PING-PONG THE RAGE AT SEASHORE RESORTS.

Asbury Park and Atlantic City Already Have Bad Attacks of the Fever.

Already ping-pong is taking a prominent place at the summer resorts. How strong will be the interest in it when the hotels are filled in July, August and September is past prophesying, but practically every summer hotel in the country is providing for the game by installing tables. It is the expectation of the proprietors that the summer evenings and mornings will be occupied with ping-pong playing. The verandas under the lights are expected to be the favorite resorts of the ping-pongers in the evenings. Hotels that have amusement rooms will install the game there for day use.

Proof of the popularity ping-pong is bound to have has recently come from Atlantic City and from Asbury Park. At the latter place a big parlor in the largest hotel has been turned over bodily to the ping-pong, and several public parlors have been opened.

At Atlantic City, Charles D. Salisbury last Friday opened a one-table ping-pong parlor in the expectation that there might be a little patronage. That day he took in just $2.40 and went to bed disheartened.

Crowds at Play.

But the next day, which was Saturday, the news of the ping-pong parlor had spread abroad and Atlantic City folks literally thronged the place. Salisbury could not accommodate more than one-tenth of his would-be patrons. He hurried out and bought all the tables available in Atlantic City stores and then rigged up some more or less serviceable substitutes. All told he had six tables by evening and then he could not give space to more than half the applicants for tables. He thereupon came to New York to get more tables and arrange for other parlors.

"It was like a run on a bank," he said yesterday "after the crowd learned about my place."

Notes of the Game.

Ping-pong has invaded three of the town's theatres and is now going to ascend to a roof garden. At Hammerstein's next week eight young women, posing as society maids, are to give ping-pong songs. One of the singers will be a real ping-ponger, Miss Alice Wilde, of Yorkville, who is a well-known player in that section of the city and is a prominent member of the Empire Ping-Pong Club.

In a match played at the Twelfth Regiment last night Sergt. James Brooks and Frank Kelly, of Company H, Twelfth Regiment, defeated Walter Steele and John Simms, of Company F, Seventy-first Regiment.

In the tournament of the Comanche Club, of the Seventeenth Ward, Charles Becker yesterday defeated Edward Courtenay, George Metz beat Joseph Reilly and Frank Callahan beat M. Greenbaum.

James Hart, who is considered by many to be the most graceful player on the east side, defeated Harry Silberstein with ease, and Walter Callahan defeated William Gettler.

On Saturday night John Tenchtler and William Kirkel will play for the championship of the club.

The Chester Club, a popular east side association, has organized a ping-pong club, and has issued a challenge to social clubs.

In the club's tournament David Donahue and Mrs. Donahue defeated Mr. and Mrs Kane; Frank King and Miss Annie Rooney defeated Daniel Donahue and Miss Gaston; Harry Finkelstein and Miss Rachel Goldstein defeated Augustine Klumpp and Miss Klumpp; Daniel McGrady and Miss Florence Hilbert defeated Mr. Smith and Miss Lily Donahue; James Whelan and Miss Gunderson defeated William O'Brien and Miss M. O'Connor.

The contest wound up with a lively round in which T. P. Sullivan and Mrs. Cummusky defeated Harry Oxford and Lawrence Mulligan.

LAWS OF PING-PONG.

At the request of many readers The Evening World will reprint the full ping-pong rules adopted by the originators of the game.

These are much more detailed than the brief directions often sold with a set of racquets, net and balls.

Every player should have them, as they will settle all disputes.

To preserve them pin them on the wall, paste on heavy card-board or frame them.

They will appear in installments and are printed by the courtesy of Parker Brothers, who are sole owners of the United States trade mark "Ping-Pong," and of the copyright to these rules.

(Copyright, 1902, by Parker Bros.)

Serving.

Rule 1. There are two "courts," confined respectively to all the plane upper surface of the table at the opposite sides of the net. There are two players, one for each court, the same court being retained throughout the game. The player who "serves" is the "server," his opponent, the "striker-out."

Rule 2.—The winner of the "toss" shall have the right either to choose to be server or striker-out, or to make choice of courts; or he may require his opponent to make first choice.

Rule 3. (a) The server, when serving, shall stand behind the end of the table.

(b) The ball, when struck, shall be below the waist, behind the end of the table, and within the limits of the width of the table.

(c) The service shall be "underhand," that is to say, when the ball is struck no part of the bat except the handle shall be above the wrist.

Rule 4. The server shall first give warning to the striker-out, but if the latter attempts to return a ball served without warning, it shall be counted as "in play." Also, a ball shall be considered in play, notwithstanding it fouls with the service bat or hand.

Rule 5. A "good service" is when the ball served drops on the opponent's court without touching any object.

A "fault" is when the server violates Rule 3, or the ball fails to be a "good service."

Rule 6. It is a "let"—

(a) When the ball served touches the net or its supports, but no other object, and then drops on the opponent's court.

