WILD WASTE OF RAGING WATERS

Indiana and Ohio Valleys Swept by Floods.

DAMAGE WILL BE VERY HEAVY

TRAGIC FATE OF INDIANAPOLIS MAN AND WIFE.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—The ice in White river carried off a house boat occupied by John Schowe and wife and battered it to pieces. Mrs. Schowe was drowned and her body carried down the river. Schowe was thrown into the water when the house boat went to pieces and caught hold of bushes on a submerged island in the middle of the river, opposite the lower part of the city. In answer to his cries for help, Rollo Morrison started for the island through the ice with a boat. After an hour he reached him, but Schowe, crazed by the cold, fought him off. Morrison finally overpowered Schowe, tied him in the boat and started for shore. The crushing ice and struggles of the man threw Morrison out, and the boat went on down the river with Schowe tied to the bottom. Morrison was later rescued.

Peru, Ind., Jan. 22.—Many families have moved out of their homes or vacated the first floors on account of the high water and ice in the Wabash river, which rose five feet during the night, and is still rising. The record for twenty years is broken. The Howe factory has closed and 600 employes are idle.

It is feared the new $35,000 bridge of the Indianapolis-Northern Traction company will go out. It is now eight inches above water, with a sea of ice plunging and crashing against it. Preparations are being made to dynamite it if necessary to save other property. Railway traffic is interrupted, tracks for many miles being under water.

Logansport, Ind., Jan. 22.—The Eel and Wabash rivers have overflowed their banks as the result of the breaking up of the ice, and much property has been destroyed in this city and county. At the village of Georgetown, residents were rescued by boats. At Adamsboro a dam was swept away and much property was destroyed. Whole sections of Logansport have been flooded and many houses have been abandoned. The water is still rising and rain is still falling.

Wabash, Ind., Jan. 22.—The Wabash river has risen two feet since midnight, covering the lowlands of the city and closing three factories. Traction traffic has ceased. The high water record for many years is broken.

GREAT LOSS IN OHIO.

Rivers Out of Their Banks All Over the State.

Lorain, O., Jan. 22.—Great loss has been caused here by heavy rains. Two large steamers broke from their moorings today and now lie at the mouth of the river in a dangerous position. The Nickel Plate railroad bridge has been washed away and all traffic on the road is blocked.

The shipyards of the American Ship Building company are under water. Many small vessels have been wrecked. The Baltimore & Ohio railroad will be a heavy loser. Immense piles of timber are going down the river with the rush of ice.

Dayton, O., Jan. 22.—Wide sections of the Miami valley south of Dayton are inundated. Traction traffic between Dayton and Cincinnati has been suspended owing to damage to trestlework south of Franklin. The immense ice gorge north of Dayton broke away in time to prevent the flooding of the city. The Miami river is still rising, but unless heavy rains should continue no serious results are now anticipated in this immediate vicinity. Trains are delayed because of damaged roadbeds.

Columbus, O., Jan. 22.—The Scioto river has passed the danger line and now stands at seventeen and a half feet. The lowlands have been inundated and the levees are being closely watched to prevent the entire west side from being flooded. There is much uneasiness. No damage has as yet resulted from the ice going out of the river.

The electric street lamps were dark during the night, the electric company having raised their dynamos so as to be in advance of the danger line in case the levee breaks. They will be out of service until the danger is passed.

Cincinnati, Jan. 22.—The break-up of the ice gorges in the Ohio river at this point has been accomplished with comparatively small loss. So far few barges have been crushed and a few others torn from their moorings. This escape from heavy damage is largely due to the fortunate breaking of the gorge below the city first, and to the checking of the ice above the city, so that it did not really become entirely free until late in the night.

Piqua, O., Jan. 22.—The Miami river rose three and a half feet during the night and that section of the city known as Rossville is completely inundated. Hundreds of families have been driven from their homes.

