PEKING SIGHTED AT 4 A. M. THIS MORNING

The S. S. Peking from San Francisco was signaled off Diamond Head at 4 a. m. this morning.

Marine Notes.

The schooner Aloha is now at the new Government wharf.

The old hulks in the row have been rapidly demolished and but little remains of them now.

Many natives fish from the wharves for mullet every day now.

There were many flags flying in the harbor yesterday in honor of Cable Day. Captain "Dad" Amesbury could not find room on the Carleton for the display of all his flags, so strung a line from his mizzen truck to the end of the Railway wharf, and hung many flags on it.

the administration of the Territory, and was passed without material opposition. Several conferences have been held with influential members of the House and there is a belief that it will be possible to secure its passage there.

CUBAN RECIPROCITY.

(Special Cable to the Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—The most reliable news from both Washington and Havana indicates almost to a certainty that the proposed reciprocity treaty with Cuba will be accepted by both countries.

SCRANTON CAVES IN.

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 2.—The old workings at the Eddy Creek colliery under the heart of the town caved in this afternoon carrying down half a dozen buildings. The subsidence was a gradual one, so no lives were lost. The tops of the sunken houses are forty feet below the surface. The whole of Scranton has been undermined by the operations of the Redding Coal and Iron Company and during the past thirty years such cave-ins have been frequent and not unaccompanied by loss of life.

RAILROAD COLLISION.

(Special Cable to the Advertiser.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 2.—The railroad disaster, reported in advices to the cable ship Silvertown on Dec. 22, occurred at Byron, California, on the line of the Southern Pacific railroad in the San Joaquin valley, between San Francisco and Los Angeles. Two trains collided with great force. Twenty persons were killed and a number injured.

A RECORD BREAKING TRIP.

PORT TOWNSEND, Jan. 2.—The schooner William Olson, arriving this morning twelve days out from Honolulu, made steamboat time during her entire passage. The best day's log was 370 miles or an average of about fifteen knots per hour.

[The schooner Wm. Olson did not clear from Honolulu and inquiry, although developing the fact that she is known here, does not show that she has been in this port for some time. She may have cleared from one of the outside ports from which shipping news is not always quickly available.—Ed. Advertiser.]

SUGAR PRICES FALLING OFF.

(Special Cable to the Advertiser.)

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—The market for raw sugar has been quiet for the past five days and the price has declined a fraction. There have been few offerings and the rate was established by a small sale. The last figure for centrifugals noted is three and seven-eighths cents, which is a decline of one-sixteenth. This figure does not indicate the true feeling in the market, however, and the brokers still look for higher rates with the opening of this year's business.

CAUSE OF RED SUNSETS.

(Special Cable to the Advertiser.)

VALPARAISO, Jan. 2.—Five volcanoes in the province of Llanquihue are in active eruption. Llanquihue is situated in the extreme southern part of Chile, close to the Andean range. Its area is 7823 square miles and its population is 68,580.

JAPANESE DIET SUSPENDED.

(Oriental Mail Advices.)

TOKIO, Dec. 21.—A surprise occurred today when the following Imperial Rescript was announced: "In accordance with Art. 7 of the Constitution we command the suspension of the Imperial Diet for seven days from the 21st to the 27th inst."

It is understood that the immediate cause of the new prorogation was the discovery that a large number of the anti-Cabinet section of the Representatives had decided to secede. The number is put at fifty.