(b) When the ball is served without warning, except when the striker-out attempts to return the ball.

(c) When the umpire decides that a player in making the play has been interfered with.

A "let" does not count to either side, and the stroke must be replayed.

*Note—A more generally accepted rule in this country is that all of the racquet except the handle must be below the waist when the ball is struck.

JERSEY AGAIN GRETNA GREEN

Justice Lehane Marries a Couple, Who Seem in a Hurry.

A well-dressed couple drove to the residence of Justice Frank P. Lehane, in First street, near Newark avenue, Jersey City, and, alighting, entered his house. They told the Justice they wished to be married and asked him to perform the ceremony.

They said they were Florence A. Cooke, twenty-two years old, of No. 198 Blackman street, Wilkesbarre, Pa., and Arthur W. Edwards, twenty-eight years old, of the Hotel Washington, Jersey City. Edwards said he was a draughtsman. It is said he had not been stopping long at the Hotel Washington.

Lehane called in two neighbors to act as witnesses and then performed the ceremony, after which Edwards and his bride re-entered the carriage and drove to the ferry, where they boarded a boat for New York.

WARNER'S SAFE CURE

THOUSANDS OF MEN AND WOMEN HAVE KIDNEY DISEASE AND DO NOT KNOW IT UNTIL IT IS TOO LATE.

Mr. Moses C. Thompson, one of the best-known police officers of Boston, says Warner's Safe Cure cured him of diabetes and rheumatism eighteen years ago and has kept him in good health ever since.

Boston, Mass.

"Eighteen years' experience with Warner's Safe Cure ought to satisfy any one. About eighteen years ago I was completely cured in four months of diabetes and rheumatism which had a pretty strong hold on me. I had suffered everything. The doctors had almost given me up. My faith in Warner's Safe Cure has grown stronger since that time, as I know a number of the members of the Boston police force who had suffered from kidney, bladder trouble and rheumatism have been entirely cured and are well and robust men to-day; in fact, every one that I have advised to use Warner's Safe Cure has been greatly benefited by it. MOSES C. THOMPSON, Lodge No. 23, K. P., Station 16, Boylston St., August 17th, 1901."

TEST YOUR KIDNEYS.—Put some morning urine in a glass or bottle, let it stand 24 hours; if there is a reddish sediment in the bottom of the glass, or if the urine is cloudy or milky, or if you see particles or germs floating about in it, your kidneys are diseased, and you should get a bottle of Warner's Safe Cure at once.

WARNER'S SAFE CURE is purely vegetable and contains no narcotics or harmful drugs; it is free from sediment and is pleasant to take; it does not constipate; it is a most valuable and effective tonic; it is a stimulant to digestion and awakens the torpid liver, putting the patient into the very best receptive state for the work of the restorer of the kidneys. It prepares the tissues, soothes inflammation and irritation, stimulates the enfeebled organs, kills the disease germs and heals at the same time.

WARNER'S SAFE PILLS move the bowels gently and aid a speedy cure.

WARNER'S SAFE CURE is now put up in two regular sizes and sold by all druggists, or direct, at 50 CENTS AND $1.00 A BOTTLE.

Refuse substitutes. There is none "just as good as" WARNER'S SAFE CURE. It has cured all forms of kidney disease during the last thirty years. It is prescribed by all doctors and used in the leading hospitals.

TRIAL BOTTLE FREE.

The manufacturers so firmly believe that WARNER'S SAFE CURE will absolutely and permanently cure any diseased condition of the kidneys, liver, bladder or blood, that they will send postpaid, without any cost to you, a large trial bottle, if you will write Warner Safe Cure Company, Rochester, N. Y., and mention having seen this liberal offer in The Evening World. The genuineness of this offer is fully guaranteed by the publisher. Write the medical department for advice, medical booklet, diagnosis and analysis, which will be sent you free of charge.

To Cure Drunkards.

A Simple Way to Cure Any Drunkard Against His Will.

By using the new odorless and tasteless remedy which is placed in the coffee or food any drunkard can be cured. Any one can use it without the drunkard ever knowing it. It does its work so silently and surely that while the devoted wife, sister, daughter or mother looks on, the drunkard is cured even against his will.

MRS. SAMUEL BOYD.

Every person who has a loved one who is a slave to drink ought to give them this remedy at once.

Mrs. Samuel Boyd says: "With Golden Specific I cured my husband of drinking. I put it in his coffee and after that he could not drink liquor or bear to be where he could smell it."

Write to Dr. J. W. Haines, 3387 Glenn Building, Cincinnati, Ohio, and he will send you a free trial package which will show you how simple it is to use and how positive is its cure.

Full sized boxes of Golden Specific are for sale in New York by Weixmann & Muellenbach, 9 Bible House, and in Brooklyn by Benj. Rosenzweig, 624-626 Fulton street.
