FT. DODGE ITEMS.

* FT. DODGE, IOWA. *

Very recently the pastor, Rev. Jones called the ladies of the church and others to a special meeting. The purpose was to organize "The Five C's" meaning Coppin, Chapel, Community, Center, Circle. More than a score of ladies responded. The following officers were selected: Mrs. Geo. Perkins, president; Mrs. James Neloms, vice president; Mrs. Clarence Coffman, secretary; Mrs. Josephine Casler, secretary of publicity; Mrs. J. W. Madison, treasurer; Mrs. H. McCain, chaplain; Mrs. D. A. Dishman, chairman reception committee; Mrs. Ben Brown, chairman Lookout committee. First named officers. Program committee corps with Mrs. Dishman; reception, Mrs. James Bradford, Mrs. Daisy Atkins, Mrs. Angeline Wells, Mrs. Myrtle Stepps, Mrs. Luther Lynd. Corps with Mrs. B. Brown. "Look out" Mrs. Oscar Williams, Mrs. Hary Wilson, Mrs. Richard Bourdeaux, Mother, Wm. Bennings.

The choir has been reorganized with Mrs. Geo. Perkins as organist and choirister and Mrs. James Madison as assistant. Quite a few voices have been added recently. The commendations have been many. Loyalty and devotion is the byword of each member. The singing has been very highly commended by all who have heard it. We are very proud to have with us Mrs. Luther Lynd of Syracuse, N. Y., who recently connected herself with our church. Mrs. Lynd is quite an accomplished young matron and is really an asset to the choir, possessing a wonderful voice, singing soprano. Mrs. Lynd is a relative of Mrs. James Neloms and will reside permanently in Ft. Dodge.

Sunday was Five C day. Quite an interesting program was rendered. An outline on the work we contemplated doing in the community was given. The musical numbers were splendid.

The Willing Workers composed of larger girls gave an entertainment Saturday night and realized a neat sum.

A Sunday school choir has been organized with Mrs. Irma Blackburn Jones as organist and directoress. The young people are loyal and wide awake and are ever ready to do their bit in fostering the work of the Master.

Three adults were baptized last Sunday afternoon. Rev. Jones preached a very helpful and instructive sermon. Quite a large gathering attended these services. We are now looking forward to the coming of our presiding elder, Rev. T. B. Stovall. He expects to be with us to hold the first quarterly conference and administer communion Dec. 18 and 19. We are always glad to have Rev. Stovall with us.

The Sunday school program of St. Jacob's A. M. E. church which was conducted by Richard Fields at the Keystone hall for the benefit of Sunday school children's Christmas tree and gifts was a grand success.

The Helping Hand club which was organized by Mrs. Rev. B. F. Hubbard meets every Thursday evening.

They are doing splendid work financially and intellectually. The trustee's entertainment given Dec. 26 by the trustees was well attended and a neat sum realized.—B. F. Hubbard, pastor.

At the A. M. E. church on last Friday Dec. 23 at 2 o'clock. Funeral services were conducted over the remains of Mrs. Birch Wooten, the wife of James Wooten. Wrs. Wooten was a constant sufferer for several years. In all her illness she was patient and kind. She departed for her eternal home Dec. 19 in the full triumph of saving faith in Christ. She was a member of the A. M. E. church. Rev. Robt. B. Manley had charge of the services.

This is a good time in the year for us to ask ourselves the question, "What Did We Do That Will Count for Good in the Year of 1921?" If you fought to hinder the cause of Christ, tried to kill the influence of your pastor as well as all the activities of your church, went home and sat yourself down, as Jonah did, who went out of the city, made him a booth and sat under it in the shade till he might see what God would do to the Ninevites. I am persuaded to believe ther are many Jonahs in every church and the sooner, they like Jonah, will find a place of recluse, and remain there, (retiring form public notice) until their heads are crowned with a gourd of short duration, leaving their heads bare, susceptibile to the vehement east wind, and the penetrating rays of God's indignation beat upon them until they faint and die, from their selfish antagonistic views of the goodness of their Hevenly Father toward the children of men, they will learn that

Baptist Church Items.

Services were well attended at the Second Baptist Sunday. Our Sunday school is doing nicely with Miss Trusela Taylor, superintendent.

Young and old were made glad at the Christmas exercises Saturday night at the church. A nice program was rendered and all went home rejoicing.

The sermon delivered Sunday night by the pastor, Rev. R. P. Palmer from Matt. 2:18, was well delivered and enjoyed by all.

Master Kenneth Palmer is able to be out after suffering from a severe spell of tonsilitis.

We are sorry to report the illness of Mrs. Elmer Carter. We hope for her a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Florence Adams entertained out of town guests.

Miss Ella Carter, president and Miss Hortense Davis, vice president of the "Willing Workers" club left for their home in Mason City last week.

Rev. R. P. Palmer made a flying trip to Wan Lock last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Cavill of Loville, Ia., was visiting at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Palmer last week at b11 North G street.

The Willing Workers club will meet at the home of Mrs. Ford on North F street Tuesday evening.

We wish the Bystander a happy and prosperous New Year.

Where the Real Danger Lies.

A Boston physician has sounded the warning that there is more or less danger in wearing clothes. There may be, but the most danger has in the path of a man who attempts to trip merrily through this life clad in filtered sunshine and a two days' growth of whiskers.
