(Special to The Evening World.)

NEW ORLEANS RACE TRACK, Dec. 9.—All the winners to-day were horses that took the path on the extreme outside of the track. The track has dried considerably, but the path is still only fast of it fit for a horse to run over. There was room for one horse to run another on the path to-day. The path is fully a sixteenth of mile longer than the short way around the rail, but horses that draw positions on the path are invariably long shots in the betting. This shows what the talent thinks of their chances.

Withdrawals were scarce to-day. One, who figured to be a contender in the first, was scratched. Irving Mayor and Peat, two probable contenders, were scratched from the fourth.

Beautiful weather prevailed.

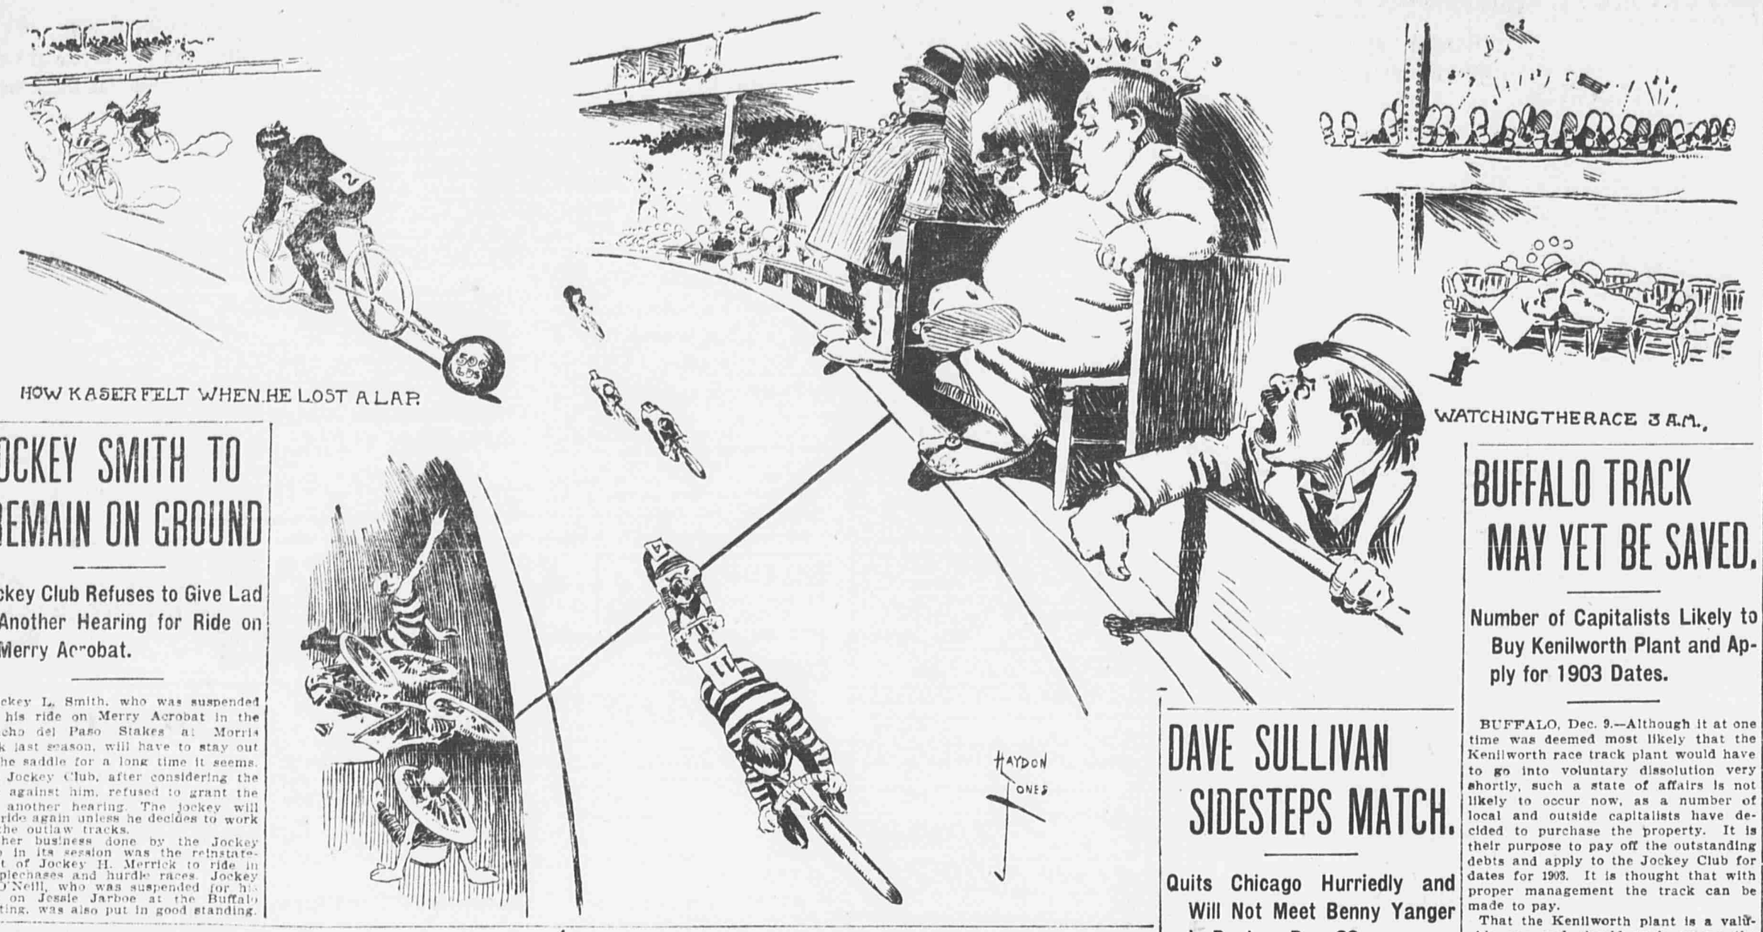
IMPRESSIONS OF THE SIX-DAY RACE, BY HAYDON JONES.



