WHO FURNISHED THE DERELICTS?

The following table is compiled from the biennial report of the commissioners of state institutions. It shows the number of wards of the state furnished by Douglas, Lancaster and Hall counties compared with all the rest of the state. These counties have practically one-half of all the saloons in Nebraska. The figures given below show the inmates of the various institutions per 100,000 population:

Institutions	Hall, Douglas and Lancaster Counties	Rest of State
Insane asylums	62.8	40.1
Dipsomaniacs	27.4	10.5
Girl's Industrial school	9.5	1.5
Boy's Industrial school	22.8	6.3
Dependent Children	15.6	6.3
Penitentiary	38	16.8
Feeble Minded	12	6
Industrial Home	4.2	3.3
Orthopedic Hospital	44.2	8.7
Total per 100,00 population	236.5	99.5

These figures will not appear in the advertising paid for by the "Nebraska Prosperity" liquor league.

to pack outfits and tents will be given immediately after breakfast this morning. The campers will return to the city this afternoon. Tent No. 4, in charge of Leslie Brown, of Whiting, Ia., has won tent honors the last three days. The score for the tent yesterday was 45, the highest of any day since the boys have been in camp. All cases of poisoning by ivy were reported practically cured last night. Water sports and a track meet occupied most of the time yesterday. In the morning boys were given swimming instructions. The track meet was held yesterday afternoon. The last campfire was held last night.

Sioux City Journal, 10: Two hundred people yesterday attended the first annual picnic held at Crystal lake by the Liberal Labor league, of South Sioux City. A basket dinner was served at noon on the grounds. The afternoon was taken up with athletic events. Chief among these was the old man's walking race, participated in by three men over 70 years of age. The race was won by E. Brummett. The other contestants were Dr. Leonard DeVore and G. A. Frederick. In the forenoon the gathering was addressed by J. McAllister, of Dakota City, on the subject, "Labor." A baseball game was played by teams from the Labor league and Crystal lake, the latter winning in four innings, 3 to 2. Thousands of Sioux City residents yesterday forsook their homes and sought coolness in the various parks about the city and along the river and lake fronts. The sweltering heat in the downtown districts drove people from the hotel lobbies. Places of amusement in the business district were losers by reason of the hot weather. During the afternoon trolley cars carried load after load of perspiring persons to Crystal lake and Riverside park. Family groups and picnic parties earlier in the day went to the resorts, carrying with them baskets of lunch. At Crystal lake many were bathing. Two baseball games were played. Dancing was featured in the evening. Free band concerts and singing were given at Riverside park during the afternoon and evening. The river was lined with canoes and launches. Practically all of the boat clubs were crowded. Heavy passenger traffic was reported yesterday at all railway stations. The rush was due largely to departure of outing parties for smaller towns nearby and arrival of others from the surrounding country. The torrid temperature and dust made automobil- ing uncomfortable until evening.

Sioux City Journal, 6: August Voss, one of Nebraska's foremost feeders operating in the vicinity of Nacora, was awarded a toppy price for a load of yearling heifers on this market during the midweek trade. For nineteen head averaging 798 pounds he received $9.15. The cattle were put in the feed yards immediately after being weaned. A ration of corn and alfalfa was used during the entire period of fattening, and highly satisfactory gains in weight resulted. Four persons were slightly injured when a motor car, driven by E. J. McKernan, a rural mail carrier of Dakota City, Neb., was struck and overturned by another car, driven by Lamson, of Walthill, Neb., Tuesday night. The collision occurred five miles South of Dakota City. All the injured persons were passengers in the McKernan car. The Lamson car was wrecked, but remained upright, and its occupants were unhurt. Riding with Mr. McKernan in the car were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wright, University Place, Neb., and their small son. Investigation of the complaint made by the commercial club of Homer, Neb., that the Burlington railroad bridge in that town is a source of danger to foot passengers is to be made by the Nebraska state railway commission, which announced that a hearing will be held at Homer on July 14. A copy of the complaint of the Homer people has been filed with the Burlington road and an answer has been made by the general counsel of the company and placed in the hands of the commissioners. The company admits the dangerous character of the bridge, but asserts that the responsibility for that condition rests with the town. The hearing will be attended by practically every resident of the town, as well as by farmers in the outlying territory. Five cases of beer, twelve gallons of whiskey and a carton of brandy were seized and two men arrested last evening at 7:30 o'clock by Detective Fred Spencer. The men, Roy Garner and Joe Bodes, were charged with the illegal transportation of liquor. Bodes and Garner had gone to Jackson, Neb., for the load of liquor and had delivered one package when interrupted by Detective Spencer. The liquor was consigned by J. Robin to Sioux City residents. The shipping bills were those of the Interstate Transportation company, a Nebraska corporation, but the name of the carrier was marked out and Robin's name substituted. A charge for forgery was placed against Garner. The police alleged that Garner cashed a check for $5.20 at the meat market of W. G. Warner, 217 Fourth street. The name of Mrs. E. Ward, a Mid-West bank depositor, was signed to the check.

County Agent's Field Notes.

BY A. H. BECKHOFF.

In going over the fields of this county one cannot but be struck with the prevalence of the potato blight this year. Some of the fields are only affected to a moderate degree, while others are damaged to the extent of half or more. The blight this year is characteristic in fields the seed for which was shipped in mainly from the north. I have carried on a few tests to note the effectiveness of corrosive sublimate in controlling this disease. On all of these demonstration fields check plots were maintained. Let me especially call your attention to potato demonstration fields on the farms of John Sohn, Fred Schult, Herman Ebel and T. F. McGlashen, where the effects now are plainly discernible and where the beneficial effect of the corrosive sublimate shows up in marked contrast against where not used. The common preventative measure is to use bordeaux and spray the vines when they are young. But for the most effective way is to plant seed that is clean and free from blight. My purpose in calling this to your attention is that you may be on guard. At harvest time I will hold some demonstrations and again before planting in the spring. Plan to attend these. The use of formalin and corrosive sublimate will help to eliminate scab to a marked degree also. Those of you who have used formalin in the treatment of oats for smut, should take an hour off and go over the area treated and note the difference in amount of smut present.

Notice

There are many reliable farm papers issued nowadays that supply the farmers and stockmen with cashable and workable ideas, but the best suited to the farmers of this section is Farmer and Breeder. It is issued semi-monthly at Sioux City, Ia., and is intensely interesting and practical. It regularly carries veterinary, dairy, poultry, horticulture, home and fashion departments in addition to market and live stock news. The special feature stories about successful farmers and breeders give many valuable hints, suggestions, and lessons that any intelligent farmer can apply with profit.