Akron, O., Jan. 22.—Between here and Cleveland the tracks of the Cleveland branch of the Balimore & Ohio are under a foot of water and many factories have been forced to close.

Zanesville, O., Jan. 22.—The Licking and Muskingum rivers are rapidly rising. Roseville and Crooksville, in the southern part of the county, are partially submerged.

SNOW, SLEET AND RAIN.

Railway Traffic Demoralized in Province of Ontario.

Toronto, Ont., Jan. 22.—Snow, sleet and rain have completely demoralized railroad traffic all over the province. The Chicago express arrived today after spending fifteen hours in a snow bank near St. Mary's. No freight trains are moving and some of the passenger trains are cancelled. The Grand Trunk railway Montreal express is snowbound near Gananoque.

NO ELECTION.

Annapolis, Md., Jan. 22.—There was no material change in the ballot today for United States senator to succeed Mr. McComas.

SOCIALISM AND LABOR UNIONS

Notable Magazine Article Written by Senator Hanna.

WORK OF CIVIC FEDERATION

EVERY MAN SHOULD BE TREATED AS A MAN.

Boston, Jan. 22.—Senator Hanna contributes to the February number of the National Magazine of this city an article on "Socialism and the Labor Unions."

After expressing his belief in the power of education over the American people and declaring that the basis of right success is fairness and justice, Senator Hanna writes:

"There is no more engrossing question than that of the relation between labor and capital, which seems the paramount issue today. The instinct of working men to band together to protect themselves is no more to be wondered at than the same instinct on the part of capital. Now, my plan is to have organized union labor Americanized in the best sense and thoroughly educated to an understanding of its responsibilities, and in this way to make it the ally of the capitalist, rather than a foe with which to grapple.

"It is often asked what is to become of the non-organized consumer if an amicable alliance is made between labor and capital? But every man belongs to the one or the other group; for that matter, he is likely to belong to both.

Civic Federation.

"I took some time to consider the work of the civic federation, and am firmly convinced that it is the object to which I desire to consecrate the remaining years of my life. I fully appreciate that it is a long struggle, but the progress already made under the motto of the civic federation—the Golden Rule—has surpassed even my most sanguine expectations, and I am sure that the American people will sustain a policy based upon the highest moral and social impulse which will eliminate the passionate prejudices that now exist between capital and labor."

Discussing some of the objects of the civic federation, Senator Hanna writes:

Changed Conditions.

"Until within a comparatively few years big capitalists or the employing interests have had the advantage because there were more workmen than there was work. But conditions have changed, and for every workman, on an average, there are two jobs now in the heyday of our prosperity, and it is expecting too much of human nature to suppose that workingmen shall not desire a larger share of the profits. Has not this motive been the stimulating incentive of the men who are making business affairs? No one who is acquainted with union labor for the past five years can fail to recognize the wonderful advancement that has been made in conservative, cool-headed and thoroughly practical management of these matters by the workingmen themselves.

"Labor organizations may be open to sharp criticism at times, but it cannot be fairly stated that they are always wrong. If every man is treated as a man, and an appeal made to his heart as well as to his reason, it will establish a bond of confidence as a sure foundation to build upon. While labor unions may have been a curse to England, I believe that they will prove a boon to our own country when a proper basis of confidence and respect is established.

Menace of Socialism.

"The menace of today, as I view it, is the spread of a spirit of socialism, one of those things which is only half understood and is more or less used to inflame the popular mind against all individual initiative and personal energy, which has been the very essence of American progress. There is a spirit of co-operation or community of interests, which some people may confound with socialism, that is making headway with us; but when any one attempts, for political or financial reasons, to advocate the whole programme of European socialism, he will find little prospect of the seeds taking root in American soil. This, I think, was demonstrated very conclusively in the Ohio campaign, where higher socialism was brought forth as an issue.

Law of Fair Dealing.