JOCKEY SMITH TO REMAIN ON GROUND

Jockey Club Refuses to Give Lad Another Hearing for Ride on Merry Acrobat.

Jockey L. Smith, who was suspended for his ride on Merry Acrobat in the Rancho del Paso Stakes at Morris Park last season, will have to stay out of the saddle for a long time it seems. The Jockey Club, after considering the case against him, refused to grant the boy another hearing. The jockey will not ride again unless he decides to work on the outlaw tracks.

Other business done by the Jockey Club in its session was the reinstatement of Jockey H. Merrick to ride in steeplechases and hurdle races. Jockey F. O'Neill, who was suspended for his ride on Jessie Jarboe at the Buffalo meeting, was also put in good standing.

SEVEN TEAMS TIED IN SIX-DAY BICYCLE RACE.

away. The others have realled how useless it is.

Four times during the afternoon Breton and his partner made sudden jumps in an attempt to shake off the bunch, but they only succeeded in lapping Doerflinger and Heller, who are already several miles back.

The riders are more than thirty miles behind the record but all are holding their own and may make up that distance before the end of the week. The trainers say the slow pace has put the men in better shape than riders ever were in at the same stage of previous races.

John Bedell, who was injured ina spill early in the morning resumed riding after an hour's rest. He was none the worse for his fall. Cecil Barclay, the rider who it was expected would break down before the day was over, has been in the hands of a doctor all days and is now in something like his early form.

The police say the throwing of tacks on the track which caused the spill in which Bedell, Maya, Heller and Nat Butler went down was the work of mischievous boys, and the matter has been dropped. Another bad fall was narrowly avoided. Jacobson broke his chain while leading a sprint, and it was just chance that saved him from going down.

Seven teams are still tied for first place, three more are just a lap behind, and the remaining pair are hopelessly out of it, but not thinking of quitting by any means.

The only foreign team with a chance is that of Brenton and Darragon. Gougoltz, since his retirement, has taken charge of his countrymen and they are riding in splendid form with a great chance of being right there at the finish.

The size of the audience is one of the wonders of the event. The race is not even made exciting by an occasional spill, yet the enthusiasts that move from side to side of the big Garden at the command of the scrub women are as excited as they were the opening night.

The two Bedells have now the most supporters among the crowd, and the fact that they are New York youngsters has won them many admirers.

It seems now that only serious accidents can change the positions of the leaders, and that, as was the case last year, the race will be won by inches.

When the plucky riders began the second day of their terrible grind at 12:12 o'clock this morning there were still twelve teams left in the race. O this number seven were tied for first place with 494 miles and 6 laps. The riders looked worn out as a result of the terrific pace which they had set during the twenty-four hours, and as they rode on their faces bore expressions of intense agony. The majority of the riders wore goggles so as to protect their eyes from the wind which blew against them as they followed each other in the numerous sprints.

Kaser Quits the Race.

