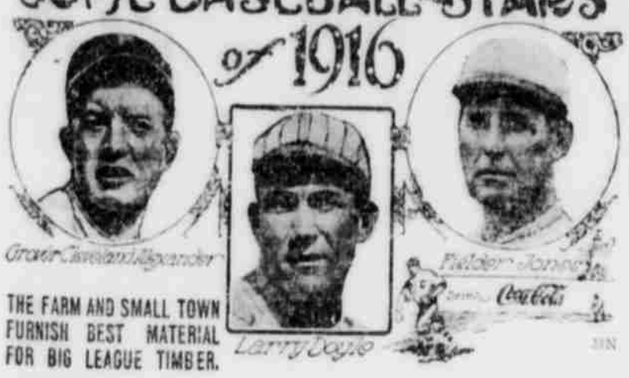
SOME BASEBALL STARS of 1916



THE FARM AND SMALL TOWN FURNISH BEST MATERIAL FOR BIG LEAGUE TIMBER.

Looking over the roster of the big league ball teams you will find name after name of men who only recently were born on the farm or in the village or small town. On the other hand, surprisingly few hail from the big cities. And yet this is not so surprising after all. Even laying aside our knowledge of the big part that the so-called country boy has always played in the great affairs of business and the nation, the country is the place to lay the foundation necessary for athletes.

The photographs shown are familiar to all lovers of the great National game. In addition to their being representatives of their type in the baseball world, all of these stalwart athletes are great endorsers of that beverage you know and like so well—Coca-Cola.

Short Histories of the Players.

JONES, Fielder Albion, Manager of St. Louis Browns. Born August 12, 1881, at Shingle House, Pa. Last season he came within one-half game of winning Federal League pennant, finishing nearer the top than any team in major leagues since the Browns in 1915.

He says Coca-Cola is his favorite beverage.

ALEXANDER, Grover Cleveland, Pitcher Philadelphia Nationals. Born in St. Paul, Nebraska, February 26, 1887, and lives on a farm there now.

Alexander is one of the greatest pitchers in the game today, being especially responsible for the Philadelphia National League club winning the pennant last year. Traded by Philadelphia in August, 1915, with which he has since played. He warmly endorses Coca-Cola as a drink for athletes.

DOYLE, Lawrence, Captain New York National League Club. Born at Carrollville, Ill., July 27, 1886. Second baseman.

He has played with the New York Nationals since 1907, and was appointed Captain in 1912, which position he has since held with them. Leading hitter of the National League for the season of 1915. Like all the best of them he is a staunch believer in Coca-Cola.

There is by the way, a wonderful similarity between the couple of these ball players and that of the beverage which they endorse. Coca-Cola might be called an aristocrat drink, both from the materials it is made of and because of its great popularity in the country as well as in the city. For Coca-Cola, it may there was a natural, wholesome beverage, is popular itself in its good Nature. Made from Nature's choicest flavors with the juices of ripe fruits and Cocoa that grew and produced as a Nature's product, based every and please particularly remember that Coca-Cola does not stand in affect of something neither refreshing nor healthful to drink. It is now its combination that gives Coca-Cola its drink appeal, its favor, its quiet attractiveness, its and [illegible] Coca-Cola [illegible] and [illegible] [illegible] Coca-Cola. [illegible] ball players, athletes, people of [illegible] and women alike and [illegible] Coca-Cola. Drink a glass or a bottle of Coca-Cola [illegible] [illegible]

MAXWELLS CONTINUE WINNING STREAK

The Maxwells maintained their reputation for fast ball and good luck yesterday when they won from the Louies by a score of 5 to 4. The game was a pitchers battle between Wharton and Young. Both men allowed six hits. Wharton struck out ten Louies, and Young whiffed five Maxwells. A total of seven errors, five of which were contributed by Young's team mates, made the score much larger than the brand of pitching justified. The score was as follows:

WESTERN GOLF CHAMPIONSHIP OPENS

DEL MONTE, Calif., July 17.—Western golfing stars of the first magnitude met on the Del Monte Country club course today in one of the most important contests when the annual western golf championship tournament began.

Nearly 150 crack players, including all the stars of the Pacific coast speed off today for the first half of the qualifying round. The 64 players returning the lowest cards will participate in the second 18 holes of the qualifying round tomorrow and the 32 low cards in that round will constitute the championship flight. Match play rounds will begin tomorrow continuing all week, the final 36 hole match for the title taking place on Saturday.

Many of the men who have made golf history in the middle west, including "Chick" Evans and Warren Wood of Chicago and many players from Kansas City, St. Louis, Omaha, Denver, Minneapolis and Des Moines, are participating.

LIGHT HARNES EVENTS START

MORE SENSATIONAL SPEED AND GREATER NUMBER OF DAZZLING CONTESTS.

CLEVELAND, O., July 17.—With the promise of more sensational speed and a greater number of dazzling contests than any previous racing season has produced, the grand circuit light harness events started here today.

More than 2,500 horses are booked to run during the three months of racing on the ten tracks throughout the middle west.

The total money offered by the circuit members exceeds $400,000. Five futurity events, worth $40,000, will be decided at the grand circuit meetings here and at Detroit, July 24-29; Kalamazoo, July 31-Aug. 5; Grand Rapids, Aug. 7-12; Columbus, Aug. 14-19; here Aug. 21-26; Poughkeepsie, Aug. 28-Sept. 2; Hartford, Sept. 4-9; Syracuse, Sept. 14-19; Columbus, Sept. 18-30; Lexington, Oct. 2-14 and Atlanta, Oct. 16-21.

Ordinary purses have been increased from the usual $1,000 to $1,200 and $1,500.

"Never in the history of harness racing have so many great horses been in sight," said President Harry K. Devereaux of the circuit today. "I expect the 1916 season to be the best in the circuit's history."

Driver Billy Andrews of the Big Six is ill and probably will not be seen in a sulky this season. Ben White will replace Andrews. The other standbys, "Pop" Geers, Billy Snow, Lon McDonald, Charley Valentine and Tommy Murphy will be here OK.

There are two new tracks on the circuit this season. Poughkeepsie takes the place of the Empire City track near New York and Atlanta was taken into the circuit when Montreal was dropped last winter because the war's restriction of racing in Canada to three days a week made the Montreal track unprofitable. The Columbus took one Montreal week.
