The captain, chief engineer, chief officer, and carpenter of the British steamer Prodano have been presented with a testimonial by owners and underwriters. The steamer was going from Capetown to Australia with 50,000 cases of petroleum and 200 kegs of gunpowder. When 600 miles from land a fire broke out in the cross bunker, which was separated from the cargo space by a wooden bulkhead 2½ inches thick. Captain Trotter and his officers, instead of abandoning the vessel, went down to the bunkers and, at the risk of their lives, got the burning coals out.—S. F. Commercial News.

THE CRACK OF DOOM.

Petition to Throw Samuel Parker Into Bankruptcy.

The Unsecured Creditors Take a Hand In the Deal.

Late on the afternoon of the 18th instant Lawyer Magoon filed the petition of Hopp & Co. praying that Samuel Parker be adjudged a bankrupt. The amount due Hopp & Co. is something over $600, but while this petition was at the instance of that firm it is understood to represent thousands of dollars of other unsecured claims.

Hope has been expressed by some of Mr. Parker's friends that a settlement could be reached before return day, eight days hence, but this seems highly improbable to those who know the history of the Parker estate.

The step had been made necessary by reason of the executions already taken out on Mr. Parker's property at the suit of Mr. Wilhelm, Lewers & Cooke, and Mr. E. C. Rowe, aggregating $2190 63, to satisfy which a large part of all the property of Parker has been levied upon, and is advertised for sale on the 26th instant, subject to certain circumstances.

Unless the present bankruptcy proceedings were taken now, all the property would have been sold to satisfy the above named persons and firms, to the exclusion of all other unsecured creditors. The present action for bankruptcy proceedings was not prompted by any ill will, but with a view of obtaining payment of the debts of the numerous unsecured creditors, and with the expectation that the estate will realize more than enough to pay all the creditors, so that a balance can be given Mr. Parker or the trustees.

An Alleged Thief.

A Chinese named Ah Loy was locked up last night pending an investigation as to his whereabouts when C. B. Wilson's residence was robbed. The police think he is the guilty man.

IT IS ONE THING

To journey to Chicago, but quite another to remain there comfortably during the crowded season.

The untaken rooms are going rapidly. Have you arranged for a place yet?

All the World's Fair Hotels demand a cash deposit before they'll look at you or book your name. The much advertised Hotels may not be the choicest, but they'll get your money.

Join the PACIFIC EXCURSION CO., and avoid such risk. Our fee of $5 covers the cash deposit demanded by Hotels. We have 5 Hotels, which have been personally selected by our President, and can be recommended.

You can go by any route, at any time and remain as long as you care to.

T. W. HOBRON,
3358 AGENT.