Kaser, the young German rider, who was so seriously injured internally as a result of his fall into one of the boxes early yesterday morning, suffered intense pain from his injuries last night. The other riders learning that Kaser was in trouble at once started off at a terific burst of speed, and after circling the track several times finally succeeded in gaining a lap on the German. Kaser was unable to ride any longer and his trainer hustled Gougoltz out of bed and out on the track. The gritty Frenchman started right in to regain the lap lost by Kaser, but after sprinting continually for half an hour gave up in despair and asked his trainer to take him off. Kaser was again put on the track, but he was suffering intense pain and quit, telling his trainer he could not ride any longer. Gougoltz, his partner, tried hard to get him to continue, but as he positively refused both riders announced their retirement from the race at 12:30 o'clock this morning after having covered 501 miles and 8 laps. Gougoltz, however, declared he was ready to continue riding if he could get a partner, but he failed after waiting four hours, which is the time limit, and dressed himself and left for his hotel.

"Am I never to be allowed to win?" he said. "Last year Simar gave out the same way when I thought we had the race won. Of course he was sick, but in both cases I have been unfortunate. I am good and strong and can speed and plug with any of them in a race. When I came over this year it was with the feeling that I would surely win, but such is my luck. If I ride in next year's race I'll try to get an iron man for my partner."

BASEBALL SEASON OPENS APRIL 16.

National League's Magnates Begin Session To-day, but Schedule Is Ready Now.

NATIONAL LEAGUE'S OPENING DAY—APRIL 16.

Brooklyn in New York.
Boston in Philadelphia.
Pittsburg in Cincinnati.
Chicago in St. Louis.

The annual meeting of the National League magnates was begun to-day at the Hotel Victoria. Although the first day's session was scheduled to begin at noon it was some time later before the wise men of the game got to work.

There were present John T. Brush, of New York, Chairman of the Executive Committee; Fred Knowles, of New York, Charles Ebbets and Ned Hanlon, of Brooklyn; A. H. Soden and W. H. Conant, of Boston; Barney Dreyfuss and Harry Pulliam, of Pittsburg; James Hart, of Chicago; August Herman, Max Fleischman and George B. Cox, of Cincinnati; F. De Haas Robison, of St. Louis; Col. John I. Rogers and A. J. Reach, of Philadelphia.

The magnates have mapped out a course of surprises for the followers of the game at their present meeting. This is the first meeting held in New York that has not been at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

The adoption of a playing schedule at the annual meeting also comes in the nature of a surprise. For many years past it has been the custom of the magnates to hold a meeting in the spring for the purpose of adopting a playing schedule.

When the magnates went into session to-day, however, the members of the Schedule Committee—Hart, Ebbets and Dreyfuss—had the draft of a schedule with them for consideration by their fellow-magnates.

To close followers of baseball, the action of the National men in adopting a playing schedule at this time is a practical declaration of renewal of war upon the American League. Last year the Americans were first in the field with their playing dates and the National League was forced to revise its schedule in order to avoid as much as possible conflicting dates.

This time, however, it will be different and unless they decide to carry the war into Africa in the matter of conflicting games it will be up to Ban Johnson to make a schedule that will avoid dates selected by the National League men.

Last year the Nationals were forced to take what was left by the Americans in the matter of choice dates. This year it will be up to the Americans to do the choosing, and the outcome will be watched with interest. It may be that rather than take the dates left open by the Nationals the Johnson crowd may decide to adopt a schedule that will clash.

In speaking about the matter last night Ned Hanlon, the Brooklyn manager, said: "We are going ahead and making up a playing schedule at this meeting. We are selecting dates without considering the existence of the American League. What the Americans will do I am at a loss to predict.

"There is one thing sure, and that is that the salary list of the American League this year has almost been doubled. The efforts of the Nationals to get back some of their players has made the American magnates dig down deep in the matter of increases. Under these circumstances they cannot afford to take indifferent playing dates."

It seemed to be the concensus of opinion this morning that no change would be made in the governing head of the League at the present time. Three heads are better than one, the majority of the magnates argue, and it is probable that the Executive Committee of Three will be continued.

For the position of secretary John B. Foster, Dan Hills and Murphy, of Cincinnati, are the most prominent names mentioned.

DAVE SULLIVAN SIDESTEPS MATCH.

Quits Chicago Hurriedly and Will Not Meet Benny Yanger in Bout on Dec. 22.

Dave Sullivan, of Boston, and Benny Yanger, the undefeated Italian featherweight of Chicago, will not meet on Dec. 22 at the America A. C., of Chicago, as the contest has been declared off. It was Sullivan who caused the turn of affairs. After agreeing to a referee for the bout, which was originally the only hitch in the match, he lately refused to fight Yanger and left Chicago. The calling off of the bout will no doubt be received with regret by followers of pugilism. They wanted to see the two boys meet for two purposes—first, to see if Sullivan is the same good little fighter he was a few years ago, and then to determine Yanger's right for a fight with "Young Corbett" or Terry McGovern.

