Don Forbes returned Monday from a week's trip to his ranch near Ballagh, Neb. He found things looking pretty dismal in Garfield county, where the excessive rains last year drowned out many of the farmers who left their places grow to weed patches.

A letter received by D. M. Neiswanger from his son, Stott, who is attending the Nebraska Military academy at Lincoln, states that he has been appointed a corporal. Stott is making good progress in his studies, and we are glad to hear of his promotion.

Your attention is called to the advertisement of the Curtis Publishing Co. in this issue of The Herald. The Curtis Publishing Co. is running this ad for the benefit of their local agent, Mrs. Gertrude M. Best, who is doing such efficient work securing subscriptions for their publications.

St. John says: "He that abideth in him cannot sin." Next Sunday I will discuss the interesting subject, How is it that a Christian cannot sin, and also how or why one good man, a Christian, will be saved while his neighbor, just as upright and honorable but not a Christian, is not, Salem at 11 a. m., and Dakota City at 3:30 p. m. Rev. C. R. Lowe.

Harvey Zentmire, who has resided on the Wm. P. Warner farm southwest of this place for the past ten years, departed last Friday with two car loads of stock, farm machinery and household goods for his new location near Hay Springs, Neb. The family expect to visit relatives and friends here a few days before leaving for their future home. The many friends of this estimable family regret their departure from Dakota county, but at the same time wish them prosperity in their new surroundings.

Rose Wentworth Adams, age 11, and Amzi Armstrong Adams, age 6, children of the late Mrs. Rose W. Kent, of South Sioux City, were brought here last Thursday by Sheriff Cain, at the request of R. B. Hall, of Neligh, a representative of the Nebraska Childrens Home society, of Omaha, who had investigated conditions at South Sioux City, and found the children were not receiving proper care. Permission was granted in Judge McKinley's juvenile court, and the two children were accompanied to Omaha by Mr. Hall and will be placed in the home until suitable homes can be found there. This society has taken destitute children from this county on several occasions and have found them homes where they are given the best of care and treatment.

The aid society of St. Michaels church of South Sioux City met last Thursday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Sides. There were sixty or more members present who were conveyed to the Sides home in two hay rack loads. A very enjoyable evening was spent at progressive high five. Rewards were awarded to the high score. Mrs. West received first prize for ladies and Mrs. Comeau drew consolation prize. High score for the gentlemen was won by John Bower and J. J. McAllister, Jr. drew consolation. Mrs. Sherwood drew the all cut favor. A very nice lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Alice Sides, which netted the aid $13. The party was conveyed back to town in time to get the 12:30 car. Mr. and Mrs. Sides were voted royal entertainers.

There are many reliable farm papers issued nowadays that supply the farmers and stockmen with cashable and workable ideas, but the best suited to the farmers of this section is Farmer and Breeder. It is issued semi-monthly at Sioux City, Ia., and is intensely interesting and practical. It regularly carries veterinary, dairy, poultry, horticulture, home and fashion departments in addition to market and live stock news. The special feature stories about successful farmers and breeders give many valuable hints, suggestions, and lessons that any intelligent farmer can apply with profit.

The Herald has made special arrangements with Farmer and Breeder which enables us to offer you The Herald and Farmer and Breeder both for one year for only $1.00. Send us your subscription now and save money. This offer is good for only a limited time. Every subscriber to Farmer and Breeder is entitled to a free consultation with its editors on any phase of farming or stock raising.

Lutheran Church Notes

DAKOTA CITY-SALEM

Yes, every person in the church, and many outside the church, appreciate the work of anyone who is active in the church work, or who has some special work on hand which they are interested in. In fact there must be some who have special work and many who have personal work of the church in hand or the church would not progress, or even live. A lot of the church work cannot possibly be done by the pastor. It devolves naturally and by force of necessity upon the laity. And others will appreciate some special activity in you as well as you do another. In the beginning of the church every man was a personal worker, a witness for Christ, but we have gotten away from that. An ancient writer declares that it is a work of the devil that we have got away from that personal work. We are afraid the world will not like it, that they do not want to be approached, but such is not the case. When it is done wisely it is almost always appreciated. I have found some very marked cases where there would have been disappointment if there had not been the personal work.

Such a word should not always come from the pastor. That is his business, his duty, and it is expected of him. That is professionalism. What if the non-Christians do think Christians are foolish? Paul says something of the resurrection being a stumbling block to the Jew and foolishness to the Greek. Jesus says the world will hate you because it hated both me and my father, and John says, The world knoweth not because it knew him not. Yes, a Christian has to go counter to public opinion sometimes and be a fool unto men that he may be a wise unto God. Jesus' own brethren thought him crazy. Our LIFE depends not upon public opinion but upon our relation to Christ. Blessed are ye when all men shall revile you and persecute you. Woe unto you when all men speak well of you.

The children of both Emmanuel and Salem Sunday schools are out-doing the grown ups in the matter of church attendance. Our christian life is very largely tied up with the church. Our church relation is a very sensitive thing in regard to our spiritual life. It is a very good indicator of our spiritual vigor. I know many people do not believe it, but look over your acquaintances and see if those of real spiritual force are not the church goers. Not those who are good people but who are spiritual forces. Loyalty to Christ means loyalty to the church as the body of Christ in the world, the bride of Christ. If we are not loyal to the church we cannot be loyal to Christ, for if we do not love the heathen whom we have seen, we cannot love Christ whom we have not seen.

The Emmanuel Missionary society will meet at the parsonage Thursday at 2:30.

The Emmanuel Ladies' Aid met at the parsonage last Thursday. The time of meeting was changed from Thursday afternoon. Some important business of the society was transacted.

SCHOOL NOTES.

[Submitted by Students.]

Hattie Johns has been absent from school for the past week.

Joseph Krampfer has been sick with the grip for the past week, but was able to return to school Monday.

Miss Fleming was an over Sunday visitor at her home in Laurel, Neb.

Eight of the high school boys accompanied by Supt. Linton attended the men's banquet at Morningside college last Friday evening.

Six of the high school boys and Supt. Linton expect to attend several of the Older Boys' Conference at Sioux City this Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. The conference is held under the auspices of the Y. M. C. A. The work is not denominational or purely Y. M. C. A., but is conducted for the betterment of the moral life of the high school boy.

There will be a debate Friday at 1:45 p. m., on the subject that Wilson's plan of preparedness should be adopted. The debaters for the team to meet Homer will be chosen from those who debate Friday.
