BATTLE LOSS HEAVY TO TURKS

Five Officers and Three Hundred Men Killed or Wounded at Kresna Pass and Six Hundred Dead at Kotcham.

FIGHT STILL GOING ON WITH THE INSURGENTS.

British Mediterranean Squadron at Isand of Crete Awaiting Balkan Developments—Sultan Playing a Game.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Sept. 24.—The attle of Kresna Pass, according to the latest advices received here, is still in progress. The insurgents are successfully holding strong positions, and their casualties are slight, only a score being killed or wounded, while the Turks, up to the present, have lost five officers and 320 men killed or wounded.

Part of the British Mediterranean squadron has arrived at Suda Bay, Island of Crete, and is held in readiness in case of developments in the Balkan situation. The vessels are said to be the British battleships Russell, Illustrious and Renown.

SOFIA, Sept. 24.—According to a telegram received here to-day from Kostendil, forty-three miles from Sofia six aundred Turks were killed in a fight at Kotchani Sept. 18. The Turkish force numgered 7,000. After the fight billaged and burned a number of Bulgarian villages.

FRANCE DOUBTS THE SULTAN'S SINCERITY.

PARIS, Sept. 24.—The French Foreign Office officials doubt the sincerity of the Porte's reply to the Bulgarian note, believing it is merely a manoeuvre to impress the powers with the idea that Turkey is doing her utmost to effect a settlement before going to war.

A similar impression seems to prevail at Sofia, since Bulgaria, in answering, requires Turkey to cease mobilizing, stop the massacres and withdraw her troops from near the frontier before she will consider the proposals.

RUSSIA BLAMES THE MACEDONIAN REBELS.

ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 24.—The Russian Government has issued an official note reiterating that the attitude of the powers in regard to the Austro-Russian reform scheme for Macedonia is unchanged, and that consequently neither Turkey nor Bulgaria can expect support from any quarter in the event of open or secret resistance to that scheme.

The Government, after pointing out that the suggested reforms were at the outset attended with good results, continues:

"These, however, did not satisfy the Macedonian committees which have sprung up in the Slav states. The probability which had become apparent that the Christian population would calm down under the influence of reforms deprived these committees of all favorable ground for the realization of their revolutionary plans.

"While proclaiming that their object was the protection of their co-religionists against Turkish oppression, these committees in reality seek to attain their selfish aim of modifying the administrative system in the province so as to convert it into a Bulgarian Macedonia, to the detriment of the rights and privileges of the other Christian peoples whose interest is equally dear to orthodox Russia.

"As the leaders found no support among the non-Bulgarian element in Macedonia they exerted themselves to raise a general insurrection by cruel outrages an dterrorism in order to hinder the introduction of the projected reforms. Unhappily, in spite of the precautions of the Sofia Government, the Macedonian agitation spread considerably in Bulgaria itself, finding support among those who mistakenly reckoned that the outbreak thus caused would compel Russia to alter her programme and proclaim herself the champion of the unrealizable plans of the leaders of the revolution."

ACCIDENTAL ASPHYXIATION.

James Doherty, Fifty Years Old, Found Dead in Bed.

With the gas turned on, evidently through an accident, James Doherty, fifty years old, was found dead in the house at No. 70 Bank street, this morning.

Doherty, who was single, had lived in the house for thirteen years. He came home last night at midnight and went to his room. This morning his body was found after he had been dead about an hour.

It was evident from the fact that the window was open a trifle and the crevices not closed, that he had turned the gas off and in some manner it had turned on about half way.

MAN'S BODY FOUND IN BAY.

Crew of Tugboat Make Discovery Near St. George, S. I.

The crew of the tugboat Walter Tracy found the body of a man floating down the bay off St. George, S. I., to-day. A red handkerchief was tied around the man's neck. He appeared to be about forty years old, 5 feet 9 inches in height, weighed about 175 pounds, had black mustache and dark hair and eyes. His clothes consisted of a dark coat and vest, dark trousers, light outing shirt, cotton underwear, black socks and oxford ties.

"DIED THREE HOURS AGO."

WILKEBARRE, Sept. 24.—James Dowling, a reporter on the Montreal Times and a husband of but six weeks, sat down at a telegraph key in Montreal last night and called up the Wilkesbarre operator.

"How is my wife to-night?" he asked over the wire.

"She died three hours ago," was the answer.

Mrs. Dowling was one of the Montre sisters playing with the Lafayette troupe which appeared here on Saturday night. She was taken ill after the performance and was hurried to the Mercy Hospital, where she died last night.