Sullivan to Fight Britt.

Sullivan will probably go to the Pacific Coast in a few days. He is practically matched to fight Jimmy Britt there in a twenty-round bout. Sullivan received an offer a few days ago to meet Britt and he wired his acceptance, adding that he was ready to fight as soon as Britt would take him on.

Referees for Fight.

If the championship battle between "Young Corbett" and Terry McGovern goes to the Metropolitan A. C., of Detroit, Charley White will be the referee of the contest. If the Southern A. C., of Louisville, is fortunate enough to secure it, then Tim Hurst will be named to officiate. Both men are capable referees.

Britt's Measurements.

The measurements of Britt, the conqueror of Frank Erne, show that the San Francisco lightweight is built on lines similar to those of Kid Lavigne. They were taken a few days ago before Britt's mill with Erne and are as follows: Neck, 15 inches; chest, 36 inches; chest expanded, 38 inches; biceps, 12½ inches; forearm, 11 inches; wrist, 7 inches; height, 5 feet 6 inches; waist, 30 inches; calf, 14 inches; thigh, 21 inches; reach, 68 inches.

Eddie Hanlon, the featherweight fighter of San Francisco, and Maxey Haugh, the Brooklynite, will meet in a twenty-round bout before the Acme A. C. of Oakland, Cal., to-night. The contest will likely be a short one. The principals are not evenly matched. Haugh does not appear to rate with Hanlon. His age is against him. Hanlon is a promising boy. He has defeated every man he has fought.

Tim Callahan, the clever Philadelphia boxer, and Benny Yanger, of Chicago, have been matched to meet in a six-round bout before the America A. C. of Chicago on Dec. 19. It will be the second meeting between the boys. They boxed a six-round bout before the Penn Art A. C. of Philadelphia a short time ago. Callahan had the better of Yanger in that contest.

BUFFALO TRACK MAY YET BE SAVED.

Number of Capitalists Likely to Buy Kenilworth Plant and Apply for 1903 Dates.

BUFFALO, Dec. 9.—Although it at one time was deemed most likely that the Kenilworth race track plant would have to go into voluntary dissolution very shortly, such a state of affairs is not likely to occur now, as a number of local and outside capitalists have decided to purchase the property. It is their purpose to pay off the outstanding debts and apply to the Jockey Club for dates for 1903. It is thought that with proper management the track can be made to pay.

That the Kenilworth plant is a valuable one and should rank among the best of the race courses in the country, is without argument. The poor management of the track last year is believed to have brought it to its present standing.

It has been rumored that the Jockey Club would, under no circumstances, grant dates to Kenilworth, but this statement seems to have been without foundation. When this report became known it was said that a Southern turf firm would buy the track and run it as an outlaw association.

This, at the outset, appeared to be a ridiculous idea, as, in the first place, it is doubtful if any firm would purchase a valuable plant like Kenilworth to run as an outlaw track.

The local racing public are waiting with impatience to learn of the final disposition of the case.

UNKNOWN YANKEE BOXER LOSES FIGHT IN ENGLAND.

Gordon, Beaten by Costello, Has No Claim to Ring Fame.

A cablegram from Birmingham, England, tells of the defeat of an American boxer named Billy Gordon by an Englishman of the name of Costello last night. The bout went twelve rounds and Costello won the decision.

Gordon has no claim to ring fame here. In fact, he is not known pugilistically.

ST. LOUIS WIDOW ROBS BASEBALL.

Patsey Donovan Is Going to Marry Her and She Wants Him to Quit Game.

When Patsey Donovan, the popular leader of the St. Louis team, of the National League, announced his retirement from baseball a week ago, baseball enthusiasts were greatly surprised, but none can blame the Hon. P. D. now when the cause of his withdrawal from the game he has participated in for seventeen years is known.

The cause of it all is this: Patsey is going to marry a rich St. Louis widow. She does not like the idea of Patsey being so prominent in sport and at her request he has quit the game. Of course that puts the Robisons in a bit of a predicament, for to find a man to fill Donovan's shoes is no easy matter.

The name of Donovan's bride-to-be has not been disclosed nor will he tell until the day is near at hand for the wedding ceremony.

M'GRAW WON'T ADD TO HIS TROUBLES.

Columbia's Baseball Man Says Giants' Manager Will Coach College Nine.

Columbia's baseball team has a good press agent. Not satisfied with merely announcing a schedule for the team next season, he comes out with a report that Johnny McGraw will in all probability coach the Blue and White's boys. McGraw, it might be said, will have troubles enough of his own in getting the Giants in playing trim for the National League season and there is no likelihood of his looking after Columbia's team.

