MISSION FURNITURE

THERE is a charm of beauty about this Mission Furniture that is indisputable—a charm that is fascinating in its effect and productive of a lasting admiration, which is enhanced by closer associations. A few odd pieces, or a room of Mission pieces, tends to make the home more inviting, and lends a tone of quaintness to its general arrangement. But there is more than alluring beauty to the Mission styles we show. Their rigidity of build spell much of service and satisfaction from a practical point of view. As to designs, we are exclusive, having late modificatiods of all old styles, and many new creations. Tables, Chairs, Rockers, Morris Chairs, Couches, Tabourettes, Hall Trees, Hall Clocks and Seats—a whole department full of Mission styles.

BEDDING.

No time nor painstaking. This department one of the most complete in the house. Of everything required to thoroughly dress the bed we can satisfy every demand. Cotton and Wool Blankets in all grades. Silkoline Covered Comforts, with sanitary cotton filling. Eiderdown Comforts with silk or satine covers. Colored and White Spreads, Sheeting and Pillowcases, Bolster Rolls, Pillows, all sizes, and the best Mattresses in the land.

CARPETS.

At all times our showing is composed of the newest patterns and most dependable weaves. Indeed, a more select line would be hard to find. New productions in Tapestries, Velvets, Axminsters, Body Brussels and Ingrains. A fine display of Floral and Oriental as well as the more conventional designs. All Carpets sewed, laid and lined free of charge.

New designs in room size Rugs, $12.00 to $60.00.

Draperies, Plush and Leather Portieres and Lace Curtains all in the Carpet Department.

Every housewife or prospective housewife should see our recently arrived Cathedral Oak, Weathered Oak, Turned Oak, Early English and Mahogany Dining Room Sets.

TRIB

Read what Judge A. I. Currey, a prominent judge of Baker City, Ore., says of "TRIB:"

"I have given your 'TRIB' a fair trial and followed directions fully, and now desire to tender you my unsolicited word as to its efficiency. Let me truthfully say that I feel entirely different in every way. It seems strange, indeed, to me to be ready and waiting for three square meals a day, good, sound, pleasant, refreshing sleep, no nervous nightmares and a degree of self-reliance that used to require more than one cocktail to induce. I did not take 'TRIB' from a moral standpoint, but it was a choice between liquor, the pine box and 'TRIB,' and 'TRIB' won out in a fair contest. I positively have no appetite for intoxicants, and to judge others by myself, anyone can derive the same benefit. 'TRIB' has made many happy homes."