"Fairness and prejudice will never agree to the confiscation of the products of one man's toil in order to insure comfort to the idle and worthless. No 'item' is wanted by the American people that will take from any citizen the just and equitable reward of his labor. Both capital and labor must yield in time to the great law of fair dealing, man to man. I wish I could impress upon every American the individual responsibility that rests upon each one of us. Every year of experience, every dollar of accumulated capital, every talent we possess should be regarded as a sacred charge for the good of the nation, to help in uniting the interests of rich and poor, learned and unlearned."

UNITED MINE WORKERS.

Per Capita Assessment For the Support of Strikers.

Indianapolis, Ind., Jan. 22.—At today's session of the United Mine Workers a memorial addressed to the American Federation of Labor requesting it to require legislation in all trades unions railing the "color line," was adopted. A resolution was adopted releasing locals from obligations to meet the taxation imposed by local central trade unions for support of general business agents which cannot act for the miners.

The members of the executive committee say the committee will levy on the entire membership an increased per capita strike assessment for the support and prosecution of the strikes in Colorado, West Virginia and in the Meyersdale district in Pennsylvania.

The socialists again made a determined effort today to inject socialism into the convention by a resolution for the appointment of times for the discussion of economic questions, and setting forth socialistic doctrines.

At the afternoon session the committee on officers' reports reported a concurrence in President Mitchell's recommendation that the organization endeavor to secure legislation prohibiting the employment of boys in mines under 16 years of age. An amendment was offered extending the employment of boys to "in and around mines." President Mitchell vigorously contested this amendment, because of his belief that the resolution might be deemed too stringent by the legislators and be declared unconstitutional. The amendment was defeated by a rising vote and the committee report was adopted.

TWO CABINET MEETINGS.

Washington, Jan. 22.—Morning and afternoon sessions of the cabinet were held today. In the absence of Secretaries Hay and Moody, no matters concerning the state or navy departments were considered. It can be said on authority that no action of serious importance was taken. It is likely during the session of congress that the president, on account of pressing engagements in the early part of the day, frequently will have the cabinet meetings in the afternoon.

PITTSBURG IN GREAT DANGER

People Preparing to Meet a Record-Breaking Flood.

ATLANTIC COAST ICEBOUND

LONG ISLAND SOUND BLANKETED IN FOG.

Pittsburg, Jan. 22.—Preparations to meet what may be the worst flood in Pittsburg's history are about complete. No flood ever gave more warning than the one that is now impending. Early yesterday river men and business men whose interests are along the river were warned that the long deferred January thaw was at hand. Many of the residents along the river front and the inhabitants of the lowlands have already deserted their homes, while the others have removed their household effects to upper floors. In the mills and factories every precaution has been taken. In some places furnace fires have been drawn and in all preparations were made to pump out the flywheel and engine pits. While many of the plants will be compelled to shut down, it is not likely that any great property loss will result.

In the local harbors the river men have everything snug and are ready for the worst.

The conditions are all favorable to unusually high water and possibly a record-breaking stage. The weather continues mild and rain is still falling, with the streams rising here and at all points between this city and the head waters of the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers. At Pittsburg the water is rising nearly one foot an hour and at this rate by evening the danger line will be reached. From all parts of the Pittsburg district the message came this morning that the ice was moving and it is now passing this city. So far no damage has been reported.

The Allegheny river ice came with a rush and there was little in its path to be carried out by the mad sweep of the current. The false work at the Brilliant cut-off bridge of the Pennsylvania railroad was swept away early today and a number of barges and rafts of lumber were carried off.

The outlook this afternoon was more encouraging. The rapid rise in the rivers had been checked to some extent and it is now thought the flood will not be a record-breaker.

Erie, Pa., Jan. 22.—Many business houses here are flooded and many streets are under water. Mill creek has not been higher since the big flood of 1893, when thousands of dollars' worth of property were destroyed. The snowfall has been the heaviest in twenty-five years.

NEW YORK BAY BLANKETED.