TRIED TO "SHAKE DOWN" A WOMAN

James Kennedy Arrested After He Had Impersonated an Officer at Third Avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-fiifth Street.

James Kennedy, nineteen, who said he was a fireman on the elevated railroad, living at No. 102 East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth street, was charged in Harlem Court to-day with havng attempted o "shake down" Mrs. Annie Jeffelson and her husband Otto, of No. 806 Elton avenue, for $5.

The Jeffelsons had been to a theatre and at One Hundred and Twenty-fifth street and Third avenue last night the husband went into a saloon for a moment, leaving his wife on the pavement. According to Mrs. Jeffelson Kennedy approached her and said she was under arrest. He ordered her to accompany him, she said, threatening to shoot her if she did not obey.

Mrs. Jefferson went with him for a short distance, when her husband caught up with them. Kennedy told him he, too, was arrested. Jefferson saw Policeman Reismeyer, of the East One Hundred and Twenty-sixth street station, and called to him He chased and captured Kennedy, who tried to run away.

According to the Jeffersons Kennedy offered to let them go for $5.

In court he was charged with disorderly conduct, and Magistrate Zeller upbraided him.

"You are a low down scoundrel," said the Magistrate. "A low, sneaking scoundrel This is a perfectly decent woman whom you have lied about. I will give you three months on the Island.

Kennedy was put under $300 bail for good behavior for three months

HAROLD RAYMOND DEAD.

Heart Disease Carries Off Well-Known Journalist.

Harold W. Raymond, a newspaper writer, forty-six years old, was found dead in his apartments in the West End, No. 53 Pineapple street, Brooklyn, shortly after midnight last night. He had been ill for the past few days and had been attended by Dr. Sharp, of South Oxford street. Heart disease caused his death.

Mr. Raymond was wel known in the newspaper business and had been connected with nearly all the metropolitan newspapers.

ARREST BEGGAR WORTH $40,000

Hobbles Into Essex Market Court on Crutches, but Throws Them Away When Threatened with Confinement on the Island.

William H. Vaughn, aged fifty-five, of No. 9 Chatham Square, was arraigned before Magistrate Barlow in the Essex Market Court to-day by Agent John E. Godfrey of the Charity Organization Society, on a charge of vagrancy and begging.

Godfrey sai dthat Vaughn, who is a big, husky fellow, with nothing in his appearance to suggest any real infirmity, is worth $40,00 in Brooklyn banks and real estate, yet he persists in begging.

He hobbled into court on crutches, but when Magistrate Barlow said he would send him to the island for six months, he threw away his crutches in a rage and walked to the jail without difficulty.

Vaughn, according to Godfrey, had long imposed upon the charity of the unsuspecting public. Sometimes he pretends to be blind, then lame and often deaf and dumb.

When Vaughn was arrested on a Houston street ferryboat yesterday he wore a sign on his breast announcing that he was deaf and dumb, while his crutches afforded another plea for charity.

Vaughn, it is said, was released only a few weeks ago after serving a six months' term in Kings County Penitentiary for begging in Brooklyn.

GIRL FALLS THREE STORIES.

Servant's Anxiety to Talk to Milkman May Prove Fatal.

In her eagerness to see her friend the milkman, Annie M. Bizik, a servant girl employed by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tuckman, of No. 1185 Lexington avenue, fell out the third-story window to-day and was probably fatally injured.

According to George B. Simons, of No. 259 East One Hundred and Eighteenth street, who was passing the house when the girl fell, she was leaning way out the window endeavoring to talk to the milkman, as he was driving along the street and turning the corner. In her efforts to urge her voice in the direction of the moving vehicle she leaned too far over the ledge and pitched head first to the pavement, three stories below.

She fell on her feet, breaking her right leg in two places and her left leg in one. She received several bad scalp wounds and internal injuries. At the Presbyterian Hospital little hope is entertained of her recovery.

"The Madness of Much Money"

The Amazing Eccentricities into which the glamour of much and sudden money betrays mankind are cleverly ridiculed by ALFRED HENRY LEWIS in the October number of Everybody's Magazine.

"The Unwilling Animals of the Barn-Yard Are Made to Mingle Sorrowfully with Their Brethren of the Drawing-Rooms."—From the "Madness of Much Money."

No dull or mawkish fiction in Everybody's—stories full of gayety and action may be found therein: For instance, "The Lotus and the Cockleburrs," by O. HENRY, and "The Call of the Mountains," by ALBERT BIGELOW PAINE. There's a character study of "Henry Labouchere, Editor of London Truth," by T. P. O'CONNOR, and a very frank explanation of Chicago by WILL PAYNE, the novelist.