The schedule of Columbia for the season will contain twenty-six or twenty-seven games, the most notable of which will be a contest with Harvard on June 9. Owing to the hard work for the Columbians to secure a field in this city on which to play their games, most of them will be played out of town. The annual game with Yale will be played at New Haven on April 22.

HARVARD WILL ROW A CORNELL EIGHT.

First Step Is Taken Toward Renewal of Athletic Relations with Ithacans.

ITHACA, Dec. 9.—Harvard is evidently bound to renew her athletic relations with Cornell, for when Prof. W. F. Durand, the navy advisor on Cornell's athletic council, gave out the crews that were to take part in Cornell's regatta on Lake Cayuga on May 30 Harvard's name was mentioned on the entry list. The race is for junior crews, and the invitations sent to Harvard and Pennsylvania have been accepted. The one sent to Columbia has not been answered, but it is thought that an answer will be received in a day or two.

Considerable satisfaction is felt over Harvard's entry. It is thought that Mr. Courtney's recent visit to Cambridge had much to do with the sending of the Crimson eight. It is thought that a little later when matters can adjust themselves the Harvard 'varsity crew will be seen in the annual races at Poughkeepsie.

Coach Courtney is jubilant over the fact that only one junior race will be held next year, as it will obviate the necessity of preparing two second crews as he had to do last season.

ATTEL'S JABS WON FIGHT FOR HIM.

The California Feather-Weight, Though, Was Knocked Down by Ryan Once.

CHICAGO, Dec. 9.—Abe Attel, the California featherweight, outpunted Buddy Ryan, of Chicago, in a six-round contest here last night. Attel made a running fight of it.

In the third round, however, Ryan, after a hard chase, cornered Attel and knocked him down with a left hook to the jaw. Attel took a count of nine and got to his feet without showing any ill-effects from the blow. Attel used a straight left-hand jab, that Ryan was unable to evade, and the Californian had a shade the better of each round, except the third.

In the preliminary Billy Rotchford, of Chicago, defeated George Monroe, of New York.

INTERSCHOLASTIC RELAY RACE AT THE GARDEN.

Brooklyn High School Enters Team in Irish A. A. Games.

Word was received from George O. Kittle, manager of the Brooklyn High School team, that he would be glad to send a relay team to participate in the interscholastic relay race of the Greater New York Irish A. A. at the Garden on Dec. 27. Confident of its ability to capture first honors in the race the team has requested the committee to be allowed to put on a second team, which, they think, will finish second only to it.

The Brooklyn High School team is composed of the following boys: Jessup, Herr, Kittle and Swan, with Samson, Bristol and Wetherel as substitutes.

WESTERN RACING FIRM PAYS 7,500 FOR JOCKEY.

Jere O'Connor, Brother of Winnie, to Ride for Gorman & Bauer.

LEXINGTON, Dec. 9.—Jere O'Connor, the lightweight jockey and brother of Winnie, who has been seen in the saddle on the metropolitan tracks, is evidently thought a great deal of in the West, as Gorman & Bauer, a Western racing firm, has paid $7,500 to Hugh McCarren, of New York, for the lad's services for next year. It is a big price to pay for a youngster's services, but the buyers of his services believe they have struck a bargain.

The contract calls for the privilege of renewing the same in 1904 and 1905 at the same figure.

At the Penn Art A. C. of Philadelphia, tomorrow night, "Denver Ed" Martin and Deb Armstrong will appear in the wind-up. At the National Sporting Club, London, Martin won the championship from Armstrong—a result that surprised the knowing ones on this side of the water. Armstrong thinks that he can secure a reversal of that decision, and proposes to make a signal try to recover.

Men, Come to Me. I want every man that is suffering from any special disease or condition to come and have a social chat with me, and I will explain to you a system of treatment which I have originated and developed after my whole life's experience in treating diseases peculiar to men. It is a treatment that is based on scientific knowledge. I have no free proposition, no trial or sample treatments to offer you. My education, my experience, my conscience, my reputation, condemn all such quackery. If you will call and see me I will give you, free of charge, a thorough personal examination, together with an honest and scientific opinion of your case, and if I find your case is incurable I will honestly tell you so. If, on the other hand, I find your case is curable, I will insure you of a permanent cure, inasmuch as I will give you a written guarantee to cure you or refund to you every cent you have paid in case I fail to effect a permanent cure of your condition. I make no charge for medicines, as they are always included in the nominal fee asked. I attribute my success to promising nothing but what I can do, and always doing what I promise.