Scores of Vessels and Tugs Frozen in the Ice.

New York, Jan. 22.—Fog blanketed New York bay and harbor today. Long Island sound was impassable except to the most powerful steamers, scores of coastwise vessels and tugs were frozen fast in the ice, which filled both rivers and the harbor, and an ice pack in Newark harbor placed three cities and all the towns on the Passaic river below Passaic Falls in danger by flood, while one of the worst storms of the winter was still unspent. In this city sleet rendered walking dangerous for man or horse and many cases of serious injury were reported.

No vessels were reported as leaving quarantine and fog bells were kept ringing.

The sound was frozen or choked with ice as far as New Haven. Captain or seamen of nearly 100 small ice-locked vessels walked ashore at various points today to get supplies.

Today's rainfall is causing great dread in Paterson, Passaic, Newark and smaller towns nearby. As the water shed above Passaic Falls is frozen solid, all the precipitation must run into the river, and Newark bay is frozen so as to leave no outlet.

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 22.—Nearly twenty-four hours of rain, with over two feet of snow, has sent every river in western New York over its banks.

ARMSTRONG HANGED.

Repented of His Sins Before Being Swung Up.

Baker City, Ore., Jan. 22.—Pleasant Armstrong, who murdered Minnie Ensminger near Haines, in this county, on Christmas morning, 1902, was executed in the jail yard here this morning. The trap was sprung at 6:58 o'clock, and the doctors pronounced him dead nine minutes after the drop. His neck was broken by the fall. The execution was perfect as to detail. Armstrong was brave and maintained his iron nerve until the last. He made a brief address to the assembled crowd, saying that he was sorry for his crime, but that he was going to meet the girl, Minnie Ensminger. His last words were:

"I die in the faith of Christ and in the bosom of his true church. I sincerely repent of all my sins, especially of the great crime I must now suffer for. I humbly trust in the infinite mercy of Christ, my savior, who died for me. Into thy hands, oh, Lord, I commend my spirit."

At the close of his address he knelt and received the last sacrament of the Catholic church, administered by Father Olivetti, his confessor. He arose and stood firmly on the trap while the straps were adjusted.

Armstrong did not retire last night. He played his violin and received visitors until almost morning, when he received his confessor. He had breakfast shortly after 5 o'clock, eating a hearty meal.

SENATE WANTS INFORMATION

Gorman Resolution of Inquiry Adopted.

ANOTHER CHANCE TO DODGE

PRESIDENT ASKED TO EXPLAIN HIS ACTIONS.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The senate today adopted the resolution of inquiry concerning affairs in Panama introduced on the 5th inst. by Mr. Gorman. Following is the text of the Gorman resolution adopted:

Resolved, That the president be requested, if not in his judgment incompatible with public interest, to inform the senate:

First—The date when and the circumstances under which the United States for the first time and each succeeding time caused a military force in the international affairs of New Granada or Colombia, under the treaty of 1846; whether such use of military force was on the initiative of the United States or by the request of New Granada or Colombia, or in consequence of any official representation of either, and also to transmit to the senate copies of the letters or notes, in the department of state, and of the orders by the navy department relating to such use of military force.

Second—Also to inform the senate whether or not the United States has been asked by New Granada or Colombia, or any official representative of either, to execute, by armed force, either the guaranty of the neutrality of the isthmus or of the sovereignty of New Granada or Colombia over the same; and if the United States has been so asked, then the dates and circumstances thereof; and to send to the senate copies of the letters or notes in each case, conveying the application and what was done thereunder by the United States.

Third, and also to inform the senate in which, if any, of the disturbances on the isthmus of Panama referred to by the president in his last annual message, the United States used a military force solely on his own initiative, and uninvited by the government owning the isthmus, and also to inform the senate of the circumstances in each which required such use of military force and transmit copies of the orders issued by the navy department for such purpose.

