 her home in Roggen, Colorado, Jan., 19, 1918.

Laura Ingalls was born in Washington, Kane Co., Illinois, July 8, 1845, and while still a child removed with her parents into the new country of Pierce county, Wisconsin. In dren were born to them—Lena, now Mrs. Samuel Heikes, and Eugene Waldvogel now a resident of Akron, Colorado.

Mr. Waldvogel died in 1870 and in 1872 she was united in marriage to Hiram Forbes of Elsworth, Minn.

Seven daughters were born to them and all save one survive her. Emma Laura passed away five years ago at Omaha, Neb.

The children surviving are: Mrs.
 Charles Norman, of Ainsworth, Neb.; Mrs. Al Russel, of Newcastle, Neb.; Oscar Baker, of Emerson, N. D.; Joseph Gregg, of Winnebago, Neb.; John Gunderson, of Gurley, Neb.; Katie Wilton, of Roggen, Colorado.

 pulmonary oedema.

 part of the time during her illness.
 Services were held in Christ's Community Church of Roggen, Rev.
 Ch. Tubbs, of Denver, officiating.

 mother.

New Flour Order.

The government food administrator this week made a new order regulating the sale of flour, which is now in force. Under this order wholesalers sale to retailers must be in the proportion of 10 pounds of wheat flour to one pound of other cereals or flours, such as rye, corn, barley, and others, and the retailer must sell to the consumer in proportion one pound of white flour to one pound of substitutes. Retailer's profits on flour is limited in original packages to 80 cents to $1.20 per barrel, depending on the service performed. Sales in amounts less than original mill package shall not exceed one cent per pound. Substitutes for wheat flour must be sold at not more than a reasonable profit over actual purchase price.

The above rule is now in effect, and the local food administrator has been directed to see that it is strictly enforced in order to prevent hoarding of flour.

J. J. Eimers,
 County Federal Food Administrator.

You Can Get a Gov.-Irrigated Farm in the Big Horn Basin if You Act Promptly

Uncle Sam built this irrigating system; he gives you the land and charges you only the actual cost of an ample and permanent water right. The mode of payment is nearly a gift—20 years' time, no interest; with three years' cultivation, these farms will be worth at least a hundred dollars an acre; excellent surroundings; on the Burlington's main line, near Deaver, Wyo.

The Big Horn Basin: Because of the rich oil discoveries, the great irrigated areas, the heavy alfalfa and grain production, beet sugar factories, oil refineries, growing population, the Big Horn Basin teems with prosperity and a rapidly increasing development.

Nebraska and Colorado Lands: For dairying, wheat raising, for livestock and general farming, these lands can be bought on good terms. They are cheap and should double in value, in the face of the world's demand for food stuffs.

Secure my services; they are free to you.