Fourth, and also that he will inform the senate of the dates when and circumstances under which the United States has employed military force in the internal affairs of New Granada or Colombia, on account of any revolt or rebellion or disturbance of the people therein.

OHIO BANK WRECKED

Trusted Official Tries His Luck at Stock Gambling With the Usual Result.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 22.—The Produce Exchange Banking company, corner Broadway and Central avenue, closed its doors today. The insolvency court has appointed the Cleveland Trust company as receivers. The assets and liabilities of the bank are each placed at $1,500,000.

Attorney Andrew Squire, on behalf of the bank, made the following statement this afternoon:

"There has been a defalcation to the extent of $170,000. The defalcation is more than the paid-in capital and surplus combined. The original capital was $200,000, but only $50 per share was paid in. The depositors will be protected fully. The stockholders will have to pay in $100,000 more on their capital stock and $200,000 in stockholders' liability.

"The directors worked all day trying to make up the deficiency, but the burden was too heavy and they decided to close the bank.

"For many years the defaulting official has been speculating in Chicago grain. He covered his peculations by manipulating the bank's loan account. He voluntarily confessed yesterday. He will be taken into custody this afternoon. The directors know where he is."

It is announced that the branches of the Produce Exchange bank at Defiance, Hudson and Bedford, O., will be closed at once as a result of the failure.

An official of the bank is now under guard at his home. He will be taken before the grand jury tomorrow morning, and will, according to statements of other bank officials tonight, plead guilty to the charge of embezzlement. An indictment will be brought against him and the case hurried to trial. There is a great deal of uneasiness among the depositors, many of whom are small merchants, Italians and other nationalities, who sell fruit and vegetables from door to door, and who deposited their money in the Produce Exchange bank. It is said the irregularity has been going on for eight years.

Defiance, Ohio, Jan. 22.—A telegram was received today at the office of the Produce Exchange bank, a branch of the failed bank in Cleveland of the same name, ordering that the doors here be closed immediately. The cashier is in Ashland, Wis., on private business. The defiance bank has $200,000 deposits and aside from its connection with the Cleveland bank, was in good condition, according to local officials. The effect of the Defiance bank closing its doors will be bad, it is feared.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903: "Having been troubled with Lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and linaments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Linament, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

BLOOD POISON

On account of its frightful hideousness, Blood Poisoning is commonly called the King of All Diseases. It may be either hereditary or contracted. Once the system is tainted with it, the disease may manifest itself in the form of Scrofula, Eczema, Rheumatic Pains, Stiff or Swollen Joints, Eruptions or Copper-colored Spots on the Face or Body, little Ulcers in the Mouth or on the Tongue, Sore Throat, Swollen Tonsils, Falling out of the Hair or Eyebrows, and finally a Leprous-like Decay of the Flesh and Bones. If you have any of these or similar symptoms, get BROWN'S BLOOD CURE immediately. This treatment is practically the result of life work. It contains no dangerous drugs or injurious medicines of any kind. It goes to the very bottom of the disease and forces out every particle of impurity. Soon every sign and symptom disappears, completely and forever. The blood, the tissues, the flesh, the bones and the whole system are cleansed, purified and restored to perfect health, and the patient prepared anew for the duties and pleasures of life. BROWN'S BLOOD CURE, $2.00 a bottle, lasts a month. Made by DR. BROWN, 933 Arch street, Philadelphia. For sale in Salt Lake City only by F. C. Schramm, corner First South and Main streets.

CHILLS AND PNEUMONIA

MR. THOMAS R. ASHTON.

Chills are caused by a congested condition of the blood which very often comes from bad digestion and poor circulation. If not properly attended to, at once, pneumonia is liable to follow, and as soon as the lungs become affected there is great danger of the complication proving fatal.

Pneumonia first begins with a prolonged chill, and pain in the side. Headache, nausea, vomiting and convulsions very often show in children the first stages of pneumonia. The breathing becomes difficult and irregular, the cough is at first dry, but later accompanied by sticky phlegm streaked with blood, and the patient is completely exhausted. Pneumonia generally attacks those who have allowed their system to become weakened and run down,

CURED

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey enriches the blood, stimulates the circulation, replaces diseased tissue, aids digestion, drives out the disease germs and prevents chills and pneumonia. It enables one to get from food all the nourishment it contains; builds up the system, weakened from whatever cause; tones up the heart's action, invigorates and nourishes the entire body, and prevents dangerous complications. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is a promoter of health and longevity—makes the old young and keeps the young strong.

MR. CHARLES HEITMAN.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is the only certain cure for chills, pneumonia, coughs, colds, grip, influenza, catarrh, consumption, pleurisy, bronchitis, asthma and all diseases of throat and lungs; indigestion, dyspepsia and every form of stomach trouble, nervousness, malaria and all low fevers. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has carried the blessing of health into hundreds of thousands of homes during the last fifty years.

DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY

Is prescribed by over 7,000 doctors and used in more than 2,600 leading hospitals. It contains no fusel oil and is the only whiskey recognized by the Government as a medicine. This is a guarantee. The following letters are picked at random from among the many thousands we receive each week from grateful patients;

Hanging Between Life and Death With Pneumonia. Strong and Well Today, Thanks to Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey.

"Last April I was taken down with severe chills and a heavy cold which developed into pneumonia, and for several weeks I hung between life and death, having almost given up in despair. After trying several doctors with no results, my wife having heard of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, got a bottle, and before I had taken half of it I commenced to improve. After using three bottles I was entirely cured and am strong and well. We keep Duffy's in the house all the time now and use it as a general tonic and safeguard against sickness. Its effect is truly marvelous." Thomas R. Ashton, 515 Lenneri St., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Cured of Throat and Lung Trouble.

"I consider Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey one of the best medicines there is for anyone who is suffering from chills, pneumonia, grip, or any throat, lung or stomach trouble. I have used it successfully in all of them, and it has done more for me than any other medicine I ever used. It is an invaluable household remedy. I wish all who are sick would try it. If any readers doubt its merits will just write to me. I'll give them proof." Mrs. J. W. Powell, 605½ Clay St., Richmond, Va.

ABSOLUTELY PURE & UNADULTERATED TRADE MARK

CAUTION—When you ask for Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey be sure you get the genuine. Unscrupulous dealers, mindful of the excellence of this preparation, will try to sell you cheap imitations and malt whiskey substitutes, which are put on the market for profit only, and which, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand "Duffy's" and be sure you get it. It is the only absolutely pure Malt Whiskey which contains medicinal, health-giving qualities. Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is sold in sealed bottles only; never in flask or bulk. Look for the trade-mark, the "Old Chemist," on the label, and be certain the seal over the cork is unbroken. Beware of refilled bottles.

Pneumonia Cured,—Consumption Headed Off.

"Gentlemen: I am a living evidence of the wonderful curative powers of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey. I had three had attacks of grip, followed by pneumonia, which left me with a hard cough and weak lungs. Doctors did not help me; I was fast sinking into consumption. A neighbor brought me a bottle of Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey, which had cured her of chills. I began to feel better after the first few doses and eight bottles completely cured me."—Mrs. H. C. Allington, 74 Amherst St., Nashua, N. H.

Duffy's Brought Health and Vigor.

"I have used Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey for over twelve years as a medicine and recommend it to all who are suffering from a run-down condition. I was troubled for a long time with insomnia and stomach complaints. I went to Colorado and several health resorts without being benefited. I doctored for both these troubles but was not cured. Was just in the right condition for chills and pneumonia with fatal results. Finally I commenced to take Duffy's Malt Whiskey and it put new life and vigor into my whole system. Of late years I have slept well and my stomach does not trouble me at all. I am in robust health, and Duffy's cured me."—Charles Heitman, Stillwater, Minn.
